THE BLOOMING BRIDE, and few years soo in the flush of health and youth, and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, sallow, deblintated wife, with frame emaciated, nerves unstrung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the impress of suffering, and an utter physical and mental prostration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and planiest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which entails disease, ruffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often HEREDITARY COMPLAINTS UPON THE CHILDREN TINTO THE THIRD AND POURTH GENERATION.

The remedy is by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and knowing the remedies, and benefiting by them. These are pointed out in

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION,

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, PROFESSOR OF DESCRIPTION OF WOMEN.

One Hundredth Edition, (500,000), 18mo., pp. 250. A standard work of established reputation, found classed the catalogues of the great trade sales in New York, initial-pits, and other cities, and sold by the principal obsullers in the United States. It was first published.

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL. attenting the high estimation in which it is held as a re BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands both in person and by letter.

Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forbids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such inwhich otherwise would occasion anxiety or slarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described. How many are suffering from obstructions or irregular ities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignerant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice Many suffering from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluor allow (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are In constant agony for many months preceding confinenent. Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are hazarded during such time, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief. It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or a nother? Have you the sincers welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time t learning what causes interfere with their health and happiness not less than your own. It will avoid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and mind for its ordinary avocation, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advertise postrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of age and the proper education of vour children.

The AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS is an absolute corrective of all these injurious properties of bad water, and consequently prevents the diseases which they occasion. It is also found to be a cure and preventive of Feneral Ague, a complaint caused by the conjoint effects of vegetable malaria in the atmosphere, and vegetable putresences in the waters of those districts in which it principally prevails. The AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHINAPPS is consequently in great demand by persons travelling, or about to settle in those parts of the country especially; as well as by many in every community where it has become known, on account of its various other remedial properties. More than three thousand physicians, among whom are numbered the greatest names belonging to the faculty of medicine in this country, have certified, over their own signatures, to the valuable medicinal properties of such an article, as the severest tests have proved the SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS to be, and have accepted it as a most desirable addition to the materia medica.

rrom A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn. Universi-y, Philadelphia.—It gives me pleasure to add my estimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of disease of the Gental Organs, some of them of long standing, have came under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfe his skill has been mannest in resulting to perfect health, in cases where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Seminal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by self-abuse, or excess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession. I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and don't have the profession of the profe and deem it no more than justice to him as well as kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiskindness to the unfortunate victim of early indis-cretion, to recommend him as one in whose pro-fessional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of th-various complaints treated of, and, with too little breath to puff, and too little presumption to im-pose, he has offered to the world, at the merely ominal price of 25 cents, the fruit of some twent ears' most successful practice."-Herald. years' most successful practice."—Herald.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicing reat and wouderful virtues have been found in It that I hat awful inalady—there are but Jew who have seen more fit than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged peo-le cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick leadache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pain in he side, Diseases of the Spino, and particularly in diseases of the Kldneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than my medicine ever known.
