STARTLING, BUT TRUE

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW.

How often it happens, that the wife lingers from year to year in that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhilarating influence incident to the enjoyment of health

THE BLOOMING BRIDE,

But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth, and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, sallow, debilitated wife, with frame emaciated, nerves unstrung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the impress of suffering, and an utter physical and mental prostration, arising from ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often

The remedy is by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and knowing the remedies, and benefiting by them. These are pointed out in

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION,

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU,

PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN.

One Hundredth Edition, (500,000), 18*mo., pp.* 250.

[ON FINE PAPER, EXTRA BINDING, $1.00.]

A standard work of established reputation, found classed in the catalogues of the great trade sales in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal booksellers in the United States. It was first published in 1847, since which time

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES

have been sold, of which there were upwards of

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL,

attesting the high estimation in which it is held as a reliable popular Medical

BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE

the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands both in person and by letter.

Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints.

The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forbids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described.

How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many suffering from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluor albus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement. Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are hazarded during such time, will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married of those contemplating marriage.

Reader, are you a husband or a father? a wife or a mother? Have you the sincere welfare of those you love at heart? Prove your sincerity, and lose no time in learning what causes interfere with their health and happiness not less than your own. It will avail to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and anxiety, followed by sleepless nights, incapacitating the mind for its ordinary avocation, and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advertised nostrums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of age and the proper education of your children.

In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, as evidenced by its extraordinary sale, various impositions have been attempted, as well on booksellers as on the public, by imitations of title page, spurious editions, and surreptitious infringements of copyright, and other devices and deceptions, it has been found necessary, therefore, to ☞ Card.—DR. S. WELCHENS respectfully announces to his friends and the public generally, that he has purchased the entire stock and interest of the Drug and Medicine Store, formerly owned by Dr. Ziegler, in North Queen street, directly opposite the Franklin House.

In combining the Drug business with the practice of Dentistry, it is not his design to have one interfere with the general interests of the other; but by the employment of a careful and judicious hand, he feels that a superintendence of the interests of the store can be rendered, and yet the practice of his profession strictly attended to in all its details.

He would therefore solicit a continuance of the liberal patronage the store has heretofore had, and respectfully asks those of his friends in the city and county of Lancaster, who may want Drugs or Medicines, to call. It is his design to keep a large and well selected assortment of Drugs and Chymicals of every description, and warranted to be of the very best the market can afford.

Arthur's Patent Air-Tight, Self-Sealing Cans and Jars.—For Preserving Fresh Fruit and Vegetables. These Cans and Jars are constructed with a channel around the mouth, near the top, into which the cover fits loosely. This channel is filled with a very adhesive cement, prepared for the purpose, and allowed to harden. In order to seal the vessel hermetically, it is only necessary to heat the cover slightly and press it into place. It may be opened with as much ease as it is closed, by slightly warming the top. The ordinary tin cans, used for the same purpose for which this is intended, cannot be closed as is well known, without the aid of a tinner; are difficult to open, and are generally so much injured in opening as to be useless for future service.

By this simple contrivance, the process of hermetical sealing is placed conveniently within the reach of every individual: and fruit, vegetables and butter (if properly prepared) may be kept, with their natural flavor unimpaired, for an indefinite length of time. These vessels were thoroughly tested during the past summer, and their contents, after the loose of months, found unchanged.—Directions for sealing and and unsealing, and also for putting up fruit, tomatoes, &c., accompany these vessels.

All kinds of stewed fruit may also be kept in them. It will only be necessary to stew the fruit as for the table adding the amount of sugar required to make it palatable, fill up the vessel with the hot fruit, and seal it at once. All ripe fruits preserved in this way, will be found as fresh in the winter season, as if just taken from the tree and stewed. How economical a luxury this will prove, needs scarcely to be suggested.

☞ These cans and jars are all prepared for sealing.—The housekeeper has only to heat the lid and press it into its place.

Prices.—Pint $2 per dozen; quart $2 50; half gallon $3 50, gallon $5 a dozen. Self-sealing Glass Jars $2 50 a dozen for quart size, and $2 a dozen for pints. The different size cans nest, so as to secure economy in transportation.

Manufactured and sold by

ARTHUR, BURNHAM & CO.,

No 60 South Tenth st., Philadelphia.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

Dr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury has discovered, in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,

from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases, both tinder thumbs.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth. One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of Pimples in the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of Biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth or stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the Eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly corruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt heum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case.—Some as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it, but that sold another; after a trial it always speak for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise, and great popularity of Dock Discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in the business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy if it prove effectual in all cases of bad awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pain in he side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you get and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults one table spoonful per day —Children over ten years dessert spoonful. Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Spring and Summer Clothing.—Short Coats with long sleeves, long sleeves and short Coats. PANTALOONS that have actually got legs to them, but there appears to be no allowance for any other convenience.—VESTS that positively have holes where the arms may rest at ease, but no danger of chafing the goods, as the muslin of the back extends sufficiently into the body to supply the deficiency of material. Gentlemen who are in want of clothing had better inquire before they buy of those who are not mechanics. Some men follow a trade they never learned. They cannot feel the Mechanic's honest pride and high ambition to excel in his legitimate business. Every point in his own trade is the old adage. The Clothing business in particular, is beset with individuals who were formerly Merchants, Doctors, Tinkers and traders, who are now following a trade they never learned. We always feel happy when we see the Mechanic raise himself superior to those Vandals in business. The extensive business done at the

this season is particularly gratifying because the Proprietor (JOSEPH GOEHLEY) is not only a Gentleman, but a Mechanic, who has risen to the highest point of fame, always maintaining his reputation for the manufacture of superior clothing on the principle of large sales and small profits. We recommend all in want of good and cheap clothing to the Clothing House of JOSEPH GOEHLEY, in N. Queen street, No. 53 opposite the Franklin House, Reuben Weidler's. LANCASTER CLOTHING BAZAAR.

Spring and Summer Clothing.—Short Coats with long sleeves, long sleeves and short Coats. PANTALOONS that have actually got legs to them, but there appears to be no allowance for any other convenience.—VESTS that positively have holes where the arms may rest at ease, but no danger of chafing the goods, as the muslin of the back extends sufficiently into the body to supply the deficiency of material. Gentlemen who are in want of clothing had better inquire before they buy of those who are not mechanics. Some men follow a trade they never learned. They cannot feel the Mechanic's honest pride and high ambition to excel in his legitimate business. Every point in his own trade is the old adage. The Clothing business in particular, is beset with individuals who were formerly Merchants, Doctors, Tinkers and traders, who are now following a trade they never learned. We always feel happy when we see the Mechanic raise himself superior to those Vandals in business. The extensive business done at the

this season is particularly gratifying because the Proprietor (JOSEPH GOEHLEY) is not only a Gentleman, but a Mechanic, who has risen to the highest point of fame, always maintaining his reputation for the manufacture of superior clothing on the principle of large sales and small profits. We recommend all in want of good and cheap clothing to the Clothing House of JOSEPH GOEHLEY, in N. Queen street, No. 53 opposite the Franklin House, Reuben Weidler's. LANCASTER CLOTHING BAZAAR.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

Dr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury has discovered, in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,

from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple.

He has tried it in over 1100 cases, and never failed except in two cases, both tinder thumbs.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth. One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of Pimples in the face.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the Eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly corruption of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the salt heum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case.—As sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it, but that sold another; after a trial it always speak for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise, and great popularity of Dock Discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in the business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy if it prove effectual in all cases of bad awful malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pain in he side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.

No change of diet ever necessary—eat the best you get and enough of it.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults one table spoonful per day —Children over ten years dessert spoonful. Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.
