A REAL PROPERTY OF THE REAL

By the subjoined card which we copy from the "Lancasterian" of Wednesday last, it will be seen that that paper, per se, has ceased to exist-having been transferred to us by Mr. Wiley. The consolidated paper will from henceforth be issued under the title of the "INTELLIGENCER & LANCASTERIAN," and we claim for it the liberal support of the Democracy of Lancaster county. It has long been apparent to every reflecting mind that, in order to accomplish anything in this heretoforestrong Whig county, the Democracy should be united, and have but one organ through which to express their sentiments and enunciate their principles. This is now done. We have nurchased the "Lancasterian," and throw ourself upon the united Democracy of the county to sustain us in the undertaking.

In conducting the paper, it will be our aim to harmonize and consolidate, so far as in our power, the Democratic party of the county. Democrats may differ about men before a nomination, and have a perfect right to express their preferences frankly and freelybut after the will of the majority is known, the minority are expected to yield the point and unite heartily and zealously with their brethren in furthering the glorious cause of Democracy by sustaining the nominees of the party. To our brethren who have heretfore differed with us in opinion about men, but who have nevertheless acted the part of honest Democrats and "showed their faith by their works," we extend the right hand of fellow_ ship, and trust that, hereafter, we shall be found standing shoulder to shoulder battling against the common foe, and warring against Abolitionism, Know-Nothingism, and all the other isms of the day. So far at least as we are concerned, we are perfectly willing to let "by gones be bygones," and promise that we shall treat every good Democrat fairly in the future, no matter what our differences may have been in the past. But with traitors and disorganizers, if any such should arise in our midst to disturb the harmony of the party, we shall war an uncompromising warfare, and shall only cease our efforts when the necessity for so doing no longer exists.

With these remarks, thrown together in haste and in the midst of the excitement growing out of the recent election, we knach our bark upon the waters, and shall endeavor to hold the helm with a steady hand.

Glorious	Results!

The Election.

Enough returns have already been received Arrival of the Canada - One Week Later from to warrant us in stating shat ARNOLD PLUMER is elected by an overwhelming majority over Nicholson, candidate of the Whigs, Know-Nothings, Abolitionists, Free-Soilers, and prohibitionists. In another column we publish the vote in the different Counties, as far as re-

To the Patrons of the Lancasterian. For the past year, I have desired an opportunity to relinquish the publication of a po ical newspaper, and devote my time to a pursuit more congenial to my tastes. No fitting opportunity to do so, however, presented it-self until the present time. It now becomes necessary to announce to my patrons that I have this day disposed of the subscription lis and good will of the Lancasterian to Capt. GEO. SANDERSON, of the Lancaster Intelligen and that hereafter that paper will be published under the title of the Intelligencer and Lan casterian. I have been assured that under the control of the new editor, the paper will be conducted in such a manner as to render entire satisfaction to the whole Democracy of the county ; and I bespeak for it a continuance of the pat-ronage which has been, for the past three years and a half, so generously conferred upon the Lancasterian. The paper,—the Intelligencer and Lances-terian,—will be the only Democratic journal in Lancaster co., and the Democracy owe it to emselves to give it such a support as will not only make it an efficient worker in the good cause, but repay the editor for the labor which he will necessarily have to perform in catering for its readers.

Those persons who have paid in advance will receive the Intelligencer and Lancasterian for the full term for which they have paid and those who have not, will be charged $1. WM. B. WILEY.

> Lancaster City Redgemed ! THE COUNTY NEARLY SO !

The old City, which gave Pollock last yea a majority of 598, has again righted herself. and now gives a majority for PLUMER of 220 votes. Know-Nothingism is dead and buried in the city of Lancaster-and next Spring will see a Democratic Mayor and a Democratic Council take the place of the present incumhents.

The County also is partially redeemed. We have elected on the ticket two members of Assembly, the County Treasurer, and the two Prison Inspectors, and came within sixtyseven votes of electing the County Commissioner. The Know-Nothings elected the balance of the ticket by small majorities. The Democracy have taken the cream, and left the skin milk for the Nichts Wissers.

Another trial, and the old County will be thoroughly redaemed from the clutches of the dark lantern party.

Messre. BRUSH and REINHOLD who have been elected to the Legislature, are sound and reliable Democrats, in whose integrity of character their constituents may place the most implicit reliance. They are worthy Representatives of the Democracy of Lancaster county, and will, with unwavering fidelity, carry out the wishes of the people.

Charles M. Howell.

The election of this gentleman to the Coun ty Treasuryship, is a glorious triumph for the Democracy of the County, and no more desir ving or competent man could have been se lected for that responsible station. We give our friend joy of his good luck.

Had 500 more Democratic votes beer polled in the county on Tuesday last, our whole ticket would have been elacted from top to bottom. We have at least 1500 more true Democrats in the county than attended the election. Had the absentees all turned out, as was their duty, the ticket would have been elected by a large majority. It is doubly mortifying to have a victory thus placed within our grasp, and we refuse to reach forth the hand and take the prize. But, there is no use in indulging in regrets, now that the thing is over. We hope that our Democratic friends portunity offers.

For the excellent run made in this ounty for Mr. PLUMER, the Democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner, we are indebted to some extent to many patriotic, Unionoving Whigs, who were not willing to be sold to the Abolitionists. These men are now with us, heart and soul, and will more than make up for the treachery and apostacy of hose professing Democrats who have went over to the Kriow-Nothing Abolition party .---The exchange is a good one for the Democratic party, and it will now become stronger and nore healthy than it has been in Lancaster county for this last twenty-five years. Our partial success at this time, is only the precursor of the fuller and more glorious triumph which ares its us at the next trial of strength. Lancaster county will be Democratic at the received in the County. next Presidential election. Mark the prediction. It would have been so now by one thousand majority, could we only have induced our friends to turn out in their strength on Tuesday last.

Amongst those who did good service r, the cause of Democracy in this City, in the would have been elected from top to bottom recent campaign, were George M. Steinman, Samuel H. Reynolds and W. F. S. Warren. Esors. The speeches of the segentlemen were truly able, eloquent and convincing, and could not fail to have a salutary effect upon the result of the election here. Mr. Reynolds has but recently come amongst us from Centre | They could not trust-not they-the Demo-County, and already, by his talents and eloquence, has made a favorable impression on stood "fair and square" upon the platform the public mind.

We perceive by the last number of the "Patriot and Union," at Harrisburg, that our friend J. G. L. BROWN, Esq., of Columbia, has become part owner and proprietor with Mr. Hopkins. Mr. B. is a young gentleman of excellent attainments, a good writer, sound lemocrat, of first-rate business habits, and in every respect worthy the confidence of the Denocracy of Pennsylvania. The paper will enceforth be published by Messrs. Hopkins Brown, and we wish them abundant success politically and pecuniarily in the undertaking.

But. besides these gratifying results, we have elected a sound, orthodox legislature, who will return to the United States Sonate a constitutional democrat, and who will purge our records from the stain of profligacy and fraud inflicted upon them by the know oth ings and abolitionists. This will be a democratic gain, and will add one more to the fearess hand of men who stand in the Senate a wall of adamant around a beleaguered const tution Pennsylvania will send a man to that high position who will be able to tell the country how true she is to all her duties as a ember of the American Union. The type of know-nothingism which we ave, as we believe, effectually eradicated in his State was of the most malignant character; much more so than we were prepared for. The lodges of the secret order will hereafter be filled with howling and with cursing, and vill be deserted by crowds of disenchanted dherents.

At this writing it looks as if the majority for Hon. Arnold Plumer, our candidate for canal commissioner, would be large. But you must recollect that the combination heat our intrepid Governor Bigler last year by 37, 000 votes, and that this must be overcome.-This has already been effected by known r sults. J. F. W.

505 We return our sincere thanks to the honest and true-hearted Democracy of the City and County, who so gallantly stood by us on Tuesday last. We were made the target against whom all the shafts of the enemy of course, would be likely to suffer some in consequence. But, notwithstanding we share the fate of a majority of our ticket and are elected to stay at home, we feel proud of the vote we

The vote in the County was a very small one-in some districts not much over half the Democratic vote being polled—but the ticket, as a whole, made a good run, and, had it not

Minor Usurpations of the Federal Government. The Winter of the Heart. LIABILITY OF BANKS .- The liability of a Bank in paying a forged check upon it has been established by the Courts of both England and the United States. The rule established is to this effect :--- If a Bank pay a check with a forged signature, it cannot afterward recover the amount from the endorser or from the party to whom it may have been payed, although the latter may be able to sustain the loss. The Bank is bound to know the signature of its customers, and cannot recover the amount paid on a forged check unless there be collusion between the parties to the check, or unless the Bank obtain (as THE LADIES' NATIONAL MAGAZINE, Publish it should) whenever there is any doubt as to the genuineness of the signatures, a guarantee from the payas. delphia. The November number is beautifully smbellished, as usual, and its reading matter is such as cannot fail to please its numerous readers.
