Hero every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to he future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness for bids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or slarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described. How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the

I never sold a bottle of it, but that soid another; after a trial it always speak for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising; first that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its rathe has nover been known until I discovered it in 1846—second that it should cure all kinds of humor. Testimony of the Professor of Obstetrics in Penn College, Philadelphia.—Dr. Hunter's Medical Manual.—The author of this work, unlike the majority of those who advertise to cure the disease of which it treats is a graduate of one of the best Colleges in the United Stetes. It affords me pleasure to recommend him to the unfortunate, or to the victim of malpractice, as a successful and experienced oractitioner, in whose honor and integrity they may practitioner, in whose honor and integrity they may place the greatest confidence.

Jos. S. Longshore, M. D.

From A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn. University, Philadelphia.—It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of disasse of the Gental Organs, some of them of long standing, have came under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health, in cases where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Sem ered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Seufinal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by self-abuse, or excess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession. ALFRED WOODWARD, M. D. "This is without exception, the most comprehensive and intelligent work published on the class of diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all techof diseases of which it rease. Avoiding an icen-nical terms, it addresses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent, however fastidious, can object to placing it into the hands of his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and, with too little breath to puff, and too little presumption to impose, he has offered to the world, at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruit of some twenty nominal price of 25 cents, the truit of some twenty years' most successful practice,"—Herald.

"No teacher or parent should be without the knowledge imparted in this invaluable work. It would save years of pain, mortification and sorrow to the youth under their charge."—People's Advo-

A Presbyterian elergyman in Ohio, writing of ellunter's Medical Manual? says:— Thousands upon thousands of our youth, by evil example and influence of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollution, without realizing the single category. and fearful consequences upon themselves and their posterity. The constitution of thousands who are raising families have been enfeebled, if not bro ken down, and they do not know the cause or the cure. Anything that can be done so to enlighten and influence the public mind as to check, and ultimately to remove this wide-spread source of hug nan wretchedness, would confer the greatest blesing next to the religion of Jesus Christ, on the present and coming generations. Intemperance (or the use of intoxicating drinks) though it has slain housands, is not a greater scourge to the human ace.
