indard work of established reputation, found classed catalogues of the great trade sales in New York, lipits, and other cities, and sold by the principal lers in the United States. It was first published, since which time

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES en sold, of which there were upwards of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL. attesting the high estimation in which it is held as a re-BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the restment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands both in person und by letter.

Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, anses of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints. The wife about becoming a mother has often need of struction and advice of the utmost importance to he future health, in respect to which her sensitiveness forconsulting a medical gentleman, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms hich otherwise would occasion anxiety or slarm as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described. How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularties peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice. Many suffering from prolapsus uters (falling of the womb), or from fluor albus (weakness, debflity, &c.) Many are constant agony for many months preceding confine ent. Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are zarded during such time, will each find in its pages the ans of prevention, amelioration and relief.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various bjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage Render, are you a husband or a father? a wife or other? Have you the sincere welfare of those yeu love heart? Provo your sincerity, and lose no time in arning what causes interfere with their health and hapers not less than your own. It will avoid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and xicty, followed by sleepless nights, incapacitating the mind for its ordinary avocation, and exhausting those cans for medical attendance, medicines and advertised strums which otherwise would provide for declining years, the intimities of age and the proper education of our children. In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, is evidenced by its extraordinary sale, various impositions have been attempted, as well on booksellers as on he public, by imitations of title page, spurious editions, and surreptitious infringements of copyright, and other levices and deceptions, it has been found necessary. herefore, to

Containing an outline of the origin, progress, treatment and cure of every form of disease contracted by promiscnous sexual intercourse, by self-abuse or by sexual excess, with advice for their prevention, written in a familiar style avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of decency; with an outline of complaints incident to Females, from the result of complaints incident to Females, from the result of complaints incident to Females, from the result of some twenty years' successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of diseases of a delicate or private nature.

To which is added receipts for the cure of the above diseases, and a treatise on the cause, symptoms and cure of the fever and ague.

Testimony of the Professor of Obstetrics in Penn College, Philadelphia,—Dr. Hunter's Medical Manual.—The author of this work, unlike the majority of those who advertise to cure the disease of which it treats is a graduate of one of the best Colleges in the United Stetes. It affords me pleasure to recommend him to the unfortunate, or to the victim of maloractice, as a successful and experienced of malpractice, as a successful and experienced practitioner, in whose honor and integrity they may place the greatest confidence.

Jos. S. Longshore, M. D.

From A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn. Universiy, Philadelphia.—It gives me pleasure to add my estimony to the professional ability of the Author f the "Medical Manual." Numerous cases of disease of the Gental Organs, some of them of long standing, have came under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfec-health, in cases where the patient has been consid-ered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Sem nal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by sell-abuse, or excess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession. I hav been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as cindness to the unfortunate victim of early indisretion, to recommend him as one in whose procretion, to recommend him as one in whose pro-fessional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves. ALFRED WOODWARD, M. D. "This is without exception, the most compre-hensive and intelligent work published on the class" of diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all technical terms, it addresses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent, however fastidious, can object to placing it into the hands of his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and, with too little breath to auff and too little present to auff breath to puff, and too little presumption to imnominal price of 25 cents, the fruit of some twenty years' most successful practice."—Herald.
"No teacher or parent should be without the knowledge imparted in this invaluable work. It vould save years of pain, mortification and sorrow to the youth under their charge."--People's Advoto the youth under their charge."—People's Advo-cate.

A Presbyterian clergyman in Ohio, writing of "Ilunter's Medical Manual" says:—" Thousands upon thousands of our youth, by evil example and influence of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollution, without realizing the sin and fearful consequences upon themselves and their posterity. The constitution of thousands who are raising families have been enfeebled, if not bro ken down, and they do not know the cause or the cen down, and they do not know the cause or the ure. Anything that can be done so to enlighten and influence the public mind as to check, and ultimately to remove this wide-spread source of his man wretchedness, would confor the greatest blessing next to the religion of Josus Christ, on the sing next to the religion of Jesus Christ, on the present and coming generations. Intemperance (or the use of intoxicating drinks) though it has slain thousands, is not a greater scourge to the human race. Accept my thanks on behalf of the afflicted, and, believe me, your co-worker in the good work you are so actively engaged in."
