On Saturday night another wind storm passed over the city, doing very little dam-age, however, sare to window shutters, awnings, &c. Yesterday and to-day is very cold, and we may safely asy dreary winter has at last arrived. In the Missusippi, opposite our city, a great deal of ice is fidating-coming from the various streams emptying into it subve- and the probability is, nargitation will be suspended in a few days. Business has become very dull, and many of our merchants have gone to the eastern cities to purchase their spring supplies. The produce market is extremely dull, and aimost every atticle has met a material decline. The whole number of Hogs packed at this point up to the pre-ent time is about 25,000 head. Packers are now of-fering 536,22, and very few have been purchased at higher figures during the week. To-morow will be Onristmas. Great preparations are being made to celebrato the day in a becoming manner. The "little ones" are lengthoning out their stockings, to their numost capacity, by way of making ample room for the many "good things" in drissed, and mince pies prepared for a greand family dinner; everything indicates a pleasant and happy time. cepted of but tour ! The picture which I drew last week of crime in St Louis, I thought to suffice for some time, but the hand of the murderer has again been at work, and one crime after another has followed in rapid suc-certain A UDITOR'S NOTICE. The fullectibers, ap-pointed Auditors to distribute the balance remaining in the hands of Christian Stayman, Executor of Magdalena Yeager, dec'd, will meet for that purpose on Thursday the 3d day of January, 1860, at the Library Room in the Court House, in the city of Lancaster, at 2 Octock, P. M. and the terms of sale will be reasonable and accommoda-ting. There are very few farms in this county, or elsewhere, possessing so many advantages as to soil, water, location, health and convenience, and, perhaps, there is none of equal merit in the market. For further particulars and terms of sale, apply to Samuel L. Carpenter, Esq. GredBaburg, and any person wishing to examine the premises, can call with Mr. Samuel McKeeven, who resides thereon. If the above is not sold before the 10th day of January parts, it will be exposed on that day, (Wednesday, the 16th day of January, at public outcry upon the premises, when due attention will be given, and terms made known by dec 11 of 47 CONTEND. Thereare, Barner Allenica Charge Mustard hand of the minderer has again been at work, and one crime after another has followed in rapid suc-cetsion. A German cigar-maker, by the name of Dicka-halde, was shot a few days since by his room mate, Tennehic. No cause is assigned for the act. The minderer is at large. Mr. R. G. Watson, of New Madrid county, was uprdered at his residence by two men, named Phil-ips and Dr. Ross. The origin of the difficulty ap-pears to have been in a suit at law, relative to a rood running through Watson's land. The parties are said to be among the most prominent citizens of that section—Watson being estimated to be worth over silo0,000, and the othor two men in good and comfortable circumstances. A reward of $3,000 is offered for the apprehension of Philips and Ross, and much excitament prevails in that locality. MoKewan and Robinson charged with the murder of Cassey, the stoward of the New York Dining Sa-loon, wore, after an examination, discharged, there not being evidence sufficient to convict them of the erime. The testimony elicited in the case went to show that the accused acted in self defence. I mentioned in my last that a man calling himself paviat of jewelry. This property since which has heen claimed by Mr. Speers, of Chicago, and upon his arrival here, at once recognized the man Davis, as a Mr. Ilekox, a brothor to ay young man in his employ. It appears that at different times goods where missing to the amount of $10,000, but he never thought of suspicioning Hickox. The young man in his employ stole the jewelry from him, and then de-cimped, leaving the articles in the hands of his prother to be disposed of, and in whose possession the were recovered. The prisoner was taken to Chicago, and committed for that. Quite an interesting incidents. It seems that about four years ago she lived at Madison, Iad, and was pledged to a young man in marriage, and one day the two proceeded to Cincinnati for that pur-phes, when there, the young man in marriage, and one day the two proceeded to Cincinnati for that pur-din th 25Calous and Work Boxes, some beautiful articles in thi line for the Ladies. She again returned to her home at Madison, but her parents would not receive her in their house, giving as a reason that she had diggraced them and herself-that she was ruined, dc., and all that the poor girl could do or any to prove her innocence would not aller their predetermination; she was driven from the house and forbid ever entering it again. She was now without money and without friends, and her only alternative was to assume the male attire and seek employment as such. She procured the sult and in a short time obtained a situation as cab-in-boy on a steamboat. In this capacity she contin-uel undiscovered for about a year, when she was made steward and finally second-clerk, in all of which positions she acquited herself to the satisfac-tioh of her employers. Bo arrives at the truth. Judge the future by the past, and then what will this land be? It is proper that reason should give the answer. The Sunbury and Erie Railroad, of which Gov. Bigler is President, and which connects this land with the Lakes and Philadelphia, and the Alleghany Valley Railroad, of which Gov. Johnson is President, connecting this land with Pittsburg, are in rapid course of completion, and upon a great extent the locomotives are running. The reflections which suggest themselves upon this subject are these. It takes two hundred weeks to pay for the farms. They will be distributed when they are half paid for. By that takes two hundred weeks to pay for the farms. They will be distributed when they are half paid for. By that time the railroads will be finished. That will be early enough for all practical purposes. The advantage of buying it before their completion is order that such a price as would make it impossible to obtain for agricultural purposes. We now get it without paying the liab and the a limproved price, and the stockholders will enjoy the rise. A tract of about the pring. In order that parsons who wish to farm immediately ran dis subse having more than one share can have their farms together. An inprovement department will also be connected with the company. By this means, in order to accommodate these who are unable to give securing the jod, such as place each farm in complete order, so as to be ready for cultivation. After the farms have, been all sold, stock-bolders can have the farms the lowest possible force, and then in complete order, so as to be ready for cultivation. After the farms have, been all sold, stock-bolders can have manure furnished, houses built, and other work done upon credit, they securing the payment to the company within a reasenable time, so that a man in the first place receives a farm at the lowest possible price, and then is afforded every assistance in placing it under creces. ceeded with until disposed of, un loss continned by con-sent or cause shown.
