Marderers found guilty - Resignation of Ed. tles - Hogs and Prices - The Mails—Cost of Bates - Hogs and Prices - The Mails - Cost of running a Steamboat on the Western waters, or ST. Louis, Jan. 28, 1856. On Friday night last it commenced snowing and continued through the entire day of Saturday and the greater part of Sunday. Snow felt to the depth of eight or ten inches, the deepest snow we have had here for several years. Yesterday and to-day all the sleigns, and all the concervable applogues for sleighs were brought into requisition. Our citizens are not provided with tip-top sleighs, as it is so seldom they are wanted. This delightful amusement is worth in this city, from $1 to $5 per hour, and the consequence is not many feel disposed to pay that price and very few cipoy the pleasure of a sleigh ride.

The river is still tightly bound up in ice, and teams are constantly crossing. The proprietors of the tents, pitched upon the ice, are doing a good bu siness, and thousands of our citizens are daily prom Some enterprising individuals have laid a firm and substantial practorial from the main shore to some distance on the ice, which renders it much more safe distance on the fee, which refudes a timed more safe for teams, to get upon the solid unbroken floor of loe—as the river, in either falling or rising, makes it dangerous along the edges. It of are collected from all teams, horses and cattle that cross over this bridge—floot travellers free, —and some $100 or S200 is daily collected; the investment has proved to be quite profitable.

The weather since Saturday has moderated, and a re favorable prospect for an early thaw is to-day

A large number of steamboats are now frozen in A large number of steamboats are now frozen in at our layer and above and below the city, and are considered in great danger when the ice shall break up. A meeting of steamboatmen has been held and a committee appointed to examine into the condition of the boats and to report at an adjourned meeting the practicability of opening the river by cutting a channel through the ice to the Illinois shore, by which these boats may be relieved from their perilous situation. A dyke on the Illinois side will protect them could it be possible to get them across.

The long looked for Steam Fire Engine arrived in this city last week. It was brought to the Illinois chore and was considered rather venturesome to bring it across on the ice. One hundred dollars was offered for its safe delivery in this city. Speculating in ed for its safe delivery in this city. Speculating in-dividuals were scarce just at that time, but the da-ring Mr. Meyers, with his team of six horses, were soon upon the ground—and after entering into bonds for $3,000 for its safe delivery on this side, attached his team, and followed by some two or three thou and people, hauled it sately over the ice, amid the cheers of the assembled multitude. On Saturday was brought out for trial, and much surpassed the expectations of all present. A great rivalry and jealousy scena to exist among our old fire companies and ill-feeling toward the Steam Fire Engine. Soveral of these companies were on the ground with their marchine, but owing to the inclemency of the weather, as they said, were unable to beat, with manual labor, that of steam, but challenge a fair manual labor, that of steam, but challenge a last trial on a fair day.

This amount includes nothing but the wages; besides this tnere are stores, wood, insurance, repairs, &c., which add largely to the expenses of the boat. Business still continues very much depressed; the wholesale market is quite dull. Something over 70,000 logs have been elaughtered at this point up to the present date, and it is believed the number will reach 30,000 for the season. Prices now paid range from $5 to $5,25 per 100 lbs., dividing on 200 lbs. The number of hogs cut at Louisville and around the falls is rising 332,000, and the business there has closed for the season.

The mails in the past week have been very irregular, particularly that of the East, and now that a deep snow covers the ground, and in all probability much heavier farther North and East, a greater detention may be expected.

The Know-Nothing-American-Abolition party are in high spirits at the breach in the Democratic ranks, and speaks confidently of their success at the extention may be expected.

Daniel Eckman, for tax refunded,
Klias Rover, for attending to Court House,
Daniel Eckman, for tax refunded,
Elbas Rover, for attending to Court House, he has shown us the receipt of Charles M. Howell, Esq., the present Treasurer.

In the foregoing outstanding taxes due by several townships, it shows great negligence on the part of collectors, either in collecting or paying over the same to the Treasurer, which is a loss to the county, as the Commissioners have to resort to loans, on that account We therefore recommend the collection of taxes within the year for which they are assessed.

The liabilities of the county, for loans from individuals at 5 per cent. per annum, at the present time; are $146,000 00. At the time the County Prison was finished, the debt of the county was upwards of $40,000 00. The cost of finishing the new Court House, including the purchase money for the site, building, furniture and faxtures amount to $169,000 00, showing that the debt for building the Court House, is $106,000 00, and that $63,000 00 of the cost thereof, was paid out of the funds of the county.

We have also examined the account of Hugh S. Gara, of the county.

We have also examined the account of Hugh S. Gara,

Eq. Treasurer of the Board of Prison Inspectors, and find it correct, showing a balance due him by the Board, of One Thousand and Twenty dollars and Nineteen cents, ($1,020 19.) on the fifth day of January, 1836.—

We have also examined the account of James Dysart, Esq., Treasurer of the Poor and House of Employment of Lancaster County, and find a balance in his hands, of Four hundred and Eighty-four dollars and Fifty-two cents, (§454 52,) on the fifth day of January, 1856.

The fact is, it has been the only place where the lumber men in this county have had their principal supplies. Every year thousands of dollars worth of produce is sold here. As regards coal, there is an abundance found here, and scarcely a single farmer in this vicinity but what has his coal mines. My candid opinion is that the whole place is underlaid with coal.

THE BOSTON POST, THE PRESS AND Post, and the Boston Stateman and Weekly Post, for 1550.—The terms of our Journals for the ensuing year are:
For the Daily Post, $5 ; for the Press and Post, semi-week.
187, (Mondays and Thursdays) $2; and for the Statesman and Weekly Post, (Fridays) $2.
These journals are educed by Charles O. Green and Richard Frothingham, Je.; employ a large corps of assistant editors, reporters and correspondents; and neither labor nor expense is spared to make their columns valuabie. They have been published nearly thirty years; have a range of subscription exceeded in extent and aggregate by no Daper in New England; and, so largely is incir circulation, tha. a new press has been ordered to enable the demand to be promptly supplied.

The reading matter consists of a great variety of useful and solertaining matter. Its editoris; domestic and forcign correspondence; reports of lectures; marine department; daily monatary article and weekly financial review literary notices; postic contributions and humorous matter make variety designed to meet every laste.

The advertising columns embrace an almost entire synopsis of the business of New England; and from that department of the paper alone can be obtained a correct impression of the character of trade, its facilities and its operations, while the financial editorials give an accurate view of passing avents in the commercial world.

The Press and Post is made from the Dally's contents, and published every Monday and Thursday morning. It is clearly and hands meny printed on fine paper, in clear type, and the subscription is four doilars a year.

The Boston Statesman and Weekly Post, forms a racy and complete record of the times, and contains the news of every description; in fact, a brief and comprehensive history of passing events; foreign news in detail, domestic information, agricultural items, commercial and monetary articles, statements of trade, of the weather, of crops. &c.

East Side. EUCCESSORS TO JOSEPH GORMLEY.

To my friends and the public.—Having sold my entire stock of clothing to DUNNELLY & SMALING, I would respectfully call your attention to the same.

They are young men of merit, having had considerable experience in the business. Mr. Donnnelly having served with me as cutter and salesman, and has invariably given satisfaction to my friends and myself. I hope, by strict attention to business, they will be able to command a continuance of your favors.

And now, for myself, in withdrawing from the business, allow me to return to you my sincere thanks for the many favors received from you, and believe me when I say that the recollection of our business and social relations will be a source of many pleasant moments.

coal mines. My candid opinion is that the whole place is underlaid with coal.

There is no scarcity of iron ore. A drift has been opened—it is from six to nine feet in depth, of the best rock ore. The moment the Sunbury and Erie Railroad is finished, this must become one of the wealthiest portions of the State. The soil is fertile, and produces the best kind of crops. We have any quantity of coal and iron, and the most valuable lumber. But few locations possess these advantages; or if they have them, they have not the same railroad facilities. Land in this locality is rapidly advancing, and population is increasing; for raising children it goes ahead of any place in five counties.

Lancaster, Pa. teel Pens ! Steel Pens !-No Magnum Bonum,

We have no hesitation in saying we believe the above eas to be as good, if not better than any pens now in the narket.

Our Bank Pens only want to be tried to be approved of.

Our 303 Extra Fine we are fully persuaded are as good Our 203 Extra Fine we are fully persuaded are as good as Gillett's celebrated 303.

Our Ladies Pon is indeed very fine.

Our Commercial Pen we believe to be greatly superior to J. Levy's fair famed 19n.

We are prepared to sell penh as low, if not lower than they can be had in New York or Phisadelphia, wholesale or retail, and we are determined to do it. Call and see.
