

LANCASTER, PA., FEBRUARY 12, 1856. CIRCULATION, 3000 COPIES!

JAMES BUCHANAN.

(Subject to the decision of the Democratic National Convention.)

The Municipal Election.

The election in this city, on Tuesday last, resulted in the almost entire prostration of the Know-Nothing party.

Had the vote been larger, our victory would have been still more complete and overwhelming; but the extreme severity of the weather kept many of our voters from the polls.

A Foul Slanderer!

"By far the majority of that party, (the Democratic) made up of [the Democratic party] is of the very dregs of society, frequenting the parlors of the city, drunk and reeling under the influence of the liquor furnished by their corrupt leaders, having nothing to lose either in property, character or morals."

A Great Compliment

Immediately after the election of Speaker on Saturday week, Mr. Stanton, of Ohio, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this House are eminently due, and are hereby tendered to JOHN W. FORNEY, Esq., for the distinguished ability, fidelity, and impartiality with which he presided over the deliberations of the House of Representatives during the arduous and protracted contest for Speaker which has just closed.

This is a compliment richly deserved.

For nine long weeks, Col. FORNEY, as Clerk, presided over the House of Representatives with marked ability and impartiality—so much so, as to elicit praise from friend and foe—important and knotty questions of order arose from time to time, which would have perplexed almost any other man.

The Democratic party "made up of the dregs of society" is made up of the unprincipled, corrupt and decayed politicians who control his filthy country. Are you to be thus slandered and vilified by a scurvy fellow who—because he sports a goatee (a libel on the long-bearded animal which he seeks to imitate)—dresses like a dandy, and occasionally carries a cane—affects to turn up his nose at the hard-working, honest and industrious mechanics and laboring men of our city, and stigmatizes them as the dregs of society?

Such a fellow deserves a scolding; but in reply we farther.

His vile conduct, in thus libeling his fellow citizens by wholesale, will sink him so low in the estimation of every decent man in the community, that the finger of scorn will be pointed at him wherever he goes.

All Gossip!

The inland Daily of Friday, tries hard to create the impression that there was a mistake in the returns of the election in the N. E. Ward, and gives a table purporting to be a Mayor Albright's majority over Mr. Zimmerman is 25, instead of 60. Now this is scarcely necessary, instead of 60. Now this is scarcely necessary, instead of 60.

Bad News.

On Friday a dispatch from Washington informed us that Col. John W. Forney was lying dangerously ill of inflammation of the bowels; and on Saturday, a similar dispatch announced that Gen. Cass fell on the steps of the Patent Office, and was seriously injured. We trust that both these reports were exaggerated, and that the Nation will be spared the loss of these eminent citizens.

Terrible Accident.

Another serious railroad accident occurred on Monday night, Feb. 10th. The Express Mail train, when about three miles west of the Schuylkill, was thrown from the track in consequence of a rail breaking, and the hind car, which was filled with passengers, precipitated down a steep embankment. One man, Mr. Hart from Cincinnati, was killed, and some twenty or more wounded, by which and some severely. The car took fire from the upsetting of the stove, and was almost entirely consumed. Mr. Hulbrook of this city, who was the State Agent on board the train, received a number of bruises about the head and body, but escaped without serious injury. The run off was purely accidental, and one of those which no precaution could prevent. The wounded were taken back to Philadelphia, and every attention paid to their comfort.

Our Relations with Great Britain.

The Washington correspondent of the North American says that Mr. Buchanan's letters, received by the Arabia, represent the feeling of the British Ministry being very sensitive on the subject of our relations. He had received the request for Mr. Crampton's recall fourteen hours before the sailing of the steamer, but had not presented it to that time. Of course, therefore, no intelligence has been received of the effect it produced.

A Democrat Elected.

In the House of Representatives, on Tuesday, A. J. GLOSSBERGER, Esq., of Pennsylvania, was elected Sergeant-at-Arms by a vote of 103 to 98.

On the same day a resolution was adopted authorizing the payment to Col. John W. Forney of $8 per day in addition to his salary as clerk for the time he acted as presiding officer of the House.

Gen. CULLEN, (K. N.) of Tennessee, has been elected Clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington.

Mr. DALLAS' nomination as Minister to England was unanimously confirmed by the U. S. Senate.

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The election of General CULLEN to the Clerkship of the House, relieves Col. FORNEY of a position which has become irksome to him, and from which he has long desired to escape.

Col. CULLEN is said to possess excellent qualifications for the post, but he will be fortunate, if he can secure to himself so general a commendation from all parties, as Col. Forney received during his official term, and since his retirement. It is conceded on all hands, that Col. FORNEY was the most efficient Clerk, when taken in the aggregate of his abilities, of any other person who ever filled the place. Some of the most violent opposition journals concede this much, which speaks as well for the Col.'s merits, as it does for a proper sense of justice in his opponents. During the nine weeks that the House was engaged in balloting for Speaker, and many times amid intense excitement, it required a peculiar qualification and address to preserve some degree of order, and yet give general satisfaction. As Clerk, and for those nine weeks, Speaker, Col. Forney acquitted himself with such consummate ability that he fairly extorted praise from his known enemies. Even the Washington letter writer of the New York Herald could not withhold his approbation. That was a fortunate circumstance which afforded Col. FORNEY a new field for the display of his varied and superior abilities, and we shall feel pleasure in redeeming the City from the domination of the North Westers who had the hearty cooperation and aid of a number of patriotic Whigs, who came forward boldly and fearlessly to assist in defeating the unscrupulous enemy. These gentlemen deserve the gratitude of our Democratic friends—and we trust that hereafter they will be found in the front ranks of our fighting shoulder to shoulder with us in opposition to intolerance, proscription, black reactionism, and every other evil that has cursed our country for the last two years.

What ever may be Col. FORNEY's future position in Government, his friends are confident that he will fill it with honor to himself, and with advantage to the public.—Pennsylvania.

The Lebanon (Ohio) Democratic Citizen says:—

"The Eight of January Convention at Columbus, did not even hint at the man—but from personal observation, and conversation with many of the Delegates, we are fully satisfied that a large majority of the Ohio Delegation to the Cincinnati Convention are in favor of conferring the nomination upon the Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN, of Pennsylvania."

It is well understood at Washington that the Mississippi Delegates to the National Convention, although unopposed, are in favor of Mr. BUCHANAN.

The Warsaw (Mo.) Southwest Democrat says:—

"Public sentiment is fast and unerringly settling down upon Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN, of Pennsylvania, for the Presidency, and if we were to prophesy, we should predict that Mr. BUCHANAN will receive the nomination with more unanimity than any similar nomination for many years."

The Democratic Convention in Oswego and Herkimer Counties, N. Y., have adopted resolutions in favor of the nomination of Thomas H. Benton, of Missouri, for the Presidency, by the Cincinnati Convention.

The Democracy of Somerset county met on the 4th inst., and appointed J. D. Ruddy, Esq., Representative delegate to the State Convention, with unanimous instructions for Mr. BUCHANAN.

The Eaton Democrat, Preble Co., Ohio, has raised the name of Mr. BUCHANAN to its mast-head, and accompanies the act with an able article advocating his nomination, in which the editor says, "the popular sentiment of the democracy of Ohio is strongly in his favor."

We clip the following from the Lancaster (Pa.) Intelligencer.

"The Dixon Transcript indicates a preference for Mr. BUCHANAN."

There is found among a list of papers throughout the Union favorable to the nomination of James Buchanan for the Presidency, and from the length of the list, and the character of the press that is raising this distinguished Statesman's name at their mastheads, we are led to believe there will be a great prospect of his nomination by the Cincinnati Convention.

Resolved, That we are proud of our eminent fellow citizen, James Buchanan, who in all the public stations he has held, has proved himself a statesman of the highest order of ability, and a consistent and ardent supporter of the Democracy of Philadelphia will give their hearty support to the Democratic nomination, be who he may, they most cordially join with their fellow Democrats of the State in expressing their warmest wishes for the nomination of James Buchanan at the choice of Pennsylvania for the Presidency of the Union.

Resolved, That our delegates to the Fourth of March Convention be and are hereby instructed to use their best endeavors to secure the election of Delegates to the Cincinnati Convention, who have been the known, avowed, and ardent friends and supporters of James Buchanan for the Presidency.

Resolved, That our Delegates to the Fourth of March Convention be and are hereby instructed to vote in that convention for the Cincinnati Convention, to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of James Buchanan for the Presidency.

Philadelphia and Columbia Railroad.

We have received from Harrisburg pamphlet copies of the annual report of the Superintendent of this work, from which we gather some useful information.

The number of emigrant passengers conveyed during the year was 18,483, and of cities travelled on the road by the trains being 15,138,956. The receipts for passengers, extra baggage and mail carriage were $281,379 93, exclusive of the Westchester business. The westward freight business for the Pennsylvania Railroad was 76,127 tons. The whole amount of collections in westward freight and cars was $266,055, 87, of which $257,460 81 was at Philadelphia, $305 22 at Pottsville, $3,767 03 at Parkersburg, $4,522 81 at Lancaster. The whole amount of freight tonnage westward was 133,333 of which 116,135 was through—the eastward freight tonnage was 347,709, of which 266,567 was through, 162,671 tons being on the Pennsylvania Railroad. The whole amount of collections on tonnage and cars eastward and westward was $857,048 09, and the tonnage 481,042, of which 357,702 was through. During the year the expense of working and maintaining the road was $499,219 32, of which $77,507 02 was for steam engines and machinery for the shops, and other improvements; for repairs $84,542 17; for transportation $20,285 55; for superintendents $21,337 54; and for motive power $208,863 00.

Should no reduction be made in the toll sheet the present year, the Superintendent thinks that a large increase in the net receipts may be expected, and he remarks, that for a few years past the reductions made in tolls have prevented the State from deriving a profit from the increase of business.

The Pennsylvania of Saturday comes to hand with the name of JAMES BUCHANAN at its mast-head as the "only choice of Pennsylvania for the Presidency," accompanying the act with a powerful article advocating his nomination by the National Convention.
