and certainly to the purpose.

Messrs. Editors:—Gentlemen: As many inquiries are made at this piace by strangers from a distance, in order to satisty them and answer their inquiries, allow me the iliberty to avail myself of your paper, as no doubt many of your readers may be those who write us letters.

The soil here is well suppried to the raising of rye, oats, barley, corn, potatoes and cuckwheat, and for a grazing country it cannot be expelled.

The fact is, it has been the only place where the lumber men in this county have had their principal supplies. Ever ry year thousands of dollars worth of produce is soid here.

As regards coal, there is an abundance found here, and c arcely a single mamer in this vicinity but what has his coal mines. My caudio opinion is that the whole pace is underlaid with c.al.

There is no sciently of iron one. A drift has been opened

The moment the sumbury and true Raifread is finished, this must become one of the weal hiest portions of the most valuable lumber. But few loadings passes these actoring and population is increasing; for resising children it

In presenting the "Common School Register" to the consideration of Directors and Teachers, they feel great combeling to the property of the property of the consideration of Directors and Teachers, they feel great combeling to be not deen it necessary to institute a comparison of merit, between it and the "Permanent Record"—for things comparable shound bear, at least, some snight resembance. The "Termanent Record is an after thought—get up expressly to triad the "Register," in the all since attempts, a interable ministen on the original. The most important permanent of the "Register," indeed at those items which norm its characteristics, and when constitute its peculiar claim to public preference, have been necessarily omitted. The object seems to have been to make a cheaper book, and whilst amming exclusively at that Joint it has at the same time been made a worthess cine.

We win the now inquire before how many Boards of bifrectors it has been than and analytics, but with shipply remark, that the gendeman whose name is appended to the "Resolution of its single Dourd mentioned regrets exceedingly that he had not seen the "common School Register" beare action was had in that single caferied on this subject.
