A Canada Season.
The subject of the West Chester Convention, are so truthful and pointed, that they cannot fail in carrying conviction to the mind of every intelligent citizen throughout the Union who may read them. It is not only true that Mr. Buchanan can carry the state of New York, but all the indications are that his name will secure the electoral vote of every Northern State that has usually gone with the Democracy. Can this be said with any degree of certainty of the other candidates named? There is no man but one who willfully blind who will venture to say so. We do not doubt that the Southern States can be given to either Mr. Pierce or Mr. Douglas or to their own sons, but the Southern States, without the aid of northern assistance, cannot elect a President. We must carry New York, Pennsylvania or Ohio, or we are lost, and the power of the government goes into the hands of those sectionalists who are now marshaling their forces for the great struggle. If we are beaten in the next Presidential campaign the fault is our own. There are men who claim to be the friends of the democratic party, who see all this, and yet they seem to say by their actions that they prefer a candidate who stands every chance of being beaten, to one who leans with him all the elements of success. If there ever was a man who was emphatically the people's choice, that man is James Buchanan. In every section of the country the masses are calling for his nomination, and it is a remarkable fact that the politicians are rallying their forces for other men. They dare not take open ground against him, but yet their actions show that they are not friendly with him. These men must be closely watched, and if at any time they attempt to do anything to the detriment of the great man, the last of the giants, will be checked out of a nomination that is unmistakably his. If there is any attention paid by the national delegates to the popular voice of their constituents. The entire Democratic Press is deeply interested in securing a man for whom they can go with an earnest and undivided heart. They do not wish to have the Cincinnati Convention cut the sinews of their willing efforts in the glorious cause—they do not want to be put on the defensive during the entire campaign, but they ask to be placed in a position where they can attack the miserable political heresies of a combined and reckless opposition. For Mr. Buchanan, with all his glorious attainments, every democratic editor, North, South, East and West, can go into the battle clad in armor of triple steel, defying the assaults of those who would attempt to weaken the great confederacy of states. The Democracy will not have to fight such a battle against a man who has the support of the masses. There are thousands who have heretofore been opposed to us, now rugged and anxious to assist us in the struggle. Give us Buchanan, and we meet the opposition with the manly and ringing shouts of defiance.

The Legislature adjourned, sine die, on the 20th inst. All the important bills of the session were passed. Among these were the general appropriation bill, the bill restoring the charter of Erie and North East railroad, conditioned on the construction of a branch road to the wharves at the harbor, and a subscription by the company of $400,000 to the first 18 miles of the Erie and Pittsburgh rail, which is common to this road and the Sunbury and Erie road. This, it is supposed, will insure the immediate construction of a road from Erie to the rich coal mines of Mercer, and assist materially in the prosecution of the Sunbury and Erie railroad.

Before the adjournment of the Senate, according to custom, the Speaker, whose Senatorial term expires this year, resigned, and a new Speaker was elected. Senator Browne, of Philadelphia, who is on the second year of his term is the Speaker elect.

Later from San Juan—Defeat of Colonel Schlessinger.
The steamer Orizaba arrived at San Juan with 525 passengers. The defeat of Schlessinger in Costa Rica is said to have been caused through the negligence of Col. Schlessinger. The remainder of his party had arrived at Rivas. The men were taken to the fort, and Schlessinger was taken to the field with pistols, and threatened to shoot him, but his gallantry proved useless; the inefficiency of his commander had created a chaos. Capt. Thorpe was a passenger on board the steamer. He reports that the army was at the head of the army, and occupying a good position. His prospects are improving and large accessions are daily arriving to increase his force. Another battle had taken place at Arapok between 14 Americans under Capt. Baldwin and 200 Costa Ricans. The latter were defeated, and 50 killed, while Capt. Baldwin lost only 2.

Mr. Dallas in London.
The National Intelligencer has the following extract of a private letter from an American gentleman in London to his friend in Washington, dated the 27th ultimo: "Mr. Dallas has every reason to be satisfied with his reception here. Lord Palmerston called on him as soon as he arrived, and in the most friendly way pressed him to dine with him the next day without any form; which he did, and was much pleased with every thing that passed. Lord Palmerston has promised to present him to the Queen as soon as she arrives in London. Lady Wodehouse also called on Mr. Dallas, with I believe, Lady Wodehouse, who is the wife of the British Secretary of State. The Earl of Ellesmere, being in the country, wrote a most kind note and sent the family apartments to his splendid gallery of paintings. In his town house, and stated he would make a point of calling as soon as he came to London, and wished to show him all the civility he possibly could. Many other gentlemen called on him, and he was very much pleased with the attention he received. He was induced by good motives and without any malicious intent, and that the matter so charged is true, it shall operate to the acquittal of defendant or defendants."

AMENDMENTS TO THE LABEL LAW.
The following bill has passed both Houses of the Legislature: SECTION 1. That from and after the passage of this act, on the trial of indictments for the violation of the act, the truth of the matter charged as libelous may be given in evidence, and if the jury in any such case shall find that the same was written or published, and that it was induced by no malicious intent, and that the matter so charged is true, it shall operate to the acquittal of defendant or defendants.
