ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE. State Conventions—Two Democratic tickets—Co a Candidate for Governor of Missouri—A wit the party—Buchanan Preferred—Two sets (

Sr. Louis, April 28, 1856. Nothing of interest has transpired since our last, except in a political point of view. On the 21st the two Democrat State Conventions convened at Jefferson City for the pu pose of nominating a state ticket and selecting Delegates the Cincinnati National Convention. Notwithstanding the two wings were very desirous of uniting, the gene impression prevailed that no such union could or would be effected, and the result of their deliberations has shown this impression to be wholly realized. Committees were appointed and platforms constructed, and the two wing were invited to come together and take up the clive branch gainst the Know-Nothings and all isms of the day; and although very little difference was apparent in the politic views of the two contending Conventions-one portion dictates of the other, whilst the other wingconsidered it an "insult" to make any such request of a Convention who had no hesitancy in styling themselves, the great embodi ment of the "National Democracy of the State of Missouri. Know-Nothingism was discussed, Black Republicanism was dissected, the Nebraska bill was regretted by one and fully endorsed by the other, and the present Pierce admin istration was wound round and round until the knot be came so tight that it was given up as a bad job to diser angle under the excitement and pervous state of the Cofor the other to drop or rise a peg, as the case might be but finding that no compromise could be effected, unless by "humiliation" or "insult," each concluded to go it on their own hook and cut one another's throats.

The Convention styling themselves "Nationals (and Benton) proceeded to a nomination of a State ticket which resulted in the selection of Trusten Polk, of the ty, for Governor, and a complete ticket for State officers. The are said to be four or five Know-Nothings ougthis ticket notwithstanding the Convention denounced the Dark Lar tern order in no unmeasured terms. This ticket was pre sented to the other Convention with a request of an en dorsement and a union against all the igns which the State is heir to; but the other " National" (Benton) Conven tion could not nor would not swallow the dose, notwith standing they were anxious for union and harmony in th invincible. They could not go the ticket with four me upon it, who, if they were not now members of the order had not the stench blown from their clothes. They refused to accept it in its present condition, and repudiated all at empts to bolster up the renegades who failed to crush the democracy in the past two years, and now returned to fatten on the spoils of office. They could not go into com veretheir most dire political enumies, and renegades at tha they therefore proceeded to the nomination of a separat-ticket, and the Hon. Thus. H. Benton was by acclamation placed at the head of the ticket, as their candidate for liovernor, and a full state ticket was settled. Some seen o doubt the propriety of running Col. Beaton, whilst there are others who believe he will carry the State against al odds; and still others who are inclined to believe that Col. Benton will not accept the nomination, -of this class, we are numbered. A telegraphic dispatch from Washington published in this morning's papers, says Col. Benton wil not accept. This dispatch is not, however, from the Colnel himself, and a few days must chapse before we will know definitely the course he intends to pursue. He is dai cles as to the stand Col. Benton will take. The Hon. John H. Lightner was, unsolicited, put- upo the so called Benton ticket as a candidate for Commission notions, high toned and liberal minded in his politica views, is and always has been instrumentatin his endeavers to effect a union of the Democracy of Missouri.—a Ji vivision that has existed for years -- but there seems to a no likelihood of such a consummation so devoutly to be wished. Mr. Lightner is a stanoch advocate and a fast friend of Mr. Buchanan, and his influence in this section is no small matter.

ly expected here, and much anxiety exists in political cir-

Each of these contending Conventions appointed dele gates to the Cincinnati Convention-uninstructed. M Buchanan's name was favorably mentioned in both Coventions, and it is said both sets of delegates are favorable to his nomination. But one set, however will, be admitted and if any other man than James Buchanan is nominated a great split will be the result in Missouri, and the probbility is we will lose the State. But, if the veteran Pen sylvanian is selected the party will be united whether one or both set of delegates are admitted or rejected! It mat ters not which, the people have made up their minds vote for him and they expect to have an opportunity is November next, when they will roll up such a majority f "Old Buck" as was never known in political history.

We now have three tickets in the field in this State, by we still hope a union may be consummated, and limbs such a union is effected, the reins of government are on a fair way to pass into other hands.

Municipal elections have been field in various cites and towns in the Western States, and in nearly all the Democrats have triumphed. The Know-Nothings of this State are rejoicing at the sol in the bemocratic ranks—they never never have or can succeeded on their own strength or merits. They are confident of carrying the State in August, and openly declare tha unless Buchanan is nominated at Cincinnati they will win the Presidential race; but if Mr. B. is nominated, they are of opinion their 'cake is all dough," and will submit calm and without any exertion to that fate which awaits them. The Democracy of the Union will never forget or forgive critical times, when a true known and acknowled friend o standing there are many such whose claims will be presen ted, there are none among them all who has a firmer hole upon the confidence and affections of the people of this country than the Hon. James Buchanan-there are nor who could unite more closely the bond of fellowship and

We are pleased to learn that the Hon, James Buchanar has returned to this country from his foreign mission, and was received at New York by his many friends, of all no litical parties, in the most enthusiastic and flattering ma ner. This is as it should be-for none stands higher in the estimation of the patriotic titizens of the city of N Vorl Every one who has taken an interest in the welfare and prosperity of the country, are already familiar with the dignified and exalted manner in which this distinguishe entleman performed the duties entrusted to his charge. In former years, as now, the name of "Pennsylvania" Favorite Son," was heralded far and wide as a promine candidate for the Presidency of the American Republic and in '52, was, without doubt, the choice of the Democra cy for this important position; but a rivalry seemed to ex lst among the different prominent candidates, and it was deemed necessary at that particular time, that a "nev man should be urged upon the Convention as a compromis -fearing a disunion in the Democratic ranks-and th friends of Mr. Buchanan, for the sake of harmony and uni son, voted for Gen. Franklin Pierce, of N. Hampshire, and the result was an overwhelming Democratic triumph in th month of November following. Although the friends of Mr. Buchanan yielded to the will of the majority, they nev ertheless preferred him to all others, and that attachmen has been growing stronger and stronger, and the time ha now arrived when the friends of this able statesman w demand and insist upon his bearing aloft the flag of the Democratic army in the approaching struggle for RELIGIOU

We will refer briefly to the very complimentary vote giv en Mr. Buchanan in the National Convention of '52, who his friends and admirers reluctantly abandoned their first choice for the sake of union and barmony. In that Con vention there were nine candidates for the Presidency-Messrs. Cass, Buchanan, Donglas, Marcy, Butler, Houston Lane, Dickinson and Plerce; and although Gen. Cass obtained the highest vote (131) and lailed in receiving the nomination, Mr. Buchanan obtained 104. Had this vote been withheld from Gen. Pjerce or any other candidate and retained to Ponnsylvania, where it rightfully belonged no nomination could have been made, and the Democratic party would have been left without a regularly settled Presidential candidate, and in all probability sustained a inglorious defeat. The claims of Pennsylvania were appa rent, and her delegate representatives persisted in the rights up to the 24th and last ballot, when, finding it im ible to secure the prize, and a longer delay in effection a nomination dangerous for the good of the cause, the we fare of the country, and the great and glorious measures o the Democratic party-seeing that all these were about be ing sacrificed for men and not principle, they yielded to e majority and compromised by casting Mr. Buchanan's vote for Gen. Pierce.

LIBERTY AND THE CONSTITUTION.

What would have been the result had the friends and supporters of Mr. Buchanan "bolted," and used their influ ence against the selection of the Baltimore Convention They could have defeated the Democratic party as Martin Van Buren did in '48. Neither Mr. Buchanan nor hi friends desired such a result, and boldly and manually en dorsed the nominee. They did not even stop here. Th pride and glory of the "old Keystone" was at stake, and altho' her hardy yeomanry were considerably disappointed in not finding their own son and favorite bearing the ban ner of Democracy, they found him on the stump—(just th reverse of Martin Van Buren)-proclaiming to his fellow citizens their duty to the cause, the state and the countr And what was the result of Mr. Buchanan's powerful influ ence in his native state? A Democratic majority of nearl 20,000! "As goes Pennsylvania so goes the Union," and the friends of Democratic measures should pay strict re gard to this brief sentence in the selection of a Presidentia candidate to carry the flag in the approaching struggle-keep it before your eyes—"as goes Pennsylvania so goe

The question is asked a thousand times a day—"who vill be the candidate of the Democracy in the campaign of the present year?" This is a question altogether beyond the power of man to determine to a certainty; but one thing is evident, Penusylvania holds a druft upon the Democracy of the Union, and it will be expected that that draft will be duly honored when presented—but if protested, the cor sequences of such an event will be felt from Maine to Louisiana. This is a voice from Missouri, which will be accompanied by thousands and tens of thousands who look upon Mr. Buchanan as the ablest, truest and most available man the party could select in these troublesome times of agitation and excitement. The South will gladly accept him, for it is the general opinion in the Southern States that he is more national in his views than all others named. He is without doubt the first choice of the West majority as will astonish the Pennsylvania Statesman himself and his friends on the other side of the mountains, whilst the North and East are almost uncompre Politicians and wire-workers know full well the ability and integrity of this illustrious statesman, and many there are who prefer a "new man," whom they can sway and ride over rough shod to subserve and gratify their personal aggrandizements. Mr. Buchanan is not that man, hence the refusal on their part to entertain his claims and nine-tenths of the Democratic voters prefer him first, last and all the time.

But the time has come when such politicians must fall back and give place to new and safer counsel. The time has come when the country requires at its head a chief, possessed of knowledge, ability and courage. The ship of State requires a pilot conversant with the great ocean of on every side, and we think, and know, we hazard nothing n recommending Mr. Buchanan. With James Buchanan and Wm. O. Butler, of Kentucky.

the glorious banner of Demorracy would be borne upon the breeze, and hailed by the shouts of the bone and since from the hills and the plains -from the far Northern regions to the extreme sunny South with one enthusiastic voice of admiration. Then, let the rallying cry be-"Buchanan and Butler!" Benj. F. Herr is now on a visit to our city, and in the enjoyment of most excellent health. Western life seems to agree with him.

Great Fire in Philadelphia. Philadelphia was visited at an early hour on Thursday morning last, with the most extensive and disastrous fire that has occurred since the great conflagration of July 9th, 1850. It raged for upwards of six hours, and, during that time laid in waste nearly a whole square of buildings, amounting in value, with their contents of goods, &c., to nearly one million of dollars. The conflagration was one of the most terrific disasters of the kind ever witnessed in that city, causing the greatest alarm and consternation among thousands of the citizens who were aroused from their slambers, at the dead hour of the night, by the incessant and doleful tolling of the State

The fire broke out a few minutes after twelve o'clock, in the large four-storied brick edifice, situate on the south side of North street, east of Sixth, and extending back a considerable distance. It made its appearance in the fourth story, and is believed to have originated from spontaneous combustion. The building was owned by Jesup & Moore, dealers in rags and paper, and was filled with a valuable stock. This warehouse and its entire contents, s on fell a prey to the devouring element. The loss of the firm is about $50,000, half of which is covered by insurance.

The wind, which was blowing a fresh breeze from the northeast, soon increased to a gale, and the flumes spread through to Commerce street, sweeping, in their devastating course, the shops of Supplee & Myers, packing-box makers, and Jacob Carter, Cooper. Messrs. Supplee & Myers lose two thousand dollars The shop of Mr. Carter was owned by Charles Kemble, who is partially insured. Adjoining these shops, on the west, and extending, on the north side of Commerce, to the rear of the orner building on Sixth street, were several small tenements, shops and manufactories, all of which were reduced to ashes.

The fire, spite the most strenuous and daring ellorts of the firemen to prevent it, next crossed Commerce street, and communicated to the back part of the handsome and ornate five storied store, No. 223 Market street, of Levick Brothers & Co., who occupied the apper stories. These gentlemen are very heavy dealers in shoes. The lower stories were in the occupancy of Wilcocks, Rogers & Fraley, dealers in and manufacturers of straw goods, bouncts, &c. The business of the firm is generally large. They manufacture a great deal in their line. Their stock, however, as well as that of Messrs. Levick, Brother & Co., had been much reduced by their spring sales.— The store was demolished in an incredibly short time. The precise amount of their loss could not be ascertained, but they are believed to be pretty fully insured. of Bagely, Woodward & Co., wholesale grocers, No. 221, was totally destroyed. The firm on the east, the store owned the building. Their stock of groceries was large. Their loss was covered by insur-

Adjoining Levick, Brothers & Co's. store, on the west, was Adam Everly's store, No. 225, occupied by Fairbanks & Co., dealers in scales and weights, which was entirely consumed. The amount of the loss here was not estimated. The next edifice was the new store of Caleb Cope, No. 227, which was lately finished.— This was one of the finest stores ever erected in this country. It extended through to Commerce street, and was constructed in the most abstantial manner. The sructure had elicited much admiration, on account of its imposing and beautiful appearance. Messrs. Trusing and beautiful appearance. Messrs. 1ru-itt, Brothers & Co., hardware dealers, had lately rented it, and were fitting it up in a style of superiority and splendor excelling any similar establishment of the kind in America. The noble edifice was a total wreck. The loss f Mr Cope is $40,000—nearly covered. Messrs. Truitt, Brothers & Co. had moved a por-tion of their stock, valued at $15,000. The insurance on it is $10.000. No. 229 was occupied in the lower story by E. W. Knight, hardware dealer, and in the upper part by Benjamin S. Riley, dealer in land: trunks and brass stair rods. This building was completely destroyed. It belonged to the estate of John. J. Vanderkemp, deceasd. Mr. Knight was insured, but not adequately, in four different companies. He was absent from the city at the time of the fire. Between it and the corner of Sixth street was the large store of Messrs. Sellers & Pennock, dealers in wire seives, &c., which was likewise consumed. The upper portion was occupied by E. Semans & Co., wholesale dealers in clothing. The latter house had everything burned, except their books, which were Their loss above their insurance will

The high and compact brick block at the northeast corner of Sixth and Market streets, was next involved, and it was not long before it was devoured by the flames. The destruction of the row of houses on the east side of Sixth street, from Market to Commerce rapidly succeeded. The corner store of the brick block block was occupied by M. Walker & Sons, workers in wire. The other stores in the block on Sixth street were occupied by Mrs. A. Warrington, cigar dealer; J. Burr Moore, dealer in shirts and hosiery; and Walborn & Co., and W. W. Knight, dealers in gentlemen's furnishing goods. Their stocks were removed. Mr. Chance occupied the cellar of Messrs. Walker & Sons' store. Messrs. Griffith & Chance had a book stand at the corner. They lost all. Insured for $1000.

A large number of smaller buildings in the vicinity were consumed, which we have not room to particularlize.

Such was the intensity of the heat and so urious the gale, that the fire extended across Market street, and damaged a number of stores in the block on the south side, below Sixth.— Among those that were either blistered in front, burned in the roofs and upper stories, or deluged by the water, were the following J. Goldsmith & Brothers, clothers; Conover & Brothers, dealers in shoes and hats; and Eby, Connyngham & Herr, and Steen & Co., gro The firemen here fought a most heroic battle with the flames.

The myriad of sparks and cinders which, borne by the wind, fell upon the roofs of houses for many squares, caused other fires in all directions.

Altogether about 50 buildings were destroyed, and the loss of property is estimated at not less than $600,000.

The Foreign News. We clip from the North American of W.ed world with nesday last, the following items of news brought by the recent arrivals at New York: The royal mail steamship Persia, Capt. Judkins, arrived at New York yesterday morning, having made the passage to the bar from Liv erpool, in nine days, ten hours and fifteer minutes. She brings one week's later intelli-gence from Europe. The principal item of news is the closing of the Peace Congress, and the separation of the Plenipotentiaries. It is reported that diplomatic movements of importance are on foot respecting Italy, the affairs of which are in a deplorable condition. A grand banquet had been given to Mr. Dallas the American Minister to Great Britain. at the Mansion of the Lord Mayor. ment officials had stated in Parliament that the troops and munitions of war sent to Canada vere merely to replace those withdrawn duing the European war. The preparations for the evacuation of the Crimea continue .--The reforms in Turkey are hailed with rejoic ings in some of the Eastern countries, but in others had caused serious revolts. In India, Lord Canning had entered upon his duties as Governor General.

We have later and highly important news from Central America. By the arrival of the steamer Empire City at New York, yesterday, ve learn that a terrible riot occurred at Pan ama, on the 15th inst., between the American Transit passengers from San Francisco and the natives. It is reported that thirty of the passengers were killed and 40 wounded. All the freight and baggage houses were rifled, and a large quantity of baggage belonging to the passengers, and the property of the rail-road company, were destroyed. The treasure from San Francisco had not been landed, and t thus escaped.

The steamer Isabel has arrived at Charleston, S. C., with stirring news from Nicaragua. On the 6th inst.; Gen. Walker captured the city of Rivas, killing 600 Costa Ricans, and losing but 30 of his men. Mr. Wheeler, U. . Minister to Nicaragua, had addressed a let to President Mora, in regard to the shooting of American prisoners.

The steamship Orizaba arrived at New York last evening, from San Juan, bringing dates to the 21st inst. The defeat of Col. Schlessinger's party is confirmed. During the Court Martial, Schlessinger, being on parole, deserted to the Costa Ricans. The details of the attack on Rivas by Walker have been received. With 600 men Walker attached 2000 Costa Ricans, and after a battle of seventeen and half hours were compelled to withdraw for want of ammunition. The Costa Ricans lost 600 killed and a large number wounded.-Walker's party between fifty and sixty killed and eighty wounded. On the 10th Lieut. Green, with fifteen men, defeated 200 Costa Ricans and killed twenty seven of them.— Walker designed attacking the Costa Ricans at Virgin Bay. An intercepted correspon dence showed that the British were aiding the enemies of Walker. The other Central Amer ican States showed a friendly disposition to ward Nicaragua.

The Third Congressional District of Virginia has elected Wm. H. Clark and Wm. P. Thompson, Esqs., to represent the district in the National Convention. They are the open and zealous friends of Mr. Buchanan. o says the Danville (Va.) Republican.

All for Buchanan. We perceive that many of our democratic otemporaries, in different sections of the State are speaking out the sentiments of their several localities for nominee for President, at he coming Democratic National Convention. In most, in nearly all, sections of Ohio, the voice of the great mass of the Democracy is decidedly favorable to the nomination of Hon James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania. So far as this particular section is concerned, all emocrats-at least all whom we have heard express any preference—desire his nomina-tion. The general feeling is, that he is a statesman of large experience, a National Democrat, and eminently safe man to whom to confide the duties of Chief Magistrate of his great nation. And the general sentiment is that sometiong is due to the gallant State

Mitron, Worcester Co., Mass., Nov. 13th, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir; I take pleasure in bearing voluntary testimony to the magic effects of your wonderful Hair Restorative. As far back as 1836 my hair commenced falling off, until the top of my scalp became bald and smooth as glass, and it has continued to full for a great many years, notwithstanding I have used many celebrated preparations for its restoration. Seeing your advertisement, I was induced to give your article at ind, and to my utter astonishment, I found after a few applications that my hair became firmly set and assumed a very glossy and beautiful appearance; and, by the time I had used a quart bottle full, my bald head was covered over with a young and vigrous growth of hair, which is now from one to two inches in length, and growing very fast.

Yours truly, Henry Goodmic.

W. S. CONKLIN told me—"I have taken nine bottles of Christies's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it until my lungs and liver was Congested to that destreet that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors too did all they could for me, but thought I must dio. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhode's Fever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short

H. M. CONKLIN'S ays: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good result, from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle or RHODES' EFER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle." FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle."

S. M. CONKILN was not here, but both the object prothers say his case was the same as H. M's. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me. ually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Caution the Public in these words:—
"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then with brazen impudence end their pamplets with the exclamation, 'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say, as much if he dates,' "&c.
Now I take pleasure in saying that the Caution referred to the same "Br. Christie's Ague Balsam," that is men tioned in the above certificate.
