ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE. The Weather, Crops, &c.,—Democratic State Conver Illinois—Maj. Richardson for Governor—A strong —Douglas and the Nebraska Bill sustained—The

Sr. Louis, May 5, 1856.

The weather since our last date has been wet—considers. ble rain falling, which was much needed by our farmers On Saturday and vesterday fires and great coats felt qui ble condition, and boats are arriving and departing hourly from and to all the vatious streams tributary to the great Father of Waters. Our mortuary reports show a healthy state—the interments scarcely averaging fifty per week out of a population of 125,000. There is no important change to note in the produce market. Business continues brisk and business men have their hands full. Reports represent the growing crops in a healthy and flattering condition.

A murder was committed in our city a night or two since, and, of course, the murderer is at large. The O'Blenis trial came up on Wednesday last, and after a brief investiation and deferred a decision until the October term.was a poor man, whilst he is reputed to be worth thouthe victim leaving a widow and several children upon the cold charity of the world)-and is permitted to roam about the streets and among an insulted and injured further time for consideration, than recommended by the been abused, and the sense and feelings of the whole com munity disregarded. This case will no doubt termina M'O'Blenis, the foul murderer of poor Ben. Brand.

North Missouri road, were taken on Saturday last to War ren county where the murder was committed, for trial. The Illinois Democratic State Convention convened a Springfield on the 1st inst. A large number of Delegate were in attendance, indeed, it is said to have been the largest gathering of the Democracy of Illinois over a sembled for the purpose designed. On the third ballot Maj. Wm. A Richardson, was nominated for Governor; R. J. Hamilton for Lieut. Governor; H. Snyder for Secretary of State, John pore (the present worthy and popular incumbent) for of the Convention were characterized throughout with the pest feeling and harmony. Strong and unmistakable resclutions were adopted condemning Judge Trumbull, and endorsing Senator Douglas and tife Nebraska bill. The esolves were carried without a dissenting voice-all was union and harmony, and it was the unanimous opinion of the delegates that the Nebraska question should be made the paramount issue in the present State compaign. They ounced Know-Nothingism and Black Republicanism is course unanimously approved. This ticket is wholly and ubstantilly, made up of men who are favorable to and supporters os the much talked of and misrepresented Nebruska bill, as presented and sustained by the gallant statesman

It is not known yet whether Mr. Richardson will accept assent to become Governor of the State of Illinois. There was a time-when the object of the Nebraska bill was most wantonly misrepresented and misconstrued-that senator Douglass stood in no very enviable light befere tho people of Illinois, but that day has gone by—the people have read, examined and reflected, and are now convinced that their course towards the "Little Giant" was based upon misrepresentation. The storm of indignation has passed over, and the sky is once more bright; the muddy vaters that for a time flooded the minds of the people have become settled, and they can once more see through them the object and design of this famous Kansas-Nebraska denunciation of the measure and the man who urged and fought as no other man over did for its passage, are now found in the ranks and file advocating and sustaining a measure, which they freely admit was misrepresented they will sustain and support through thick and thin.

The ticket in Illinois is the strongest ever presented to the people of that state, and is destined to sweep the state rom centre to circumference, against all isms and against all odds. The probabilities are the Know-Nothings will not nominate a state ticket, but urge upon the Black Republicans the propriety of nominating Judge Trumbull for Jovernor (a Know-Nothing Black Republican in heart and ent) whom they will pledge themselves to vote for. The people of Illinois are determined not to dodge the issue presented to them by the Black Republicans. They can and will sustain the Nebraska bill before the people of the State-they will vindicate the course of Stephen A Douglas or fall with him, in maintaining a measure they sider right and just, and it is but right and just that they should. For our part, we would rather suffer defeat a thousand times over, than yield a single lots of principle which we believed to be right and liberal—no matter what preference we might have for men.

Politics in our state are at a dead stand-all awaiting anxiously to hear from Col. Bouton and the course he in tends to pursue in our State canvass. It is rumored that Col. Benton has sent a letter of declination to a friend in this city, but that the letter has been suppressed. The ru mor, however, is not credited. The Colonel is expected here shortly, and then, and not until then, will the ball have fairly opened. Various are the opinions as to what he will do. There is very little said among the Know-Nothngs—no enthusiasm whatever appears to characterize thei ovements. The Intelligencer says, their candidate for Governor is about to commence a tour through the State and explain (expose) the principles of the American party. As the time approaches for the assembling of the Conven-iti, great preparations are being made for that important and interesting event. There are a large number from this city and state who contemplate visiting Cincinnati. We believe there never was, we are certain there never was half the interest taken in the convening o any previous National Convention as there is in the one which is to assemble at Cincinnati on the 1st Monday in June. Everybody-men of all parties, isms and factions are full of opinions and speculations as to the probable result. The Republican of this city (which, alas, has now r party to uphold) ventures the assertion that there will be but three prominent candidates put before the Convention -Pierce, Buchanan (and Douglas-and thinks Mr. Bu-chanan has the inside track, and says: "Mr. Buchanan belongs to the list of experienced and great statesmen rathe than to the class of men so much coveted by Young Amer ica, and while this fact may commend him strongly to the conservative portion of the community, it will not dray and influential in carrying elections. Still, we think, he will go into the Conventio with greacr strength than any any other man. Douglas is young and, can afford to wait four years longer."

This is the general opinion of the people of the West .-They are aware that Mr. Buchanan is the strongest man the party can produce, and he is the first choice of nine-tenths of the democratic voters of the Union; but fears are appre hended that the friends of Pierce and Douglas (in the con. wention) finding that they cannot succeed in nominating oither of them, will unite upon some "new man." This plan has worked well in former years, but the present crisis demands a chief Executive well versed in our Gov. ernment affairs, and well known as a sound and conserva tive statesman. A "new man" would not be acceptable to the masses at this time, they all look at Mr. Buchanan as a man possessing the requisite qualities for the high posi-tion for which he is named. With him as our standard bearer we would have but little fears to apprehend—he can unite the Democratic masses of the North and South and of the East and West—he can ride over the troubled and agitated waters in safety, and guide the ship of state successfully and triumphantly through the storm that rages in the North and South, whilst strong fears are approhended if any other pilot is placed at the helm.

Donglas, it is true, is young and can "wait for the wagon;" Pierce should be satisfied, and give way to a ma who has grown grey in the services of his country-who has year in and year out stood by the great and glorious principles of Democracy through victory and defeat—who has, (although failed himself in securing a Presidential nomination) advocated the nominees and the cause of Democracy, and through Mr. Buchanan Penusylvania has stood up boldly for the men and measures of the Democratic party. He is the guiding star to the Democracy of the "Keystone State"—and the way he takes, knowing him as they do, they are sure to be right in following his footsteps. The Cincinnati Convention should not, nor cannot reject his claims upon the democracy at this time; if they do, they open a breach wider and more dangerous to the success of the cause, than they will probably be aware of. Missouri. as well as the whole valley of the Mississippi would rejoice and hail his nomination in one unbroken voice of approbation. Iowa is ripe for Buchanan-nearly all the Demo choice, and call aloud for his nomination by the Cincinnati

Mr. Christian Geiger, formerly a citizen of Lancaster, but more recently of Iowa, was in our city a few days since. Mr. John Foster, of Chester County, passed through this place on his way to Iowa City, where, we believe, it is his intention to locate. Pennsylvanians, it appears, when they come west, wend their way to Iowa. That State alread contains a large number of the hardy and indus-dustrious farmers and mechanics of the Keystone State still there is room for all who may wish to settle in one the finest and best agricultural States in the Union. There has been more trouble in Kansas Territory, Jones the sheriff of Douglas county, you are already aware, was hot by some unknown person or persons, but it is thought he will recover from his injury. Many and various are the rumors affoat concerning the present state of affairs in the Territory, and they are so mixed up that we will not venture an assertion as to how the matter stands. But it is probable no serious outbreak is likely to take place. The reports from there are very contradictory, and no reliance whatever, can be put upon them. You can therefore treat all accounts for what they are worth.

Sam. Caruthers, M. C., is now in the city, and has anounced in the papers his intention to become a condidate for re election despite the opposition of Know-Nothingism OLD GUARD.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE. To the Editors of the Intelligencer, dated

WASHINGTON May 9th, 1856. The result of the municipal election, of this week, in the City of Philadelphia, is a glorious triumph over the dark lantern party, and, again, a rebuke to their conduct towards man, that will long be remembered by them in the future contests before the people. That insult to Mr.

ents, as such receptions are, alike due to his public service o the country, and his purity of private life.

Last Friday, Mr. Benjamin, of La., made a splendid speech on the Kansas question—on which occasion he announced n the Senate, that hereafter he should act with the Dem cratic party on national questions and the approaching Presidential election;—as, indeed the national Whig party, to which he belonged, had ceased to exist as a nation party. This announcement was somewhat anticipat from the fact, that Mr. Renjamin had previously intimated, that the Whig party north had bee sequently, he could not longer act with them as a party. Louisiana will now be a unit in the Senate of the U. States on all political questions, wherein political parties are to be arrayed against each other on national elections.

On yesterday we had a long and an interesting debate; on the question of the tax collected by the Danish Govern ment from vessels of all nations, trading through the Baltic sea, and the belts of that sea. Messrs. Mason, Clayton, Stuart, Benjamin, Sumner, Seward, Toombs, Critte and others, engaged in this able debate. The question i shall the Treaty be abrogated between the U. States and Denmark, and the tax refused to be paid by the ship own abrogated, the power to do so remains in Congress, and no in the President and Senate. This being an important ques tion, we incline to the opinion, that the Senate will take

Committee on Fereign Relations.

During the debate in the House of Representatives, of yesterday, Mr. Giddings, of Ohio, fainted and fell upon his desk. Lhe old gentleman was taken out immediately, and was soon restored to consciousness, when brought in con tact with the fresh air. He is quite an aged gentleman and has been guilty of a great deal of political iniquity i The murderers of Gordon, the Railroad Engineer of th. his day, and this sudden visitation upon him, may be for what we know, an admonition to repent of his sins and the harm done by him to our common country.

By the last arrival from Europe we have the outline of the Treaty concluded by the Allies with the Russian Em peror. As we expected, the Czar holds his own, as posses. sed before the commencement of the war. His possessions on the Black Sea are undisturbed, except what the fight ing caused to be destroyed;—the Turks gain comparativel nothing, and the Government of Yord Palmerston is mad to pay the piper by coming out of the contest, with an additional debt of two hundred millions of dollars saddled upon the people of England. But, this is not all.—Louis Napoleon, is made the arbiter of the future regulations of e Turkish Empire, by having the control of Wallachi and Moldavia, the two rich principalities of the Danube belonging to the Turks, and nominally under their control, but the constitution for their future government has to be arranged at Paris, and then, of course. Louis Nanole on will have the sole management of that important mat States, we learn that Lord Palmerston will make som concessione on the Central American question, but what those concessions are to be are not stated. It is further said, that Lord Palmerston's government, will not recal Mr. Crampton, as requested by our government. If this the honor conferred upon him. He has only to give his latter item shall turn cut to be true, we hope the President will instruct Mr. Marcy to give Mr. Crampton, Mr. Barclay: Mr. Matthews, and the Consul at Cincinnati, their letter of dismissal from further duties in their respective positions in the U. States. We have no doubt but that Congress and the people will sustain the President in this just and decisive move, in vindication of the violated laws of the land, as proven upon the partier above named.

A new Minister from the Nicaraguau government has a rived in Washington. Whether he will be received or not. t is difficult to tell. The Star Editor of yesterdsy, has his usual tirade of abuse of him and of Gen. Walker, and seems to take especial delight in casting as much ceusure as pos-sible upon the exertions of Walker and his adventurous companions, as he possibly can. From this announcement the Star and being a demi-official organ, a small organ tru ly, of the public sentiment of the State Department, we are induced to believe that the policy of our Executive which we regret to see, will not be changed towards the government of Nicaragua, now under the control and man be pleased to see some little liberality of our Executive ex anded to Gen. Walker in his efforts to free a portion of Central America from the bad government that have so ong disgraced that unfortunate country. Mr. Herbert, of the House of Representatives, in an alter cation, shot a waiter at Willard's Hotel on yesterday. The nvestigation has not yet concluded, but, as far as the evidence has transpired, I have no dout, but that it will to ult in a justifiable homicide verdict. Mr. II, acted unde

On the Death of a Brother.

Who departed this life, March 11th, 1856

Ву Рыеве Резспет Farewell, my Brother, and a long farewell, Not like the farewell attered once before, That hoped to see thee off again and well: This is the last till time shall be no more. Ah! little thought that thou blest shade so soon

Tis sad to lose those whom we love, To see them close their eyes in death;

Then by them deep beneath the cold damp so. Oh! 'tis enough to move the aching heart. And stir the grief within the heart Say can it be my brother's doa And lying in an angel bed?

To take upon each mourner. But [oh! shall I ever forget My own, my angel Brother.

Then farewell, dearest Brother,
We shall meet no more on earth,
But I hope to meet thes
In a brighter world than this. But heaven thus hath will'd heaven's supreme cor Thou hast obey'd, and passing quick away, Hast reached that happy, that delightful land, Where night gives place to everlasting day.

I well remember all thy looks the while

Oh! yes, but now no longer leams that eye
Of softest stress not a smile we trace;
Those fingers, too, how motionless they lie,
And death's cold image sits upon thy face. A little while and they whom thou did'st prize, Thy friends who grieve, and much thy loss deplore. Released from earth will join thee in the skies, To feel the pang, the parting pang no more.

Then faretsell, Brother, sacred be thy rest, May flowers round thee shed their sweet perfume, And the green turf lie softly o'er thy breast, And friends and willows weep around thy tomb. Providence Twp. 1856.

The following excellent letter was re eived by a gentleman of this City, a few days ago, from a friend at present residing in Maryand. It goes to show the strong and abiding hold Mr. Buchanan has on the affections of the people of all parties, in other States as well as in Pennsylvania. Should he be the nominee of the National Convention, we have every assurance that Maryland will cast her vote for him in November next by an overwhelming majority-something she has not done for a Democratic candidate for the Presidency in many years: Barnesyille, Montgomery Co., Md.,

May 3, 1850.

Dear Sir:—I have felt, for some time, as if it would be a gratification to me to present you my congratulations on the highly favorable prospects of your distinguished friend, the Hon. James Buchann, for his elevation to the Presidential chair at the coming election. I spent two months at Washington previous to the three that I have spent here, and although the opinion was not so openly expressed as elsowhere, that Mr. Buchanan would be the candidate, yet, in private, some of those on whom I could depend, old and long-tried friends, of your political party, were decidedly of the opinion that he would be the regular candidate, and if so would be elected. Yer myself, I am not a member of any political party, but in common with thousands and tens of thousands of others, humble and obscure citizens like myself, wish to see the union of these States preserved inviolate, and such an administration of national affairs as shall regard the good of the whole country and not the gratification of mere party. I know not how these objects can so surely be effected as by the election of Mir. Buchanan. He is an experience! Statesman, one of the leading Statesmen of the age, indeed; and I know of no men so well calculated to conciliate the condicting interests which are causing so nuch ill feeling among the different sections of the country.
Mr. Buchanan's services while at the English Court are alone sufficient, to say nothing of his other qualifications, to secure for him the first office in the gift of the American people. We ought to make it our endeavor to elevate welltrained, long-tried Statesmen to such an office as that of Presidont, and if he is not available, do all we can to make him so. I think it due to Pennsylvania that she should have the nominating of the next President, and I think it due to Mr. Buchanan that he should be nominated, and if nominated, that he should be clected, as I have not the slightest doubt whatever but that he-will. And I anticipat Barnesville, Montgomery Co., Md., May 3, 1856.

pate for the country, should this take place, a brilliant administration, one that would leave its mark on the history of the country.

At the last election I was much interested in Mr. Webster; for, although there was much to excuse in him, as there is, indeed, in respect to all our public men, still I saw in him a genuine love of country, and transcendent talents for serving the country. I now transcendent talents for serving the country. I now transcendent talents for serving the country. I now transcendent talents seeme his election, should be be nominited. And this, not from any desire to obtain any favor of whatever kind. I never spoke to Mr. Buchanan in my life, and never expect to do so; and my sphere of duty is too well settled and determined to permit me ever to go so far from it as to take any office, under government, of whatever kind. But I saw more deeply into national affairs, during my sojourn in Washington, last winter, than! I ever did before, and I am desirous of doing my duty, as a citizen, in meeting the exigencies of the present criss in our affairs. I shall therefore, do all I can to induce the people around me to vote for Mr. Buchanan.

LUMBER.-Lumber is coming down the Susquehanna, says the Columbia Spy, quite freely. Upwards of three hundred rafts had passed that point within the four days preceding Thursday last. The only lumber sold up to that time was hemlock, at prices not made public. The buyers from abroad were not so numerous as those in attendance last season. On Friday the arrivals were as numerous as any previous day. The better kinds of lumber Buchanan, having so soon recoiled upon the Know-Nothings, we have nothing further to say, but to express our thanks to the people of Philadelphia, in the election of this week and in their happy riddance of the Buchanan, having so soon recoiled upon the Know. Nothings, we have nothing further to say, but to express our thanks to the people of Philadelphia, in the election of this week and in their happy riddence of the election of this week and in their happy riddence of the Mr. Buchanan is expected in this city on Monday next.

Mr. Buchanan is expected in this city on Monday next. We are gratified to know, that he will receive from all citizens a most cordial reception. Due to his eminent tales eminent tales were senting to hesitate.

THE GREATEST DISCOVERY OFTHE AGE. FROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE—This preparation, although less than Iwo years before the public, owing to its wonderful effects upon the human hair and scalp, has already obtained a celebrity and sale perfectly unparallelled. It has without the ordinary appliance used for such purposes, won its way, and been heartily welcomed to most of the cities and towns in the United States the Canadas, and the West India Islands. Nor is this remult surprising, when it is remembered that its popularity is based upon its merits, solely as established by actual tests. That this preparation will actually RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL OLIOR, produce a luxuriant growth upon the heads of the bald, prevent the hair from falling off, and when used as a toilet article, produce a continual flow of the natural fluids, and thus render the hair soft, glossy and wary, destroy diseases of the scalp, and expel clossy and wavy, destroy diseases of the scalp, and estanding the certificates of distinguished gentlemen addes, in every part of the country who have tried it, therefore speak what they know, most fully attest.

Milford, Worcester Co., Mass., Nov. 13th, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir; I take pleasure in bearing voluntary testimony to the magic effects of your wonderful Hair Restorative. As far back as 1858 my hair commenced falling off, until the top of my scalp became bald and smooth as glass, and it has continued to fall for a great many years, notwithstanding I have used many celebrated preparations for its restoration. Seeing your advertisement, I was induced to give your article a trial, and to my utter astonishment, I found after a few applications that my hard became firmly set and assumed a very glossy and beautiful appearance; and, by the time I had used a quart bottle full, my hald head was covered over with a young and vigrrous growth of hair, which is now from one to two inches in length, and growing very fast.

Yours truly, Hexey Goodrich.

From the Eoston Herald SOMETHING WORTH KNOWING!—By using Frofessor Wood's air Lestorative, gray Hair can be permanently rustored to original color. The subjoined certificate was received from hinson & Stone, Gardener, Me., and is but one of the many instances that are daily coming to our knowledge its wonderful effects. It is no longer problematic, but self-evident truth, as hundreds can testify.

Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair.

Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, respectfully.

DANIEL N. MURPHY. DANIEL N. MURPHY. I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the ass of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt, permanently so.

The Greatest Discovery of the Age,-It seldom occur hat we notice, under any circumstances, patent medicines, estorativet, or anything of the kind, for we have a preju-ice against m st of them. But candor compels us to in-ite attention to the advertisement of Prof. Wood's Halr vite attention to the advertisement of Prof. Wood's Hair Resbrative. We are too juvenile to require anything of the kind, but some instances of its use have come to our knowledge which almost assure us that it is a sovereign remedy against the hair becoming prematurely gray. It is not a "Hair Dyg;" but upon its application as directed, the effect is produced on the skin, which brings out the original native colored hair, without stiffness, and gives it a glossyand natural appearance. We have seen persons who have used it, and they are much pleased with it.—Missouri Republican.

CAUTION - ASTROLOGY . - LOOK OUT!-Good News for All. The nevor falling Mrs. VANHORN is the very best; she is sure to succeed when all others have falled. All who are in trouble; all who have heen unfortuzate, decelved and trifled with; all whose fond hopes have been crushed and blasted by false promises; all who have had bad luck, fly to her for advice and satisfaction, from whatever cause, fly to her for relief and comfort. In love affairs she was never known to fail. She has the secret. of winning the affections of the opposite sex. It is this fact which induces illiterate pretonders to try to imitate her.—She shows you the likeness of your future wife, husband, or absent friend. It is well known to the public at large that she is the first and only person in this country who can show their likeness in reality—which can be testified and proved by thousands, both married and single, who daily and eagerly visit her. AGREAT CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.—Agents wanted in every county in the U. States, to sell, by subscription. "Brother Mason, the circuit rider; or Ten Years a Methodist Preacher." This great work abounds in startling, anusing pictures of iterant lifenot such as float on the surface and are common to every one that looks, but such as are found at the bottom of the stream, and seen by only the closest observer. It thous forth the philosophy of its workings, and the opinion of thinking men in a very clear and striking manner; and especially does it show with what power the system bears upon its immediate, subjects, whether for good or evil the reader must judge. It is a book that will do great good, and will interest, instruct and delight all who read it. It contains 320 large 12pm, pages, seven magnificent illustrations by one of the best artists in the United States; bound in beautiful embossed muslin, guilt back. Betail price $1. A Human Life Saved —

Downold Mich., March 11, 1856.

J. A. RHODES, Esq.: Dear Sir.—As I took your medicine to sell on consigument, "no curonfo pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. CONKLIN told me—"I have taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it until my lungs and lived was Congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thoughs it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors too did sill they could for me, but though! I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhode's Fever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nauses at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. CONKLIN says: "I had been taking medicine of as time."

H. M. CONKLIN says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good result, from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle.

S. M. CONKLIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M's. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify.

Yours with respect,

The above speaks for itself. Gold proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the rast number of like certificates I have already sublished, and the still creater amount that is continalready published, and the still greater amount that is contin-ually pouring in to me. One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Caution,the Public in these words:— One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Caution, the Public in these words:

"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then with brazen impudence end their pamphlet with the exclanation, 'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares,' " &c. '

Now I take pleasure in saying that the Caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Agus Balsam," that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my kever and Agus Cure, or Antidote to Mislaria, except the Certificate of Cures, and the Certificate of the celebrated Chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of N. Y., in favor of its perfectly II ARMLESS CHARACTHE, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from limitations.
