Increase,

The people want to hear Col. Benton, and one of the largest meeting ever held in the city, or State, will probably come off, on next Saturday night, when Buchanan and Breckinridge will again be the watch word. We were glad to see Col. Benton use his in denne for Mr. Buchanan, for when such statesmen as Benton see the necessity of calling such men to the head of affairs, we are inclined to believe the cauntry is threatened.

Papers from the far West and South come thick and fast with the Nation's Choice floating to the breeze. There is a great unanimity of sentiment and good feeling, better perhaps, than ever haretefore, in the Democratic party. Hurrah for BUCHANAN AND BRECKINRIDGE.
