The "Intelligencer" for the Campaign RIAN to those who wish to take it during the Presidential campaign upon which we have entered, for seventy-five cents in advance. The campaign proper will end with the 1st of December, when the returns are all in and the electoral colleges meet. The issues involved in the campaign are of vital importance to the Republic, and a proper understanding of them is necessary for every citizen. We shall give all the political news of the day, and thus endeavor to place arguments in the reach of our to their high and holy office, (and some of friends who have to encounter the common

Although the article was copied from another paper, it had a conspicuous place in the editorial columns of the Examiner, and, of be, in fraternal blood! Let their last feeble course, expressed Mr. Darlington's sentiments and lingering glance, rather behold the gorat that time-a little over four months ago .--Now, however, he seems to think differently, and is willing to labor with and for a party their original lustre, not a stripe erased or parture from what was advocated in the same that is "sectional" in thought, word and deed, polluted, not a single star obscured, bearing paper less than three months ago. and whose leaders are boldly and avowedly in favor of a dissolution of the Union unless they are permitted to accomplish their selfish ends in their own way. The record looks ugly for our neighbor, but his sudden and unaccountable conversion to Black Republicanism renders an exposure necessary. We have only commenced examining the books. We have much stronger evidence of his inconsistency in store, the producting of his own pen, which will be forthcoming in due season.

The alarm was given, and the Fire Companie who were at the time escorting the Laurel Company to their quarters, promptly repaired to the spot, and succeeded in extinguishing the fire with the loss of the upper portion of the stable. A very valuable horse, belonging to Rev. Mr. Crumbaugh, was got out just before the roof fel Very little damage was done excepting to the stable. The supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

____ Fourth of July Celebration at Ephrata. In accordance with former customs, the Rifie Company of Ephrata met at the public house of John W. Gross, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and after going through the different evolutions, at 12 o'clock partook of a dinner prepared by the proprietor in a most becoming and excellent style. After taking a recess for one hour they proceeded to the Ephrata Monument. After reaching the place where many of our heroes lay sleeping, the meeting was organized by appointing the following officers,

The Issue Between Black Republicanism and Constitutionalism.

The St. Louis Republican, formerly a Whig paper, thinks that this is the constant and entire the paper, thinks that this is the constant and entire the din the Presidential canvass, and calls upon all its old Whig supporters, and who would stand by the Constitution, to support Mr. Buchanan against the Black Republican combination—

As an indication of the present tendencies of the old hine Whig and conservative elements, we make the following extract from an article in that paper of the 12th ultimo:

But, in our opinion, it matters very little whether "new men" or "old men" appear in apposition to Mr. Buchanan at the coming election. That gentleman will as assuredly be elected President of the Union, he will unite the votes of all those who love the Union, no matter what elforts may be made to combine other what efforts may be made to combine other satisfacts. The present enemy had the one will follow the other as certainly as that night follows the day—will be halled everywhere as he signal of deliverance from agitating questions which have, for years, that they care not how soon "the Union may slidily to do a thing that they will not do it? Let the sibility to do a thing that they will not do it? Let the mass meetings where the Cincinnal nominations were raised at the truth of our assertion—meetings where the people in attendance were computed by acres instead of by thousands. Indeed so thoroughly swakened and alive to their interests are the people every where we have been and we pressume it is the same over the entire Union, that we honestly believe were nothing done by Mr. Buchanan's friends up to the election day with the exception of informing the people on the morning of the 4th of November that it was election day, we believe that the democratic tikest would be triumphant with such a friumph as is seldom witnessed. Yet it will do no hards to keep the question before the people—to keep our-of-vest all well posted on the doings of the enemy; for the enemy it is thus their pefarious designmay be successfully thwarted. But we fear that we have engaged too much of your time in foreing this long letter on you and your readers—but our sympathy for Buchanan would lead us to do worse things than this of entailing so

IT 48 ALL A MISTAKE. -Some of our exchanges are circulating reports that the Chicago Democrat and Chicago Press are the most influential Democratic papers in Illinois, and that they repudiated the Democratic candidates and Cincinnati Platform. If there ever were two tibs, these statements of their's are those two. Our neighbor of the Intelligencer swallows the pill, too. Why those Chicago papers have been real, old foul mouthed Black Republican sheets from the very birth of Black Republicanism. At the late Chicago municipal elec-tion they were the warmest supporters of the Black Republican ticket in all Illinois, and awfully influential when we consider the fact that their darling ticket was defeated by the Democrats by five hundred majority. Chicago Times is the Democratic paper there, and is hot for Buchanan and Breckinridge .-Here is another roarer that is going the rounds started by the Cin. Commercial "In this city four German papers-two dailies and two weeklies-oppose the nomination of Buchanan.' Now that is a pretty story. Last fall these same papers supported Chase for Governor, who did not get one half of the German vote of Hamilton county. Shame on such trickery. Hamilton (O.) Telegraph The Georgia Flag of the Union says that fully twenty thousand old line Whigs in Georgia will vote for the nominees of the National Democratic Cenvention. The Boston Courier an old line Whig paper has come out in favor of James Buchanan for the Presidency.
