Telling him to his face, that it is to him and his fanatical associates, that most of the difficulty that now reigns in Kansas is to be ascribed. That, to their in-tarfarence with the spools of that distant Territory, all the murders and robberies are to be ascribed from their fanat-ical harangues, and also the encouragement given to the majority in the House, to embarase the Senate and the Ex-emitire. Mr. Pearce destres to support Mr. Buchanan for President, to save the Union from the anarchy and coulturion, that would follow the election of Mr. Framont. To this Mr. Webb objects, and of course, Mr. Pearce must feel very much embarrassed at the objection Mr. Webb has raised against him for his noble letter. Gen. Sr. LOUIS. August 4th, 1856. We have at long last been blessed with rain-an abun-dence has fallen during the past week, and the gardens and growing crops have been greatly benefitted. The earth as thickly baked, and nearly everything in the ground was supposed to be burnt up; but the recent heavy showers have had's good effect, and the crops have started anew, command of a small body of U. S. Troops, and and present appearances indicate an average yield. The corn will be much better than many supposed a few weeks since. Nearly every day of the past week we were visited managing Uncle Sames finances proves concluheavy rain fell. The weather has been pleasant. The mortuary reports show an increase of sickness, though the no means considered unhealthy. Business i more brisk. Our produce market has improved. Another murder was committed in our city a few nights inco-two men, named respectively Ed. Pollard and David Grafton, got into a quarrel, when Grafton drew a knife and stabbad Pollard several times in the left side. The wounded man died about two hours after. Grafton has been arrest

The past week has been one of great excitament in the political circles. The Know-Nothings on Friday night had a torch light procession, and made a grand display. Every night during the week meetings were held in different parts of the city. On Saturday night all three parties had neetings, and each one was respectably attended. Col. Benton made another speech to a much larger crowd than the one in attendance two or three weeks ago. He said the amount claimed, and suspended $307,927 for Democracy of the State were unanimous for Buchanan .-

He again spoke in the highest terms of the Sage of Wheatand, and gave unmistakable evidence of his sincerity in the cause of Buchanan and Breckipridge. He said the ; been furnished to Fremont for Government James Buchanan, and it was not only the duty of every M. G. Vallego cla democrat to support him at the polls, but to lend their support and assistance to him in carrying out his administra. tion after his inaugeration on the 4th of next March. He also took occasion to give Col. Fremont a dig under the fifth rib-he said the man who would wish to be President by the votes of one section of the Union over that of the other, wanted patriotism-and a man of any patriotism rould scorn to be a President by votes of one section to the exclusion of the other-he compared such a man to the exclusion of the other-he compared such a man to the filth in a pot of boiling water-when the water boiled he would come to the top of the pot like scum, and when the fire went out would sink to the bottom a dreg and a sediment. He was listened to for three hours by not less than 7 to 10,000 of our citizens. Torch light processions came from every ward with appropriate transparencies and The election takes place to-day, and all parties are equal-voters, and the going down of to-day's sun will tell a tale worthy of second. Now as Fremont had a very small force unworthy of secord.

Another of the Gap Gang Arrested .- John Townsend, of Sadsbury township, this county, was on Thursday committed to our Prison, by Alderman Carpenter, charged, on the oath of James Buckley, of Chester county. with having received goods knowing them to have been stolen from his manufactory, about the middle of last April The confessions of Joseph Hendricks and Thomas Young, now in the West Chester Jail, led to the discovery of a larg number of stolen articles concealed on the premises of Mr. Townsend, among which were those taken from Mr. Buck-ley. Mr. Townsend is about 70 years of age, in easy cir cumstances, and has heretofore borns a good character in the neighborhood in which he resides.

Hughes, and other old Whigs, recommending to our old rifends of the Whig party, to support Buchanan and Breckinridge for President and Vice Fresident. In the present condition of our country, when sectional misrule threatens the dissolu-tion of our glorons Union, and we see one National party still glinging to the Union, and to the rights of all the States under the Constitution, we see one course for Union-toring, National Conservative Whigs to take, but to vote with the National Conservative Whigs to take, but to vote with the National Democracy, and to give that party as heavy a support as ever we gave our own glorious old Whig party, which has been so shamefully deserted by our old associates in politics. ania statesman.

These whigs of Langette couldy, who have signed this letter, are not alone in this matter; there are hundreds nay thousands of conservative Whigs in this State, and in other States, who have made up their minds to do like these supplies are presumed to be furnished, was extremely small. It was certainly not over 1000 men. What disposition could so I stated in my last that the K. N.'s were trying to get up of dollars worth of horses and cattle in one an old line Whig meeting, to endorse Fillmore, and had got the signatures of some S or 10 gentlemen-after the trick was exposed, Mr. Singleton, (who was mentioned last week) one of the signers came out before the public and said the matter was misrepresented to him-he did not endorse Fillmore, and would vote for the Democratic National nominations. Since which, another, Mr. Pilkinton another Whig who was induced to sign this call, denounces the endorsement of Fillmore, and declares himself for Buchanan. The Hon. John F. Darby, formerly a Whig n from this district avows himself for "Old Buck." So it is every day we have new evidence that the

The Lexington Statesman a few days since chronicled the names of Uhity who had just left the K. N. Camps. The Terrer Hante (Ind.) Express has hauled down the name of Fillmore and substituted Premoat in its stoad. James E. Weller, an old line Whig of Fayette co., Ky., has come out for "Buck and Breck." Col. White, a Fillmore elector in Indiana, has declined the honor imposed upon him. Hes for the Clucinnati nominees. Favorable reports reach us for Wheatland, and his friends pledge the State for 12,000 majority. The Muscatthe Inquirersays the best feeling prevails in the Democratic party, and Iowa can be set down as certain for the Democratic party, and Iowa can be set may be said of the State for the Democratic party, and Iowa can be set and Ward." may be said of Illinois. The most cheering accounts pour in upon us from all quarters of that State. The Blace Republicaus put a German on their ticket for Licut. Governor, in Illinois, who has turned out to be constitutionally neligible, and had to decline ; and Col. Bissell, their candidate for Governor, is also ineligable to that office, according to the provisions of the same constitution, which excludes the Licut. Governor. What a Constitutional party they are, to be sure. The nekt thing we will hear of will be that Fremont is incligible to the White House-we will hear that after the November election, as certain as the election comes off. The double B's are bound to win-no earthly power can prevent such a consolation so devoutly to be wished.

Every thing goes of finely in a political way; the country a aroused, and the conservative patriotic union loving men of all parties will rally around the standard of Buchanan and Breckinridge, who will restore peace and barmony to the now agitated masses. Never was there a nomination so enthusiastically received in all parts of the, Union, as that made by the deliberations of the Cincinnati Conven-tion; and that enthusaism is daily increasing, and the Buchanan ticket will receive a much larger vote than was at first supposed. But notwithstanding the certainty of his election, every friend of the Union should roll up his sleeves and enter the campaign in behalf of the Union-a duty he owes to his country, to himself and to his children. Yours, OLD GUARD.

JOHN ROWE, OF FRANKLIN.-We are rejoiced at the nomination of this gentleman for the office of Surveyor General. The State Convention could not have made a wiser choice. Indeed, Messrs. Alexander, of Clarion, Whallon, of Erie, and Rowe, of Franklin were all first rate men. The Convention, with the circumstances, could not have made a bad choice. On presenting John Rowe, they offer to the Democracy of the State a Democrat of unflinching principle and consistency,—a man of stern integrity, spotless character, generous sense, and amiable deportment. John Rowe will add strength to a ticket already strong. His trumph in October, together with that of majority in the Keystone State for Buchanan and Breckinridge.—Argus.
