Br. LOUIS, Sept. 7, 1856. Several very heavy rains have fallen since our last report but the weather has been most delightful—the evenings and mornings cool and pleasant. The rivers are all extremely low, and many of the larger class boats have "laid up," awaiting a rise. Business is beginning to assume its usual activity-country merchants are daily arri ving, and our principal thoroughfares present indications of an early and heavy fall trade. Our produce market is ng—wheat and corn are going up—the former ad-@2c. per bushel in the last two days. The grain eccipts have been liberal in the past week, and very little is left on the market from day to day. The health of our city is unusually good—the season for chills and fever is at hand, but we hear of no great number of cases.

The world renowned Macallister (the Magician) died in Keckuk, Iowa, on the 3d inst. He was in his 43d year. A letter to the Republican from Jefferson City informs us that Newland, the K: N. candidate for Lieut. Governor, is elected by 40 majority, over Jackson, Dem. We will here state that the cause of Jackson's defeat was that his name counties. Simms was the Democratic nominee, but owing to private affairs was compelled to decline—but not until a few weeks prior to the election, when Jackson was selected to fill the vacancy upon the ticket. Simms received some 1200 votes in the State, which Jackson was entitled to, and which would have elected him by over 1100 majority. The defeat of Jackson, under the circumstances, is unfortunate. With this exception the entire State-ticket is elected by decided majorities—Polk for Governor has over 6000! "Gov. Geary, the newly appointed Governor of Kansas. ugh this city a day or two since for the territoon threw up his commission some time duce-no sooner than he heard of his dismissal, and Mr. Woodson, Secretary of the Territory, has been the Acting overnor. It is to be hoped that his arrival there will re tions are not such, we hope he may take the responsibilit store peace and quiet to that unhappy territory. He win all probability, find civil war raging, and if his instr upon himself, and use actively and effectually the U. S troops, and, if possible, prevent any further shedding of blood. Let him put the whole territory under martial aw-require all men to give up their arms, and settle down upon their "sections" peaceably and pursue and at plished, if the Governor will only give the settlers a guar antee of the protection of their lives and property.

Accounts from Kansas to the 31st ult., lead us to believe that civil war actually prevails upon American soil-there is scarcely a doubt as to the truth of the late advices received here. It appears that the town of Ossawattomie was attacked and now lies in amondaring rains. Brown and his party were congregated there—they were commit-ting depredations, it is said, when the attack was made upon them. Greeley, Beecher & Co. have urged these men to take up the sword, and by the sword they have perished, and the blood that has been split in Kansas, and the wife made a widow and the child fatheriess—they, and they alone are responsible. Unless Government authority interferes, the worst has not yet transpired. Lane and his men are still in the terrftory, and accounts state that they are murdering men, nen and children, and destroying and plundering all the property they can lay their hands upon; and in view of all this the pre-slavery party are organizing in the border counties, and have already from 2,500 to 3,000 men armed and equipped to lend a helping hand so soon as required on every hand, hence the murders and robberies. But hould the new Governor display his heroism, and order the U.S. troops'against the hostile parties, not much brood will be lost in restoring peace and contentment in the erritory. We have seen enough of this civil war; we have had enough blood shed to gratify the "shrickers" of the North, and it is high time to put a stop to this novel mode of the Black Republicans to make capital for Fremont the man that his own father-in-law repudiates and opposes. Col. Benton sees the great danger to the Union and the family. The course that Col. Benton has taken in the ampaign, is one that should be regarded as of no ninor importance, and his position—standing out against his own son-in-law—calling upon the people to support Buchanan instead of Fremont—shows the danger appre hended by that great Statesman in the success and triumph of Black Republicanism. Let the friends of the Union ponder well before they cast their votes for the Sectional (Northern) candidate. Let the conservative men of the country, of all political parties, cast their eye over statesmen, and see where they stand, and what their sentiments are-whether they see danger shead in the event of the election of Fremont to the Presidency—and it will convince any reasonable, self-thinking voter that the country equires just such a man as James Buchanan to nip in the bud the treason and treachery now being studied and to be practiced in the unfortunate event of Fremont's elecin the north or the south-for Buchanan, the only National excitement and slavery agitation will at once be put to rest, excitement and slavery agitation will at once be put to rest, and the laws of the land again respected, and the poople of the territories required to submit peaceably to them. Let every lover of the Union ponder over these facts; let every conservative man reflect as to what will be the future in the event of the success of Abolitionism; let every voter imagine the feeling of the Southern people at the choice of a Northern President to the exclusion of fiften Southern as to what may be best to promote their happiness. Songing to the same confederation, submitting to the same laws, contributing their portion. in sustaining the same Government, and acting shoulder to shoulder in defending the same Constitution and Independence which the South accept your Northern candidate, knowing, as we the South accept your Northern candidate, knowing, as we do, his sattered and conservative views—we don't ask of him to carry out Southern measures to the exclusion of the North—we accept him to carry out for he North—we accept him as Northe for each newly accept the southern measures to the exclusion of Territorial governments for each newly accept him to accept him as Northe was completed. your rights of the North—we accept him as a National man, quired domain, is to refrain from all legislation and will give him our hearty support; we look to you for your share of support, and by giving it, no danger of a dissolution will exist. These are our sentiments publicly expressed, and we are confident that the people of Pennsyl and we are confident that the people of Pennsyl and we are confident that the people of Pennsyl and we are confident that the people of Pennsyl and we have attained to a condition of the support of the people of the peop vania will prove their attachment to one of her own sons,

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE. o the Editors of the Intelligencer, date

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12th, 185 In the Union of this city, of the 10th inst., you will find letter from the pen of the Hon. John Slidell, of Loui to his constituents. In that letter, the question is fairly and candidly stated by the writer, the consequences to this union of States, that would follow the election to the Presidency of the sectional candidate, as now nominated by the black abolition republican sectional party. Although Mr. Slidell has no doubt in the result of the ap-proaching Presidential election, and in the success of Mes-ars. Buchanan and Breckinridge, yet, the consequences to the country should they fail, or being successful, the sis very agitation being renewed and continued, is of fearful import. He holds to the "Union of the States" as the the sheet anchor of our safety at home and abroad,—but, should the worst come to the worst, and the people and rights of the Southern States continue to be insulted and avaded, by those who trifle with the constitutional com pact, then he holds himself in readiness to act in the pre mises, as required by the people of the State of which he is in part the able representative in Congress. If the rights and institutions of the States respectively are not to be enjoyed free and untrammelled, and void of interferent then this Union of States is not worth preserving: c equality is the beauty of our system,—and, non-interfer ence is the requisite that will make this the greatest and most prosperous nation under the canopy of Heaven. We sincerely hope that the people of the old Keystone State will be the example to her sister States, in sending union men to Congress, in the places of those who are plotting the dismemberment of the country, so truthfully, and so orcibly set forth by Mr. Slidell in his admirable letter of aution against the machinations and dis-union sentiments of the black republican sectional party. We shall be erted in your valuable and able journal.

The election in Vermont, now followed by the election in Maine, prove pretty conclusively to the friends of the national Union, that there is no such party in "New Eng land" as the national Fillmore party. The majority of votes at the two State elections above, are locally abolition and sectionally dis-union—and, from the heavy majority in each State, we are fearful that the pure national demoratic party will not be able to redeem those two States rom the blight and mark of Cain that seems so indelible work of the evil one that now controls the majority of PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—This is investigate the affray between Messra Granger and McMullen. The report being before you, Messra. Editors, you will see what a farce the whole affair was to have the attent of a House Committee to report upon. Indeed, the whole business is more of fun and frolie, than for the action of grave and serious legislative investigation.

The Kanssa news is so contradictory and so improbable in detail, that if ind few persons here willing to place any credence in the reports by the Telegraph from that ill. governed and nilch abused people in that distant Territory.

But candor compels us to invite attention to the advertisement of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. We are too juvenile to require anything of the kind, but some instances of its use have come to our knowledge which almost assure us that it is a sovereign remedy against the hair becoming prematurely gray. It is not a "Hair Dye;" but upon its application as directed, the effect is produced on the skin, which brings out the original antive colored hair, without stiffness, and gives it a glossyand natural appearance.
