The silly attempt at wit of these men, in speaking of "the home of the Cincinnati Platform"-"the home of the late Mr. Buchanan," is characteristic of the low and groveling mind that concocted it, and of the imbecile bitterness and malignity of those who sent it abroad to the world with their signatures at-

When Mr. Roberts settled his accounts as

Marshal of the Eastern District, Comptroller Whittlesey rejected several thousand dollars of his claims as illegal. Mr. R. has since been untiring, but unsuccessful, in his efforts to wring the money from the U.S. Treasury.— He has doubtless been persuaded that, as a nember of Congress, he could bring more influence to bear on the officers of the Treasury to induce them to admit his rejected clai or bore through Congress an appropriation for

We might go on and give further extracts in regard to Mr. Roberts' incompetency from this time-honored and once reliable organ of the old Whig party; but the above will suffice for the present. The Extra Compensation Again:

We were a little in error last week in stating that the extra compensation bill passed the House of Representatives by a vote of claimed war against a charitable institution, HAUKE, present a pleasing contrast to the names Constitution," when at the same time they are 101 to 98. We have since obtained a certified the girls religiously beginning the distressed by the girls religiously beginning the distressed by the girls religiously beginning the distressed by the girls religiously beginning to the girls religiously beginning to the distressed by the girls religiously beginning to the distressed by the girls religiously beginning to the girls religiously beginning the girl copy of the yeas and nays from the prope office at Washington, from which we learn that the vote stood 100 to 99. This makes the responsibility resting on Mr. Roberts, the member from this district, who voted for the bill, still tion, an anti-Stavery Bible, and an anti-Stavery | greater-as his vote decided the question! Had he voted in the negative, the bill would have been lost by a vote of 99 year to 100 nays. But he was so anxious to put about $3300 extra compensation in his pocket, over and above the $8 per diem heretofore allowed to members of Congress, and which was deemed amply sufficient by such men as Bu-CHANAN, CLAY, WEBSTER, CALHOUN, CASS. CRITTENDEN, and other distinguished National Legislators, that he willingly consented to the passage of a bill, which for the last session alone added to the expenses of the Government $1,000,000! The following article from the N.Y. Tribune will serve to open the eyes of the people of Lancaster county to the enormity of the offence committed by ANTHONY E. ROBERTS and his ninety-nine colleagues of the House of Representatives who voted for the bill:

We maintain that the present members o Congress, having seen fit to accept that posi tion without complaint of the compensation, or notice that they should try to increase it, were morally bound to serve out their respective terms at the old price, and to make crease of pay prospective only, not retrospec ive—that is to say, it should have taken effec from and after the assembling of the next Congress.

We hold that, if the pay were to be increased in ed at all, then and thenceforth, the present un equal, exorbitant and slippery mileage should have been reformed, reduced and equalized. Now some-members receive more than double

We insist that a bill which changes the com pensation from so much per day to so much per year, should have deducted at least as much rom a member's pay for each day's unnecesabove account, ought to satisfy any ordinary test took place! [Certain gentlemen feared a sary absence as he receives for each day's actual service. Now the new act, while it pays members about $30 for each day's actual rvice, deducts only a fraction over $8 for each from the Senate Chamber!] The Democrats day's wilful absence. In other words: a member elect who shall see fit not to take his seat at all, but to devote his whole time to a tour of business or pleasure in Europe, would be entitled to receive about $4,000 from the Treasury as Congressional compensation.
Finally, while we do not object to the change from a daily to an annual compensation, we insist that $3,000 instead of $6,000 per term would be quite enough, and that with this the mileage should be reduced and straightened, are authorized by that gentleman to say that drawing a large crowd. But the bate won't be raised to at least $25 per day. No one will set and the fine for wilful non-attendance should contend that Congress ought to sit or will sit more than six months at the long session, while the shorter is limited by the Constitution to three months—making nine months' service for a full term. Why is not $2,000 for the long and $1,000 for the short session being at the rate of $4,000 per annum for actual service—quite enough? Remember that paying Congress at the rate of $6,000 per annum for the term of actual service, with newspapers, documents, and postage free, is certain to lead to the enhancement of salaries and allowances on all hands. Remember that the next act of Congress after increasing its own pay was to vote a gratuity of twenty per cent. on their several stipends to all their regiment of already overpaid doorkeepers pages, folders, packers, fire-makers, sweepers &c. Men and brethren! will you consider that our National expenditures are already Sixty-odd Millions in time of peace, of which not Five Millions are devoted to purposes of practical utility to future generation to work, and leave no honorable means untried to secure the success of the State and County ticket. A Word to Odd Fellows. In the city and county of Lancaster we have about 2000 citizens connected with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The society s purely a charitable one, having for its single object the relief of distress, in whatever shape or form it may appear. That a society of this Mr. ROBERTS and we have done with it for the kind should become an object of hate, scorn present. During the last Congress he failed and contumely seems a strange anomaly,—and have his claim passed and the judgment of vet here in Lancaster county we have a few the Comptroller reversed. Should he be re- narrow-minded, bigoted and designing men, elected there is no doubt he will press his who, in order to make political capital for claim with renewed vigor, and failing to rethemselves, have for years made war upon it Their miserable and puny efforts, it is true will doubtless endeavor to snake a bill through have rather advanced than retarded the pro-Congress for his relief. Failing in their base design, however, they should not be held guiltless. The intention should be taken for the deed, and the men who boldly prothe sick, relieve the distressed, bury the dead and educate the orphan,-should be exposed to the execration and scorn of every honorable and humane man. Among the most bitter and violent opposers of Odd Fellowship stand Anthony E. Roberts and THADDEUS STEVENS. Their hostility knows no cessation-no change. In season and out of season, they ring out their foulmouthed calumnies against the Order and its members. That this is so cannot be denied. For proof of it we refer our readers to the following resolution, adopted unanimously a few years ago by a county meeting held at Reed's Hotel in this city. STEVENS and ROBERTS Were the getters up of the meeting; the former being the principal speaker, and the latter one of the nominces for office. But read the resolution, and then decide whether Roberts, Str. vens & Co., possess the common attributes of

The Abolition Know-Nothing State Ticket. The Convention of March, which placed the Abolition State Ticket in nomination, was composed in good part of known Abolitionists and members of the American Order. Since that time, however, Know-Nothingism has grown to be so out of fashion, that when the same men assembled in Philadelphia, in June, to select a candidate for the Presidency, they passed a resolution partially ignoring the fiant, and blasphemous Abolitionism. It is witness among political antagonists. They this which underlies the whole State ticket. this which underlies the whole State ticket.

The Know-Nothing who votes for it, because it is supposed to represent his sentiments, will be quite as much cheated as the foreign born sitizen who votes for it because he thinks it represents his sentiments. The only party that will be satisfied with it are the Abolition ists, and they are chuckling in their sleeves over the success of a plan by which they win the adopted citizens and the worst Know-Nothings at one and the same time into their toils by professing to favor their contradictory doctrines. Was there ever in the history of politics a more damning, disgraceful and reckles character is the bending willow which gently yields to every passing breeze.

As a specimen of the contemptuous language used towards Mr. Fillmore and his friends by the Fremonters, we copy the following from a lack than this? The people that would endorse such a fraud would give the lie to the idea that they are capable of self-government.

Thus on the one hand they court the Know-Nothings, and on the other they reject them; and, as if to make the matter still more degrading, and to prove their criminal hypocrisy; the North American Convention which as sembled in New York, and nominated Fremont, after he had been nominated in Philadelphia, was a pure Know-Nothing concern, and passed Know-Nothing resolutions, Colffeen, and of the second of the seco

Would that every citizen of Pennsylvania could hear the words of wisdom which fall from time to time from the lips of this eloquent and truly particule Georgian. We have every reason to believe that Governor Conn will be again with us at our County Mass Meeting on the 8th of October—and if so, every body in Lancaster county should make it a point to hear him.

At the conclusion of Mr. Conn's speech. William J. Rose, and came forward. To say that we, in common with the vast crowd of hearers were pleased with this gentl man's address is not expressive enough. He made a most beautiful and heart-thrilling speech, and one that made some of the Black Republicans in attendance ashamed of themselves and their cause. Mr. Rose is a young man of brilliant talents, and, by the way, one of Pennsylvania's sons. It is his intention we believe, to remain in the State until after the October election. Wherever he goes we can assure our friends that they will hear speeches of ability, and that ring, too, with the true Democratic metal.

Three cheers were given in conclusion for each of the Speakers, three for Georgia and New York, and nine cheers for our glorious standard bearers. The cheering and age-

What impression the gentleman, whose name is at the and disinferested feelings of partitions, that must nest is smowhere about the heart of every true lover of our whole country. His speech was nothing argumentative—indeed it was too brief to be wasted in cold argument—it was mere queorking of the bottle of his mand, and tasting the drop that hangs to the stopper; but that note gave the assurance that the vessel was full of the same genuine con-tents, and only needed time and opportunity to pour if out. it was one of those ad iresses that run parallel with the

Such a descerating attempt has been reserved for these present times,—but under the all-healing initiatence of that potent remedy, the people's voice, the body politic will be again restored to health—Pennsilvania and Kentucky, under the leadership of her giant sols Buchanna and Breckinkinge, will have a friendly greeting on the 4th of November next, and their mutual pledges redeemed. The "sober second thought" of the people is beginning to prevail, and wherever Breckinkinger has pointed his artillerly he has made a prodigious gap in the ranks of political opponents. Such must ever be the crowning effort in the cause of Truth.

Langaster, Sept. 25, 1856. VERITAS.

Is It so ! Messis. Entrops:—At a meeting of the opposition fac-tions held in this village, on Saturany ovening, September 20th, George Brunasen, Esq., after making a short address came from the stand, and during a short conversation with Mr. Peter Ranck and mysul, gave us his positive assurance, that in all the Southern States, at all elections, the slavethat infall the Southern States, at all elections, the slave-holder goes to the hallot box, and deposits a vote for every three silves which he may possess! He expressed himself greatly astonished at my previous ignorance of this fact, and his assertions on this point were especially palatable to the small flock standing about him, notorious for the peculiar-ity of their fleece, and want down their woolly throats with nother/visible external effect, than a considerable enlarge-ment of their eyes.

Of course Mr. Brubaker is an honorable man, and will surely lell us where we can find proof to substantiate the above, and have our erroneous (?) opinions corrected. We live 'out in the country' to be sure; but this woolly political "story for effect," manufactured expressly by 'city langury. "story for effect," manufactured expressly by city lawyers, for country circulation generally, that is seen to take in this particular locality. Will Mr. Brubaker oblige us.

Now we have always understood that three fifths only, of the Southern Negroes, are represented through the Southern Congressmen, whilst in the Northern States each nogro is reckaned as a free white person, and att are represented in Congress. And, whilst in the Southern States not a single black has the right of suffrige, in many of the Northern, constitutional provisions are made to enable darkies the votesled by side with free white men! Are we correct!

Messas, Editions:—The Fremont meeting that came off at the public house of that staunch democrat, Joint Tweed, in New Providence, last evening; was considerable of a failure, to the Fremonters. About 57 toters were present—divided as follows: Buchanan, 30; Fiffinore, 23, and Fremont, 35. The meeting was gotten up by the "Fremont Club of the borough and twp, of Straburg;" and that club which was anxiously expected in a large delegation at length arrived, numbering 21. Dack the setter and the Poptes were very much disappointed and looked blue. They thought the club was rather ungrateful. The meeting was addressed by a certain Gudy Atlee of your city, who not only disgraced himself but actually injured the Fremont cause. His speech was the most non-sensical-calidate aftair that any intelligent man's wars were over pained with. Scutcher heard quite a number of Frendbitters say that they were ashamed of such talk—that, it sounded and smelt like abolitonism, and that it did more injury than good. Gusty is certainly a rash Garrison abolitonist, and he crimot hide it. He said that the North year resely at any time to fill coffins with the bodies of Southern men. He arise said that a man was shot in Kaussi, and some persons spit tobacco juve in his eyes after he was dead, and then he invoked the North to rise in their might and rebutke such conduct by voting for Fronton.—This same nakey string of nonsense we are told he repeats Thus on the one hand they court the Know-Nothings, and on the other they reject them and, as if to make the matter still more degrading, and to prove their criminal hypocristy the North American Convention which assembled in New York, and nominated Fremont, after he had been nominated in Philaid delphia, was a pure Know-Nothing concern; and passed Know-Nothing resolutions, Col. Fremont accepting both nominations, and in terms agreeing to be Know-Nothing or antity terms agreeing to be Know-Nothing or antity the beauth of the called upon to vote.
