Sr. Louis, Sept. 21, 1856. The early part of the week was quite warm, but at the se very cold for the period of the season. Business has greatly improved, but the continued low stage of water in the rivers is a serious impediment to trade generally.— Frain has declined a trifle, but our produce market gen rive, and our wholesale jobbers are doing a fair business The health of the city most excellent. Nothing of conse

All armed were ready for the discussion, but their oppobands have been dispersed, and the militia has also been disbanded, and enrolled under the proper officers for the Peace and good feeling now reign in the Territory where a few weeks since civil war raged and human blood flowed in profusion. We believe Gov. Geary is the man for the place and the times, and we look forward for a letter state ord affairs in Kansas. But what are the Fremmeters to do for political capital, now that Gov. In vain our friends offered to let Mr. Sohnabel meet Mr. Stevens; the leader declined, and without entering the town of Indiana, stole away in a private carriage. This most inglorious retreat the war continued until after the October and November disturbances was the work of the Democratic party—that through it the war was commenced, and by the forming of and carrying into operation the emit idea of the Black is and the publican Abolition party, it was concluded. But it so happens that every one who knows anything about the difficulties in Kansas, knows full well that this civil war was commenced by the leaders of the North—by the formation of Emigrant Aid Associations," and by furnishing men and Emigrant Aid Associations," and by furnishing men and Emigrant Aid Associations," and by furnishing men and the second of the Mr. Sohnabel meet Mr. Sohnabel meet Mr. Schnabel meet Mr. Stevens, and so consistent with his his nistory, that his own friends hung their heads in shame. We confess, and our previous letters will show, that we were deceived-mistaken in some of the tory. We then honestly and candidly believed, Goy, Roeder was acting the part of an impartial officer, and took every occasion to defend him from the attacks which came thick and fast from all quarters of the new country, over which he was then presiding; but his recent position in the Black epublican camp persuades us to doubt his impartiality.-The Democratic party was and are the friends of the then settlers, and all who may hereafter go there—they pledge themselves to protect them—it was that party that appointed three Governors before they could find one Demopointed three Governors before they could find one Demo-cratic enough to act impartially and protect alike the emiit, in enforcing the instructions of the U. Three weeks ago, the Democrats challenged the Abolitionists. and this challenge was accepted by the latter. It was a challenge to discuss the great issues involved in the present canvass; and the interest occasioned thereby was great. The Abolitionists named Thadpeus Stevens and BURLINGAME as their champions: the Demo-
