box, has been complied with, and the country,-until rgiam and Black Republicanism swallowed up a large portion of the old Whig party-was at peace, and a large portion of the old whigh party-was a peece, and the North and South quisty submitted to the voice of the people. A different state of things now exist-the Whigs I can nothing by the discion of James Buchanan, and have constituted every one his own Balesman, by having marked in four structed wery one his own Balesman, by having marked in four structed wery one his own Balesman, by having marked in full assurance of getting a groad at prepared and great or the variable and they have everything to gain-the K. N's and Reunblicans once routed they will be forever crushed, and hen the conservative Whigs may re-organize, for in that pasture have the deserters of the Whig party gone to grass. Plow up the stubbles, and plant a more substantial crop on some other soil, and the hungry, half starved woolly heads will soon leave the field where nothing remains to fill their empty stomachs. We had an honorable and open foe in the Whig party of old, but in the present sectional battle we find a sneaking, cunning varmint, seeking out whom it may devour. The conservative men of all parties know full well that this sectional faction can accomplish nothing -that it has no vitality-that its career is short-that it may live for a year, but must ultimately sink before public opinion and the second sober will of the p ople. What, then, is the use of giving it countenance at all? Why not crush and blot out forever this black and damnable stain upon the institutions of, our country ? Look at the men vho have never cast a Democratic vote before, now declarparty, but because they love and cherish the Union and Strickler R. Everts to Miss Caroline Eshleman, both of this the Constitution. The course of such men as Wm. B. Reed. clty.

Rufus Choate, Wm. Preston, Jas. B. Clay, Pierce of Md., Benjamin, of La., Geyer of Mo., Jones of Ten., John F. Long, C. Hager, I. E. Hiester and others of your city and county, should be sufficient to induce the Whigs of Pennsylvania to rally to the support of Mr. Buchanan, a native and tried statesman of one of the first states of the American Confederacy. We are confident that the old line Whigs of Pennsylvania will do their duty at the approaching Octoher and November elections. The Whigs of the West and the South are with us in our battle against disunion, and we hope the Whigs of the North and the East will work shoulder to shoulder with their brothers, as in days of

To the Editors of the Intelligencer, dated WASHINGTON, Oct. 10th, 1856. To the Editors of the Intelligencer, dated WASHNOTON, Oct. 10th, 1550. Your patriotic people will have spoken their centiments on the State canvars. So firmly are we a believer in the pat-itotism of your people, that we cannot bring our minds to any other conclusion, than that the delegation in Congress while be materially improved in sentiment and iver for the short of the other of the sectional candidate Col. Premont. Indeed, the clittens of Pennagylvania have ever been their batter judgment. But, recently a happy change has come over the people, but they have seen the dark support batter judgment. But, recently a happy change has come over the people, but they have seen the dark path of dis-utors spread out to their view by Mr. Grow and his coad-jutors, Messers. Wilson, Hamith, Hanks and others, and the south of the rights of the Southern States, our of the States, any useh interforence in the municipal regulations of the South unter the Constitutional compact. Thene it is, that there is quite a resection in the public sections of the ple of the Keystone State, which induces us to believe that as plended State triumph await the exertions of the pen-ple of the Keystone State, which induces us to believe that a plended State triumph await the exertions of the pen-ple of the Keystone State, which induces us to believe that a plended State triumph await the exertions of the pen-rensed in the national contest that is so soon to follow on the 4th Or, Geary has got the difficultion the period of the trivery the still gover neuron their lands. The citizens of Washington held a meeting last night at the City Hall, preparatory to receiving 'fresident 'hieree from his recent visit to New Hampshire. He is expected to arrive here in the steamer Watash in the course of the next three or four days. The President will be handsomely received considering the circumstances under which a large mujority of the citizens of this city stand in oppestion to his administration majority of the citizens of this city shand in opposition to his administration The Know Nothing party on Wednesday last, at Balti-more, carried their Mayor, Mr. Swann, at the municipal election, by some fifteen hundred majority. But, the recital at the election of the nurders committed, the numbers mained and woundel and dying, is heart-rending to look upon. Indeed, if such is to be the ascendency of the Know Nothings in our country, we fear the days of liberty are numbered in our land, and the elective franchise will be-crue a farce rather than a blessing to our country. All true friends of order should mourn over the sad scones that have dispraced the election day of the present week in the city of Baltimore. Surely riots could be presented if offi-cens irom men taking a private oath, that overrides the Constitution and laws of the land. Such are the fruits of the introduction of the principles of the Know Nothing revolutionis of the present were in the scity of Baltimore.

AN ODE TO BE READ, OR SUNG, ON THE FOURTH OF MARCH NEXT. While vassals of tyranny rivet their chains,

By birth day effusions and base adulation, Let freemen express in their holiday strains, The voice of a people, the choice of a nation. Let laurests sing

The birth of a King, Tis ours to rejoice for the first fruits of Spring, For still shall the Fourth of March ever bring A harvest of glory in liberty's field ! Encircled with glory JACESON retired, Who led us in safety through war's dread commotion. While the spirit that raised him another inspires To watch o'er our nights with equal devotion Buchanan shall preside His countrymen's pride, The Patriot, Statesman, the farmer well tried; And thus shall the Fourth of March ever yield

A harvest of glory in liberty's field! To legitimate tyrants no freeman shall bow. To virtue alone will we pay veneration, The chiefs of Columbia are called from the plough. And retire again to the same occupation. Thus Jackson arose, In spite of his foes, For the path of a patriot Buchanan has chose. Thus shall the Fourth of March ever yield, A harvest of glory in liberty's field! Then hail the grand day that beholds us once more Place the chaplet of power on the brow of true merit;

fis the sacred insignia our Washington wore. A legacy none but the good shall inherit. To the patriot Buchanan, The tribute we owe, Till the people reclaim it, again to bestow, And the Fourth day of March again made to yield.

A harvest of glory in liberty's field ! Let freemen unite on that festival day To celebrate liberty's triumph in chorus.

And hail the bright prospect that opens before n-In peans of joy Your voices employ, Hussah! for Buchanan and Breckinridge tried. And ne'er may the Fourth of March cease to yield.

Mr. H. DTES-Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Prot. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the great set discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least far, as my case was one of the world without the least far, as my case was one of the modified is wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I have used Prof. 0. J. Wood's Tair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his Restora-tive it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt, permanently so.
