Ohio up to the Black Republicans by any just as soon relinquish Virginia or New Jersey. But it must be evident to all, that the result of the State election in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, will have considerable effect upon the result of the Presidential election the month following. Should we loose the three, or either of them, it will be necessary for the Democracy to go the harder to work to accomplish the great end-the election of James Buchanan. Let not a temporary defeat deter the Democ racy from maintaining the time honored principles they have heretofore so gallantly upheld, and the victories they have so nobly achieved. Let not principles be sacrificed-let not the men of patriotism-love of the Union and the Constitution falter in times like these, for they are indeed times which try men's patriolism. Let not sectionalism, Abalitionism, Know Nothingism and Niggerism decoy Democrats and conservative men of all parties from principles, upon the maintenance of which depends the safety of the Union. Elect Fremont and you array the North against the South-you open a breach that must eventually dissolve the Union-you give cause for civil war, the result of which must end in blood, and you of the North must take up arms to slay your brother, your son or your father residing in the South. Are you, Pennsylvanians prepared to enter such a crusade upon your fellow men of the South -who love the Union as they love themselves? Are you prepared to dissolve yourselves from the South? and are you prepared for a Southern and a Northern Confederacy, each acting independently of the other? No. We will not believe it. The friends of the Constitution, belonging to all parties will see the necessity of supporting that man who is pledged to maintain and uphold the Union of the States-that man is JAMES BUCHANAN, around whom all conservative men must rally if they wish to preserve the peace and harmony of all sections of the American Union. All is quiet in Kansas-Fremont capital has run out since the arrival of Gov. Geary, and now their only resort is gold, gold; but whether they can use that to advantage, is yet to be seen. The election in Kansas took place las Tuesday, and has resulted in the choice of Gen. Whitfield as delegate to Congress by a large majority.

Political news from Illinois is of the most cheering char acter to the Domocracy. Gentlemen from there state that Buchanan's majority cannot fall short of 10,000, and may reach 20,000! Senator Douglas is doing good service in "Suckerdom," and we believe Richardson's vote will not fall much short of Buchanan's. HIe is very popular in his own State, and the old line Whige will vote for him. as they intend to do for "Buck and Breck." Make way for Illinois -her voice will be heard in thunder tones on the morning of the 4th of November. Advices from the South continue to pour in upon us, and they are of the most encouraging character-there scarcely admits of a doubt as to the en tire South casting a solid, unbroken vote for Buchanan and Breckinridge. We copy the following propositions from the columns of the Republican of this city. The money will be deposited
