These facts are known to all our citizens old enough to recollect the events of 1814

JAMES BUCHANAN came to Languager to reeighteen years of age, and has ever since resided here, except when called away by public business. He never was a member of a Rifle or any other corps in Mercersburg, as falsely alleged by the Register-but during the late war with Great Britain, was a practising lawyer in this city, and immediately after his return from Baltimore, in October, 1814, was elected a member of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, from this county.

A Base Falsehood Exposed. The Black Republican leaders, through Charles Coons, of Philadelphia, have falsely and wickedly attempted to create an impression on the public mind that Mr. J. P. SAN-EERSON, Chairman of the American State Committee, and Col. John W. Forney, Chairman of the Democratic Committee, had made an arrangement by which the friends of Mr. Fillmore were to be transferred to Mr. Buchanan. The silly story is a base falsehood manufactured out of the whole cloth, there not being a particle of foundation for the charge, as will be abundantly seen by the correspondence between Messrs. Sanderson and Forney, published in another column, by order of the State Central Committee.

Fusion and Confusion! The Fillmoremen of Lancaster county won't submit to have the wool drawn over their eyes any longer by Stevens, Darlington and Geist. The American Register (the Fillmore organ) is down on fusion, tooth and nail, and is manfully contending for the integrity and identity of the American party. It strongly advocates the support of the straight out Fillmore electoral ticket, and repudiates all connexion or affinity with the Black Republicans. JAMES BUCHANAN.

Before another issue of the Intelligencer Chairman of the County Committee, to state reaches all our subscribers, the people of the evening of the Presidential election, will be JAMES BUCHANAN-the wise, experienced, safe at Hopple's "Exchange Hotel," at the Rail, and prudent statesman-shall rule the destinies of the Republic for the next four years, and thereby continue the country in its glorious career of honor and prosperity; or whether ! tion of John C. Fremont-a mere adventurer and speculator, without any statesman-like qualities or experience-shall be chosen Chief Magistrate, and thereby endanger the very existence of the Union itself.

This is the great question which must be decided by the American people on the fourth day of November, and in that issue the people of Lancaster County will be called upon to take part. What will you do, fellow citizens? You are all acquainted with JAMES BUCHANAN-he is your neighbor and friend. His interests are your interests—his honor is your honor. Average Democratic Majority 3,239. We have not yet seen the popular vote all the Congressional districts. In the first eight districts, the Democratic majority over Black Republican, Know-Nothing and Fusion candidates combined, is 4,799. Assuming that this increase runs all through the State, the Democratic majority on the Congressional election cannot be much less, and may exceed that figure. We have, however, elected fifteen of the twenty-five members of Congress. ablest Democratic champions in the country of the 9th of September last I received the 'praise.' He literally demolfabed Black Repii following letter from the Hon. John P. Sanderson, Chairman of the American or Fillmere State Committee:

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 27, 1856. Sin-In obedience to the instructions of the Fillmore and Donelson State Committee, I submit to you, for the consideration and action of the Democratic State Committee of which you are Chairman, the following proposition: That the Chairmen of the Democratic, Republican and American State Committees nite in issuing a call for such number of meetings, to be held at such times and places as may be agreed upon by them, at which the issues involved in the present Presidential canvass shall be discussed by an equal number of speakers of each party, and that the Chair man of each Committee shall have the exclu sive right of selecting the speakers for his party, at such meetings, but that their names shall be announced in the call for the meet-vour earliest convenience. I am, sir, very respectfully yours, J. P. SANDERSON,

Chairman of the American State Committee. JOHN W. FORNEY, Esq. To this communication the subjoined reply was forwarded the following day, the 10th of September, and by Mr. James B. Sheridan placed in the hands of Mr. Sanderson

To Hoy, JOHN P. SANDERSON Chairman American State Central Committee : DEAR SIR:-Your note dated the 27th of tember, by private hand. I hope you will excuse the delay in answering it. The Democratic party differs widely from you and your candidate for President as to the Naturalization Laws, to secret political organizations, and to religious liberty. Now, as 'confusion worse confounded' exists in their (and on all proper occasions hereafter.) we will be ready to defend our position on these questions. But as your candidate for the Presidency, Mr. Fillmore, has substantially declared that the present national peril overshadows all other considerations—a sentiment in which we are happy to concur—we deem it quite useless to determine which of our views on mooted questions shall be maintained, Republicans. The following resolutions were until we have first ascertained whether the Union itself can be preserved. Assuming, therefore, that the friends of Mr. Fillmore will persevere in upholding the National doc-

Convention which nominated him, relating to ism,) and Peter G. Eberman, Clerk. mittee, at their meeting in Philadelphia, on the rights of the States, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion which nominated him, relating to the rights of the States, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with the rights of the states. sary to enter into discussion with you upon those Constitutional principles which he him-self has asserted. Our object is to unite all sented by the fillmore and Donelson State self has asserted. Our object is to unite all Thursday evening last—and by firing of cannon, bonfres the friends of this great Union in one common and other other threworks. The meeting was very large glad to have the co-operation of all true Americans, adopted and native born, in supporting James Buchanan, the only man who can defe and Donelson, in this city, repudicte the so-called Union Convention, at Harrisburg, and the friends of Mr. Fillmore, however, demonthe adversaries of our free institutions. Should strate to the contrary at the coming October election in Pennsylvania that they are willing shall he ready and willing to most rank nonsense for any man to assume that Fremont's success is within the range of possibility. It is morally impossible."

Is Col. Fremont an Infidel:

Horace Greely has gone to the trouble of issuing a pamphlet to refute the charge that his presidential candidate is or ever was a Roman Catholic. He now turns to a still graver charge, but is content to state it and the authority on which it is made. The Tribune of Tuesday says:

"There is still further evidence that Col. Fremont is not a Roman Catholic? COM. STOCKTON ASSERTS POSITIVELY IN HIS SPEECHES THAT HE KNOWS HIM TO BE AN INFIDEL."

So, Horace Greely is willing to admit that the Col. Fremont is an Infidel, because that proves the Col. Fremont is an Infidel, because that proves with faction or fanaticism. We resort to no the dout representation of the communication, that we have never had any correspondence but that which is published above, and have never dead any horizontal to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve exchanged words on the subject of the Presidential interval to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve exchanged words on the subject of the Presidential interval to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve exchanged words on the subject of the Presidential interval to the Union, which foliows in the wake of that abbreve exchanged words on the subject of the Presidential interval to the Union, which folious in the wake of that abbreve exchanged words on the subject of the Presidential interval to the Union which is the transported of the dispersion of the Union with the subject of the Union with the subject of the Presidential Election. What we have never had any corresponden Coi. Fremont is an infidel, because that proves that he is not a Catholic. He gives Com. with faction or fanaticism. We resort to no Electors, who will vindicate their rights by design Stockton as the witness who asserts the fact of fusion. We have but one Electoral Ticket in James Becausan and Join G. Beckensunger, as P. Col. France of a infidility and visually and the field. And while we invite the honest and Vice President of the United States. Col. Fremont's infidelity, and virtually con- the field. And while we invite the honest cedes its correctness by quoting it as proof friends of Millard Fillmore to our support, it

South for its institutions, or the American for his religion; whether it denied suffrage to the white freeman because of his birth-place, or sought to elevate the black to social equality. And for this severe consistency and noble courage, we have had our roward.

The letter in answer to Mr. Sanderson's communication, which he has had in his postesion for six weeks, contains no line or syllable which will make a Democrat blush for the Democratic Central Committee. It stands out now as the full vindication of our course in the late canvass; and as such we give it to the people, content that they shall decide between our adversaries and ourselves. Among the thousands of national men who intend voting for James Buchanan in November, there is not one who will not endorse and approve the position taken in that communication.
