For the Intelligencer & Lancasterian OUR NATIONAL FLAG.

BY CEPHAS. Fling out the nation's stripes and stars, The glorious standard of the free, The banner borne in freedom's wars, The hallowed gem of liberty; On mountain top, in valley deep, Wherever dwells the free and brave, O'er graves where freedom's martyrs sleep,

Columbia's flag must freely wave. Raise high the bright auspicious flag, From every height and lowly glen,

In forest, dell, or jutting crag, Afar among the hearts of men. The sparkling banner widely flung, Shall wave o'er land and sea; And freedom's anthem sweetly sung. Shall swell our country's jubilee Oh! let the world that fing behold The emblem of the brave and free,

The brightest crown of streaming gold, Spreads out its folds till heaven's dome Reverberates the hely sound ; That all oppressed have found a home On freedom's consecrated ground. Fling out our country's banner wide. Our emblemetic starry gem, OUR UNION NEVER SHALL DIVIDE.

Year after year the brilliant stars Shall indicate the strength of all Let all beware of civil wars, That curse of monarchs-freedom's fall OREGON, Pa., October, 1856.

THE GUNNER'S SHOT. A THRILLING STORY OF FACT.

Our noble ship lay at anchor in the bay of Tangier, a fortified town in the extreme northwest of Africa. The day had been mild, with a gentle breeze sweeping to the northward and westward, but, towards the close of the afternoon the sea breezes died atmospheric breathings came from the great sun-burnt Sahara. Half an hour before sundown, the captain gave the order to the boatswain to call the hands to go in swimming, and in less than five minutes the forms of our tars were seen leaping from the gangways, the ports, the sails had been lowered into the water, with | tutional powers. its corners suspended from the main vard the swimmers made their way.
