From my soul I respect the laboring man. Labor is he foundation of the wealth of every country; and the free laborers of the North deserve respect both for their probity and their intelligence. Heaven forbid that I should do them more of the countries on the earth, we ought to have the most consideration for the laboring man.—BUCHÁNAN.

Should I be placed in the Executive chair, I shall use goest exertions to cultivate peace and friendship with all attons, believing this to be our BIOMEST POLION, as well as a most IMPRESTRY DUTY.—BUCHANAN.

"If I know myself, I am a politicium neither of the East, nor of the West, of the North nor of the South—I therefore shall forever avoid any expressions, the direct tendency of which must be to create sectional jeatousies, sectional divisions, and at length distinction, that worst of all political calcumities."—Becausasties."

PHONIX IRON WORKS, Oct. 20th, 1856.

B. C. BACHMAN, ESQ.—Dear Sir:—There is one of my Guns now being finished. It is about a 7 pounder, but will stand all the powder you will desire to put in it—say load for a 24 pounder will be perfectly safe.

In view of the occasion, and the man whose election it is intended to celebrate, permit me to present the Gun to the Democratic party of the City of Lancaster. Hoping it will make the welkin ring.

I romain, yours truly.

JOHN GRIFFEN.

PREMIX IRON WORKS, Oct. 28th, 1856.

B. C. Bachman, Esq.—Dear Sir:—We, this morning, forwarded, by Howard's Express, one Wrought Iron Cannon, weighing 745½ pounds, manufactured by John Griffen, of this place, and by him pretented to the gallant Democracy, the Whestland-Club. of Lancaster City.

Hoping you may be able to proclaim, on the 5th of November, from it in thunder lines, to the luhabilants of your beautiful city and the surrounding country, that Pannyl-yanla's Favorite Son, the Hob. Jakes Buchands, is the President Elect of these United States.
