Br. Louis, Nov. 3, 1856; The weather has been pleasant during the week, and the rivers risen a trifle. Produce has arrived more freely, and business generally has improved. Although the exrbitant rates asked on freight a great deal is being ship ped—country merchants are short of stocks, and compelled to replanish at almost any prices. There is a good feeling ness classes, and the probabilities are that trade will be brisk from this time up to the close of

In all probability but a small vote will be brought out, as every Democrat in the State knowsfull well that ourl cannot, by any possibility, do otherwise than go for the Democracy, and thus many thousand votes will be lost on our majority. The great case has been tried—the arguments of counsel from both sides have been heard, and the matter is now in the hands of an intelligent incy the will render their verdict on to morrow night. On Saturday morning about I o'clock a fire broke out in a Cabinet making shop, in the upper part of the city, and horrible to relate, seven men were consumed in the flames, There were in all nine in the building, and two of them made their escape by jumping out of the second story window. When these awoke the entire room was in flames, and it was impossible to remain a moment to rouse up their room-mates. The scene is described as most horrible—the seven men were seen to rush together, seize hold of each other in two separate heaps, and the next instant the wall fell in upon them, burying the seven men in the ruins --Their names are as follows: -John Miller, Fred. Gerkie. Herman Oberhouse, Francis Oberline, Henry Rae Fred. Hierman and Herman Hierman (two brothers.) John Miller has a wife and several childred living in the south-

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE. To the Editors of the Intelligencer, dated

To the Editors of the Intelligencer, dated

Washington, Nov. 7th, 1856.

The fourth of November has come and gone. The time of rejoicing to the Democratic party is at hand, therefore, let 'the friends of Union and good government give all praise to the indomitable democracy of the States, for their efforts made, thus to save the country from the sectionalism that too plainly marks the vote that has been given by the supporters of Col. Fromont's parity, to upheave the government in the struggle, but in which they have been so handsomely defeated. I must not trouble you with the datail of this glorious democratic victory. It is enough for me to know, that with the helmstan of Pennsylvania, and his assistant from Kentucky, the first and second pilots that are to guide the ship of State for the next four years, there is no tear of running foul of waags or breakers during the quadrennial vowage we shall enter upon as a nation, on there is no fear of running fout of snags or breakers during the quadrennial voyage we shall enter upon as a nation, on the 4th of March, 1857. On that day James Buchanon, of Pennsylvania, and John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, will enter upon a cruise of distinction in upholding the great intergets of this mighty and glorious republic. Prospertly and glory will attend them throughout their term. and success will crown their consummation of duty, by the approbation of their follow clizens throughout the confederacy. So much for the election on Tuesday last.

There is one regret attending this election, that will cause the patriot heart throughout the land to roourn with sorrow, and that is, that, a people could be so ungrateful, as the people of Michigan have proven to be in proscribing the patriot Cass from the sorrice of their State. They have the set of the sorrice of their State. as the people of Michigan have proven to be in proscribing the patriot Cass from the sortice of their State. They have elected a rectional fusion majority to the legislature, thereby superceding in the Sonate Lewis Cass, who has devoted a long and somewhat arduous life in defence of the rights of the people of Michigan, as also in the Sonate, in the Cabinet, as Minister in Europe, before the people in primary meetings, patriotically sustaining in every position, the honor and interest of our common country. That such a man should be struck down for defending the integrity of the Constitution, and also for his defence of James Buchanan, will cause many regrets from the people in the different States of this Union. But, there is a second sober thought reviving. The patriot Cass will be righted by an event that will cause his enemies to melt away as snow before the brilliant sun. He will be borne aloft, far beyond the shaft of malice to reach him, and honored by this whole nation of freemen, while the majority of Michigan sectionalists, who cast him aside, will have cause to regret that their greatest and most talented Senator has not been spared as a defence for them in the Senate of the U. States. The result of the congressional elections of Tuesday, have added to the democratic majority in the House of Representatives on the eponing of the 35th Congress. Thus much gained, is a sure indication, that Mr. Banks will be permitted to "slide" from the Speaker's position, into private membership.

The State of Maryland is the only one State that will much gained, is a sure indication, that Mr. Banks will be permitted to "slide" from the Speaker's position, into private membership.

The State of Maryland is the only one State that will cord its vote for Mr. Fillmore for Fresident. This result was accomplished by the most disgraceful frauds, riots, and murders, in the city of Baltimore, that has ever stained the history of our country. So much for "know nothing" municipal ascendency in that flourishing city. The Mayor of the city, Mr. Hinks, certainly winked at the outrages committed, as well as falled in his duty to preserve the peace of the city. The record is most frightful, viz: killed, 5; fatally wounded, 15; wounded 93, total, 113. So much for the record. The sequel will be that, unless a different state of things is brought about in Baltimore, her prosperity will be materially checked for the future. Louisville and New Orleans will now have to surrender to Baltimore in crims, of outrages committed and murders. The scenes of last Tuesday were truly heart rounding in the detail.

We have a rumor this morning that Judge Nicholson will retire from the Union merspaper on the 4th of March next. We incline to the opinion that this rumor is somewhat premature, as Mr. Buchanan has not yet made his wishes known in this particular. "Sufficient for the day" when the retirement of Judge N. will be known.

Departure Fatal Shoothough Apparent

PROBABLE FATAL SHOOTING AFFAIR-AR-REST OF THE PARTIES IMPLICATED—EXCITE-MENT, &c.—At ten minutes past eight o'clock, last evening, a shooting affair occurred in front of Guy's Hotel, in Seventh street a short distance above Chesnut, which caused the greatest excitement in that neighborhood. It appears, as far as we could learn of the particulars, that a young man named Isaac Shurlock, residing at No. 612 Poplar st., an accountant, and Mr. Philip S. Clawges, a Dry Goods and Notion Commission Merchant, doing business at No. 139 Market street, between Third and Fourth Streets, had an altercation at that dace. It was not noticed until Shurlock drew from his coat pocket a revolver, and fired three at once picked up and conveyed into the drug to death: store at the corner of Seventh and Chesnut streets, when it was found that three balls or slugs had entered his arm, one his breast, and one the lower part of his groin, inflicting wounds from which it is feared he cannot He was subsequently conveyed to the Pennsylvania Hospital.

Mr. Shurlock was at once arrested, and conveyed to the Mayor's Office, where he confessed to having committed the act. He was perfectly cool and collected, and told his wrongs in a manner which elicited the sympathy of all the officers present. He said "I nmitted the act, I fired the revolver, and have been foully wronged. This man took my wife away down town, drugged her with wine, and then seduced her. She told me I love my wife as I love myself."

The prisoner was searched, and upon his person a small amount of money and a daguerrectype of his wife-one of the most striking and impressive likenesses which we ever saw.

Mr. Shurlock was employed as an accountant in the house of Wilmer & Clawges, No. 139, Market street, and it is alleged that the latter had been on terms of intimacy with the wife of the former for some time past. Another statement made of the case alleges that Shurlock walked coolly up to Clawges, and after telling him of his wrongs, told him he should die, and immediately put the threat in execution by firing his revolver at him.— Mr. John Egan arrested the accused, and handed him over to the custody of the officers. He will have a hearing this morning before Ald. Enue.—Pennsylvanian of Thursday. N. B. Clawges is since dead.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR. - A Gentleman Scalded

HORRIBLE AFFAIR.—A Gentleman Scalded to Death by his own Servants.—It was mentioned a few days ago that Lewis B. Norwood, an influential and widely known merchant of Granville county, N. C., had come to his death on the night of Tuesday, the 21st ult., in a undden and mysterious manter. The Peters burg Examiner has the following additional particulars:

About his usual hour of retiring, 9 o'clock, his overseer left him in his chamber. He was then in his usual health and condition, both off mind and body. Some two hours after his negroes reported to the neighbors that he had fallen in the fire and been burned to death. The neighbors immediately assembled, and found him a corpee. Burgs upon different parts of his person were discovered, but his air was not singed even, and his clothing was without a scorch. Under these circumstants are shown to singed even, and his clothing was without a scorch. Under these circumstants are shown to singed even, and his clothing was without a scorch. Under these circumstants are shown to singed even, and his clothing was without as corch. Under these circumstants and the stances it was supposed that the burns must have been scalds from hot water. His two little daughters were asleep at the time in the clamber, but of course could tell nothing of the sudden and mysterious manner in which they had been deprived of their protector.

An examination being instituted, suspicion rested upon his negroes and it is now ascertation that he was foully and shockingly murdered by two of his slaves. From such facts as we have been enabled to gather, it seems that a negro man belonging to him had for sometime absented himself. Mr. Norwood suspected that two of his negroes were harboring the runnway, and to prevent a continuence of the practice had for several nights previous to the murder locked up the two suspected, in an out-house on the practice of the practice had been deprived on the practi and found him a corpse. The rail is what is called a foot rail, weighing 60 lbs. to the yard, and originally made 22 feet long, but now reduced by successive sample cutting to 17 feet in length. Each length of rail was formed from a single ingot 10 inches square, which was heated twice, and passed fourteen times through the rolls: both ingots experimented upon turning out thoroughly good rails. It must be evident that the labor thus expended was little more than half that usually employed in the production of a base than half that usually employed in the production of a bar of the same form by the ordinary process, and we shall endeavor en future occasion to give the exact difference in the cost of the two processes. So far as the quality of the bar goes, we think there remains nothing to be desired.

A BUNDLE OF ELOPEMENTS.—The Buffalo Express gives the following chapter on domes tic difficulties: Mrs. King, near Kingstown, was recently taken sick, and her husband seized the opportunity to elope with a handsome servant girl named Martin. On their arrival in Albany, Miss Martin eloped with a young man named Cornelius, taking Mr. King's money. King being penitent returned home and found that his wife had eloped with a dry goods clerk named Jeffers, with all the moveable articles in the house; whereupon King started off in pursuit, considering him self a deeply injured man.

We learn that Mrs. Susan Tarbox, wife of James Tarbox, of Topsham, who for a long time has been subject to hopeless insanity, put an end to her existence the latter part of last week by means of fire. The Crops in Ireland.—Accounts from Ireland state that the failure in the potato crop this year will be by no means so great as was anticipated at the early appearance of the mysterious blight. In the districts where it was supposed the crop was irretrievably tainted, it has been found that the injury never went below the stalk, and that the root itself remained sound.

A These superior Cider Mills can still be furnished of improved construction[and finish. Their Grinding apparatus is peculiar and gives them an advantage over all other Mills. By the action of two reciprocating pistons the Apples are forced up against the teeth of a rapidly revolving cylinder and retained there till ground to a fine pulp, which of course yields more julce when subjected to pressure than if the pointee was coarse. The Screw Press has been greatly improved and strengthened since last year, and the whole frame is tightened by strong joint bolis. It is adapted either to hand or horse power, and can be worked by hand to the extent of six to eight barrels in a day. Krausers' Portable Cider Mills.
