

INTELLIGENCER & LANCASTERIAN.

GEORGE SANDERSON, EDITOR. A. SANDERSON, Associate.

LANCASTER, PA., DECEMBER 2, 1856.

CIRCULATION, 2100 COPIES! SUNDAY PAGES, $5.00 PER ANNUM.

Personal.

During the seven years and over that we have been the proprietor of the Lancaster Intelligencer, we have devoted all our energies in the cause of Democracy, and the paper has gradually been increasing in circulation and influence.

In 1796, when THOMAS JEFFERSON and JOHN ADAMS were rival candidates for the Presidency, the latter received the unanimous election of the entire electoral college of that time.

Such is our experience, and the experience of every man who has ever been connected with the publication of a country paper.

Canal Commissioners' Appointments. HARRISBURG, Nov. 24.—The following additional appointments have been made by the Board of Canal Commissioners:

Superintendent of Portage Railroad—James Bryden. Supervisors—John Gadd, Upper Juniata; Henry A. Biggs, Upper Westery; Wm. Elliot, Susquehanna.

Collectors—Cyrus Carmony, Lancaster; Joseph B. Deitz, Pottsville. Cargo Inspectors—Jacob DeYoung, Bristol.

Meeting of Congress. The second session of the Thirty-fourth Congress commenced at Washington, on yesterday. The President's Message (the last annual communication of President Pierce), will be sent in to-day, and we will give it to the readers of the Intelligencer on our next issue.

As the Black Republicans have a majority in the House of Representatives, and as their power will increase on the 3d of March, when the session will end by constitutional limit, we suppose they will endeavor to do all the harm they can during their brief tenure of office, and throw as many difficulties as possible in the way of the outgoing and incoming Administrations.

The Vote of New England.

Our Black Republican contemporaries are boasting about the electoral vote of New England having been cast solid for Col. Fremont, and make the allegation that such had never before been the result of a Presidential election.

In 1796, when THOMAS JEFFERSON and JOHN ADAMS were rival candidates for the Presidency, the latter received the unanimous election of the entire electoral college of that time.

Such is our experience, and the experience of every man who has ever been connected with the publication of a country paper.

Canal Commissioners' Appointments. HARRISBURG, Nov. 24.—The following additional appointments have been made by the Board of Canal Commissioners:

Superintendent of Portage Railroad—James Bryden. Supervisors—John Gadd, Upper Juniata; Henry A. Biggs, Upper Westery; Wm. Elliot, Susquehanna.

Collectors—Cyrus Carmony, Lancaster; Joseph B. Deitz, Pottsville. Cargo Inspectors—Jacob DeYoung, Bristol.

Meeting of Congress. The second session of the Thirty-fourth Congress commenced at Washington, on yesterday. The President's Message (the last annual communication of President Pierce), will be sent in to-day, and we will give it to the readers of the Intelligencer on our next issue.

As the Black Republicans have a majority in the House of Representatives, and as their power will increase on the 3d of March, when the session will end by constitutional limit, we suppose they will endeavor to do all the harm they can during their brief tenure of office, and throw as many difficulties as possible in the way of the outgoing and incoming Administrations.

Mr. Buchanan's Opinions. Several of our contemporaries are very much exercised about Mr. BUCHANAN'S views and intentions with regard to the question of Slavery.

Mr. Buchanan's Opinions.

Several of our contemporaries are very much exercised about Mr. BUCHANAN'S views and intentions with regard to the question of Slavery.

In 1796, when THOMAS JEFFERSON and JOHN ADAMS were rival candidates for the Presidency, the latter received the unanimous election of the entire electoral college of that time.

Such is our experience, and the experience of every man who has ever been connected with the publication of a country paper.

Canal Commissioners' Appointments. HARRISBURG, Nov. 24.—The following additional appointments have been made by the Board of Canal Commissioners:

Superintendent of Portage Railroad—James Bryden. Supervisors—John Gadd, Upper Juniata; Henry A. Biggs, Upper Westery; Wm. Elliot, Susquehanna.

Collectors—Cyrus Carmony, Lancaster; Joseph B. Deitz, Pottsville. Cargo Inspectors—Jacob DeYoung, Bristol.

Meeting of Congress. The second session of the Thirty-fourth Congress commenced at Washington, on yesterday. The President's Message (the last annual communication of President Pierce), will be sent in to-day, and we will give it to the readers of the Intelligencer on our next issue.

As the Black Republicans have a majority in the House of Representatives, and as their power will increase on the 3d of March, when the session will end by constitutional limit, we suppose they will endeavor to do all the harm they can during their brief tenure of office, and throw as many difficulties as possible in the way of the outgoing and incoming Administrations.

Mr. Buchanan's Opinions. Several of our contemporaries are very much exercised about Mr. BUCHANAN'S views and intentions with regard to the question of Slavery.

President Buchanan.

Since the election the Black Republican papers have discovered that Mr. Buchanan is not only a very able, but a very good man.

In 1796, when THOMAS JEFFERSON and JOHN ADAMS were rival candidates for the Presidency, the latter received the unanimous election of the entire electoral college of that time.

Such is our experience, and the experience of every man who has ever been connected with the publication of a country paper.

Canal Commissioners' Appointments. HARRISBURG, Nov. 24.—The following additional appointments have been made by the Board of Canal Commissioners:

Superintendent of Portage Railroad—James Bryden. Supervisors—John Gadd, Upper Juniata; Henry A. Biggs, Upper Westery; Wm. Elliot, Susquehanna.

Collectors—Cyrus Carmony, Lancaster; Joseph B. Deitz, Pottsville. Cargo Inspectors—Jacob DeYoung, Bristol.

Meeting of Congress. The second session of the Thirty-fourth Congress commenced at Washington, on yesterday. The President's Message (the last annual communication of President Pierce), will be sent in to-day, and we will give it to the readers of the Intelligencer on our next issue.

As the Black Republicans have a majority in the House of Representatives, and as their power will increase on the 3d of March, when the session will end by constitutional limit, we suppose they will endeavor to do all the harm they can during their brief tenure of office, and throw as many difficulties as possible in the way of the outgoing and incoming Administrations.

Mr. Buchanan's Opinions. Several of our contemporaries are very much exercised about Mr. BUCHANAN'S views and intentions with regard to the question of Slavery.

Col. Forney's Speech.

We make the following closing extract from the very excellent speech delivered by Col. JOHN W. FORNEY, at the Democratic celebration at West Chester, on Wednesday last:

Mr. Buchanan has been closely identified with the slave power, during a long period of his life. He may be said to have been your representative for forty years, and ten of this period he was your immediate servant in the House of Representatives of the United States.

Such is our experience, and the experience of every man who has ever been connected with the publication of a country paper.

Canal Commissioners' Appointments. HARRISBURG, Nov. 24.—The following additional appointments have been made by the Board of Canal Commissioners:

Superintendent of Portage Railroad—James Bryden. Supervisors—John Gadd, Upper Juniata; Henry A. Biggs, Upper Westery; Wm. Elliot, Susquehanna.

Collectors—Cyrus Carmony, Lancaster; Joseph B. Deitz, Pottsville. Cargo Inspectors—Jacob DeYoung, Bristol.

Meeting of Congress. The second session of the Thirty-fourth Congress commenced at Washington, on yesterday. The President's Message (the last annual communication of President Pierce), will be sent in to-day, and we will give it to the readers of the Intelligencer on our next issue.

As the Black Republicans have a majority in the House of Representatives, and as their power will increase on the 3d of March, when the session will end by constitutional limit, we suppose they will endeavor to do all the harm they can during their brief tenure of office, and throw as many difficulties as possible in the way of the outgoing and incoming Administrations.

Mr. Buchanan's Opinions. Several of our contemporaries are very much exercised about Mr. BUCHANAN'S views and intentions with regard to the question of Slavery.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Friday evening, Nov. 28. It is not improbable that the President's Message may be withheld from Congress until Tuesday. It is now in the hands of the printer, but the completion depends upon particular information, which may or may not be received in time to assure its presentation on Monday.

The report of the Secretary of the Treasury is quite voluminous, and necessarily recapitulates much of the material suggested previously submitted to Congress at the last session, owing to the failure to legislate there. It will embrace information, never heretofore communicated in the same shape, including among other matters, the operations, capital, bonds, and indebtedness of the railroad companies in the United States.

Such is our experience, and the experience of every man who has ever been connected with the publication of a country paper.

Canal Commissioners' Appointments. HARRISBURG, Nov. 24.—The following additional appointments have been made by the Board of Canal Commissioners:

Superintendent of Portage Railroad—James Bryden. Supervisors—John Gadd, Upper Juniata; Henry A. Biggs, Upper Westery; Wm. Elliot, Susquehanna.

Collectors—Cyrus Carmony, Lancaster; Joseph B. Deitz, Pottsville. Cargo Inspectors—Jacob DeYoung, Bristol.

Meeting of Congress. The second session of the Thirty-fourth Congress commenced at Washington, on yesterday. The President's Message (the last annual communication of President Pierce), will be sent in to-day, and we will give it to the readers of the Intelligencer on our next issue.

As the Black Republicans have a majority in the House of Representatives, and as their power will increase on the 3d of March, when the session will end by constitutional limit, we suppose they will endeavor to do all the harm they can during their brief tenure of office, and throw as many difficulties as possible in the way of the outgoing and incoming Administrations.

Mr. Buchanan's Opinions. Several of our contemporaries are very much exercised about Mr. BUCHANAN'S views and intentions with regard to the question of Slavery.

CITY AND COUNTY AFFAIRS.

STOCKHOLDERS OF THE LANCASTER BANK.—We publish the following list, (copied from the Daily Express) as a matter of interest to our readers at the present time:

Table listing stockholders of the Lancaster Bank, including names and amounts.

Table listing stockholders of the Lancaster Bank, including names and amounts.

Table listing stockholders of the Lancaster Bank, including names and amounts.

Table listing stockholders of the Lancaster Bank, including names and amounts.

Table listing stockholders of the Lancaster Bank, including names and amounts.

Table listing stockholders of the Lancaster Bank, including names and amounts.

Table listing stockholders of the Lancaster Bank, including names and amounts.

Table listing stockholders of the Lancaster Bank, including names and amounts.