Richardson, however, has ted for Governor. The returns of this State are not all in, but enough is known to place our State at about 10,000 majority over the combined vote of Fillmore and t-there not being a genuine Premont ticket in the field, but a spurious one, with the Fillmore electors, was been cast in the State, and it also shows that the Benton shanan and Breckinridge. men pretty generally voted for Fillmore, and those, or large proportion, who could not dare go so far, did not vote at all. We are glad that it has turned out as it has, for tion, who could not dare go so far, did not vote we are now satisfied that many of the Benton men are any thing but Democrats. We know now where to place them, and how to speak of them in the future—they are not the riends of the National Democracy—we were mistaken in their nationality.

It is now currently reported that an effort will be made Know Nothing to the Senate. But this will end in the report; the National Democracy are strong enough to elect whom they see fit—and they will do it.

Iowa has given obout 5000 majority for Fremont, but the sition vote materially. We have few additional returns from the extreme Southern States, but the indications are that larger Democratic majorities than those previously reported will be officially returned. The Democracy of the louth have done well, and the old line Whigs of Tennessee and Kentucky are entitled to much credit.
