Sr. Louis, Jan. 5, 1857 Since our last date the weather has been extremely cold; and on Wednesday a slight sprinkling of snow full, and also again on Friday. Navigation above is entirely suspended. At this point, the river is filled with floating ice, out occasionally a boat from the South arrives, and several ers have departed for the Lower Missi the past week. The river is very low, and what few arrials and departures take place, show light cargoes.

Business in all departments of trade exhibit unusual duliness. Our merchants are making preparations for the opening of navigation—settling up the accounts of the past year, and opening their books for the new. On the lat ust., a great number of changes took place—old co-partnerships dissolving and new ones forming.

Well, we have again entered upon another year most important events, as well as exciting times have occurred—one among the many is, that of the Presidential lection. Never, perhaps, and the Democracy have such a formidable foe to contend against—in the Northern States we had the Black Republican party—new and untried— which sprung up like the wild rush of Know-Nothingian and which will sink just as rapidly as did that of the proionists-although the Know Nothing party still lingered through the recent campaign, and in most instances a grateful and an admiring people. united with the Black Republicans of the North, for the purpose of overthrowing the Democracy—in short, all the combined against us. The Democratic nominees went Nothingism. The Black Republicans fought us in the North and the Dark Lantern order in the South, but the through in triumph, and in doing so, we have achieved one of the greatest and grandest political victories yet re corded. The year '56 will ever be remembered by the friends and admirers of "Pennsylvania" Favorite Son,"— whilst that of 1857, will see him occupy the proudest position in the gift of the American people—the Presidential ment and threatened civil war in the Territory of Kansas—the result of which created alarm throughout the whole country; but now that the political excitement has settled down, we find that four-fifths of all the rumors of blood shed and civil war, were gross fabrications, manufactured for political capital in the endeavor to elevate John C. Fre mont to the Presidency. Other and important events have nont to the resonance. The and any security tend to pay their debts. are already recorded.

Our Legislature is now in session, and it is expected the Governor's Message will be read to-day. (The Message has already been published in some of our city papers—copies sere sent to the different offices in advance with instruc-Democrat and Intelligencer laid it before their readers several days since.) Many important bills will be brought before the present Assembly. The election of U.S. Sena tors will not take place for some time. It is the general Impression that the National Democracy will have four to ten majority on joint ballot, and the opinion seems to be that Messra. Phelps and Green will be chosen. As to Col. Benton, we are inclined to believe,—as we have repeatedly tated -that his chances are so small, that it is almost iseless to mention his name in connection with the Semitorship, notwithstanding his election would be hailed by a large majority of the people of this city, with satisfaction: and as much as we desire to see "Old Bullion" end his day's with the harness on his back, we fear our desires will not

E. C. Davis, the present State Superintendent of Common Schools, and editor of a Know Nothing paper in St Joseph, has been arrested at Jefferson city—(where he went to make his report -for forgery. The extent of the forged paper is not yet known, but so far as ascertained it amounts o between $10,000 and $12,000. Mr. Davis is from Virginia. and it appears that whilst there he forged paper to the amount of $200, and owing to the high standing of his family—one of the "F. F. of V"—and a promise to make good the forged paper, which he has not done-was permitted to leave that State. He has been called upon for the amount with interest, which sums up several thousand dollars, and is said to have refused to pay it. He was threatened with exposure, and it is presumed, forged paper to and elected the first time on the Whig ticket, and the last on that of the Know Nothings.

We were in hopes that the Baker and Hoffman affair was at an end, and we stated last week that Baker was sen heretofore. tenced to the Penitentiary, but Goy, Price saw fit to pardon him, and he is now back in our city.

There is also a rumor prevalent that Rob't McO'Blennis

-who killed Ben. F. Brand-will be pardoned before the new Governor is inaugurated. This, we have always expected, and if he is not, we shall be agreeably disappoint

All the stores and business houses were closed on New Year's Day, and "calling" on the ladies was pretty generally observed. We made some forty or fifty visits, and never saw our fair sex look so beautiful and bewitching -We were also treated to the dainties of the season, which were spread in great abundance upon the tastefully ar ranged tables. We notice in an Iowa paper that Mrs. Rebecca Wilson, (daughter of Richard Huskins,) died in Washington, Iowa, on the 10th ult. She was formerly from Fayette county,

The Nebraska Advertiser of Dec 6th says: "Since the snow, almost everybody who could command a gun has been on the go, and a great deal of game has been brought in. Two deer were killed inside the corporation." The Governor of Florida recommends in his Message. changes in the State Constitution, so as to provide for an-cost of Indian hostilities to the State to the 1st of Feb. next, will amount to $225,000. Chicago, Ills., is fast becoming a populous city. The following table shows the population of that place at different periods—the increase, perhaps, is unrivalled by any other city:

... 4.475 | 1850 ... 7.580 | 1852 ... 12,088 | 1853 ... 14,169 | 1854 ... 16,850 | 1855 ... 20,035 | 1856 ... 23,047 |

The Black Republican Legislature of Iowa are fast "running the thing into the ground, to use a common expres-sion. They have actually presented a Bill in the Senate allowing Negroes, Indians and Mulattoes to give evidence will be to give Negroes, Indians and Mulattoes all the rights of white citizenship—to vote, court white ladies and marry white wives—after "1860!" as it appears they have post-poned everything until that time.
Your Pennsylvania Abelitionists should have seen the imposing Negro procession which took place in our city last week. The negro draymen turned out on their annual parade with their horses tastefully caparisoned and themselves fantastically attired. The slave has his day for jollification as well as the whites, but the poor, ragged, half starved free negro of the North is ten times worse off—they

The story called the "Refugees" has been partly published in many of our Western papers, and winds up—for the conclusion see "New York Ledger." The Louisville Courier and Cincinnatif Gazette, not wishing to deceive their readers, state that it was published as an advertisement and paid for. The first part of this story has gone

THE MARKETS.

SATURDAY, January 10. BREADSTUFFS continue steady, with a small business only to note in Flour at about previous rates. The export demand continues quite limited, and the only transaction reported is 600 barrels standard brands at $6.20 per barrels. action reported is 600 barrels standard brands at $6,20 per barrel—most holders refuse this figure. There is a steady demand for the supply of the retaillers and bakers from $6,20 up to $1,50 for common and fancy lots, according to quality. Rr E hour and Corn Meal are very quiet. We quote the former at $3,50 a $4, and the latter at $3 per bbl. Grain—The demand for Wheat continues limited, but there is not much offering, and prices romain without change. Sales of 3000 bus, prime Pennsylvania red at $1,40 per bushel, and 700 bushel white at $1,50 @ 1,50, all in store. Rvz comes in slowly and is wanted at $0 @ $1 cents. Corn has again declined—sales of 6000 bushels old yellow, in store, at 66 cents. Oats are unchanged—sales of 2500 bushels Western at 47½ @ 48 cents per bushel.

The market for Corrons is very firm, with a small business only to note, at full prices. Coversage is more in quired for, and scarce, at $7½ per bushel. Whiskey sells as wanted at 26 @ 27½ for hhds. and bbls.

NALL will be a candidate for High Constable of the City of Lancaster at the ensuing election—subject to the nomination of the Democratic party. As he is about quitting his present business, should he be nominated and elected, he pledges himself to devote his whole time to the faithful discharge of the duties of the office. found. Four trains pass the Farm duity, and in one andability to whours marketing can be delivered to Alexandria, Washington and Georgetown. It is well known the prices of such truck are higher in the three cities than ven in New York. The neighborhood is remarkable for its good society. Churches, Schools and Stores are very convenient. As to health, there is no neighborhood more beatthy in the United States. The County Seat is two miles from the farm, and it is proposed to move it to the Station on the adjoining land. Extensive improvements had it received there.

This estate will, in proper hands, be worth in a short
