The river at this point continues blocked up with ice. The weather in the early part of the week was mild and plessant, and a thaw was pretty general throughout the West, and the ice on the river at this point became too weak for horses and teams, and since Wednesday last nothing but pedestrians crossed. For several days past many of the steamers—(there being some twenty now lying at our wharf)—got up steam in anticipation of a general break up of the ica, but the last two or three days being lder, the prospects for an immediate opening of navigation, are not now so flattering. The steamboatmen have broken the ice loose from around their boats, and those that had taken on freight before the river gorged, are discharging the same. They are hourly expecting rise and hence a movement of the ice. The ice here is not near so thick and heavy as last winter, but in the upper rivers it is said to equal that of last season. The genera impression is that not much damage will be done when it

Business remains extremely dull. There is nothing of moment transpiring in a local point of view.

The City Council, in connection with the Chamber of Commerce, have extended an invitation: to the Governor, Lieut. Governor, members of the Legislature and Executive officers, and Judges of the Supreme Court of this State, to visit our city, which invitation has been accepted. and the city's guests will visit St. Louis to day-they are expected to arrive at 2 o'clock. Great preparations have been made for their reception—the Military, with the City Fathers, will meet them at the railroad depot, and escort the State's dignataries to their lodgings. There is again some stir in political circles, relative to who shall be Governor. Gov. Polk having been promoted to a seat in the U. State s Senate, and thus varating the ernatorial chair. We have no idea who the individual will be. The Know-Nothings speak of Mr. Newland, the recently defeated K. N. candidate for Lieut. Governor; Luther M. Kennett, the defeated K. N. candidate for Congress, in this district : Lindley, Porter, Rollins and several others are mentioned by the Dark Lantern order in connection with the Gorernorship. Among the gentlemen spoken of by the Democrats, are Cel. Stuart, James H. Lucas, of this city, Dr. Robinson, C. F. Jackson, (of Jackson resolution notoriety, and Wm. P. Hall. Either one of these gentlemen would give general satisfaction to the Democracy of Misseuri. We have heard of no movement on the part of the so-called "Benton" party. What they intend to do, is best known to themselves. The probability, however, is, that they will go with the party profesing the strongest free-soil or Black Republican sentiments. They will scarcely run a candidate of their own. Mr Wilson, an old line Whig-but since the demise of that honorable for has connected himself with the "Dark Lan tern order"-(a fit subject for the once, " Benton" party to concentrate upon)—announces himself as an independent "old line Whig" candidate for Governor. He defines his position by saving that the "Whig party must and shall be

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington, Feb. 5, 1857.
The President elect left us last Tuesday morning for his residence in Pennsylvania, as suddenly and as unexpectedly as he arrived in Washington the Tuesday previous.— Well, we are gratified to know that he is in such fine health, and ready to assume, at the proper time, the high position his talents and experience justly entitle him to ccupy, as the representative of the people of the United

The Senate mostly this week, have been engaged in Executive business. Outsiders of course do not know what five hundred houses were reduced to a heap of is the purport of the business therein, but judging from ruins. the interest taken in open conversation, the Dallas Treaty, lately negotiated between Lord Clarendon and Mr. Dallas, in reference to Contral American affairs and Gou. Walkor meters and decirate Anna and the state of the state of the principal topic. The Treaty is certainly far from being acceptable to many Senators and the people of the States. We desire no alliance with England on matters pertaining to the States of this Continent. Again, it is said, the Kansas difficulty in the removal of Judge Lecompte is also giving Senators as well as the President some trouble, because Gov. Geary in a manner desires his removal. I do not think the Senate will agree to his removal and the appointment of Mr. Harrison to please or gratify Gov. Geary. The votes for President and Vice President will be counted in the presence of both Houses of Congress next Wed.

The decision then made is of lasting benefit to the people of the U. The New York Tragedy.

The Herald, of Wednesday, is filled with the testimony and other matters relating to the murder of Dr. Burdell. From an editorial in that journal, reviewing the whole proceed ings thus far, we clip the following:

"We are bound to say up to this moment the hurden of the testimony taken is frightfully against John J. Eckel and Emma Augusta Cunningham.

They may be innocent, and heaven knows we hope the are. But it is, to say the least an unfortunate thing that Mr. Eckel should have gone out before breakfast that morning. and should have deposited in his private desk paper which would seem to have been purined from Dr. Burdell. It is unfortunate that he should have been on such terms with he woman Cunningham as to lead the housemaid to regard her as an indiscreet mother to grown up daughters. And it is still more unfortunate that he should have allowed expressions of ill will towards the deceased to escape him, to which the present conjuncture imparts an awful significance.

As for the unhappy female over whom the public wrath now impends, every circumstance connected with her is unfortunate. She had a husband, who died, suddenly, in his chair, leaving a policy of insurance for $10,000 in favor of his wife. Was he poisoned? We must dig his body up. She led a life after his death which is described in the evidence of the witness Hildreth; a life evidently calculated to harden her heart and steel her nerves. Her acquaintance was such as no honest woman would willingly keep. Arrived at a mature age, and not destitute of those artful charms or charmful arts by which women in the meridian of life secure lovers, she met, ensnared, and conquered Dr. Entering his house as his mistress, she sought to assert a control over him against which the passionate and crabbed temper of the doctor rebelled. He gave her money .-He took in her daughters. He lodged her friend Eckel. Not content with all this, the woman Cunningham insists that he shall marry her. He refuses, and she sues him. Burdell, an angry, but not a persevering hater, capitulates, on certain conditions, among which is the one that he shall "extend to Mrs. Cunningham and her family his friendship through life," and another that he shall rent her his rooms at half their value. and she withdraws the suit. Burdell confesses that from the woman to whom he has vowed friendship through life he stands in terror of his own. He declares he has caught her that defunct party is Missour, and processins bimself the at his safe. The servant indiscreetly wakes whole embolitaent of Widzgery, or in other words, the at an untoward noise. Eckel and Mrs. Cunningham leer at each other across the table whole hog, tail and ail. He'd have a happy time of it-as fast as he succeeds in driving his followers out of one K. as they speculate on the happy consequences of "a handy blow" on the doctor's head.

Yet all these people go on living under the same roof, until one night one neighbor smells withstanding the Constitution of that State renders inelige burning woollen or flannel, another hears a stifled cry of murder, and next morning poor Dr. Burdell is found by Dr. Main and the boy We see that som Burchell dead in his room. organs of public opinion abuse some of the nctionaries for prosecuting this inquiry like public prosecutors; but how can any man in his senses look at the facts without coming to some conclusion as to the guilty person-and that conclusion a perfectly clear and fair one? " Acorn," the Boston correspondent of the New York Spirit of the Times, writes thus:---

"The hundreds of personal friends of John W. Forney, in this city, received the intelligence of his late defeat in Pennsylvania with feelings of unfeigned regret and disappoint ment; large numbers of these, too, were politically opposed to Col. Forney, but they knew him to be a man of large intelligence, wide and expansive views, and one who has the good of his country deep rooted in a heart full of noble and generous impulses. Had Col Forney been less unselfish, and allowed himself to stoop to bribery and chicanery, doubtless could have secured his election, but he is possessed of too polde a nature to resort

OAP! SOAP!! SOAP!!!:--The undersigned take this method of informing the citizens of the City and County of Lancaster, that they have, at a great expense, purchased the exclusive right to the manufacture of a newly invented and ratented.

LABOR SAVING SOAP, which, if used according to the directions accompanying each piece, will be found to exceed any thing of the kind over introduced into this community.

In using this Soap, the laborious and painful process of rubbing and wearing out clothes and fingers on the wash beard is entirely obviated.

Clothes washed with this Soap need no boiling, which amounts to a saving of nearly the wages of a washerwoman.
