urnment of Illinois Legislature—The Attack on Thas. H. Constable of Illinois—Office Seekers again.

Br. Louis, Feb. 23, 1857. cely made its appearance—on Saturday night it turned over the West, and the rivers are bank full. The navigation on all the streams never was better, and we are daily in receipt of large cargoes of produce—the Illinois in parcorn and oats, and our market is well supplied .- The receipts for the past three days are: Flour, 4664 bbls. wheat, 44,164 bags, or over 100,000 bushels; corn, 22:416 bags; cats 13,388 bags. Flour, choice, is selling at wholesale $6 per bbl.; wheat, from 117c. to 128c., as in quality; corn, 45 to 50c.; oats, 51 to 53 c. per bushel.

Our levee presents its usual business like appearance and stacks of goods and merchandise loom up at every step. The spring trade is now fairly open, and country lealers will shortly visit the city for their summer stocks On Saturday, our delegates to the State Convention left for Jefferson city, where the Convention meets on to-day (Monday, 23d) for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, to be voted for next August. Several gentlemen of acknowledged ability will have their names before that body, and we have not the least doubt but that the best and most available candidate will be selected .-Our impression is that Mr. Stewart, of Buchanan county It is our duty to record, another murder. Henry Ben ning was shot through the heart and instantly killed a day or two since, by one Walter J. Strother. Strother. it appears, was taking an afternoon nap, and Benning was ent to call him up, as he was wanted at his place of business, and in a playful way teased the sleepy fellow, and when he had all' his clothes on except his coat. Benning handed it to him, when Strother select a pistol lying on the bed and murdered the inoffensive man in cold blood-Strother was arrested, and is now contined in the calaboose past year, is one of crime and blood, and in this particular each succeeding day adds still more to the calendar of blood; scarcely a day or night passes but that we hear of ome one being stabled, shot or knocked down and robbed. when he was attacked by three or four ruffiaus, knocked down and robbed of all the valuables on his person, and this, too, on Fourth street, one of the principal and most frequented thoroughfares of the city. He was dragged to frequented thoroughfares of the city. He was dragged to the curb stones, and lay there, insensible, for about two hours. Where our efficient and rigilant police could have been is a mystery to stl. On the same night, and within three squares of the same spot three or four other knock. downs and robberies courred, and the police heard nothing of it until the next morning they were informed of these outrages occurring on their bests. Should these things continue, we will be compelled for the sake of life and property to follow in the wake of San Francisco, and id the town, by "Virilant Committees," of these desperadoes. And what is will worse, no arrests have yet been passing sentence upon-hurderers, robbers, and violators of has had no effect upon those yet at large and daily perpetrating crime. Sentence of death was pass. I upon Israel Shultz, for the murder of H. ary Inkamph, and also upon Jacob Neuselein, for the murder of his wife, and of seven the paragraph in question (except from his actions and his particular in boldly and manually advocating the cause of patriotism in boldly and manually advocating the cause of pencing the recent campaign)—he did not even hint at such an endorsement, and un-reover did not know what our intention was whom he held to a few the such as the such our intention was, when he left the city. We did it up n our own responsibility, and hurl back the imputation of a 'brillo'' into the teeth of the editor of the Journe t. We many instances that are daily coming to our knowled chribe" into the teeth of the editor of the Journe t. We don't puff for "money," and only praise where and when it is deserved, and always consured and condemned that which did not need our individual views, and this, for the simple reason that we always stand personally responsible for all that we have or may write. We hope this correction will rid Mr. C. of the charge of having "prompted" or caused to have "perpetrated" the correspondence of the Intelligence in reference to this gentleman.

The Lancaster Intelligence is Generally because the same of sevently. We may desire the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the World without the least fear as my case was one of the World without the least fear.

The Lancaster Intelligence, is favorably known throughhence the distasse toward favorable notice made in it of prominent men of this locality. The paragraph in reference to Mr. Constable has created great anxiety on the part of many to see it, and the Illinois restorative, and the state of the anxiety of the Age.—It settom examples are showing it up.

We president by thousands—(perhaps the name on every tomb stone of our cemeteries will be on his paper)—and he will not know a single one of them. And again, too much deference should not, and we believe will not be diverted by H. A. ROCKAFILID & Co., Medicine Depositions. deference should not, and we believe will not, be given to exclusive political recommendations-they are not always the best. We are content, and will be satisfied to leave the matter in the bands of the new President, who, we are confident, wil, do the best for the greatest good,

Gov. King, in his message to the New Legislature, gives it as his opinion that the Maine Law has not answered the expecta-tions of its friends. This is not correct so far as this State is concerned. The law here has "answered the expectations of its friends" fully. It was passed with the view to unite temperance men, rum sellers and rum drivkers in one party, and that object was accomplished, the temperance men being pleased because "they got the law," the rum sellers because the old law was repealed, and the new one was allowed to remain a dead letter, and the rum drinkers because the agencies" were directed to "lct rum flow freely." Thus all were pleased! And the result is a rapid and

SHOCKING AND FATAL CRUELTY TO A CHILD -In June last Anna Hilton, nine years old, was adopted from the Five Points House of Industry by Mrs. Simpson Decker at Long Neck, Staten Island. On Wednesday last the child died, and a coroner's jury found that she "came to her death by being beaten in a bru-tal manner, from exposure, and from a want of proper nourishment, at the hands of Mrs. Matilda Ann Decker." Mrs. D. is now in Richmond county jail. The testimony shows that the child was made to do the family washing in an open yard, in the severest weather; that she had nothing on her feet and but scanty clothing on her body; that her feet were rozen, and she put them in the stove, where they were burned to a blister; that she could not walk but was made to do house-work still, creeping about on her hands and knees until Meal sold at $3 per barrel. her hands and knees were dreadfully lacerated; that she was habitually beaten with a broomstick and treated with the utmost cruel are reported at $1.47, and white $1.62, in store. EXTENSION OF THE CHENANGO CANAL.—The Owego Times has a leading article recommending the extension of the Chenango Canal, from Binghamton to connect with the North Branch thirty eight miles, the Susquehanna river connects the two points, and there are no heavy grades. The cost of the connection is esti mated at $600,000. This sum will give a direct water communication between the coal mines of Pennsylvania and Central New York. It will unite the coal mines of Pennsylvania with the ore beds and plaster of Oneida and adjoining counties.

The Wrightsville Star states that the dam of the Susquehanna canal at that place has suffered considerably by the late ice freshet. There are a large number of breaches, made by the descending ice and much of the timber used in its construction has been swept away.

We would call the attention of our readers to the card of Messrs Tyndsle & Mitchell, No. 219 Chestnut Street. Philadelphia, who offer very great advantages to persons visiting the city in want of Fine or State China, Glass, and Common Wire. Which they will sell in large or small quantities, to suit the wants of families, at greatly reduced prices.

Persons visiting Philadelphia will be amply repaid by a stroll through their elegant establishment.
