nd clothe the negro population of Missouri? If they are not, it is high time to be about it, for when they they will, as a matter of course be strong competitors in the field of "Free White Labor."

The good common sense of your people teaches them see what the results of Black Republicanism, if successful, would bring them to, and our knowledge of their "extreme love" for the free negro, leaves not a doubt in our mind how they will act and vote at the October election. If they do not elect Gen. Packer we will be very much mistake in the character of the people of the old "Keystone." The Western and the Southern Democracy, who stood shoulder to shoulder with the Democracy of Pennsylvania in the great and glorious triumph of principles last fall, which ced one of your own sons in the highest office in the gift of the people, now look to you, and expect you to stand by that party and sustain those principles which they so cordially assisted in maintaining at the Presidential elec tion. We did our duty in that memorable campaign towards the elevation of James Buchanan to the Presidential Chair, and we are ready to re-endorse your "Pavorite Son" with a much stronger and powerful vote when the occasion shall arise; but we want to see you of Pennsylvania, re-echo the glorious tidings of the triumph of Demo cratic men and measures at your approaching October election. A Democratic victory at this time in the "Old Keystone" will be the death-knell to our opponents, and Rlack Republicanism and Know Nothingism will find re deep in the rich soil of Pennsylvania.

It is the duty of the old line Whigs of your county and State to again rally under the flag of Democracy, and assis in staying the spread of fanaticism and sectional hostilities, and we see no good reason why they will not come up as nanfully at the October as they did at the last November election. We expect every man to do his duty in our native State, and if they do, we shall feel proud of the decision of the people as expressed through the ballot box. Let your motto be BUCHANAN, DEMOCRACY, and PACKER! Yours, OLD GUARD.

Reasonable Men Reflect. The Clinton Democrat remarks that a few years ago the opposition to the Democratic party professed to believe that the welfare of nation depended on a PROTECTIVE TARIFF Now they have as their candidate for Governor an advocate of FREE TRADE, who was in Congress and voted against their protective Later they professed that the CATHOLICS and FOREIGNERS threatened ruin to the country, and their sole principle of politics that these classes should be prohibited from holding office and voting. So essential did they regard this profession, that they organized "Councils" and placed their members under the obligation of an oath to vote against all Catholies and foreign born citizens. Now they openly repudiate the latter half of this profession (hoping by this subterfuge to get the votes of foreign-born citizens)abandon their councils, their oaths, and their party name-and tell us that the fate of the nation now depends on making war on the Southern States!!! Once the tariff was everything-then Catholics and Foreigners were everything-now Negroes are everything! All this shows the opposition to be a party of humbugs, ready to make any profession to suit the times, and sincere in nothing. Will soher minded people act with such a party Why not join the old Democracy, who never change, who have made this nation what it is, who have governed it with a degree of succes which commands the admiration of the world -the party of the people, the Constitution, and of the whole Nation-who would have white men to govern us-who would have the people of every State to live as brethren, in religious harmony and brotherly love-the only party that has the nerve to fight fanati-cism, in every form and on all occasions, which never stoops to compromise with error for the sake of success—the great party of Jefferson and Jackson, of Snyber and Shunk, which proclaims equality of rights and privileges to all white men, and maintains the right of white men to govern themselves everywhere and on all occasions!—Huntingdon Globe.

ROBBERY OF THE U. S. MINT IN SAN FRANcisco.—The San Francisco Herald, of the 20th ult., states that Wm. Bein, who had been for some time employed in the coiners' depart-ment of the U. S. Mint in that city, was arrested on the previous day on suspicion of having abstracted gold from the establishment. His apartment was searched, and about $8000 in gold found, together with deeds for property to nearly $20,000. He admitted his pecula-tions and restored $3,300 of the amount. Massas. Entrons:—If you concur with me in the propriety of publishing this article, or something better adapted to accomplish the purposes in view, It will doubtless result in some good. My relative position is such as to add appropriateness to necessity. These considerations impel me to assume a responsibility of which I am unworthy. Your correspondent is one among the number work came to the rescue of their country in the day of danger, by supporting James Buchanan and the Democratic platform last November, and this is the number addressed.

He is not of the host of tried Democratic platform last November, and this is the number addressed.

He is not of the host of tried Democratic build find measures through that memorable epoch; and who will, as one, stand upon the same ground so long as the principles then contended for, and so gloriously vindicated, shall continue to be assailed. A noble work was accomplished, replete with the happiest consequences to the nation, to every individual state and territory, and last, but not less, every family in this great republic; this then is what we are already assured of as a reward for our labors and votes, and is only a faint vision of the beginning of a far more properous and. So far as the nation at large is concerned all is right. Pennsylvania will be right side up after the third Tuesday of January next.

And now, what shall we say of our own great county?—A county which ongth, in all honor, not only sustain the position it assumed last fall, but add accession to accession until the destructive elements of the opposition are forever hushed in the repose of hopeless defeat. We have emerged from darkness and corruption; we were received with open arms by the light and purity of Democracy.—Were we not invited to come as friends of the Union, the Constitution and Buchannar? Who among us dare say that these were not the appeals by which our hearts, and hands and voices were moved in going? Every consideration of country, of the welfare of societ tical. We are salished that we have much to gain and nothing to lose by such a courso. The gain consists his something far nobler and more enduring than the profits or honors of office—there is danger that men will underrate real benefits and much overrate apparent ones. We, as noviciates in the Domocratic party, should, above all, be guiled by prudence. The profits and honors of office, if there are any, do not belong to us. If these were the leading impulses, we were certainly not worthy of coming into the fold; an exit should be hailed with such emotions as we would feel by removing the viper fast consuming our strength. Let us say to our deliverers—have us on trial, confide not your trust or your interest until we have given into the fold; an exit should be hailed with such emotions as we would feel by removing the viper fast consuming our strength. Let us say to our deliverers—bave us on trial, confide not your trues to your interest until we have given proof of our sincerity and devotion. It must be borno in mind that we now, for the first time, have esponsed a cause or principle as enduring as the hills. We need not fear that unless we secure office this year that the next will bring a new state of things with it destroying our chances, &c. Principles are as lasting as the Democratic party, and its existence will be reckoned only by our country's duration. Such are the alarms which haunt the minds of the opposition, where there are only men, rioling in the spoils of petty county offices, without principle, part intem or any higher than exclusively selfast motive, particular or any higher than exclusively selfast motive, particular or any higher than exclusively selfast motive, particular or not have a supported with the character of mortal flesh, and often not lasting. The hope is induged that we will show ourselves proof against the character of mortal flesh, and often not lasting. The hope is induged that we will show ourselves proof against the character of mortal flesh, and often not lasting. The hope is induged that we will show ourselves proof against the character of mortal flesh, and often not exactly suit our individual wishes, is bad policy. It express to danger not only the success of the election of these officers in our own county, but offects, to a considerable extent, the majority we may give for our excellent sanatorial and legislative ticket on the second Tuesday of the election, with vigor and determination; not as supporting men but measures. Perhaps our time will come after a while. In the Democrate will be very apt to see it, and bring the matter before the bord.

Cheer up ye disaffected, glorious honors may yet await you; present disappointments may auspiciate future triumples, providing you now do your dut to the reflections of a rainy morning.

Yours, &c.
