The debate on the Kansas question was then resumed by Mr. Green, of Missouri, in reply to the speech of Mr. Douglas. He argued that the speech had caused a wrong impression in regard to Kansas affairs. The people of Kansas had bean allowed the sight to form of Kansas had been allowed the right to form a Constitution, prior to their admission into the Union, in their own way, and as best suited them. The way the majority chose to form such a Constitution was by means of a Convention, called by their Legislature. They had the right of choosing delegates to form this Convention. He did not believe the Convention. He left no children.

DEDICATION:—The Moravian Church, at tion thus chosen was obliged to submit the whole or any part of the Constitution to the people. From prudence and policy, however, they had decided to submit the slavery clause; but they were not obliged to do so. Eight new States had been admitted into the Union with out an "enabling act," and for the admission of two of these States, viz: Florida and California, Mr. Douglas himself had voted. He rusted that Senators would see the immense importance of settling this question as early as practicable. It had already arrayed one ection of the country against the other.

Mr. Douglas in reply, corrected certain mis-apprehensions the former speaker had made ative to the views expressed in his (Mr. Dis) previous speech, and expressed his position more fully. He was as desirous as any Senator to bring this unfortunate affair to a conclusion. But it could not be settled by trickery. A new agitation would be then commenced, and he voted for the admission of Kansas into the Union under the Lecompton Constitution he would feel it his duty to vote for an increase of the Army at the same time. The people of Kansas will not permit such things—however good and beneficial they may be pronounced be crammed down their throats.

After some further discussion, the subject vas postponed. Adjourned. House.-The members of the House met in their new Hall this morning.

A communication was received from the clergymen of Washington City, tendering their services to open the daily sessions with prayer. Amid much confusion the members proceed

Amid much confusion the members proceeded to select their seats by lottery.

A report from the Printing Committee, for printing extra copies of the President's Message, brought out Mr. Cox, a democratic member from Ohio, who expressed his disapprobation of the part in relation to Kansas. He contended that the whole constitution should he submitted to the people, and gave notice of his intention to bring forward a proposition to a that effect.

Mr. Hughes, of Indiana, responded, caunting the gentleman with being the first to desert the Administration. He said such a speech was unexpected in the House, as it was not previously understood that there were any Presidential aspirants in that branch of the National Legislature. He desired to know whether Mr. Cox intended to advocate the Topeka constitution, to which that gentleman gave a decided negative. The motion to print was adopted and the House adjouened. Nothing of interest occurred in Congress on Thursday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18. SENATE. - Mr. Douglas introduced a bill au thorizing the people of Kansas to form a Constitution and State Government, preparatory o their admission into the Union on an equa ooting with the original States. The resolutions submitted yesterday by Mr. Pugh and Mr. Trumbull, calling on the President for further information with reference Kansas affairs, were adopted. The Senate resumed the consideration of the Treasury Note Bill. A debate ensued upon the provisions of the bill. Mr. Seward wished the amount limited to ten millions, and the interest to four per cent. Mr. Hunter objected to the amount being less than twenty millions, but would agree to limit the interest to four and a half per cent. The amount to be issued would be limited by the necessities of the Government; but if ten millions was made the limit, there might be ecasion for another bill before the session of Congress was over. Mr. Crittenden was opposed to the notes bearing interest, and would prefer to have them in cirulation like bank notes. He thought it strange that the Government should suspend now, when the crisis had past, and the Banks were resuming.

During the debate, a message from the House was received announcing the death of

Mr. Montgomery, of Pennsylvania, when Mr. Bigler delivered an eulogy upon the deceased Adjourned. House.—Mr. Clingman (N. C.,) offered resolution directing the Committee on Accounts, to examine the stationery provided for the use of members and to report its real value and to make such recommendations as they may deem proper in the premises. Mr. Cling-man said that if the prices now paid for statisnery are the same as heretofore, there must be a great mistake somewhere. He had found it so inferior as to be obliged to buy some at the bookstores. He had seen a statement in the Globe of such a serious character, which, f true, implicated the late Clerk of the Hous (Mr. Cullom) in an embezzlement of the public money. If any officer of the House was in combination with outsiders to buy stationery at low, and sell at high rates, he ought to b published. There may be great injustice done to the Clerk alluded to, of whose conduct he knew nothing. The affair, and the charges thus made, however, require an investigation Mr. Houston (Ala.,) thought a Special Committee should be appointed to examine this subject and nothing else. There ought to be requiring strict examination into the accounts of every out going Clerk of the House. He was surprised that Mr. Cullom's friends had allowed so much time of the ses sion to elapse without demanding an investigation. Mr. Savage (Tenn.) remarked that the charge against Mr. Cullom was made a matter of discussion in his district during the last had made $40,000 outside of his pay as Clerk. This came from Mr. Stanton, a member of the see Legislature and who once was the pet of Mr. Cullom. pet of Mr. Cullom.

Mr. Mason, (Kentucky) said that the Committee on Accounts had found no improper conduct as yet, and hoped that they would not. He suggested other examinations. Mr. Maynard, (Tenn.) said he was not here to screen Mr. Cullom's conduct from a full

The House, efter further debate, adopted the resolution referring to a Select Committee of five the accounts of the late Clerk, with power to report at any time, and send for persons and papers.

Mr. J. Glancy Jones, (Penn.) from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill authorizing the issue of Treasury notes.

Also, a bill making appropriations for the support of the Indian Department, and the Civil and Dislocation bill Civil and Diplomatic bill.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole, on the Treasury Note bill, similar to that introduced in the Senate. Mr. J. Glancy Jones was unwilling to pres the consideration of this bill. unless the Wynkoop, late United States Marshall for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, was accidentaly killed while gunning near Tamaqua, this State. He was hunting pheasants in company with his hired man, when the gun in the hands of the latter was accidentally discharged. The load took effect in Col. W.'s leg, and he died in half an hour from the effects of the wound.

General Pierce subsequently appointed him United States Marshal for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, an office he filled until the commencement of the administration of President Buchanan.

St. Louis, Dec. 14, 1857. The weather has been unseasonably mild and please hroughout the past week-more like May than December and the consequence has been a continuation of arrivals from all the upper rivers, bringing large amounts of produce of every description. Business is therfore quite brisk, and our merchants and wholesale dealers are doing a fair John J. Anderson & Co., last Monday, has made mo etary matters much easier, and the probability is that the suspended chartered banks of our city will shortly resum There is very little change to note in the produce market

The rivers are all in good navigable condition, but freights are scarce—to New Orleans 40c for Flour; 60c for Pork, and 20c per 100 lbs for weight freight. The Ohio river is very -quite a freshet has taken place there, and at Cin cinnati the water is up to the curb on front street. There were but 57 deaths in this city last week.

We have nothing interesting of a local character to re-port. The usual number of robberies, wife-whippings, ting, stabbing and shooting have taken place, but we have heard of no serious occurrence, and consequently hav one to communicate. There have, however, been several elopements in the ountry adjacent-men leaving their wives and children. and wives leaving their husbands, and seeking other climates to enjoy the blessings of a free " Mormon " country

The President's Message was received here at 3 o'clock in the morning of Friday, and the Republican laid the tive document before its readers before 8 o'clock-24 hours n advance of all other papers in this city. We have read the greater portion of this great State paper, and it is such n one as might be expected to emanate from a statesman like James Buchanan-sound to the point on all the gen eral subjects to which he refers. We were well satisfie of the course the President would likely pursue in regard to the Utah and Kansas difficulties, and his remarks on these points are plain and comprehensive, and expresse with that dignity of character, and determination of will and mind, as to leave no doubt but that he is in earnest, and with a determination so plainly set forth, that all obstacles now in the way of a speedy settlement, are so broken, that another year will put the country to rest on these points, "and its attention be directed to more important subjects.

In regard to Utah, there is but one course to pursue, and that is force—persuasion and pleading have been found unavailing, and nothing now remains to be done, but the carrying out of the recommendation so instly prescribed by the President. But let the army be of suffic to at once make the outlaws of the Great Salt Lake Valley yield submission to the laws of the country. This, we be lieve, will be done, if Congress gives the President tha support for which he asks, and which he should be granted. The well expressed remarks of the President upon the Kansas question, seem not to have healed the breach, between the two contending porties of the Territory. It may not be generally known that the Black Republicans are bitterly opposed to Kansas being admitted as a Free State notwithstanding they profess to favor that doctrine What we here write is truth, and this truth is substantiated by facts, which we will here briefly state, to show to your readers, and those of your Black Republican neighbors—who are sincere and acting in good faith with that party for the freedom of Kansas and the non-extension of Slavery into any more Territories. They set out to have Kansus admitted into the Union as a free State—that was their political capital for 1856, and they persisted in this up to the time that it was generally acknowledged-when Parrott carried the Territory as Delegate to Congress by a majority of 6000. Finding at this time that there were Democrats in the Territory who were just as strongly in favor of a free State as they were—thousands of whom voted for Parrott on that ground—not as a Black Republican, but against establishing slavery in Kansas-all Democrats are not pro-slavery because they live in a slave State. Since the election of Parrott, letters innumerable have come to the West from the leaders of the Black Republican party of Massachusetts, and other Abolition States, appealing to the free State men of Kansas not to rote on the 21st inst., for if they do, they will be certain of making Kansus a free State, and thus put a stop, and fo ever kill the "uprising freemen of the north." And further. ever that the "uprising freemen of the north." And authors, "to save our party and the cause, we must SACRIFICE all that we have thus far accomplished; and to do this now, will give our enemies the State of Kansas; but this we must yield for a future triumph—now the Pressences in 1860." And again, "we are satisfied that we have a large majority in Kansas, and can change the Constitution at any time to suit ourselves. We must sacrifice a little now, to guin a larger point in the future. Admit Kansus as a free State, and we are forever powerless—we thus rob ourselves of our own capital —take from Peter to pay Paul—and unless Kansas is a slave Sute, our doom is sealed—the Republican party will go as fast backwards as did Know-Nothingism. The only way, then, to save ourselves, is to refuse to vote on the 21st inst. claiming as our pleat to illegality of the election. See that every free State man in the Territory knows his duty—let the election go by default," dec., dec.

tives-whose only aim was to make Kansas a "free State?" Can they not see through the flimsy well the fact, that all this hurrah for "free Kansas" was a mere trap set by the eaders to catch the unwary, and by their aid ride into wer and greatness. The election is called for the 21st of to the polls and vote they will easily exclude slavery by a najority of at least 12,000 or 15,000—if they refuse to vote, they will have no one to blame but themselves, and the sequence will rest upon their own heads. The Abolition of the people of Kansas,—they don't live there to share its good or evil—but all they desire is for the people of Kansas to cut their own throats, (which most assuredly they will do, if they do not vote like men and freemen)may ride into place and power on the topmost wave of their blood which they so graciously and religiously sacrificed "for the good of the cause!" We don't think the people of Kansas are so recreant to their own interests-their canvass, and he had been told that Mr. Cullom families and their homes—as to live under a constitution which they abhor, and one which they can prevent. It is not reasonable to suppose that they will forego all this to bolster up a few political traitors who have been lashed through all the campaigns for the last half century. We advise the settlers of Kansas to look after their own peace and welfare first—make that comfortable, and then if they choose, take their would-be-assassins by the hand, and help them out of their difficulties. We candidly believe, that if the Black Republicans of Kanzas do so far forget themselves and their own interests —their duties to their families and their homes—as not to —their duties to their families and their homes—as not to yote on the 21st, the day set for the general election—that there will be free State Democrate enough in the Territory to yote down the "slavery" clause, and thus strip them of the little glory they are wont to achieve. There are thousands of Democrats now in Kanesas who are opposed to slavery, and will yote against it, not on a political issue, for we claim that it is not unch—that every man is voting himself a home, and that he will do, and In doing so will seek to make it as peaceable and happy as he can. If the full vote of Kanesas is polled, "slavery" will be voted down by 12,000 majority, and this the Black Republicans know, and with it they vote down their own political capital. But whether they vote or not, we think it immaterial, the "slavery clause" will be rejected by the people. As a general thing the President's message is pronounced the most able paper that ever emanated from that Chair.—There are a faw—(always some "black," in a large drove of sheep)—that take exceptions to it—editors of opposite politics—and who would take exceptions to the Bible and their own consciences, to gain a political point or a lucrative office.

A NEW IDEA.—THIS PAYS WELL!—

For 60 cents, in coin or stamps, I send to any address, my "Self Instructor," which I guarantee will enable any one to go right to work and make from 20 to 40 good CORN BROOMS per day. The necessary fixtures can be made by almost any person, at a mere trifie of expense. The Selinsgrove Democrat, of August last, says: "We are always glad to announce anything new that may be turned to a useful purpose. P. H. Fisher, of this place, is doing the public no small degree of service by the introduction of his very simple mode of making Corn Brooms, by which any one can make them at a very trilling cost. We cheerfully recommend his Self Instructor, as something worthy the attention of all who are growing Broom Corn." It also gives the best mode of raising and curing it.

Mr. Joseph E. Hover:—A trial of your LIQUID HAIR
DYE will convinue the most skeptical, that it is a safe, degant and efficacious preparation. Unlike many others, it has in several instances proved serviceable in the cure of some cutaneous eruptions on the head, and I have no hesitation in commending it to those requiring such an appli-

Yery respectfully, J. F. X. McCLOSKEY, M. D.,
