e our first letter of the New Year and write 1858. That of 1857 has passed and gone, and ough at the time we announced its advent, the country was in a prosperous, healthy condition, and everything gave promise of plenty, prosperity and an expected "good time" generally. The year was such, but the closing ninety days presented a state of affairs in financial circles experienced—arising from a system which should never have attained the hold it did—of long credits too much confidence, and overtrading in every department f business. Confidence was abused; credit was extended to those who took advantage of it, and men of small means axions to keep pace with those of wealth, indulged in this system of trading to their ultimate ruin, and finally involved not only the men of small means and extended credit, but those supposed to be too well fortified ever t uccumb to the mortifying and greatly to be deplored ait uation of permitting themselves to go to protest, fail and assign. But such has been the result of the past year, and it is to be hoped a lesson has been taught the busines men, which will guide their future transactions, and act as a guard against hazarding the reputation, confidence credit of the mercantile business

We again enter this as we did the year just closed, with bright prospects and buoyant hopes, with plenty in store and ford anticipations of a brilliant future, but let us strive to avoid another general disaster, like that which has so convulsed the whole country in the last ninety days

We had our "Thanksgiving day" on Thursday, but it being in the midst of the season for winding up the old year's business, it was not so generally observed as it otherwise would have been.

The first day of 1858 broke upon us more like a May day than the 1st of January. It was indeed a lovely day, and one more pleasant and delightfully mild could not have been expected—clear overhead and dry under foot, which brought out a large number, who made their annual "calls." Not feeling too old to participate in this agreeable systemwhich is almost universally practised in the cities of the West-we in company with Dr. N. B. Wolfe, called upon some fifteen or twenty of our lady acquaintances, and and them unusually jovial, pleasant and sociable. The tables were all well supplied with the delicacies and luxuagreeable day among our feminine acquaintances, and the octor expressed himself pleased with the fair daughters cards used upon the occasion, which you will no doubt at once pronounce "neat, but not gaudy" and would urmise that the engraver had been swindled, and supereeded in his business by Johnson & Co., of Philadelphia weather is unusually pleasant for the advanced period of the body in a shocking manner. She has been the season. The past day or two has been something colder, and a "smart sprinkling" of ice is floating in the river. The upper rivers are still open, but very low, and not much produce is arriving from any quarter. sales of the New Year on Change are as follows-Flour from $3 i50@$5; Wheat 60@$90c; Corn 35@ 40c; Oats 40@ 48c4 Pork $12 75@$13; Lard Sc; Salt $1 for Liverpool; Whiskey 15c; Hide4 81,5609c; Hogs are dull at $4 5060 4 75. $5,000 head have been cut here to this date. Local affairs are very dull-the reporters not having got through with the festivities of the holidays.

e hope the card will have its desired effect (!)

The Printers of this city are to celebrate the anniversary of FRANKLIN's Birthday on the evening of the 18th inst., by a ball and banquet at the Varieties Theatre. Extensive preparations are being made, and the affair promises to be one of great brilliancy. The craft of this city numbers

Our politicians are looking around for canditates for the suing city election. The Republican suggests an "Inde-ndent Citizons' Ticket." the Leader favors a Democratic our citizens, and intimates that they must be satisfied with the man or men they intend to put up-pledged to that everlasting bue and cry " Free White Labor," "Bleeding Kansas," General Lane," who made the United States coops surrender, &c., &c. We are not in this fight, but always support the regular nominees.

Redpath, the notorious correspondent of the Missouri Democrat writes another roorback to that abelition printhe says-"Fight between Lane's men and the Government the says—"right occasion had a such and the cover ment troops—three drazones killed—U. S. troops surrendering," Ac., &c. All we have to say in regard to this, is, while we have always been obliged to do, correct that which emandes nates from Redpath. No such engagement took place, and you can rest assured as long as Lanc is the leading spirit of the Blacks, no such engagement will take place. The idea of Lane repulsing the Government troops! We did not think that Redpath had any better sense than to strive to impose such superlative nonsenne upon the people of the North, but we did think that the editors of that paper entertained a far more exalted opinion of their black brethren of the New England States, as to make them believe that the notorious Jim Lane made the Governmen roops surrender! It is all humbug. No such engagement took place, and as the proof for this the Republican has a dispatch from Kansas as late as the 31st, four days later, which states that "All is quiet in the Territory." Had cat, we have not the least doubt but that THOUSANDS have been slain in Kansas in the past year or two, in the great "wars" between the "free State" and "presslavery siparties," when the facts of the case will not show a half lozen-and the majority of whom came to their death by twentieth of the number killed in the "great wars of Kansas," as there have been in this city during the past year —(under Black Republican administration)—by the knife and slung shot! We are therefore compelled to say that the Democrat's "statistics" are very highly colored and greatly exaggerated. The admission of Kansas will settle forever the "up-rising freemen of the North." We say again, admit Kansas, and the country will be quiet. We acknowledge the receipt of the great speech of the Pennsylvania War Horse,"—Senator Bigler—in reply to Judge Douglas. There is but one opinion entertained by men of both parties, and that is, Judge Douglas is casting about for Presidential capital. We think he will see the error of his way, and before long return to the party which has given him a name and a fame.

Mr. William Brown, brother of the Post Master General, was shot at his residence at Giles county. Miss., about a week since. His assassin took two fires at him, but we are happy to announce, though badly wounded in the face and head, that his injuries are not likely to prove fatal.

Andrew Jackson Davis, the "Great Seer of the 19th Century," is delivering a series of lectures in this city.

Advices from Mobile report the inundation of the Black past year was—3,408, with an aggregate tonnage of 958,774.

The number of arrests in the city for 1857 was 6,042—males, 5032, females 1029 and minors 887. There are now 178 prisoners in our county jail.

A PUBLIC EXECUTION IN INDIA. A writer in the London Times gives a terrible account of the execution of eighteen mutineers at Ahmedabad, Oct. 20th :--

"Ten of them mounted to their places on the drop; a firing party of 12 moved up to within 20 yards of the place where I stood, within 20 yards of the place where I stood, $6.50 for common, superfine and fancy lots. Nothing doing facing outwards as the guns did, but behind in Rye Flour or Corn Meal, and we continue our former them, further back into the square. The men were placed in front, not more than twelve paces from the muzzles of the muskets. They knelt down, their eyes bandaged and their hands tied. Meanwhile five had been marched to the five fatal guns. They were bound by their arms to the wheels, but their legs were free, and the end man—the only one whom I leaned his back against the muzzle. I fixed my eyes intently on that man, not 50 yards away, and in a moment the signal was given. There was a roar, a bank of white smoke, and a jet and shower of black fragments, sharp and clear, which leaped and bounded in the air; this, and a fearful sound from the spectators, as if the reality so far exceeded all previous fancy that it was intolcould entirely see from my place on the flank, erable: then a dead stillness.

I walked to the scattered and smoking floor before the guns. I came first to an arm, torn off above the elbow, the fist clinched, the bone protruding several inches bare. Then the ground sown with red, grisly fragments, then blackhaired head and the other arm still held together. This was the man I had watched. Close by lay the lower half of the body of the next, torn quite in two, and long coils of entrails twined on the ground. Then a long cloth in which one had been dressed rolled open like a floor cloth, and on fire. One man lay in a complete and shattered heap all but the arms, the legs were straddled wide apart, and the smashed body on the middle of them; the spine exposed; the head lay close by, too. The last body was that of a native officer, who was the arch fiend of the mutiny. He was a short man, with a cruel face. His head had been cut clean off; his face was half upturned, and calm, the eyes shut. I saw no expression of pain on any of them. What had been his body lay on its face, the legs as usual, not shattered, but all the flesh torn like cloth from a sharp angle in the hollow of the back, off and off, till it merged in one mangled heap. I turned to the three who had been shotone had been struck in the heart, and only bowed slowly over on his face. The others had been pistolled afterwards through the head. All, I think, however, had been badly hit, as all were prostrate when I ran forward to the guns.

And only now—there was so much more terrible—did I look up at the ten white figures slowly swinging and revolving over this scene of blood. I hope they died quickly, but the ropes were very short."

A few days since the Albany (N. Y.) Atlas and Argus published an account of the attempted suicide of Mr. Wm. Houghkirk, farmer of Schoharie county. The editor has since been informed that Mr. H. had endorsed to a considerable amount for different friends and on the morning of the sad occurrence had received intelligence that he was held for th amount of one of the notes, with the prosped of having to meet others. This so depressed him that he resolved to perpetrate the rash act. From his singular manner, and from the few words that he uttered, his wife became apprehensive that he intended to destroy him. self, and requested their daughter, a girl of seventeen years, to watch her father's move-ments. He started for a barn about half a mile from his residence, the girl following him at a short distance, to prevent his observing her He entered the barn—she came up and entered also, when the horrifying spectacle of her father suspended by the neck, and black in the face, met her gaze. She immediately ran to him and tried to raise him up, but finding him too heavy, she thrust her hand into his pocket, drew therefrom his knife, and out him She then laid him on the barn floor down. took the cap from his head and ran to a spring filled it with water, returned and commence bathing him with it. After a while he began to breathe. She then left him and called assistance. He was taken home, and is now in a fair way of recovery. This is one of the most remarkable instances of female courage The holidays are over, and we believe all are glad of it. and thoughtfulness it has ever been our lot to record.

A HUSBAND CUT TO PIECES BY HIS WIFE. The good people of Sussex county, Va., have been startled by one of the most revolting and cold-blooded murders that has ever been committed in that section. It occurred Christmas morning-the victim was a husband, and the perpetrator his own wife. From her confesion the particulars seem to be briefly these: On Christmas morning, Josiah Freeman, the husband of the woman, threatened to kill her; o, after reflection, she thought she would ge the better of it and kill him. While he was asleep she seized a gun, and fearing the springing of the hammer would arouse him, sh opened the pau, and, applying a coal of fire the powder exploded, the whole charge grazing his forehead. He raised up and remarked that she had done wrong, when she instantly struck him over the head with the gun knock ing him senseless. The blow was given with such force that the barrel of the gun was bally The day passed off without anything occurring to mar bent. While in this insensible condition she the enjoyment of our citizens. A great deal of gun-powder seized a knife and cut his throat. Still fearing committed to jail for trial.

> RESUMING WORK .- It gives us satisfaction to announce that a number of the large establishments in the city and vicinity, whose fires were put out by the panic, are about to resume operations immediately. Two or three large iron works have already done so. This is a sign of returning prosperity which will cheer every one. For two or three months the " hard workers" of the city have been "hard up" and they will rejoice that their long rest is over at least. During the suspension our own city has fortunately not suffered any thing like the business prostration of other cities. - Pittsburg

CATHARTIC PILLS

CATHARTIC PILLS

PERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, and, by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professors, Physicians, and Patients, has shown cures of dangerous diseases almost beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such caalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Their certificates are published in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring.

Annexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure.

For COSTIVENESS.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costivefiess is frequently the aggravating cause of PILES, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved.

For DYSPEPSIA (which is sometimes the cause of Costiveness, and always uncomfortable, take mild doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and the hearthurn, bodyburn, and soulburn of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you.

For a Forl Stomach, or Morbid Inaction of the Honels, which produces general depression of the points and bad health, take from four to eight Pills.

Boxels, which produces general depression of the spirits and had health, take from four to eight Pills it first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity spirits and had health, take from four to eight ries at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength is restored to the system.

For Nervousness, Sick Headache, Nausha, Poin in the Stomach, Back, or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out from the system. Don't wear these and their kindred disorders because your stomach is foul.

For Schoftla, Eryshellas, and all Disease of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The eruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been healed up by the purging and purifying effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health Patients! your duty to society forbids that you should parade yourself around the world covered with pimples, blotches, ulcers, sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your ystem wants cleansing. Instern wants cleansing.
To Punify the Blood, they are the best medicine ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which sow the seeds of incurable diseases will be swept out of the system like chaff before the wind By this property they do as much good in preventing sickness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every the remarkable cures which they are making every where.

Liven Complaint, Jaundich, and all Bilious Affections, arise from some derangement—either torpidity, congestion, or obstructions of the Liver. Torpidity and congestion vitiate the bile and render it unfit for digestion. This, is disastrous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Costiveness, or alternately costiveness and diarrhea, prevails. Feverish symptoms, languor, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsines; sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach acid; the bowels sore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colic, bilious diarrhea, dysentery, &c. A medium dose of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the several the metallic and the substantial to its with the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wicked to suffer, such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents. Rhek Matism, Gourt, and all Inflammatory Ferens, are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood and the stimulus which they afford to the vital principal of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the bowels gently, but freely.

As a Dinner Pill, this is both agreeable and useful. No Pill can be made more pleasant to take, and certainly none has ocen made more effectual to the purpose for which a dinner pill is employed.
