St. Louis, Jan. 25, 1858. No winter yet. Weather mild and pleasant. We had a delightful April shower on Saturday night. Business is extremely dull—the unseasonable weather unsettling every department of trade. The rivers remain unchanged, and not much of any kind of produce is arriving. Receipts are very light. We now quote our wholesale market for Flour at $3 50@$4 25; Wheat 72@95c; Corn 86c; Oats 87@38c; Barley 55c; Pork $12 50@$13 per bbl.; Lard 71/2071/80 Whiskey 15c; Hides 91/2. There is not much doing in Hogs $4, $4 25, $4 50 and $4 75 are about the ruling rates. The number cut at this point, the present season, is 95,000 head; at Louisville, Kentucky, 215,000, and at Cincinnati 365.000 head

Notwithstanding the unseasonable weather, our city maintains her usual good health; there were but 55 interments in the different cemetries during the past week.— Fifty-five deaths out of a population of 130,000 souls, speaks well for St. Louis.

The Printers' Ball and Banquet came off on Monday night last-some 600 citizens participated, and the whole proved to be the most brilliant affair of the season. The negro, who some time since killed his wife and mother-in-law, in this city, was tried last week, and convicted of murder in the first degree. Mr. Hannegan, formerly of Indiana, but now located in this city, made one of the greatest efforts ever made in our Criminal Court, on behalf of the defendant. Mr. H. has made himself very popular, and we predict for him a successful future.

Geo. D. Prentice, editor of the Lonisville Journal, will deliver a lecture in our city this evening .- Subject, " Present aspect and tendencies of American Politics." It is presumed that he will not touch Plug Uglyism. Thos. Gales Foster, formerly of this city, but recently editor of the Boston Banner of Light, delivered a lecture here vesterday (Sunday) on Spiritualism. Miss Charlotte Cushman, the world renowned actress, is playing an engagement at Wood's Theatre. She attracts nightly large and fashionable audiences.

The fire-bells have kept up almost a constant gingling for the past two or three days. No serious damage, however, has been done. On Thursday night the tobacco manufactory of Kirkham & Bro., was consumed-less about $12,000, insured for $8,000. We have now in active operation in this city, three steam fire engines, and from what we can understand, they work admirably.

There have been two or three murders committed in our city since the date of our last letter. A man in the lower part of town killed his wife, and a day or two since two officers went to a house on Franklin avonue, kept by J. Y. Tysack, to levy upon his goods and chattles, when some difficulty arose, and the deputy constable, named Mack, shot Tysuck through the heart killing him Instantly.— Meek gave himself up, stood an examination, and was acquitted on a plea of "self defence"—the evidence in the age substantiating the facts. Of late, our police and other officers, robed in a little brief authority, have been using their weapons most too frosly, and they will keep on unt one or two are made to dance a highland fling on a tight rope. It has only been a week or two since one Bassett, a man, shot and killed a man, because he ran off escape arrest. Bassett was acquitted—we suppose in "self-defence"—as the victim was running away from the offier at the time. This "official authority" is a great thing. There have been several others killed in different parts of the city, some of them no doubt murdered, others by acci-

On Saturday evening last several gentlemen arrived here from Kansas, among whom is Judge Elmore, of the Territorial Court, en routs for Washington. They bring dates to the 18th last. Gen. Calhoun had been arrested and reeased under a writ of hehear corpus. Jack Henderson was atill at Lawrence, and it was supposed would be released in atill at Lawrence, and it was supposed would be released in a few days. The two Legislatures were in session at Law-rence—working harmonismity together. Martial law, it is said, reigos in Kanses. We have not as yet the full idea-tion returns, and there are still conflicting opinions as to that returns, and there are sent common graphics, and there which theket he successful. We, however, are still limitined to believe that the Free State party has a nonphed—not the Huel. We are giad to find the free State men of Kansas studying then own future weltare, and it is high time that they cut loose from all outside influences, and like men defend their homes and that which they think will most inure to their happiness. Admit Kausas as a free State, with the Lecompton Constitution, and there will be no revolutionists to be found in Atchison. The will be no revolutionists to be found in Atomson. The people of Kausas are at last opening their eyes and casting about for themselves, leaving the Black Reguldicines of the North to attend to their own business—the people of Kansas are not permitted to interfere or meddle in the polities of Massachusetts, and they are now finding out the folly of allowing the politicians of other States to control and govern them. This is as it should be, and a strict adherance to this principle will result greatly to the benefit, comfort and happiness of the people of Kansas, whose rights and privileges have already been too long trampled upon by the Black Republicans of the New England States. If the Republican party is no stronger in the North than it is in Kansas, we pity the poor politicians living on the hope of office in the future. Admit Kansas some time during the present session of Congress-with or without slavery-under the Lecompton, the Topeka or any other with a dozen Constitutions, it matters not which-admit her in any way, and Black Republicanism will be so dead, and buried so low that the sound of Gabriel's trump will

AN IMPORTANT CASE.

The case of Patrick Kelly vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was again tried in our Court last week, the verdict in the former trial having been set aside; by the Court, on the ground that the damages were excessive. The circumstances are briefly these:

Patrick Kelly was at work near the town, and his son James, a boy about nine years of age, was sent to him with his dinner. The father sent him to town for tobacco, telling him to hasten back that he might not be too late for school. To return to town it was necessary for him to cross the Pennsylvania Railroad, where it passes over the turnpike between this place and Portstown. It was alleged by plaintiff that the cars were unlawfully obstructing the turnpike; that the boy endeavored to cross by going under one of the cars; that the cars started without whistling, caught the boy, and injured his leg so badly as to render amputation necessary; and the action was brought by the father to recover damages for the loss he sustained by the injury

The defendant denied that the cars were obstructing the turnpike, or that they started without whistling, and alleged that the boy's negligence in endeavoring to cross under them was such as to deprive his father of the right of action. Whether the cars whistled before starting or not, was not treated as a very material inquiry in the trial of the cause. The principal questions submitted to the jury were whether the cars were obstructing the highway, and if so, whether the Company was relieved by the want of that degree of care on the boy's part which might reasonably be expected from one of his years. The jury found both these questions against the Company, and returned a verdict of $3000 for plaintiff. The case was conducted for plaintiff by Messrs. Scott & Benedict; for defendant by Miles & Dorris.—Huntingdon Globe.

DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS .- The editor of the New Hampshire Gazette publishes a list of twenty-nine names, subscribers to that paper, whose arrears amount in the aggregate to $249,98. The editors of the Rochester, (N. Y.) Democrat state that during the twenty years that paper has been published, there has accumulated an indebtedness of subscriptions of $30,000. There are many old estabpapers in the country which show an equal indebtedness of subscribers to publish-

If we were disposed, we could name one of them. - [Eds. Intel.

Another Slave Case Decided .- The Chicago Times reports a case just decided by the Supreme Court of Illinois:

"A citizen of Missouri brought a suit against the Illinois Central Railroad in trover, for a slave who taking passage in the cars of that company was taken to Chicago, and beyond the possession of his owner. The court below sustained a demurrer to the declaration, and the case was argued before the Supreme Court, which reaffirms the doctrine of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Dred Scott case, that the status of a negro depends upon the laws of the State in which the case is determined, and not upon the laws of the State from which he may come. The laws of Missouri do not follow and determine the status of a negro while he is in Illinois, nor do the laws of Illinois follow a negro to Missouri and determine his con lition there.

Judge Grier, of the U. S. Circuit Court, has appointed Benjamin Patton, Esq., of Pittsburg, Clerk of said Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, in place of George Plitt, Esq.

SOUTHERN MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.

Report of the Directors of Scuthern Mutual Insurance of Lancaster County, for the year 1867.

The Directors of said Company, can with pleasure report, that they have met with no loss by fire in said Company during the last year, and that the Company is in a more properous condition at present than at any time since its first organization. Confidence appears to be evinced in its management, and the principles by which it is governed. We have no flattering inducements to offer to the uninsured, nor ground of bonsting because of our present prosperous state; this Company has been in operation about 18 years, and was the first Insurance Company of the kind in Lancaster county. During these 18 years, the Company has paid all its liabilities punctually, which included some heavy losses. Aithough the Company is comparatively small and each member required to pay a small yearly tax, we have a balance in the Treasury of twelve bundred and ninety-two dollars, besides out-tanding taxes of about $200. Total amount of property insured to Dec. 26, 1887, is $897, 833, 50,
