Sr. Louis, April 5, 1858. The weather has been delightfully pleasant during the The weather has been design thirty present thing the entire week. The rivers are all in good boating condition -arrivals numerous and receipts liberal. A stream of emigration is now pouring into the West, and Missouri is receiving her share of it. There is no change to report in ce market. Business is not so good as it should on of the year. Country merchants are not rriving very freely for their spring and summer stocks .son of this delay on their part is easily accounted for. The recent panic, which was felt in all parts of the ry, has had its effect alike in the West as well as in. the East and North. Our country dealers who make this city their market, are in most instances, unable to pay their old debts, and consequently have a delicacy in asking new ones-hence the meagre business now being done by our dealers and jobbers. There is plenty of grain in the our dealers and jobbers. We look however for a better time We have again to chronicle the loss by fire of another steamboat on the Mississippi river. About 3 o'clock on Friday morning last, when the steamer Sultan was 5 miles above St. Genevieve, she was discovered to be on fire in tchman's "locker." She was immediately run shore. A better or more explicit account of this disaster cannot be given than the following statement from the Captain of the vessels, who barely escaped with his life: STATEMENT OF CAPT. HANNUM.

STATEMENT OF CAPT. HANNUM. I am or rather was the Captain of the steamer "Sultan." I left St. Louis Thursday evening, and when opposite Brickey's Landing, it being about haf past three o'clock in the morning, being asleep, I was aroused up by the watch-man who informed me that the boat was on fire. I imme-diately ran out and discovered the first be in the watch-man's room. Capt Grey, the pilot, was at the wheel and rounded the boat to, and she was np to the bank by the time I get to the fire. I saw if way useless to try and put the fire out, and justantly gave orders to stop the larboard engine. A line was got out and some fitteen of the crew jumped overboard to make it tast. I then started for the cabin to see that everybody was out, but the fiames had spread with such tearful rapidity that I could only get to the Guerk's office, and in my eff orts to reach even that far, the heat of the fiance was so great as to scort my face. the heat of the flames was so great as to worch my force and the smoke so thick as usary to sufficient and a flatter-back for the forecastle and found the bast was swinging out into the current. ff I could not rescue any of those who were still in the river. I did not meet with any. The crew consisted of fifty-two persons, and there were about ten or twelve passengers. From what I can ascer tain, I suppose no less than twordy lost their lives. Capt. Moore, first clerk, barkse per, staward, one of the assistant engineers, and watchman, are supposed to be among the lost. Mr. Ely, the pilot, was rescued by Mr. Brickey, but died a few minutes after be was got on shore. I do not know how the fire orizinated. It commenced burning aft. I tried to put it out, but soon found it use-less.

The boat, after surging around, with her bow down tream, floated until she struck the sand bar opposite St Senevieve. Her hull is lying in eight feet of water.

THE MANHEIM TRAGEDY: WILL BE PUBLISHED ON THE 10TH OF APRIL NEXT, a complete history of the double murder of Mrs. Garber and Mrs. Ream: with the only authentic Lifs and Confersion of Alexander Anderson, together with a correct Garber and Mrs. Ream: with the only authentic Life And Confession of Alexander Anderson, together with a correct account of the arrest, trial. conviction, sentence and excen-tion of Anderson and Henry Richards, his accomplice; to which will be appended the death warrants, law relating to executions, a brief account of the executions which have taken place in Lancaster county since its organization, and some reflections on the consequences and causes of crime, &c. The Life and Confession of Anderson has been written out by himself, and will be published substantially as de-tailed by his own pen, with the addition of such corrobor-ating tacts, dates, &c., as have been obtained from the records of the different Courts and Prisons, where he has been tried and published for his crimes. His life is one of the most thrilling narratives of adven-ture and crime ever published. Such and ending with all the startling dotails of one of the most cold-blooded double tragedies ever recorded in the annals of crime. This confession will be published in accordance with the following agreement:

ner was literally covered with handbills, huge in size, and varingeted in color-headed in large capitals "Anti-Le-compton Meeting"-"Independent Meeting of the Inde-pendent Citizens," &c., &c. "The Anti-Lecompton" or Blask Republican party hold their last grand rally previous to the election in the rotunda of the Court House, and the "Independent," or the friends of the "Citizens Ticket" and theirs on the outside. Both meetings were largely and respectably attended, but the one on the outside numbered at least five to one of that in the inside. We think it was the largest political meeting of a municipal campaign we have ever seen convened in this city. Mr. Geo. R. Taylor, the Citizens' candidate for Mayor, made a powerful appeal to the citizens to throw off all party ties for the good of the city. He as a present member of the City Council, spoke by the card, when he said there was not a dollar in the City Treasury-that our citizens have been largely taxed and asked where the money went to? Echo answers where? Several other gentlemen spoke, and all to the point-to the city government-to the deficient treasury, and about the enormous taxes heaped upon our citizens. Whilst at the Black Republican meeting on the inside, it was nothing but "Bleeding Kansas"-" Lecompton "-a wholesale denunciation of Mr. Buchanan : a faint and hard drawn praise of Senator Douglaz-"Free White Men"-"Free Niggers" and "Free Soil," whilst the poor deluded Germans, who the leaders of this party believe are capable f swallowing anything, are told that by the election of their Black Republican city ticket. Kansas will be made free by Mr. Filly immediately, if not sooner, thereafter !-They had not a word to say about city affairs-how the to do it in.' Treasury! became deficient-who did it, or anything of the kind, but all they spoke about was free niggers-whilst their candidate for Mayor owns some dozen or more slaves and their present Congressman has a farm stocked with negroes-with not a white man on the place, and what is more, a white man will never be placed there as long as the farm remains in the possession of its present owner.---We like to see consistency in all things, and if these men who are preaching up the doctrine of Free While Labor, awaiting the determination of their Comman would set the example-by liberating their slaves, it would redound more to their credit. But mark you, they will be among the last in Missouri to do such a charilable act. If der to proceed to Salt Lake City. Col Johnson has under his command an effective force of the meetings were an indication of how the election wi go-which comes off to day-we should think the Citizens' 1800 men, and about one thousand animals in ticket would be successful, but as this is no criterion pased upon former observations-we are inclined to the bellef, with the united assistance of the German votewhich is the balance of power in our city-Mr. Filly will more than probably be elected. But these are slippery times for the old political parties, and the reverse may 1 the case. At present all is in doubt, and we believe the vote will be so close, that the last ballot must be counted before the final result of this election will be known.

After all the rumors pro and con, Mr. John Hogan has been appointed by Mr. Buchanan postmaster of this city vice D. H. Armstrong removed. We must be allowed to make no comment upon this appointment, but would re, peat, that Mr. Douglas has a good majority of his fast friends in office, in this section of the country.
