We have received later accounts from that, and they are confirm those previously published—that Brigham Young has actually "surrendered." He sent a large deputation of his followers from Salt Lake City to meet Gov. Cumming. and escort him into the city, where he was to have been received by the citizens with great rejoicing. The prepa tions for Gov. Cumming's reception into Sait Lake City, is spoken of, by the late accounts, as grand, and on the most extensive scale. Gov. Cumming will no doubt be agreenbly disappointed-for where he expected to meet his direct enemy, he found kind and hospitable friends. These are making preparations for the new Governor's reception, and that Brigham Young would abdicate the throne without offering any resistance. Many of the Mormons had left the city and gone to other parts of the Territory—fearing, no doubt, a war between the Saints and Uncle Sam's troops The not at all unexpected intelligence of the death of Gen. PERSIFER F. SMITH, was received in this city a few days since. He died on Sunday—yesterday week—at Fort Leavenworth. Gen. Smith was in command of the Utah forces and had been in ill-health for some time; indeed, when he passed through this city, it was hardly expected

His remains will be here to day, and sent East, where the family reside, for interment, Gen. Smith was a native of Philadelphia, and son of Jonathan Smith, Cashier of the second Bank of the United States. He studied law with Charles Chauncey. Soon after his admission to the practice of law he removed to New Orleans, and there entered upon the duties of his profersion. A taste for military life led him to take great interest in the volunteer companies of that city, and he distinguished himself as a thorough disciplinarian Gen. Louisiana troops under Gen. Taylor, and secured the entire confidence of that officer. He was afterwards called to duty in the United States Army, with the same grade that he hald as a State officer, and his distinguished services in Mexico gained for him rapid promotion. At the time of his death, he was a Brevet Major General. An Otoe Chief, named Joseph Deroin, a half breed, and somewhat distinguished among the Otos tribe of Indians, was killed on the 22d ult., by a man named Bedow, at St. Deroin, Nebraska. It appears that the Chief had been drinking to excess, and when in this state threatened Bedow's life; the latter hearing of it armed himself accordingly with a revolver, and as Deroin approached shot him down. The Chief was builed with distinguished honors. He was of whiskey, his rifle, pipe, knife and tobacco were placed eside him in the grave, and his favorite horse was killed and placed on the grave, so that the spirit of the dead chief, when it reaches the immortal bunting grounds, may find everything prepared for his reception.

The Seminole Chief, Billy Bowless, with his whole party 'evening. of warriors, arrived at New Orleans on the 15th, in charge of a Government agent, who is conjucting them to the Indian country. The celebrated Bowlegs is blind, lame and eighty years of age, yet he has been for a quarter of a century the most formidable for of the United States Government. Old father Time will soon call Billy to his last account.

A man named Thomas Jolly, supposed to be an agent of the Pennsylvania Central R. R., committed suicide a few dississippi, between Memphis and Vicksburg. He was un-

The destrictive crevasses on the lower Mississippi are still on the increase, and at many places all efforts to stop.

Price them have been abandoned. The damage to the lower country by high waters, is estimated by the million. At New Orleans paper says that the damage to the sugar crop will amount to near $5,000 000, and ordess the crevasses are soon stopped it will go still up to a higher figure. One or two of them, it appears, are barbers, and one night a man named Hugh Downey went into the salcon to get shaved, and when seated, one of them at his back, threw a rope about his neck, whilst the others locked the door, when all three returned to the rope, and choked the man Downey to death. a deadly feud; brought him down a the first shot, and then, emerging from h shiding place, taunted his dying victim with words of insult and reproach, and finally concluded by placing the muzzle of his gun to the body of Nelms and firing a second time. This shot produced instant death, and so close was the gun to the victim that the flesh of the murdered man was burnt by the explosion. Having completed the work of slaughter, he deliberately mounted his horse, rode to the house of Nelms called his wife out, informed her that he had murdered her husband, and directed her whose to find his mangled corpse.

Dyson is a blood-stained, blood thirsty, in carnate field. He is not a man, but a ferocious tiger, and Governor McWillie has no more right to let such a beast loose upon the community, than he has to open the cages of a whole caravan of tigers. His antecedents are well known, too and they should have forbidden all hope of Executive elemency.— The murder of Nelms was not his first taste of blood He had previously, in a most base and cowardly manner, murdered a lawyer named Moss, of De Soto county, by shooting him in the back as Moss rode from him. He had murdered three of his own negroes, and one of them in a manner so horribly appalling as to cause the death of his own wife. This case cause the death of his own wife. This case occurred at his own table, and the victim of his fiendish rage was a woman. Taking of fence at something the woman did, or onitted to do, while waiting at the table, he rose, drew a bowie-knife, and, with a single blow, ripped but the sound of the his fiendish rage was a woman. Taking of fence at something the woman did, or omitted to do, while waiting at the table, he rose, drew her open. His wife swooned, and when she awoke to consciousness, he had cut the negro's heart out, and with it upon his knife, he thrust face! She swooned again, and the result of her horror and fright brought on convulsions, from the effects of which she soon died.

THE IOWA GOLD DISCOVERIES.—A letter to the Pittsburg Journal says:—"We were vecterday informed by a reliable gentleman, just in from Des Moines river, that the tract country recently purchased by your fellow citizen, Col. R. C. Gray, late Commander of the popular packet, Denmark, has proved to contain an abundance of gold of the richest quality. Although just discovered, hundreds of men are already prospecting, and our informant assures us that from five to twenty dollars per day are being realized per man. Gold has been discovered to abound for a considerable distance up the valley, but the illy prolific tract of Col. Gray appears to be signally prolific.
The Col. has sold his interest in the Denmark to the Northern Line Packet Company, and the only accounts received here—which left the Mormons has left for the aureal region. GREAT EXPOSURE IN WISCONSIN-Official Corruption.—We find in the Milwaukee News a synopsis of the report of the committee of the Wisconsin Senate upon the question of the amounts expended during the session of the Legislature of 1856, to secure the passage of the bill apportioning the lands granted by the United States to Wisconsin for railroad purposes among the several Roads. The great effort was to get a portion of the lands for the Milwaukee and La Crosse Railroad. According to this report, all who voted for the land grant directly or indirectly, received bonds or stock valued at from $5000 to $25,000. The total amounts paid are said to have been as follows:

Governor of State, $50,000; Governor's private secretary, $55,000; State officers, $20,000; Supreme Court, $1900; thirteen State Senators, $200,000; sixty six A-semblymen, $385,000; Legislative clerks, $17,000; editors and others, $201,000. Grand total, $989,000. This amount of bonds was given to secure the passage of the bill, and it will strike the public very strongly that it must be a profitable thing to hold office—in Wisconsin. These These bonds, however, are worth little or nothing now, and the present managers of the company repudiate them.

SEALED PROPOSALS to furnish naval supplies for the iscal year ending 30th June, 1859, will be received at this due an until 3 o'clock, p.m., of the 16th June next. These reposals must be endorsed "Proposals for Noval Supplies, Sureau of Construction. de," that they may be distinguished from other business letters.

The materials and articles embraced in the classes named reporting the desired and articles embraced in the classes. The materials and articles embraced in the classes named are particularly described in printed schedules, any of which will be furnished to such a desire to offer, on application to the commandants of the respective yards, or to the navy agent nearest thereto, and those of all the yards upon application to this bureau. This division into classes being for the convenience of dealers in each, such portions will be furnished as are actually required for bids. The commandant and navy agent of each station will have a copy of the schedules of the other yards, for examination only, from which it may be judged whether it will be desirable to make application for them.

Offers must be made for the whole of a class at any yard upon one of the printed schedules, or in strict conformity therewith, or they will not be considered.

The contract will be awarded to the lowest bona fide bider who gives proper security for its fulfilment. The United the therwith, or they will not be considered.

The contract will be awarded to the lowest bona fide bidder who gives proper security for its fulfilment. The United States reserves the right to reject all the bids for any class, if deemed exerbitant.

All articles must be of the very best quality, to be delivered in good order, and in suitable vessels and packages, as the case may be, at the expense and risk of the contractor, and in all respects subject to the inspection, measurement, count, weight, &c., of the yard where received, and to the entire satisfaction of the commandant thereof.

Bidders are referred to the commandants of the respective yards for samples, instructions, or particular description of the articles: and, all other things being equal, preference will be given to articles of American manufacture.

Every offer, as required by the law of 10th August, 1846, must be accompanied by a written guarantee, the form of which is herewith given.

Those only whose offers may be accepted will be notified, and the contract will be forwarded as soon thereafter as practicable, which they will be required to execute within ten days after its receipt at the post-office or navy agency maded by them.

Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract vial their responsibility certified to by a United States district afterney, cell Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility certified to by a U. ited States district judge, United States district attorney, collector, or navy agent. As additional security, twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contract shall have been completed; and eighty per centum of each bill, approved in triplicate by the commandants of the respective yards, will be paid by the navy agent at the points of delivery within thirty days after its presentation to him.

It is stipulated in the contract that, if default be made by the register of the first part in delivering all or any of

REAPING AND MOWING MACHINE.

The subscriber now offers to the farmers of Lancaster and adjoining counties one of the best combined Machines. In use. It has stood the test for five years—giving entire satisfaction to all who have used it. It is capable of cutting from ten to fifteen acres of grass or grain per day, with one pair of horses in one day. Hundreds of cher names could be got if it were necessary. This machine was sold last year in this and other counties, and extensively in New York and New Jersey, and was preferred above all other machines wherever used, both for reaping and mowing.—It has been used from year to year with less repairs than any other machine. Owing to the scarcity of money the price has been reduced from last year, so that any farmer can now secure one of the best machines that can be produced.

The agents who sell these machines are persons who have used them and are willing to recommend them to other farmers who are the best judges of the machines—not mere agents selling for a per centage, and willing to cram anything down the threats of farmers.

These machines are made at my shop in Bound Brook, New Jersey, where I have constantly on hand Horse Powers, Corn Shellers, Cultivators and all kinds of farming implements.

J. W. Cottrell, Columbia, and Wm. T. Fielis, Parkesburg, are Agents for the sale of the Machines, to whom application may be made, or directly to the subscriber.

The above machines can be had at A. F. BAIR'S SHOP, in East King street, Lancaster, half a square east of Sprecher's tavern.
