

THE LANCHESTER INTELLIGENCER

LANCASTER, PA., JUNE 29, 1858

CIRCULATION, 3000 COPIES

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS

JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT: WILLIAM A. FORTER, Philadelphia.

TO DELINQUENTS

We find it impossible to effect settlements with all indebted to us by the first of July, as we had expected.

To those who have not promptly responded to our call and a goodly number have done so—we return our sincere thanks, and solicit a continuance of their patronage to the establishment.

UNFAIRNESS OF THE OPPOSITION. It is very apparent that the new system of tactics about being introduced by the Black Republican leaders is based on falsehood and misrepresentation.

THE REPUBLICAN ILLUMINATION.—Mr. Dallas' despatches say distinctly that Lord Malmesbury's interpretation of the tariff of 1846, and how it continued to flourish as long as no alteration was made in that wise and salutary enactment.

THE WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE NORTH AMERICAN pays the following well-deserved and graceful tribute to the illustrious statesman who is now at the head of the State Department.

GENERAL CASES.—The Washington correspondent of the North American pays the following well-deserved and graceful tribute to the illustrious statesman who is now at the head of the State Department.

ATTENTION OF POSTMASTERS.—Complaints occasionally reach us that Postmasters in the country are in the habit of permitting newspapers to be taken from their offices by persons not entitled to them.

LATEST FROM UTAH.—The War department has received despatches from General Johnston, at Camp Scott, to May 28. They contain but little in addition to what has been published in the newspapers.

LETTERS ON CONFESSION.—We direct attention to one of these letters, in another column. They are from the pen of Dr. N. B. Wolz, formerly of Columbia, in this country.

DEATHS DOINGS.—Ex-Mayor CONRAD died, very suddenly, at his residence in West Philadelphia, on Sunday evening, the 25th inst.

THE MORMON REGIONS

The voluntary migration of the Mormons, from Salt Lake City, through the deserts and desert mountains, is one of the strangest events that has occurred in our world's history since the exodus of the Israelites from the bondage and oppression of Egypt.

A New York paper, in mentioning the fact that forty thousand Mormons, including destitute families, children and aged people, are upon the Plains, started for a long journey, says it would not be surprised if five, or even ten thousand of this moving column, were to perish before reaching even the junction of the Gila and the Colorado.

A BLACK REPUBLICAN ILLUMINATION.—Mr. Dallas' despatches say distinctly that Lord Malmesbury's interpretation of the tariff of 1846, and how it continued to flourish as long as no alteration was made in that wise and salutary enactment.

GENERAL CASES.—The Washington correspondent of the North American pays the following well-deserved and graceful tribute to the illustrious statesman who is now at the head of the State Department.

ATTENTION OF POSTMASTERS.—Complaints occasionally reach us that Postmasters in the country are in the habit of permitting newspapers to be taken from their offices by persons not entitled to them.

LATEST FROM UTAH.—The War department has received despatches from General Johnston, at Camp Scott, to May 28. They contain but little in addition to what has been published in the newspapers.

LETTERS ON CONFESSION.—We direct attention to one of these letters, in another column. They are from the pen of Dr. N. B. Wolz, formerly of Columbia, in this country.

DEATHS DOINGS.—Ex-Mayor CONRAD died, very suddenly, at his residence in West Philadelphia, on Sunday evening, the 25th inst.

THE EAST MARYLAND WILL-CASE

The Baltimore Sun of Tuesday has the following notice of the closing of the American Bank, after a career of two short months, in which it managed to get rid of considerable of its circulation, passed off upon persons in the West, who, of course, will never dollar of it.

THE AMERICAN BANK, of this city, which went into operation on the 1st of April, and an extension by the last Legislature, of which it passed in 1856, closed its doors on Saturday morning.

SYMPTOMS OF RETURNING GOOD SENSE.—The Gospel Banner is ostensibly devoted to the propagation of religious truth in the State of Maine, but it has hitherto thought it indispensable to say quite as much about "niggers and rum" as about the precepts and practice of religion.

THE COOLIES.—The Coolie trade bids fair to outstrip the slave trade in enormity. They are called coolies, and are said to be hired, but they are slaves, and are said to be hired, but they are slaves, and are said to be hired, but they are slaves.

HEAVY THUNDER STORM.—A very heavy thunder storm prevailed in this city and vicinity on Tuesday evening. Two or three houses were struck by lightning in the city, but only slight damage done.

GOOD ADVICE.—The weather is decidedly hot and sweltering—the thermometer appearing to register in the shade at 85 degrees.

AUSTRALIAN HUNT.—The San Francisco Watchman publishes the following extract from a private letter dated Adelaide, Feb. 18, 1858.

THE FOURTH—THE FOURTH, or rather the fifth, will be celebrated with a good deal of spirit in this city and vicinity, although no particular preparations have been made to commemorate the day.

THE FOURTH—THE FOURTH, or rather the fifth, will be celebrated with a good deal of spirit in this city and vicinity, although no particular preparations have been made to commemorate the day.

THE AMERICAN BANK, of this city, which went into operation on the 1st of April, and an extension by the last Legislature, of which it passed in 1856, closed its doors on Saturday morning.

SYMPTOMS OF RETURNING GOOD SENSE.—The Gospel Banner is ostensibly devoted to the propagation of religious truth in the State of Maine, but it has hitherto thought it indispensable to say quite as much about "niggers and rum" as about the precepts and practice of religion.

THE COOLIES.—The Coolie trade bids fair to outstrip the slave trade in enormity. They are called coolies, and are said to be hired, but they are slaves, and are said to be hired, but they are slaves, and are said to be hired, but they are slaves.

HEAVY THUNDER STORM.—A very heavy thunder storm prevailed in this city and vicinity on Tuesday evening. Two or three houses were struck by lightning in the city, but only slight damage done.

GOOD ADVICE.—The weather is decidedly hot and sweltering—the thermometer appearing to register in the shade at 85 degrees.

AUSTRALIAN HUNT.—The San Francisco Watchman publishes the following extract from a private letter dated Adelaide, Feb. 18, 1858.

BLACK REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.—A Prospect of the National Republican Convention to be held at Fall River, Mass., on the 29th inst.

BLACK REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.—A Prospect of the National Republican Convention to be held at Fall River, Mass., on the 29th inst.

THE AMERICAN BANK, of this city, which went into operation on the 1st of April, and an extension by the last Legislature, of which it passed in 1856, closed its doors on Saturday morning.

SYMPTOMS OF RETURNING GOOD SENSE.—The Gospel Banner is ostensibly devoted to the propagation of religious truth in the State of Maine, but it has hitherto thought it indispensable to say quite as much about "niggers and rum" as about the precepts and practice of religion.

THE COOLIES.—The Coolie trade bids fair to outstrip the slave trade in enormity. They are called coolies, and are said to be hired, but they are slaves, and are said to be hired, but they are slaves, and are said to be hired, but they are slaves.

HEAVY THUNDER STORM.—A very heavy thunder storm prevailed in this city and vicinity on Tuesday evening. Two or three houses were struck by lightning in the city, but only slight damage done.

GOOD ADVICE.—The weather is decidedly hot and sweltering—the thermometer appearing to register in the shade at 85 degrees.

AUSTRALIAN HUNT.—The San Francisco Watchman publishes the following extract from a private letter dated Adelaide, Feb. 18, 1858.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS

WASHINGTON, July 25. There is great difference of opinion here in relation to the settlement of our difficulties with England. General Cass thinks the despatch of Lord Malmesbury satisfactory, and that the question of the right of search is virtually settled; but there are other members of the Cabinet who do not agree with him.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.—There is great difference of opinion here in relation to the settlement of our difficulties with England. General Cass thinks the despatch of Lord Malmesbury satisfactory, and that the question of the right of search is virtually settled; but there are other members of the Cabinet who do not agree with him.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.—There is great difference of opinion here in relation to the settlement of our difficulties with England. General Cass thinks the despatch of Lord Malmesbury satisfactory, and that the question of the right of search is virtually settled; but there are other members of the Cabinet who do not agree with him.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.—There is great difference of opinion here in relation to the settlement of our difficulties with England. General Cass thinks the despatch of Lord Malmesbury satisfactory, and that the question of the right of search is virtually settled; but there are other members of the Cabinet who do not agree with him.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.—There is great difference of opinion here in relation to the settlement of our difficulties with England. General Cass thinks the despatch of Lord Malmesbury satisfactory, and that the question of the right of search is virtually settled; but there are other members of the Cabinet who do not agree with him.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.—There is great difference of opinion here in relation to the settlement of our difficulties with England. General Cass thinks the despatch of Lord Malmesbury satisfactory, and that the question of the right of search is virtually settled; but there are other members of the Cabinet who do not agree with him.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.—There is great difference of opinion here in relation to the settlement of our difficulties with England. General Cass thinks the despatch of Lord Malmesbury satisfactory, and that the question of the right of search is virtually settled; but there are other members of the Cabinet who do not agree with him.

ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE

ST. LOUIS, June 21, 1858. The river rose to its highest point on Tuesday last, which was about one inch and a half higher than it was on the 18th, and a half feet less than that of the 14th.

ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE.—The river rose to its highest point on Tuesday last, which was about one inch and a half higher than it was on the 18th, and a half feet less than that of the 14th.

ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE.—The river rose to its highest point on Tuesday last, which was about one inch and a half higher than it was on the 18th, and a half feet less than that of the 14th.

ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE.—The river rose to its highest point on Tuesday last, which was about one inch and a half higher than it was on the 18th, and a half feet less than that of the 14th.

ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE.—The river rose to its highest point on Tuesday last, which was about one inch and a half higher than it was on the 18th, and a half feet less than that of the 14th.

ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE.—The river rose to its highest point on Tuesday last, which was about one inch and a half higher than it was on the 18th, and a half feet less than that of the 14th.

ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE.—The river rose to its highest point on Tuesday last, which was about one inch and a half higher than it was on the 18th, and a half feet less than that of the 14th.