ST. LOUIS, Sept. 13, 1858.

The Fair has been the all absorbing topic of the week.—On Monday last, the opening day, some 40,000 people were in attendance, and everything passed off in the most pleasant manner. The display of Stock, Mechanical Implements, Needle-work, Fruit, Vegetables, &c., was most beautiful. It would occupy columns of your paper for us to particularize, we will therefore give but a brief account of this grand affair. The premiums, of $21,000, were scattered over the entire West and South. Kentucky and Illinois were represented by their finest stock, and some of the most beautiful horses we have ever seen, were shown in the ring of the amphitheatre. Every day the grounds were crowded, and the Press of the country was pretty generally represented by a reporter. It is estimated that about 150,000 persons visited the Fair during the week—including invited guests and all—and that not less than from $25,000 to $30,000 were taken in at the gates; the whole receipts amounting, probably, (as it is not known positively) to near $50,000. The grounds upon which the Fair is located cost the company—for fifty acres—$50,000, and the improvements put upon the same cost about $75,000 more—making in all $125,000. The Fair has now been held three years, the whole receipts amounting to about $150,000 This is the best paying stock in the West. The ground could be sold to-day for $200,000. The company have already nearly, if not wholly, cleared the entire premises, and their income will, hereafter, be from $30,000 to $40,000 per annum.

Senator Douglas and lady visited the Fair on Thursday. On Saturday we saw in the amphitheatre Mr. Frank P. Blair and Col. Barrett, the latter the newly elected Congressman of this district.

The following letter was received from President Buchanan:

WASHINGTON CITY, 25th August, 1858.

My Dear Sir: I feel myself honored by the kind invitation of the Board of Directors of the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to attend their Annual Fair on the 6th of September. I should esteem it a very great pleasure indeed, as well as a high privilege, to be present on this interesting occasion, and to mingle with my fellow-citizens of the West, ever distinguished for their enterprise and their patriotism, on the banks of their own mighty river. It is, therefore, with deep regret I am obliged to say that the variety and importance of the public business now pressing upon me, render it quite impossible for me to be absent from Washington during so long a period as would be required to make a visit to St. Louis. Cherishing the hope that at some future day I may be able to enjoy this privilege, I remain,

Very respectfully, your friend,
JAMES BUCHANAN.

Hon. J. R. BARRETT.

Soon after the crowd had gathered on the Fair grounds on Thursday morning last, it commenced raining, and continued at intervals throughout the day—rendering the roads in a most wretched condition. The drivers of the various vehicles took advantage of this unfortunate circumstance, and when night came, put up the fare from 25 cents to $2 50 and $5; and we heard of several with ladies who had to pay from $15 to $25 to be brought in.—There were some 1500 or 2000 persons—men, women and children—remained on the ground all night, rather than submit to such exhorbitant charges—$2 50 in a furniture car was cheap—a carriage $10, and a cart $2!!

A great many strangers from all parts of the country visited our Fair—the steamboats and railroads bringing thousands. Many of these strangers were relieved of their purses by the pickpockets. Nothing serious occurred throughout the week. Among the Lancast-rians present, we noticed Cyrus Helfenstein, the two Hurtzes, Benj. F. Herr, John Myers and John F. Shroder.

Senator Douglas was serenaded at the Planters' House on Thursday night, and of course came forward and addressed the crowd in a brief and eloquent speech. On Friday morning he started for Belleville, Ills., a large number of our citizens attending him, for the purpose of hearing him speak. The campaign in Illinois is waxing warmer and warmer, and the three parties still continue to stand apart, and unless a union of the Democracy is effected soon, you can make up your mind to hear of the Black Republicans carrying the State—but if united, the Democracy will carry everything before them. Much might be said about the canvass and parties in Illinois, but deeming it true Democracy to let the party of each State do their own fighting, we shall refrain from taking sides with either in such—we want the Black Republicans whipped, and do not much care which wing of the Democracy does it, only so that it is done.

The Douglas wing nominated Geo. W. Armstrong for Congress, in the 3d district; the Nationals met in convention the same day, but made no nomination—recommending Churchill Colling.

The contested election, Blair vs. Barrett, was brought up before Judge Lackland, and he rendered a decision on Saturday morning in favor of the application of Mr. Blair—that is, a peremptory order was given on the Clerk of the Court to produce, without delay, true and full copies of the ballots in question. Your Democratic readers need not be alarmed—or if any fraud is found, it will be on Mr. Blair's side. Barrett was fairly and honestly elected by the people, and this contested election is done only to bring the name of Mr. Blair oftener before the country—ere he he sinks into utter insignificance. This, the year 1858, will be the last of the Blairs in public life!

We see that the printers and telegraph operators of New Orleans held a joint meeting to take into consideration the raising of a fund amongst them, to erect a monument over the remains of BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, which now lie neglected in Philadelphia.

A printer by the name of H. H. Whitcomb, a native of Western New York, died in New Orleans of yellow fever, on the 4th inst. This makes the fourth priuter who has died in that city of yellow fever in four weeks.

A large comet was seen on Saturday morning, (4 o'clock) in the E. N. E., and about 15° above the horizon.

We noticed at the fair grounds Dr. Hazlett, a reporter for the Republican & Democrat, of Chester county, Pa.; Chas. A. Cono, of the Boston Transcript; J. H. Sanborn, Boston Journal; and W. Finley, Porter's Spirit of the Times.

A little girl, daughter of Wm. L. Kid, was burned to death, a few days since, by the accidental taking fire of her dress.

The weather has been pleasant during the week. Business has considerably revived, and wholesale dealers and jobbers are doing a good trade. There is no change to report in the produce market.

Mr. John F. Shroder, lately appointed Postmaster at Leavenworth City, K. T., has been visiting our city. He is looking well, and is much pleased with his new home. He speaks very highly of the country in an agricultural point of view.

The yellow fever in New Orleans and along the Southern coast has not abated any—the average number of deaths in that city is about 90 per day.

Yours, OLD GUARD.

KANSAS.—An election of members of the territorial Legislature takes place in Kansas, on the first Monday in next month. The Legislature to be elected will meet on the first Monday in January. This body, it is expected, will call a convention for the formation of a State Constitution. In no event could such convention be elected, convened, and finish its work, and the constitution framed by it be voted upon by the people within two months after the meeting of the Legislature; or, in other words, before the 3d of March, when the Congress now in being will cease to exist. Hence it follows that no application from the territory of Kansas for admission into the Union as a State can be made before the meeting of the thirty sixth Congress.

LANCASTER COUNTY.

The Democratic Convention of Lancaster county will be held to-day. At the delegate elections held in Lancaster city, some of the strongest and best men were chosen, and they were unanimously instructed, at all the ward meetings, to support the nomination of JAMES M. HOPKINS, Esq., for Congress. There is but one feeling among the Democracy of Lancaster county, and that is in favor of conciliatory action, union, harmony, and a compact front at this crisis. The nomination of THADDEUS STEVENS by the Republicans, and the attempt made by him to intimidate the Democratic press, and prevent the exposure of his character and misdeeds, has nerved the arm of every Democrat in Lancaster county against him; while his abolition, disunion sentiments, and his vituperative denunciation of the South, have turned against him the conservative portion of the Opposition, who are ready to unite with the Democrats in averting the disgrace that his presence in Congress would bring upon the fair fame of Lancaster county. The Republican Convention mistook the temper of the people, when they attempted to cram this worn out political profligate down their throats, not calculating upon the general rebellion which has followed the mention of his name. Mr. HOPKINS, who will be the Democratic nominee, has the confidence and respect of the people. He was formerly a Whig, but has acted with the Democratic party since the dissolution of that organization. His old political associates respect, have confidence in, and will vote for him in preference to STEVENS. The conservative men of all parties have been consolidated, and will testify their abhorrence of STEVENS by their united efforts for HOPKINS.—Harrisburg Patriot of the 15th inst.

STATE AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The annual exhibition of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society, will commence in Pittsburgh, on Tuesday, the 28th inst., and continue four days. Extensive preparations have been made for the Exhibition, and the attendance promises to be large. Hon. Stephen A. Douglas will deliver the address. Mr. Thomas A. Scott, General Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has issued notice that excursion tickets to and from the Fair, will be issued from all the stations on the Pennsylvania Railroad to Pittsburgh, good on regular trains, to and from their regular stopping places, from September 27th to October 2d, inclusive.

A HORRIBLE CONFESSION.—John Burns executed at Wheeling, Va., for the murder of Mary Ann Montony, an abandoned woman, confessed the deed, which was one of the most brutal on record. The parties were on a hill near Wheeling, with other degraded persons. The deceased had formerly been a mistress of Burns.

HIS SPEECH.

They were all sitting around in one place and another. It had rained some. I went off some distance with Mary Montony. She came back first I believe. When we came back several of us were lying around the fire. I was not standing up, when I stabbed her with the knife as was testified. I suppose I stabbed her about thirty times. I carried my pocket knife. It was a large sized one. She didn't move or say a word as I stabbed her. It didn't appear to hurt her. She didn't try to get away. Last time I hit her against her rib. It made my blood run cold. Myers and I went to the mill to dry ourselves. We talked the matter over there. Myers said that we would get into a scrape, and that we had better go back and kill her. He proposed that we should take a shovel along. This last I refused to do. About five o'clock Myers and I started up the hill. We found her standing up beside the fire, she seemed to be trying to dry her clothes.

I commenced walking with her. She said that she was in misery, and wished that she could get down to the river, so that she might drown herself. I asked her if she would like to get rid of her misery? She said she would. Says I, if I had a pistol I'd put her out. When I was talking with her, Myers was sitting down. He spoke up and said I was a d—d fool for talking with her. Said he "kill her at once and let us go down." I still kept on talking to her—say fifteen minutes. Myers kept on urging me. Said it would be too late and somebody would come along. I then picked up a stone and hit her. She saw me pick up the stone, and put her hands around her head. I stunned her so that I could kill her at one blow. She fell at the fourth throw. I then took up a heavy, sharp pointed stone. Hit her twice with this. Didn't say a word while I was killing her. Myers was sitting back laughing, and telling me to hurry.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Persia arrived at New York on Thursday evening last, from Liverpool, with dates to the 4th inst. The papers contain the details of the American treaty with China. It is to be ratified within a year, and stipulates for the good offices of the United States, in case of difficulties arising with other powers. Among other stipulations of the treaty, are the following: A direct correspondence between the American minister and the government at Pekin. The right of an annual visit to Pekin, and permanent residence of the minister there, if accorded to other powers. The suppression of piracy, and the opening of the new ports, to include Swatro and Taiman in Formosa. The United States shipping never to pay higher duties than those of the most favored nations. Absolute toleration for Christianity. The legation of the United States is to be located for the present at Canton, but understood that hereafter it will be stationed at Shanghae.

Great hostility continues to be shown towards the foreign residents at Canton, and the acting British Consul has advised them to be prepared for a sudden departure.

A blockade of the river at Canton had been established as far as the Chinese boats are concerned, and trade is suspended. All the native merchants, and the greater portion of the foreigners, have left.

From the Carlisle Democrat.

SLANDER SCIT.—That pink of morality Thaddeus Stevens, who is the republican candidate for Congress in Lancaster county, has brought a suit against our old friend Capt. Sanderson, editor of the Intelligencer, for slander. Stevens' character needs whitewashing and he is now making an attempt to have the job done by a court and jury, but we imagine that before he is done with the Captain, or, rather before the Captain is done with him, he will wish he had never undertaken so great job as to silence the press by a proceeding at law. Capt. Sanderson does not appear to be in the least intimidated, but rather seems pleased at the prospect of a scrutiny into Mr. S's character.

THE DUTY ON IRON.—Fifty-one Republicans in the House of Representotives which elected Banks Speaker, being a majority of the Republicans in the House, voted in 1857 to reduce the duty on iron from thirty to twenty four per cent.! The same party which reduced the duty is now making great professions of its devotion to the iron interests, and its desire to see it protected in the iron "districts" of Pennsylvania and Ohio! What would they give if they could blot out the above facts from their record?

THE STATE CANALS.—We learn from Harrisburg that the sale of the State Canals has been fully consummated, Mr. Moorhead, the President of the Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company, having just concluded with the Governor, State Treasurer and Attorney General, the closing of the entire transaction, namely, the paying over to the Commonwealth, as provided in the third section of the law authorizing the sale, 75 per cent. of the excess of the price, three and a half millions, at which the Canals were sold to the Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company. This excess amounted to two hundred and eighty one thousand two hundred and fifty dollars.—Reading Gazette.
