The West will produce a much larger crop of corn than was expected. Business has not been so brisk this fall as many anticipated. The rivers are very low-particularly the Missouri, and freights, as a natural little, if any, change in the produce market, and business been inconsiderable.

There has been very little of a local character transpiring: fice were consumed.

It does not take as long now to go from St. Louis to San "English Bill," and since the vote no difference exists? chanies. The same distance can now be travelled in but twenty four hours to reach the golden shores of the Pacific, what may we expect thirty years hence?

The laying of the Atlantic Telegraph—the successful working of which seems an uncertainty—caused great retrict. But to find a man's popularity, now-a-days, we must joicing all over the country—even to the illumination of go abroad for it—but we think Illinois too near! New York, at the sacrifice of the State House, which, added to the $20,000 for powder and other fire-works, contributed herself with glory. by the city authorities, produced a bon-fire seldom, if ever, witnessed. We are of opinion that the success accomplished by the Pacific Mail Company is a much greater enterprise Dist. -the former undertaking to councet Europe and America, while the latter perfects and accomplishes the establishment of an overland mail, connecting the Atlantic with the Pacific, passing over our own soil, and affording a semi-weekly, some to be converted into a Zariy, communication between the extremities of the Republic.

California created such a rush from all parts of the country to the mines, the trip was never made from the Mississippi to the Pacific short of 80 and 100 days. Many were occupied a still longer time, and hundreds perished by the way-side. Speaking of the first arrival of the over-land mail, the Republican of this city says:

land mail, the Republican of this city says:

"The establishment of this mail route, and of the route from St. Joseph to Utah, and thence to Sacramento, has changed the whole current of things; and it is now demonstrated, on a first trial, and under adverse circumstances, that it is practicable to carry mail and passengers from St. Louis to San Francisco in twenty-four days: and this will be reduced, if necessary, below twenty days. We rejoice over this result, because we have all along predicted it could be done, not precisely on the line over which the travel has been made, and because it must soon become the great mail route between the Eastern and Western oceans. Our citizens will not wait for a semi-monthly communication across the Isthmus, when they can swall themselves of a semi-weekly mail by the overland route, thoreby gaining time and additional facitities. Very soon, too, the stages will be crowded with passengers, called by business or pleasure to the East or West, and not a year themselves of a semi weekly mail by the overland route, thereby gaining time and additional facitities. Very soon, too, the stages will be crowded with passengers, called by busiless or pleasure to the East or West, and not a year will have passed away before this route will be made perfectly secure by the establishment of stations at short distances, where settlements will grow up, and the accommodations will be as good as they were thirty years ago between St. Leuis and Philadelphia. Much is due to Messrs. Butterfield & Co. for their enterprise and promptitude in carrying out their great contract, even to the letter; and equal praise is due to the Administration for the liberality and zeal with which it has encouraged the company to persevere in their undertains. For a time, the Department will reap no benefit, but will sustain an absolute loss, by the contract; but that is arthing when it is recollected that the Western State of the Atlantic, and the bonds of Union made so much stronger by this rapid and free intercommunication. The Government will soon find the advantage of the route in facilitating its intercourse with the Army and Government officers in California, and wast expenditures of money may be saved by a speedy knowledge of what is traspiring there and in Oregon and Washington Territtories.

Whilst in Jefferson City, Mr. Butterfield telegraphed

Whilst in Jefferson City, Mr. Butterfield telegraphed President Buchanan, and received the following reply:

WASHINGTON CITY, October 9th, 1858.

John Butterfield, President Overland Mail Co..

Sir: Your dispatch has been received. I cordially congratulate you on the result. It is a glorious triumph for civilization and the Union. Settlements will follow the course of the read, and the East and West will be bound by a chain of living Americans which can never be broken.

JAMES BUCHANAN.

The Administration deserves great credit for the encourse.

The Administration deserves great credit for the encouragement which it has given to the successful prosecution of the enterprise, and this is but one of the many bles sings given to the American people by the administration of James Buchanan. Go back as far as you please, and it will be found that all great undertakings have been commenced and successfully accomplished by Democratic Administrations. Yet we find the Opposition pointing to the condition of the Treasury, empty vaults, &c. The money had better by far be expended in such enterprises than to lie idle in the vaults. This money is circulating in all parts of the Union, and as a consequence, all classes of the peo-ple are reaping the benefits of such circulation. The Utah war alone created an immense business in the West, and partially in the frontier States. It made times good, and our merchants and business men will attest to the fact. It was a great relief to the business community. coming upon the heels of the late panic. Were it not for Democratic Presidents and the Democratic party the country would not have advanced in greatness and renown as it has done. Had the opposition the reins of Government in their hands, the United States would this day stand where she did 40 years ago.

The gold mania is still kept up, and all sorts of rumors in regard to the discovery of immense quantities of the yellow dust, are put affoat. We have not seen or heard anything to warrant us in recommending the mines of the recommendation of withstanding our unfavorable opinions of the new Eldoralo, we do not say anything against Pike's Peak that can se construed in a sense that will deter those who may think differently in the matter, but will give both sides of the story as received, or as comes to our knowledge. A party, composed of citizens of Bates county, in this State, has ust returned from the diggings, and the report they bring of their gold explorations, is not by any means flattering —they remained two months in the "mines," and returndeposits are reported to have been found, and were unable to make any discoveries demonstrating that money could be made by mining in that region. They further state that they prospected thoroughly the country around Pike's Peak, and on the South Platte, and particularly the whole of Cherry Creek. They say that they found some fine gold on the surface, and brought home with them, as specimens, each from twenty-five cents to a dollar's worth. They state that they did not meet with Chantrell on Cherry

Creek or in the gold region, although it has been reported Arrical of the first Oreitand Mull—Timenty four Days from the Pacific State—Procession and Reception Speakes—Disputel from President Buchanam—Speakes—Of the Enter prise—Another Link in the Chain of Democratic Administrations—The Worther—Frost—Later and Highly Important from Piles Pook—Discouraging Accounts—First in Arkansus—Attempt to Burn the Rock Island Bridge—Gaper Shell's Letter against 30 k. Notwithstanding these adverse reports, companies are forming and leaving for the new Eldorade consequence, have advanced to all points. There is very men left this city to seek their fortunes at Pike's Peakright in the teeth of winter. We do not think, however, in that line is very dull. The receipts of produce have that the excitement will depopulate the frontier States, as it did that of California.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS PURIFY THE BLOOD.—Continued pain or uneasiness in any organ is generally cured by one or more doses of Brandreth's Pills. Thirty years' personal experience by the understand fully instife this assention. signed fully justify this assertion.

Dr. James Lull, of Postdam, N. Y., says:—"I have cured the most deplorable costiveness of the bowels with Brandreth's pills, when every other remedy had failed, and the patient was given up to die. Skin diseases of any inveterate and painful character, such as erysipelas, sait rheum, tetter and summer-heat. I have seen eradicated by their use. I have cured the rheumatic, the oplieptic, the paralytic and the consumptive with these excellent pills alone."

In jaundice and all affections of the liver, dyspepsia, dysentery and distribuctions; sorbutic and scrofulous, even gouty and neuralgic affections have given way to the use of this medicine, and now, after twenty years' experi use of this medicine, and now, after twenty years' experience, my estimation of Brandreth's Pills continues to in crease.

OBSTRUCTION.

WORMS.

Brandreth's Pills are the best vermifage; they are infallible. A little child, six years old, for some weeks was drooping; its mother gave it one of Brandreth's sugar coated pills; the next day there came away a worm sixteen inches long, and as large as a child's finger. The child was well.

PLEURISY.

A gentleman away from bome, was taken with pleurisy; the inflamation was terrible; every breath made him writhe with agony. Eight Branderth's Pills were swallowed, and warm oil applied locally; the pills operated, and the pain was relieved; plenty of grnel was taken, and six more pills, and the second day the patient was cured.

These statements should have weight, and prevent the use of poisonous drugs, and stop the sad practice of bleeding.
