and when Mr. Hiestand desires it, we will send it on for The " Times," the new Democratic paper, made its first appearance on Tuesday morning last. Its editorials are forcibly and ably witten, and its typographical appearance

Since the elections of the past summer and fall, editors politicians, office-holders, office-seekers and letter writers are casting about and speculating upon the probable chan ces of the several aspirants for the next Presidency. Each one seems to have his "first choice"—his preference. So much of it is right enough, but when they condemn and vassed and their availability considered, and where but one man can receive the nomination, and that one certainly will not be the "first choice" of each individual, we think it in exceedingly bad taste, as well as bad policy on the vance, all others.

It is one of the great fundamental principles in the Democratic creed to stand by regular nominations, and more particularly the nominee of the National Conventions-Wherever the party failed to do this it met with defeat
There is just now much said in regard to the Charleston Convention, and who will likely receive the National nomination of that body; for, the man so nominated, fairly chosen to be the standard-bearer of the Democratic party in the great fight of 1860, is equivalent to an election. Our opponents tell us, and spurious Democrats report it, that onsequence. These are idle words, and should not be uttered by a man styling himself a Democrat—they are but fit expressions for our opponents to use, and that only to cause divisions in our ranks. No Democrat should use them, and we trust none will, for the nominee of that Con vention will be a Democrat in the full sense of the termthe choice of two thirds of the Delegates representing the several States of the Union, and perhaps the unanimous choice of all the Delegates. Can a Democrat after such an endorsement refrain from supporting him, even through his individual choice lost the race among the different competitors? Can they act against the deliberations of tha National body, clothed with the power of expressing the will and sentiments of the constituents they represent?-We think not; we hope not; we trust all will be heard in that Convention, and all will abide its decision. If each politician has a favorite, none other will answer his purpose but him-is it fair, is it reasonable, that he should enter him for the prize, and expect all others to be dropped for his especial benefit? If he would expect them to support his choice, if selected as the standard bearer of the party, should be not with the same propriety and sense of honor support any other nominated? If you would take, you should also expect to give.

in the Convention, but refrain from speaking barshly of those who will compete with him for the prize. If you fall, reserve him for another heat, go to work manfully and fight for the glorious cause—keep the party united, that when your "first choice" becomes the candidate, the party will have no divisions to heal, but be so much the stronger, leaving no possible chance for a disastrous defeat . Never choice," but a better day is coming.

We had our "first choice," too—we were first, last and all the time for James Buchanan, our present esteemed and patriotic Chief Magistrate. In 1844 he was our "first choice"-he failed in the Convention, and we supported Polk and Dallas, and did what we could for them-being too young to cast a vote, but knowing enough to stand by the nominative. In 1848 we again urged the claims of James Buchanan; failing again, we took up the banner of Cass and Butler—(were not one of those who went over to Martin Van Buren because our first choice was not the candidate)-and they received our first Presidential vote: In 1852 we set out with Mr. Buchanan for our "first choice:" defeated the third time—but not dismayed—we advocated the election of Pierce and King, and shouted long and loud over the general result. In 1856 we again entered the campaign with James Buchanan as our "first choice," this, the fourth effort, crowned our favorite with success—not only in the Convention but throughout the Union in November following, and to-day finds our "first choice" occupying the first and highest office in the gift of the American people.

the day—against the Democratic party.

We waited twelve years for our "first choice," won't others wait half so long? And what is more—an undenianot a soil "gave up the ship." We trust no Democrat has please address any other feeling than the success of the Democratic party sep 28 3m 37 in 1860 under whomsoever the National Convention at Charleston may select as the standard-bearer. DISEASE AMONG THE Hogs.—The Sanders ville Georgian says: A disease has made its appearance among the hogs in some parts of this county, from which they are dying in large numbers, as we are informed. all that we have heard of this disease, we have no doubt but it is similar to that which prevailed to such an alarming extent among the cattle during a part of last Spring and Summer.

The Boliver (Tenn.) Democrat says that this disease is playing havor with the hogs in that vicinity. Thomas Marsh has lost in that vicinity. Thomas Marsh has los about seventy five, and others have lost great many. It is a good season for killing however, and many are availing themselves of the oppartunity of saving their meat.

HORRIBLE EXECUTION .- The Chinese among other unique punishments, sometimes sentence Hiestand's letter to Francis P. Blair, is now at our disposal, a man to be executed by depriving him of sleep. A recent letter from a British resident gives the following account of a Chinese merchant who, being convicted of murdering his wife, was condemned to this torture :--

"The condemned was placed in prison under the care of three of the police guard, who relieved each other every alternate hour, and who prevented the prisoner from falling asleep, night or day. He thus lived for nineteen days without enjoying any sleep. At the comwill be pre- mencement of the eighth day, his sufferings were so intense that he implored the authori ties to grant him the blessed opportunity of being strangulated, guillotined, burned to death, garrotod, shot, quartered, blown up with gun powder, or put to death in any conceivable way which their humanity or ferocity could invent. This will give a slight idea of the horrors of death from want of sleep."

DEAR WINES .- A sale of wines, at auction by a Mr. Gratz, of Philadelphia, is reported in the Philadelphia Bulletin of Wed nesday, the prices of which will astonish the "natives." Two demijohns of "Grape juice," containing 4½ gallons each, imported in 1839, brought $41 each. Other lots brought from $6 to $17,50 a gallon. One demijohn, containing four gallons, and styled in the catalogue "Butler Wine, No. 18, purchased Gratz at the sale of the Butler Wine in 1838." was sold for $80, after brisk bidding. It was stated that Mr. Gratz gave $155 a demijohn for this very wine.

ATLANTIC CABLE .- A despatch from Bosto says that the most conclusive evidence exists, that the whole representation made in the papers of this country, and simultaneously in the London papers, on the 17th of August last, respecting the transmission of the alleged first message of the Directors, giving "Glory to God," &c.; and of the Queen's message to the President of the United States, was false, and a fraud upon the public of the two countries; and that other no less fraudulent representa tions of the working of the cable, are susceptible of proof and exposure.

CLERICAL ESTIMATES OF THE "HAPP! HOME"
CRESCENT PLACE, BOSTON, Sept. 23d, 1858.

A few numbers of an interesting Periodical have been recently put into the hands of the subscriber. It bears the title of "The Happy Home," and has reached its Eighth Volume, S vo. The Proprietor and Publisher is the Rev. Cyrus Stone, formerly a missionary of our American Board on the Western coast of India.

The title itself is attractive and excites curiosity. For who is not concerned to secure such a possession? But, on opening and perusing the diversified volume, the secret is soon betraved and developed. It is found that, with manifest good judament, the work is engaged in laying the foundation of such a structure as its name imports, in the foundation of such a structure as its name imports, in the fallible testimony of His word, is calculated to obtain the approbation and secure the blessing of Almighty God.

In India Mr. Stone had opportunity to notice dilicence of Hindoo mothers in training up their children for idovorship. The early beginning of this course, and their persevering assiduities in continuing it, until it became habitual, struck him forcibly. He could not but contrast with it the lax, intermitted, heartless, in-flective efforts of many even professed Christians. And since his return to his native land, the importance of Early religious education has, more than ever, impressed his mind, as that which "lays the axe at the root of the tree," with respect to all of evil influence, and at the same time assists the growth and development of all that is good.

The work is not, however, simply didactic, moral, religious, Its plan is comprehensive, and accommodated to the necessities of the times and of our country. Miscellaneous articles, original and selected. diversify its pages, which admit music, literary critivism, botany, hints of domestic economy, occasional recipes of various application, interesting Scripture biography, remarks on the preservation of health, selected and original p

There will also be given to the subscribers several hundred valuable works of Art, comprising fine Oil Paintings. Bronzes, Sculptures, &c., &c., from celebrated American and foreign Artists.

THE GREAT PAMILY PAPER!
THE GREAT FAMILY PAPER!
THE GREAT FAMILY PAPER! PROSPECTUS FOR THE YEAR 1859

PROSPECTUS FOR THE FEAR 1859.

The proprietor of the NEW YORK LEDGER is gratified at having it in his power to announce in his Prospectus for the new year—1859—that all the old popular and eminent writers of the LEDGER staff have been retained, and new ones added. Among the latter we are pleased to mention the name of the Hon. EDWARD EVERETT, who is to furnish a series of articles, to be continued during the entire year, under the title of "THE MOUNT VERNON PAPERS." For these articles alone we have already paid Mr. Everett (for the benefit of the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association) the sum of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

As an indication of the popularity of the LEDGER, we need only state the simple fact, that its circulation is larger than that of any other TEN literary papers in the country. Its great success is owing to the facts that its proprietor secures the best writers in the country, and spares no expense in getting up the BEST FAMILY PAPER—a paper of high moral tone. The exalted refutation of its contributors, the practical and invariably pure and healthy character of all its articles, the care which is taken that not even one offensive word shall appear in its columns, and the superiority of its tales and sketches. have gained for the NEW YORK LEDGER a position that no literary paper has ever before reached. We feel, and always have felt, since the LEDGER attained its immense circulation, that a heavy responsibility rests upon us, and have endeavored to discharge that responsibility conceientiously, feeling confident that ultimately we should receive the thanks of thourands and tens of thousands of families.

As to the future, we are at a loss what to kay. We prefer to PERFORM rather than to PROSISE. What we have herefofere done is known to our readers: they know what the LEDGER has been, and is now, and must therefrom judge what it will be hereafter. We can only say that among the regular contributors to the LEDGER are:

GEORGE D. PRENTICE, FANNY FERN.

JOHN G. SAXE.

SYLVANUS COBB, Ja.,

EMMA ALICE BROWNE,

current expenses of the Luberk are now, and win constantly be, at the rate of over three hundred thousand dollars per annum.

FACTS like these carry with them more weight than any comments that could be made, and comments will therefore be dispensed with. As we have already intimated, we shall leave promising to those who prefer to expend their force in that way, and content ourselves with doing what we can to make the LEDGER is published every Saturday, and sold at all the news offices in every city and town throughout the country, and is mailed to subscribers at two dollars per annum; two copies are sent for three dollars. Any person obtaining eight subscribers at $1.50 each (which is our lowest club rates) and sending us $12, will be entitled to one copy free. Terms invariably in advance.

33 The postage on the Ledera to any part of the United States, paid quarterly or yearly in advance, at the office where it is received, is only twenty-six cents a year. Canada subscribers must write their addresses, including the name of the place, County and State, in which they reside, in a plain hand, so as to avoid mistakes.
