8r. Louis, Jan. 10, 1859. Since the date of our last, a marked change has taken place in the weather—then it was as mild and pleasant as May day-now it is intensely cold, much colder than at my time this season. On Friday afternoon and night snow to the depth of four inches covered the ground, and sleighing is now most excellent, but we see very few enjoying it-four or five dollars an hour these hard times cannot be extensively indulged in, yet those who can least afford it enjoy themselves most. Navigation in the upper rivers is suspended, and opposite our city the ice is running thick and heavy. In consequence of the suspension of navigation in the upper duce very small, as is also the supplies. Sales on 'Change are like hen's teeth-- 'few and far between." Flour, extra, sells at $5,50; Wheat from 90 to $1,1234; Corn 73c; Oats 75 to 78:; Barley, prime fall from 82 to 85c; Pork has declined to $17,25; Lard 11c; Tallow 93/4 to 10c; Whiskey 25 to 24c; Hides, flint, 151/4 to 153/4c; Dried apples $2 per bush. Nothing has been done in hogs. Returns from 141 packing points, including St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati and all Kentucky, show an increase in number of 28,000decrease in weight equivalent to 115,000 hogs of 200 D each. The net decrease is 86,000.

The city continues healthy.

We have still further accounts from the border con and it seems that the notorious Montgomery and his banditti of Black Republicans, are still infesting the Missouri. They went to a house owned by Mr. Jackson, tes county, and undertook to rob it, but were met by the proprietor, who fought them as long as he could, but rounded by a rifle ball, retreated into the house .-He and his family occupying the upper part and a store below. The desperadoes then set fire to the building com pletely destroying it and its contents valued at $8 000and the members of his family were repeatedly shot at a they ran to escape the flames. The outlaws stole four horses from the neighborhood, and then made their retreat scross the river with a threat that they would return. The overnor of our State has been apprised of this invasion, and has sent a special message to the Legislature, now it ion at Jefferson city, upon the subject.

keep up the excitement until the election of 1860. It is their main plank—knock that from under them, and down falls the whole fabric. Do the Black Republicans in your ounty sauction such conduct—the murdering and robbing ent men, and women and children for political capi tall We hope not But the money for carrying on these hellish invasions comes somewhere from the North-some body foots this bill of blood, plunder and murder. Even some of the Black Republicans in this vicinity are heartily sick of the party thus kept together-with no other idea or principle, but aditation. It is a bad plank in the Black Republican Platform, and no man with a single grain of feeling or common humanity can sanction it. Yet, we are sorry to say, it is done. They in the North do not see the ery and distress that they are encouraging and bearing thicker every day upon the industrious farmers who have selected homes upon our frontiers. Why do not the "3000 clergy" open their mouths against this unbridled evil; these outlaws; these hirdings of the leaders of the Black Republicans, who want to go to the White House" or gain a seat in Congress upon the wave of misery & distress, caused by this uncalled for agitation this murdering end plundering of the human race? Last Saturday being the glorious Eighth of January, th nilitary of our city turned out on parade in large numers, and during the forepart of the day marched through the principal streets. They made a fine appearance. As is usual with the Democracy, the 8th of January is always celebrated by a mass meeting of the Democratic party. The newly elected members of the Central Comonvened at "Tammany Hall"-our new Demi cratic Head Quarters-and organized for the present year In the evening a mass meeting was held at Washingto

The meeting was addressed by Thos. C. Reynolds, Esq. Maj. C. F. Jackson, Mr. Henderson, Dr. Robinson, Col. Bogy and Mr. Honest John Hogan, our efficient and worthy Postmaster He made some very happy remarks on his position, past and present, towards the Democratic party, and towards the hero of the battle of New Orleans; he had always been a Jackson man, had voted for him, honored He concluded by an earnest exhortation to the party to ge to work early, and prepare for the Spring election. He said that it had been arranged to have no resolutions. Every man was expected to become a part of a Committee of the Whole on resolutions, resolve to carry the April contest as Democrats, to help to make the principles of Jackson perwads the country, and then the encose of the party would be certain and its triumph complete.

The Democratic party is now a unit in this city and county. To be sure there are friends of Judge Doug'as and friends of the Administration, but all are determined to preserve the unity of the party by allowing by-gones to be by-gones; and it was truly gratifying to see the Democracy rallying as they did on Saturday night in one cause-in apposition to Riack Republicanism the Democratic party, the Union and the Constitution -We did a glorious thing last summer in defeating Frank Blair—in giving the first shot in the ranks of the enemyand the victory will not be complete until the Democracy reassumes the reins of our City Government in the approaching spring election. Our city taxes have been greatly happy to announce that that leach upon the pockets of our citizens is as rapidly on the decline. All that the shoulder together—present an unbroken front, and the monster will be forever crushed out, and present appear ances indicate such a result. The laboring men are satisfied that Black Republicanism means a reduction in the profit off of the sweat of the laborer. Let the working man look around—let him ascertain the price of labor in all the cities governed by Black Republicans, and compare that price with the standard of those administered by a Demo cratic city. The attempt was made here last summer to cut down the price of labor to 50c per day, but the labor ing men turned out at the election, voted the Democratic ticket, and defeated Mr. Blair and his "free labor" party, and wages are still kept up and the working man is reap-ing the benefits of his Democratic vote. Another attempt o cut down the price of labor will be made in the spring. but if we know the voters, the same result will follow that of last August. We expect to sweep the city from centre to circumference in April next.

The Democracy of the West and the South were never more united, and certainly never more determined to bat tle for the glorious and patriotic cause of Democracy. You can expect a good account from them.

You are already aware that Stephen A. Douglas has been re-elected to the U. S. Senate by the Illinois Legislature.— The vote stood:

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE. Since the re-assembling of Congress both Senate and louse appear to be in a real business mood. Last week was devoted principally to eulogies on Gen. Quitman, the Pacific Railroad, and the Pension Bill. Several eloquent and affecting speeches were made on the death of the vet eran Quitman, all regretting departed glory and testifying to his great worth as a soldier, statesman and citizen, and to his many public and private virtues.

Quite an animated debate has sprung up in reference t the Pacific Railroad. Senator Bigler, of Pen week, delivered a very able and effective argument in favo of this great enterprise. He represented the urgent necessity of the road in case of war, its immense advantage to our commerce in time of peace, and urged its construction without delay, though opposed to giving the governmen the entire control and management over it. This is cer tainly one of the great necessary measures of our nation which will be of untold use to us. Uncle Sam's assistance would therefore help very materially this great work, one of the collossal undertakings of the age. The Pension Bill has been passed by the House, but it is now thought that a re-consideration of its provisions will entirely quash it. If it were to become a law, the drain upon our depleted national coffers would be enormous -Mr. Nichols, of Ohio, stated that he had made a calculation and found that it would require $38,000,000 to start the system. What it would require after that would also take nammoth figuring. It is supposed, however, that it would be an additional expense per annum of ten or twelve millions minimum on the government-not a small sum, even if the Treasury was plethoric, and not barren as now.

On Monday last the French Spoliation Bill passed the Senate by a vote of 25 to 19. It is understood that the laims will be paid, provided the amount does not exceed $5,000,000. This is the same Bill which was vetoed by

Presidents Polk and Pierce, and if it does become a law it will not be regarded as unchangeable as the laws of the Medes and Persians. The Pacific Railroad was the main subject in the Senate on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Senators Davis, of Miss., and Wilson, of Mass., both made speeches on the subject on Tuesday. Mr. Davis proposed a Southern route, which Wilson objected to, designating Davis' route as the Disunion Road, and recommending a route from Lake Superior to Puget's Sound, where plenty of "wood, water and grass" could be obtained, which was not the case in Davis' route, it being an arid waste. On Wednesday Gen Houston advocated a Southern route, and denied that the sortiments of the South were represented by Mr Iverson. made Mr. L's remarks akin to treason. Senator I. replied that he was not in favor of a Union such as Abolitionists propose, and said that Gen. Houston did not represent Towns being cast off by that State. The galleries were filled on Thursday to hear Gen. Houston's defence against Mr. Iverson's charge. His speech was bitter, cutting and sarcastic, and Mr. I. richly deserved the withering rebuke be received from Houston. He said that instead of seeking the Presidency, (with which Mr. I. charged him.) he would oratory and chasteness of style. Judge Douglas took his seat in the Senate on Monday last. The amount of free letters from the Washington Post Office (according to P. M. Jones' statement) for the quarter ending Dec. 31, '58, was 692,137; stamps sold, $9,937; money collected, $1,236; another evidence of the franking privilege. Brig. Gen. Henderson was buried with the honors of war on Monday. His corpse was followed to the grave by the Secretary of War, many officers of the Army and Navy, and a large concourse of citizens.

The Montgomery English affair has subsided, and the field at Biadensburg will, without doubt, remain unsoiled by the blood of either. The friends of both parties had a meeting, and the result is that order once more "reigns in Warsaw." The gaieties of Washington are just beginning, though the cry of hard times will interfere considerably with the pleasures of the winter.

On Tuesday evening the first levee of the season was given at the Executive Mansion. It was very largely attanded. The President was in fine spirits and greeted all with cordiality, while Miss Lane, tastefully attired and looking charming, did the honors of the White House with her usual grace of manner. The East Room was a perfect panorams of pretty faces, fine forms, dignified Senators. O ogressmen, &c., the Diplomatic corps, with a considerable s rinkling of army and navy uniforms. The gift of beauty, however, did not seem to predominate among the fair sex, though the lack of that not to be despised article was endeavored to be amended by all the little mysteries of the ollet which are brought into requisition on such occasions by immaculate silks, velvets and laces which were dis p'ayed in prodigal profusion. There were, nevertheless some few faces whose features were classically beautiful but a great many bore evidences of artistic taste. Not being a judge of painting or the fine arts, I forbear to promeed.

Miss Lane receives visitors on Saturday between the hours of 1 and 2 P. M. The Ladies of the Cabin t are likewise "at home" every Thursday at the same hours. It has been announced that each Secretary intends giving two evening entertainments during the session. S-cretaries former's came off last week, and the latter's on Wednesday night last. Gen. Cass will follow suit on Tuesday evening next, and it is perfectly apropos to say here that the stories casional hops at the Hotels and first-class Boarding Houses, will serve to give some vent to pleasure-seekers playing at the Theatre to very good houses.

CURIOUS LETTER FROM A SUICIDE.-The Hon. John A. Tucker, who committed suicide a few weeks ago in Georgia, left behind him the following letter addressed to P. A. Colquitt, Editor of the Columbus Times:

Dawson, Ga., Thursday, Dec. 16. I am about to do a thing which I have had in contemplation since 1848—viz: to rid the world of me, and myself of an existence use-less to me and derogatory to others. And Mr. Editor, how dare you or any of your readers say, it is weak, or wrong, or unmanly to perform the act that I am about to perform .-Life is a burden to me-has been for years. I am driven on by a destiny I have no power to control. Don't say to me: "It is your fault—you could act differently." It is untrue. I always wished to act differently-I have prayed to act differently-I have prayed to God to help me to act differently. He knows my wish and purpose were to be a good man.
This I have prayed for from boyhood; and yet I have not been a good man. "There is a divinity that shapes our ends." There is a power that drives us on like a feather before the wind, and we have as little power to direct our course as the feather in the gale. Now, with all my sins, follies and vices clinging to my skirts, I am going unbidden into the presence of my God, to ask him why I am not the man I always desired to be; to ask what punishment I am to receive for knowing my duty, desiring to perform iv, and yet not having the nerve to do it. Dont't say I am drunk either, for it is not so. I tell you Peyton Colquitt, that I am doing this thing upon reflection. I lay all night thinking of upon renection. I lay all night thinking of it. I have looked at all the reasons for and against it. In some respects I have been a successful man. As certain as the world, I would beat in the race for Judge by more than the Democratic majority. That is not the thing with me. I would not live to be President of the United States, unless I could be the man I wished to be. From a boy, I wished to be a great and good man-a man exerting a great salutary, moral influence on mankind. But as it is, I am shedding death shade and mildew from the high places in the I would have waited till I got home, but I knew it would not do. I would then never have discharged the duty I owe to myself and mankind. I could not part with my wife and little ones. Several times in the last few years I have prepared myself for this event at home, when my wife knew nothing of it. But to look at the children and hear them say "Pa, or to look at a smiling and affectionate wife, that anticipated my wishes—that forgave a thousand follies—that never did an unkind nct—I did not have the courage to proceed.—

But believing as I do, that my departure from this life will benefit my family, as well as others, I am going to die here to day. I have plenty of friends that will be sorry for this; but to all of them I say, John A. Tucker never professed friendship to any one, that he deserted in the hour of trial. My wife and my

A TERRIBLE SCENE. - Among the prisoners who recently escaped from the Columbus, (O.) Jail, were two men imprisoned for the murder of Henry Korrel, in June last, named Conrad Seibold and John Frononberger. On Saturday last, the officers got on the track of Seibold, who was running across a field, and after a chase of hours, the pursued occasionally Mar stopping to threaten his pursuers with his pistols, the scene closed as follows, as we find it in the Ohio Statesman, or seek. Seibold finally got on the track of the Central Ohio Railroad, and took refuge in the first bridge over Alum creek, about three miles east of this city. Seibold went over to the east side of the bridge and swore he would be the first man who attempted to cross the control of the first man who attempted to cross the control of the it in the Ohio Statesman, of the 2d instant: promising to treat him kindly, and every possible argument. Seibold told them he would give them twice the amount of the reward if they would let him go, and that he would never be taken alive.

Half an hour was spent in thus parleying, when the officers sent to a neighboring farm house and procured a loaded rifle, with which they hoped to intimidate him. But the des perate man was not to be intimidated. Officer White took the rifle and called upon him to surrender, saying that they were determined to arrest him, dead or alive. To this Seibold made no reply, but stepped to the end of the bridge, where the stone embankment is about twenty feet high. As the officer was about to raise the gun to his shoulder, Seibold turned his back to the crowd, placed the muzzle of his single barrel pistol between his teeth, fired and fell headlong down the precipice, dead! The officers, and a number of others who wit nessed this terrible scene, rushed to the spot but the desperate man was convulsed with the mortal agony of death, and a slight tremor was all the evidence of life he exhibited after he was reached.

I was an observer of its effects in a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied freely the Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was asleep, and when awakened was free from pain, and continued so. This is a pesitive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Felon was cured in nearly the same length of time.
