IMPORTANT/FROM PARAGUAY. Settlement of the Difficulty with the

[From the N. Y. Herald of Thursday.] The British brig Ann McKean, Captain Richey, has arrived at this port from Pernam-buce, whence she sailed on the 10th ult. She An English letter from brings us very important news-no less than the actual settlement of the difficulties with

The packet Apa arrived at Pernambuco on the Water Witch, in the conflict with the fort of Itapiru, the 4th ult., from southern ports. The dates which she brought from Montevideo reach to the 16th of Eebruary, seventeen days later than our previous advices.

The packet Apa arrived at Pernambuco on Witch, in the conflict with the fort of Itapiru, and another of $25,000 to the company that was represented by Mr. Hopkins.

We do not suppose that this statement in the conflict with the fort of Itapiru, and another of $25,000 to the company that was represented by Mr. Hopkins.

The Apa was bearer of the important intelligence that the question recently pend-ing between the United States and the republic of Paraguay has been peacefully arranged. Although this result was generally expected, it ought not, for this reason, to be received with less satisfaction; because there is nothing means so opportunely employed, or more to powers for we have evidence of the fact in the the credit of the civilization of the age in which we live.

The following communication from General The following communication from occurs. Urquiza, addressed to the government of the Argentine Confederation, dated the 5th of February, gives a complete account of the event to which we refer:—

REPORT OF PRESIDENT URQUIZA.

To the Most Excellent National Government: On returning from Asuncion, I proceeded enough: to fulfil my duty in giving to the most excellent national government an account of the fulfilment and result of the mission with which I was entrusted, and concerning which your Excellency thought proper to authorize me in consequence of the note which I directed to you under date of the 10th January.

The celerity with which the Commissioner of the United States made his movements endered impossible a conventional conference with President Lopez either at Gaz or at Corrientes; and therefore I deemed it due to his Excellency the President of Paraguay, who had offered to me that he would come to some point in our territory, that I should go to some place at or near Asuncion, where only could my efforts be used to prevent a warwhich appeared to be imminent—the principal object of my voyage.

In consequence, on the 16th, I arrived at Asuncion, where I was received and lodged with every consideration and mark of friend I commend to the consideration of your Excellency and of the country, the deferential and kind manner with which I was treated by my illustrious friend the President of Porce guay. I recognize on the part of the people and government of the Argentine Confederation a debt of fraternity and gratitude to the government and people of Paraguay.

I dedicated my best efforts from the earliest moment to remove from the mind of President Lopez the apprehension and alarm produced by intentional reports and sinster declamations on the part of a certain portion of the press.

The government of Paraguay was decidedly resolved to make a heroic resistance; a considerable concentration of military and warlike elements had been prepared to defend to the very utmost degree the dignity of the country.

The immense power of the American Union would encounter the force of a people and a government proud of their national powers. may be permitted to express to your Excellency that the aspect of that war profoundly affected my heart, I trembled for the destiny of the innocent people; I trembled for the future of these newborn countries in political life and in the progress of commerce and industry, thus to be disturbed by an interna tional war.

I endeavored to inspire the government with the confidence which I had in the policy of the Cabinet at Washington, founded on the fraternal relations which it had cultivated with the government of the Argentine Confederation, the profound conviction that I felt that it was never the intention of our powerful brethren of the North that their position of fraternal influence with their brethern of the South, should be renounced, and that their great power should fall upon them for the purpose of causing their decay and their ruin I protested that I would spare no personal effort in favor of the peace of Paraguay and the dignity of its government, and that I hoped from these efforts all thatthe greatest love of peace could promise. Above all, I gave him the assurance of obtaining at least, as a proof of consideration for the Commissioner of a friendly government, that a negotiation on conciliatory terms should be initiated in a manner agreeable to the interests of the American States estimable and distinguished Commissioner of the United States, who has displayed towards after this terrible scene the little suffering him to the gratitude of the government and of the country, had hardly arrived when he anything about the cause of its death. The visited me and gave me an opportunity of demonstrating to him, also that the information and being the child, found it so mortified and tion conveyed to the government of the United tion conveyed to the government of the United States concering the position of Paraguay and take off the clothing upon it. Joy told his the proceedings of its government was greatly wife and daughters that if they said a word exaggerated, and to appeal to his consideration about it he would kill them, and they believed exaggerated, and to appeal to his consideration and to his interest for this beautiful country, which presents all its riches to the men o peace and labor and to the industry and the commerce of the world. The merit of my efforts dwindled before the beautiful and noble qualities of /Mr. Bowlin. Fortunately, this Commissioner of the United States interested himself in behalf of peace like a man full of humanitarian feelings, of liberality and of progress. He devoted himself to the policy of conciliation with all the gentlemanly bearing which makes him worthy to represent the great American nation.

The speeches exchanged in the solemn reception will show to your Excellency that and conciliatory manner. I have the honor of directing attention to them under the numbers 1 and 2. When, in due course, I became aware of the remarks of Mr. Bowli my hopes were strengthened, and I looked forward with pleasure to the breathings of peace, cherishing within my heart the glory of contributing to the re-establishment of fraternal relations between the United States and Paraguay, whose best fruits of peace it concerns us also to gather.

The Commissioner declared that his instructions did not permit him to accept the official which the Plenipotentiaries of Brazil and of the Argentine Confederation were disposed to offer, that it was in deterence to the spirit of conciliation, and as a tribute coial consideration to myself, he accepted only the personal intervention of my kind, frank, and disinterested officers, and that to this end he would open preparatory confiden tial conferences so as to arrange the manner

What I owe to the polite attention of the Commissioner is perfectly set forth in the communications exchanged with him, which npanies this, and which will be found numbered 3, 4 and 5.

Several conferences took place, in the whole course of wich I took the part which had been so honorably conceded to me by my illustrious friend, the President of Paraguay, and the Commissioner of the United States, even to assisting in the last conference in which the question was decided. To say all before my country, I boast of the glory of having effectively contributed to the prevention of war between two brotherly nations. I feel pleasure in announcing t our Excellency that I experienced the good fortune of witnessing the settlement of satisfactory and honorable bases between the President of Paraguay and his Excellency Commissioner of the government of the United States. Your Excellency will have occasion to judge of the said bases by the private copy, which I subjoin under No. 7, and to appreciate the importance of so worthy and honorable an arrangement, which re establishes on the best footing kind and fraternal relations between these two American nations. Such a happy result will elevate the Argentine government in the consideration of the free powers, drawing closer our friendship with the colosus of America, whose institutions serve as an example, and whose influence and stimulus we require in our but recent life and which we honorably desire; such a prosperous result must bind us in an eternal nd of fraternity to our immediate confrere of Paraguay—united to us by the community of interests, of origin, and of destiny. I come proudly with this laurel-green and pure—which I have had the happiness to cull, and to deposit it on the altar of my country, offering to it anew the sacrifice of all my life as a holocaust to the principles of peace, of fraternity, and of honor—which are the bases of the Argentine policy.

JUSTO JOSE DE URQUIZ.

REPORTED TERMS OF THE ARRANGEMENT. We have received no information of the part which has been taken by Senor Amarel, the resident Minister of Brazil, in the peaceful termination of this question, but know that he was received by President Lopez with the most expressive demonstrations of friendship for the Imperial government, and that his presence was hailed as the precursor of a happy conclusion. Neither have we any news of the terms of the arrangement made, because the private documents to which Gen. Urquiza refers,

An English letter from Buenos Ayres says that the basis of the adjustment was an indemnity of $10,000 to the family of the person who was killed on board the Water arrangement is applauded by the chief of the Argentine Confederation, and above all, from the fact that he took a part in the transaction. and that he claims for his honor sentiments o peace in negotiating in person with the Plenipotentiary of the United States. Briefly, however, we have the information

A HORRIBLE CRIME.-Last Saturday, we learn from the Wabash (Ind.) Intelligencer, a man named William Joy was convicted of burning his own child to death, and sentenced to eighteen years confinement in the penitentiary. The principal witness against him was his little daughter Nancy, whose story to the jury is thus given by the Intelligencer: Her little brother John, a child about four months old, was quite unwell, and had been o for some days, and was consequently fretful, and had cried considerably during the night and disturbed her father. Early in the morning her father called her and told her to get up and make a fire. She did so-made the fire principally of brush, because there was no other wood prepared. After the fire began to burn, the child continuing to cry and fret, her father became enraged, and snatched the child from its mother's arms, tore every particle of clothing off it, and then took it by one arm and one leg, and held it over the fire until it was burned in several places to a olister. He then struck the little sufferer two blows with his hand, leaving upon its body the marks of his fingers, and then threw it into the cradle or bed. His wife and daughter struggled to get the child away from him, but were unable to do so, and when Mrs. Joy found he was going to burn the child to death, she ran out of the house to prevent seeing the sight and to get out of hearing of the child's screams. Joy took down his gun and pointing it at her compelled her to come in. He then My confidence was not in vain. I was an observer of its effects in a friend of mine, who I was an observer of its enects in a friend of mine, who saffered simest everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied freely the Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was easien, and when awakened was free from pain, and continued so. This is a positive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Felon was cured in nearly the same length of time.

O W E R H A L L

O Market Street, day after day,
A crowd is ever seen;
Unnumbered men a number seek—
Five Hundred and Eighteen.
That number is upon a house—
You ne'er have seen a finer,
Five stories high. axtending through
From Market Street to Minor.
To urize the tasta and skill disabased. From Market Street to Minor.
To prize the taste and skill displayed
The reader's eye should scan it,
And see the architect's design,
There wrought in massive granite.
O'ar its majestic stories five,
Before the gazer's eve. Before the gazer's eye,
A tower, where our banner floats,
Looms upward proud and high.
'Twas built to be the clothing-hou Twess built to be the clothing hous of this terrestrial ball, And as a hall of Fashion, it Was christened "Tower Hall." It has a fine, imposing front, But as the verse I'm closing, I'll leave it here, and go inside Where there is naught imposing. Within, mechanic's skill and art. Have wought and beautified; A row of orches far extend Along on either side:

Along on either side; And in those arches, glass encased, The customers may scan The best of clothes, in style and make, The best of clothes, in style and make To grace the outer man. Above the case, within each arch There stands a sculptured bust, of statesman or of poet loved, Now sleeping in the dust. The great and mighty men of earth, Who left a name behind, Are thus in kind remembrance kept Within the heart and mind. Mid arches, thus in long array.

Within the heart and mind.

Mida arches, thus in long array,
Those soulptured busts revealing,
A feeling o'er the gazer's heart
Will like a halm be stealing,
As if distilled by fairles hid
Within the freezoed celling.
A line of gergeous chandellers
Are there to make by night
The place, like every patron's heart
Blessed with a bargain, light.
A fair description of the house
Is far beyond my power;
The glant stairway winding up
Five stories to the tower,
Would turn my head and I should feel
My pen and powers falling
Among the fine artistic curves.
Which grace the massive railing;

As up the stairway, light of heart
The happy buyer goes,
He feels the smallness of his pile
Among the piles of clothes;
But yet he knows, though small it be,
And trifling in amount,
That he's in Bennett's Grand Bazaar,
And ev'ry cent will count.
This fact with him is firmly fixed,
And ev'thed mast disunts: And settled past dispute;
He's tried it oft, and knows that both
The clothes and price will suit.
If there is nothing ready made
That suits him to a "T," The foreman of the custom work, On call will ready be, With never-failing, skilful hand To take each curve and line;

And make a suit well worthy of The human form divine. His taste and skill are sure to suit, As every one admits: For taking customers in hand, He's bound to give them fits. I have not told of sky-lights, yet, Fixed in the roof so high. That ev'ry man in broad day-light May all his garments buy. The bible tells us, some prefer The darkness to the light, Because their deeds are evil, and, Of course, the Scriptur's right. But where the clothing is well made, And sold at prices fair, They let the daylight boldly in—No evil deeds are there. Then may I not with pride invite My readers one and all, To call and spend an hour at least any readers one and all,

To call and spend an hour at least
In Bennett's Tower Hall;
Yes, come and see the many sights
That gratify the eye.
Come! If you're wanting clothes or not,
To buy or not to buy,
By Bennett you'll be well received,
By Bennett you'll be well received,
Ont'll find that "that' be and the see and y all the salesmen, too; I'll find that "half has not been told,

But what is told is true."

BOOKS FROM THE SPRING TRADE
SALE AT THE CHEAP BOOK STORE.
A RARE OPPORTUNITY FOR THOSE IN WANT OF DOOKS FROM THE SPRING TRADE
A RARE OPPORTUNITY FOR THOSE IN WANT OF GOOD BOOKS AT A SMALL COST.

Never have Books sold cheaper than at the recent Philadelphic Spring Sale.

The proprietor of the Cheap Book Store has availed himself of the opportunity to purchase a large stock of the most varied assortment of valuable books of every class and description. He now offers to the public the same, at proportionably and unusually low rates.

Those in want of valuable standard works, for the extensive stock on hand. My object and wish is, as it always was, to supply the wants of the extensive stock on hand. My object and wish is, as it always was, to supply the wants of the community with anything in my line, on the most reasonable terms possible. This we find the better and most advantageous course for all parties.—
The Political Economist tells us "the cheaper an article is, the more universally it can and will be used." Then the conclusion is, that when we buy cheape, we must sell cheap, simply allowing ourselves a reasonable profit.

I would call especial attention to my large assortment of Stunday School Books on hand, of every variety wanted for the use of Sunday Schools; and sell all at the Sunday School Union prices. I have the agencies for the publications of the American Sunday School Union, American Tract Society, Methodist Book and Tract Society. Also, the Lutheran, Presbyterian, Episcopal, and other denominations are kept on hand.

TIGHTNING RODS.

It GHTNING RODS.

To all who intend protecting their property from LIGHTNING, a few facts may not be unwelcome.

THE ELECTRO MAGNET LIGHTNING ROD has been before the public for twenty years; has been the means of saving a wast deal of property and many lives, and has nover in a single instance failed to meet the high-est expectations of its value. Hundreds of our own citizens can testify from their own knowledge of its ability to protect property in safety; who have been eye witnesses where buildings public and private, churches and school houses, have been saved from destruction—the rod receiving and carrying harmless to the ground, strokes which but for them would have caused the total ruin of the building and all within it.

The superiority of these rods over any others in use, has been testified to by men who have no superiors in general science or in this department. Recommendations to the number of six thousand can be seen at the factory. The United States Putent Office is protected by my Rods, having been selected from all others in use as the best and most reliable. Considering the character and position of the men who have charge of that institution, no higher testimony could be desired.

Persona residing at a distance should be on their guard against a class of swindlers who by false representations of every description, seek to mislead the purchaser.

Where my agents are not personally known as such, the only safe plan is to apply, by letter or otherwise, at the Factory. IGHTNING RODS.
