The Hall of Fine Arts, in the opinion of your committee, was most tastefully and elegantly arranged, and we deem it our duty to state that much credit is not only due to Messrs. M. O. Kline, Foltzand Shertz for the art and skill they displayed on this occasion, but the attention and interest they so cheerfully manifested towards the exhibitors were universall We are pleased to report that a great num-ber of articles exhibited were the production ber of articles exhibited were the production and skill of young gentlemen and ladies; an evidence of the fact that your creditable exertions have been encouraging and beneficial to the youth of this community. In justice to the ladies we are compelled to remark that, amongst the rare gems of art, were to be seen the exquisite and beautiful handiwork of the ladies of this city and county. We do not say this in fulsome praise; but in all truthfulness and gratification; we report that the needle work, embroidery, and great variety of fancy work exhibited on this occasion surpassed anything we have ever seen, and we congratulate your honorable society for the encouragement and approbation bestowed upon you by the ladies of this city and county.
