The weather has been cool, cloudy and somewhat disagteeable the past three or four days, and ice was formed on Saturday and Friday nights. The rivers are low and freights are scarce, whilst business, in every department, is very dull and drooping. The receipts of produce con tinne light, and sales on 'Change present no new feature. Flour ranges from $4 to $6; Wheat 82c. to $1.14; Corn 42 to 45c.; Oats 44 to 46c.; Barley 70c.; Bye 76c.; Mess Pork $14.121/2; Whisky 25c.; Potatoes 50 to 60c.; Onions $1.45 per bbl; Eggs 16c.; Hides 13c.; Dried apples $1.50; Hay

There is nothing of a local character worthy of report. The all absorbing topic of conversation is the Marper's Ferry Black Republican Insurrection—all seem anxious to learn the result of the trial, and all conservative men join in the opinion that "Old Brown" was nothing more than the tool of the leading Black Republicans and the aspiringcandidates for the Presidency in their ranks. They made the Kansas troubles their platform in 1856, and now, to keep up their shrieks, they open up another bloody field in the Old Dominion. Without such excitement, their party would soon be scattered to the winds, and they think, by keeping up these bloady outrages, they will be able to elect their President next fall, but it would seem that the tables have been turued upon them-instead of making political capital out of the recent insurrection, they have actually lost by it. Where is there an honorable man-one who respects the Union and the glorious Constitution under which we live, and which has handed down to us so much happiness, peace and prosperity-that will now, at this day, join the band of traitors, sailing under the flag of Black Republicanis and, by their aid, cause the North to rise against the South, create a hostile feeling between the different sections of the Union, and finally engender a civil war ? If Black Republicanism, or as it should be called. Abolitimism, holds for any length of tim- the reins of this government we may at once expect a dissolution-a Northern and a Southern Confederacy. The South will never consent, or quietly submit to Abolitionists entering their soil, stealing way their property, murdering their citizens and burning their towns. And we should inter that such is the design from the recent proceedings enacted at Harper's Ferry. They had much better defer their crusade against the South, until they get their President in the White House(1) If it really was the intention of the Black Republican of the Northern States to make war upon Virginia and Mary-land, they have most certainly proved themselves COWARDS --traitors to their country and traitors to Old Brown, who they placed at their head. The war-cry emanating from Harper's Ferry made every Northern Abolitionist tremble in his boots; he had not the courage of an oyster, to obey the call to arms; he sculked into his hole like a whipped dog, and left his little band of wretched whites and blacks to bits the dust, through their bad management and worse distation of their Black Republican friends in the North, who promised to assist them in the time of need. If these are the brane spirits who can tomplated revolutionizing this country-to wips out slavery, &c., there is very little danger to be apprehended "Old Brown" has more Couraçe in his little fing or han the combined Black Re-publican party. We do not, now, anticipate a "civil war." emanating from the Abolitionists of the Northern States, for they have proved themselves base cowards-dnwilling to "face the music," and not possessing courage enough to mes the Southern line. We make no war upon the cross the Southern line We make no war upon the North, -we seek no strife with it--we ask for, peace, union and harmony, and will go as far as the farthgst for the "Union as it is "-for the constitutional rights of the people, but when the Abelitioni-ts invade our soil, infringe ipon our rights and our laws, shoot down our citizens and steal our property, they will find the chivalry of the South aroused, and no cowards or traitors in the camp. Their dupes and tools at Harper's Ferry must atone to the offended laws-our laws are strict and must be obeyed against their violaters, let them hail from where they will. Old Brown and his gang of duped white and black tools will soon pay the penalty of their crime and we have no doubt their final confession will reveal some startling disclosures and implicate some aspiring in dividuals, when the offended law will ferret them out, and they, too, must suffer its penalty. Let all, either directly or indirectly, implicated share thelsame fate with Brown and his band We cannot see how any man, who desires the permanency of this Union, can aid, with his vote, the Black Republican eause. Elect a Black Republican President, and this country will be in a state of insurrection during his term of office.

It is to be hoped that the extreme penalty of the law will be meted out to Brown and his accomplices, and thus teach the Abolitionists that their doom is scaled as soon as they fall into the hands of justice. There is no doubt but that Brown, Cook and Stevens will make full confessions and we may expect to hear of some starting matters brought to light. The Black Republican papers, expecting such confessions, still cry out to " hang the wretches without judge or jury, so that others will not be implica ted. It is a damaging rock to Black Republicanismagainst which they have split their rotten vessel, and in 1860 will sink so low that no more will ever be heard of it A Black Republican Printing Office-the Newport (Ky Free South, was mobbed on the night of the 28th, and th type scattered in the streets. By a late arrival from Santa Fe we learn that severa mails have been detained, and it is feared that they have man in Congress when his constituents voted him out, by decided and emphatic vote. If such an outrageous trick ould be practized upon the people of this country, the people will soon rectify it. Mr. D. C. Broderick's term as Senator would have expired n 1863. Mr. Gwin's term expires in 1861. Judge Terry, who killed Broderick in a duel, in Califor is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is varioually caused by mercurial disease, low living, dis-ordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and pro-duced cures too numerous and too remarkable to BEELZEBUB.

BY THE BABD OF TOWER HALL. Ev'rywhere throughout creation, From and to the midnight hour. Beelzebub is ever husy, "Seeking whom he may devour."

This we learn from Holy Scripture— Therefore none its truth can doubt— So, when rings the bell of conscience, Then for Beelzebub look out. Though he have a foot that's cloven, Yet he gently, lightly goes: And, when he for souls is seeking, la not apt to stub his toes

Sure of foot, and stepping softly. Not a footfall you may hear: Yet old Beelzebub will reach you, And be roaring in your ear.

And be rearing in your ear. Yes: for he, 'of liars th' father,' Will with fieldish zest rejoice, If, by rearing like s.llon, He can drown your inward voice. Don't you listen to the demon; If you do, he will deceive. With the sophistry so subtle, Whith the ophistry so subtle.

Do not eat of fruits forbidden By the laws of God and man Though the sly, old serpent utter. "Freely sat of all you can."

To a friendship for your neighbors, Sympathy for all distressed, Charity and kind forbearance, Give a home within your breast.

Constancy, and love's devotions Cherish as of self a part; Let not Satan drive the angels From the chambers of your heart. Let the Right be aye your armour. While the sword of Truth you wield-Then, by Heaven made strong in valor, You shall stand and never yield.

Though the "Prince of Devils," With his legions may as all, Not a shaft shall reach your bosom, Through your trusty coat of mail.

Such a coat, I must acknowledge, Is a coat much better far Than the best they manufacture At the Tower Hall Bazaar.

That is saying much, yes very Much indeed—the truth is bold !— For the coats at Tower Hall are Firmly stitched, and cheaply sold.

As a Bard who's well intentioned; We to ev'ry man would call :---Wear the coat of mail we've mentio O'er a suit from TOWER HALL.
