equinping of the poor wretches-whoknew no better that to commence the "irrepressible conflict" when they did If their friends, aiders and abettors, had not the courag rrepressible conflict " when they did. to go to Brown's relief, after he had commenced hestilified they never will muster sufficient courage to make another attempt at Wm. H. Seward's plan of making all the State ree. When Old Brown has paid the penalty of his and their crime, the bravest of their number will have died They have no more " Moors" to lead another band of cut throats and incendiaries, and after the verdict of the people shall have been rendered --which it most assured will next fall, Black Republican Abelitionism will neither have a habitation or a name. The people of the West are a little puzzled to the correct meaning of Wm. H. Seward's reply to Col. Forbes, when he (Forbes) revealed to him the plot and conemplated insurrection at Harper's Ferry. Seward said to Forbes, "that in his position (an aspirant for the Presi dency) he ought not to have been informed of the circum-stances." If Mr. Seward was informed that such an outbreak was going to take place upon such a day, was it not his duty, as a good citizen, to expose the contemplated TREASON? Did he do it? No. Butafter he was informed on the subject, as long ago as last May, he religiously kept the secret and skulked off to Europe when the magazine was about to explode-when the very "conflict" of his own marshalling was to commence-when the Black Republi-can capital was freely to be used in the enterprise of shooting down the citizens of the slaveholding States. If he did not sanction it, why did he not reveal the treasonable designs of Old Brown, Capt. Cook and others ? We charge the recent slaughter in Virginia upon the leading Black Republicans of the Northern States, and think that Governor Wise should demand the bodies of all immediately or otherwise implicated in this treasonable work-or Gerrit Smith's " Kansas work "--or murder if you please

We will soon see if the concervative men of the North will sanction the Virginia murder, insurrection and treason, fanned into existence by the Black Republican party for political capital-we will see if they can consistently vote for Seward, after his knowledge of what was to take place, and his keeping the secret and leaving the country just before the hands of Abolitionists were to be steeped in the blood of their fellow men, to elevate him to the Presidency. Time will reveal all things, as it has done the Harper's Ferry insurrection.

We stated in a previous letter that the Newport (Kv.) Free South, an abolition print, was mobbed at that place, and which had for a long time been a pest to the commu nity. It seems that a committee, appointed at a meeting of the citizens of the place, waited theon Mr. Bailey, the editor, informing him of their intention-that no harm was meant to him or his family-all they intended to do was t remove his press and type to the Ohio side of the visit remove his press and type to the Ohio side of the river. He refused to open his door, when the effice was entered by force, and the material taken out, down to the river, and which they arrived there the indignant citize concluded to throw them into the river, which they did After this was done, another meeting was held and a Vigilance Committee appointed, whose duty it is to see that the Fre: South shall not again be established in New Doy, the nigger thief, who was arrested, committed prison, and afterwards rescued by the Abelitionists and carried away in the night, addresset a Black Republican meeting in Chicago, on the 31st ult. Such is life! A lady at Oskabosa, Kansas, writing to a friend in low.

Kansas, this winter, will show many families starving for bread. Want and bunger, with wintry blacks, will bond and break stont he arts the ensuing months, and the cries of young children for bread will bring tears to eyes unused to weep. From all this we must flor, last at our door the gaunt hunger-wolf howls, and sickness lead o flot peace in the scient gravo, where rest alike the gry and the well fed."

IMP OF FOREIGN BEES .- The Agricultu all far of rokards DES. In a Agriculture all Bureau of the United States Patent Office has received intelligence of the ship ment from Havre, Franco, of a large swarm of Lombardy bees. They are of a larger size than the ordinary bee, and having a longer bill, are able to suck flowers inaccessible to the American bee. The product of an old hive of these bees is sometimes 150 lbs, of honey in one section. These bees will not be distributed until 1861, by which time it is expected to rear from the swarm now in trans silu, stock enough for six hundred hives.

RAVAGES OF TYPHOID FEVER. - The typhoid fever has been prevailing with alarming fatality, for some months past, in the North-Western portions of Berks county, and also in parts of the adjoining counties. In Upper Tulpehoecon, Tulpehoecon, Bethel, and probably some of the adjacent townships, the disease has caused a number of deaths. In Upper Tulpeinceon, it is said, thirty-five pers ms who had falsen victims to its ravages, were buried in one grave vard, in the course of a month. In Myerst win, Lebanon county, entire families have died out with this fatal disease, and bur a few finilies in the village have entirely escaped its ravages.—Reading Gazetie.
