Mr. Giffin—Dear Sir: It is now mear the close of your second torm of school in this place, and I feel very greatify gratified in seving your prespects of making Coatestills Seminary second to more in the country. After becoming fully acquainted with your mild, but firm discipline, and close attention to your pupils' recitations, as manifested in the improvement of my son, I feel myself under obligations to recommend all my acquaintances and friends to send their sons and daughters to your school.

Coatestille, July 29th, 1850.

I cheerfully commend to the public, and especially to my friends, the Seminary of Janes E. Giffin, located at this place, as being especially worthy of patronage. My son having been a pupil for the last term of this Institution, I can speak with confidence of the fidelity of the Principal as a teacher—his suavity of manner, yet firmers as a governer, and his entire gentlemanly deportment in all his relations.

Mr. James Giffin—Sir: We most cordially recommend to public favor your most excellent School. One of the firm having had a son in your Institution, and the other a sister—in-iaw, we can speak with confidence in regard to the merits, and thorough instruction given in Coatesville Seminary.

Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case.—So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it, but that sold another; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear surprising; first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentifui, and yet its vaine has never been known until I discovered it in 1845-second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.

In order to give some idea of the sudden rise, and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day—in April, 1854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in the business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praine of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors—but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected.

Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles—of, what a morey fit prove effectual in all cases of that a wifel malady—there are but few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people, cured by it. For the various diseases of the Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthms, Fover and Ague, pain in the side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine over known.
