PHILADELPHIA, December 26, 1859. for on this day, (Monday,) is the festival kept this year, has created so much discussion, not only in the Legisla-could not have been picked out of the calendar. Ah! Christmas is a bright, glad day in the year. One of the very best things, possibly, which could have befallen Philadelphia is the recent stampede of medical students, of which you will have been informed by the "copinions" on the Free Negro Bill now pendi A week or two since we denounced abolit and all the other isms which affectionately cling to it, but we shall be no more sparing of denunciation when sectionalism of any kind is at fault, even though it come from the very side against which abolitionism is arrayed. Philadal phia is a conservative city. She has proven herself such and all questions of a political or sectional character are excluded from her colleges and universities. To have more appropriate place could have been selected. The arisen in their contemptible impotence, therefore, as did gathering at that sectional meeting will show to the arises in their contemptiols impotence, therefore, as did state in a sectional meeting will show to the country that Black Republicanism and Abolitionism is one imaginary wrong, was simply a perversion of truth, and showed a love for mischief equally as execrable as the insane bellowings of Furness, Lucretia Mott, and all their doubt in regard to the State of Illinois going against the beautiful crew. We only pity the southern people upon whom these youngsters have been let loose, with their education half finished, and with its thorough completion now out of the question. Philad elphia survives the blow, and rejoices that an excrescence has been got rid of. If we could let out Furness, Miller McKim, Lucretia Mott and about a hundred more, on the other side, the balance-

Yesterday was Christmas, the great holiday season of the christian and civilized world. Though not universally admitted, it is probably that which accounts for the civiliadmitted, it is probably that which accounts for the civilization we have reached—for our gaperiority over barbarous instines. The day was appropriately celebrated, as will also be to-day—all business will be susponded, and all, the idd as well as the young, will enter into the feativities of the day. It would seem that the heart of Christendom is yet sound—christian influences still predeminate, and it will ever be regarded as the sheet-anchor, of the civilization which exists in christian States. To you and your readers we tender the complimates of the extender the complimates of the care of general and of the civilization which exists in christian States. To you and your readers we tender the complimate of the extender the complimate of the civilization of the civilization which exists in christian States. To you and your zation we have reached—for our superiority over barbarous nations. The day was appropriately celebrated, as will old as well as the young, will enter into the festivities of yet sound-christian influences still predominate, and i readers we tender the compliments of the season.

The weather has been bitter cold throughout the past week, and we have had several light sprinkles of snow The upper rivers are all frozen, and in some places, they are crossing with teams. The Mississippi at this point has been full of ice, and running very slow. The mails were detained here for forty-eight hours, on account of the heavy ice in the river-the Ferry boat was unable to cross. On Saturday afternoon the river gerged at this point, but at night gave way, and we understand has again gorged a short distance below. Above, the Mississippi, Missouri and Illinois rivers are tight, and consequently navigation is entirely suspended-no boats have arrived from or departed for the South for three or four days. Receipts of produce are therefore confined to the Missouri railroads, and which are very inconsiderable, whilst sales on 'Change are scarcely worth a notice, but no material change in

There were 91 interments in the different cemeteris during the past week. There were thirty admissions into the City Hospital in the past week.

A dentist, named Charles Merry, committed suicide in Jefferson county last week. He stood upon the track of the Iron Mountain Railroad, and when the train neared him, he cut his throat from ear to ear, and then threw him self across the track, the whole train passing over him and finishing the suicide. A man, near by, saw him cut his throat, and could have dragged him from the track before the train came up, but he says he was fearful that they might accuse him of murder. No cause is assigned for the rash act. Mr. Merry stood fair in this city as a member of his profession as well as a man.

John Lawrence, who had recently been discharged for bad conduct, from the Artis's' Emporium of Mr. Boggs, went into the establishment and cut several fine painting in pieces. Some of the pictures were the property of citizens, who had left them there for frames, &c., and of course can never be replaced. The amount of damage to Mr. Boggs' property is estimated at $500 or $800. Lawrence The are no less than 25 persons confined at the City Hospital with frozen limbs—the effects of exposure to the recent cold snap. Our County Treasurer has now on hand $175,000 in coin and bankable funds, out of this the January interest on the county bonds must be deducted. The condition of the Country Treasury at this time is very flattering—more than we can say for the City Treasury—which has had no bottom in it for the past three years. The great breach of promise case, between Mr. Henry Shaw and Miss Cartztang, is again beginning to attract considerable attention. It will be remembered, that at a former trial, the jury rendered a verdict of $100,000 damages, but which the court set aside upon some technicality. The whole of last summer was taken up in ferret ing out evidence to prove Miss Effie all right "on the goose," and it is now rumored that she is fully able to prove a promise of marriage. The case is set for the 8th of January in the Common Pleas Court. The Pike's Peak fever is again breaking out, and num-

The Charleston Convention will no doubt express a preference for Mr. Breckinridge, and the Democracy of this country will elevate him to the Presidency.

Several eminent lawyers in Tennessee have given their "opinions" on the Free Negro Bill now pending in the Tennessee Legislature. They pronounce the bill unconsti tutional.

We learn by telegraph that the Black Republican Aboil onists are to hold their Sectional Convention at Chicag on the 13th of June. We think Chicago judiciously select or such a gathering, for it has long been known as the great rendevous for fugitive slaves and Free Negroes; n Democracy, this Abolition gathering at Chicago will wite it out. Illinois can now be set down as certain for the Charleston nominae.

We stated in a previous letter that the "Oppo this State had called a State Convention for the 28th, that is the American portion of the opposition, and the Black Republicans knowing that there is no chance for them in weight would be all right again, and two of the biggest this State, took the liberty of calling its forces together or the same day and and at the same place. But the Americans were determined that the Blacks should not mix with them in their selection for men to fill the various State books, and many of them this year are of standard worth and value. THE IMPENDING YEAR "IMPENDING CRISIS." BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Father Time is a hardy old fellow, forsooth;
He never lies down in a bed:—
Wide awake, with a scythe and a glass in his hands,
He jogs, without resting, shead.
In a Union, as freemen, since "Seventy-Six,"
We've welcomed the years in his train;
And the sons of the fathers now sainted in heav'n
That Union will ever maintain. That Union will ever maintain.

There's a talk of a "crisis impending" just now:
But why have a crisis? oh, why?

Of the dear sister States, in a sisterhood bound,
Oh! where is the "sta" who would cry.!

Not a sister beloved of the whole thirty-two
With tears in her eyes will be seen:
In allegiance true, 'neath the "red, white and blue,'
They'll stand like the valiant "Thirteen." "We are one!" they will shout, "and no crisis we fear,
The ties of our Union to sover;—
In his talous our Eagle shall bear to the skies,
"E Pluribus Unum" for ever:— For our wives and our daughters, with brooms and with tongs,

Would march with our aunts and our nieces,
To prevent any "crisis, impending" o'er us,
From knocking our Union to pieces. Not a crisis could stand 'gainst the women in arms,
From homes of the brave ond the free;
For each man on our soil, with a soul in his breast,
A helper, to help them, would be.
Then, hurrah for our Country! enshrined in our hearts;
No crisis impending we'll fear—
To a man, we will rise in the might of the right,
And wish her a "Happy New Year." And wish her a "Happy New Year."

And the wish will be answered by Him who hath blest
Our States, for His glory silied:—
The confederate knot, He hath kopt ever firm,
Shall never be cut or untied:
But the hosts never conquered—in loyalty strong—
Will listen to Duty's behest;
And so act, if a conflict of States should occur,
That th' conflict shall soon be repressed.
We are stated and the flags of our Labou shall first. That th' conflict shall soon be repressed.

We are said and the flag of our Union shall float
On high, o'er the famed Tower Hall:
And the North and the South, with the East and the West,
On Bennett for Clorenton will call:
For the great Tower Hall as a NATIONAL house,
As firm as the Union shall stan 1;
And most cleeply the callers shall all be supplied,
Whatever their orders command. Then the vests, ever best, will be buttoned up strong,
O'er hearts which of joy will be full,
And, though patrons of Bennatt on wol may get warm,
Yet none o'er their eyes he will pull:
But his Bard, for the good of the country, will write—
The rights of all sections defending—

Scrofula, or King's Evil is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously counsed by magnetical disease low living disease. not destroy. The scroulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food; impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the conever to its origin, it is nereutary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

their children." Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul cor-ruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitu-tions not only suffer from scrofulous com-plaints, but they have far less power to with-stand the attacks of other diseases; conse-quently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which de-cimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many the energies of life, so that scrofulous constituin this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause. One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking in-fection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate

It is con-bined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SEIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pinples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIA-TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief, in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.
