We regret to notice the fact, that our "St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association" is about to become political machine. A fierce and successful struggle for an "opposition" Directory, prevailed on Saturday at the election, and Col. J. R. Barret, the able and energetic President of the Association since its organization, is thus defeated to give place to some rising "Star" in the ranks of the "opposition." We regret this very much, for aside of Col. Barret's political opinions—which he never used in connection with the Association-he made a very efficient presiding officer, and the great success which has attended the Association is mainly due his untiring exertions. Whilst Col. Barret was at Washington, representing this district in the Halls of Congress, this little political trick was successfully played out. We regret it, if for nothing more, than the future success of the Association. Our Legislature has done little or nothing since it has been in session. A County Commissioners' Bill passed on

The celebrated Indian brave, "Hole-in-the-Day," has recently constructed for himself a fine mansion, on his eserved 640 acres, at Crow Wing, on the Upper Mississipi river. He says that the house has cost him $6.000 n gold—it is nearly surrounded with a piazza. The Chief is living with six wives in all the splendor of a Mormon Bishop. His parlor is furnished with seventee ocking chairs, while the walls are hung with eight large portraits, seven of which represent himself, and the other Major Culien. Three of his wives are old, like himself, the other three young and beautiful. They live like "white folks," all sit at the same table, and have the best china and coffee sets for every day use. The old man has over one hundred acres of his reserve under cultivation, which brings forth bountifully. His wives work a large garden well stocked with flowers. He is certainly a "gry old

This is all done for effect. Let us see how near the truth they come; let us present the record, and let it speak for itself. Thus it will be seen that instead of there being a decrease in the number of slaves, there is a considerable increase And so long as the Black Republican-Abolition party exists this will continue to be the case, whilst the Rice Negro Law of this State will drive from our bonders all the worthless free negroes-and you can rest assured Pennsylvania will get her full share of all the free negroes the recent stringent laws of the South have enforced, and in less than three years these same free negroes will be comnow leaving the South, through compulsion, will select their future homes where the Black Republicans prepon-derate, and as Pennsylvania seems to have wheeled into the Black Republican ranks, she will receive her full proportion. Let the voters of your State drive Black Republi canism from its borders, and the tide of free negro immi gration will soon cease. The laboring men and the mechanics of Pennsylvania owe it to their families, as well as themselves, to protect their rights, and this they can only do by casting their votes against the men who love the negro better than the white man, and against the party which encourages the immigration of free negroes Any sensible man must know that these negroes mus instance a white man is deprived of that labor-the nigger will be preferred, because he can afford to work cheaper Very few, perhaps, of your laboring men know the numher of free negroes scattered all over the South, and which the recent Laws enacted in the different slave-holding States, will soon start Northward. We are glad to see the Breckinridge spirit at work in Pennsylvania—let the Keystone vote for him, and after a few ballots he will be the man, and the President in November next. SHOCKING AND UNNATURAL CRIME.

Justice Reynolds, of this village, on Tuesday

A CHILD BURNED BY ITS OWN MOTHER. A shocking and unnatural crime was mmitted in the south-east part of this town, about two miles from the village, on Friday the 6th inst. The particulars of this affair, as developed upon an investigation had before last, are as follows:

Julia Ann Cady, a married woman, is the mother of a bastard child, born before her marriage with Cady. She is a woman of very unprepossessing appearance, and is a low degraded being. She has repeatedly threatened the life of the child, a girl about vears old. About noon, on Friday last, the nother and child were alone in the house; the mother took a pail and went to the neighbors, ostensibly to procure a pail of water.—
While there her house was discovered to be fire was found to proceed from the bed, and was speedily extinguished. The child was found out doors, badly burned, especially about the arms and head. The mother accounted for the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the country of the feet by a special process of the country of the accounted for the fact, by saying that some of the neighbors must have put her in bed and set the bed on fire. This unreasonable statement, added to the fact that the child's burns did not correspond with having been burned in bed, and that it had on a sack gown which covered a portion of the burns in the game line this season. He shipped over 2,000 dcz-n and which gown was not burned at all, excited suspicion that the woman herself was the cause of the burning; whereupon her ment and from the evidence adduced and circumstances developed, it appears that the dead, then putting on it the sack gown, she placed it in the bed and set it on fire, and went to the neighbors. The child however recovered itself so far as to escape from the bed and out of doors where it was found.—

The child is seriously and parkers fattle.

Prof. Duvall's Galvanic Oil .-- The AS Prof. Divall's Galvanto Oil.—The Great Rheumatic and Neursigned Remedy.

SUPFERING HUMANITY READ THIS:
The undersigned takes this method of informing the public generally that there is no medicine now offered to the public that is equal to DUVALU'S GALVANIC OIL in relieving suffering humanity.

I was an observer of its effects in a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied free he Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was saleep, and when awakened was free from pain, and continued so. This is a positive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Felon was cured in nearly the same length of time.

I induced his friends to try the virtue of your preparation—they did so, as the last resort; and, to their astonishment and joy, he began to improve, got better and better, and now, so far as I know, he is a hale and stout man. Baltimore Tobacco Market.

The demand for the lower grades of Maryland Tobacco continues good, and considerable sales might be effected if sellers would accede to the views of buyers who seem indisposed to pay an advance on the low rates which have prevailed for the past few mouths. Sales to a moderate extent have been made this week, at prices rather in favor of sellers, but we do not make any change in quotations, viz: frosted Maryland at $2: ground leaf at $2:@7: common at $2.50@3 50; middling $4:@4.50; good middling $6@5.50; good teaf $6@6.50; and fine at $7:@12. In Ohio Tobacco there has been nothing doing. There have been some small sales of Keutucky this week at a bout former rates, which we continue to quote, viz: common lugs at $4.25:@4.15; good do. at $6.50@7.50; injectior leaf at $5.75.@6.25; good do. at $6.50@7.50; injectior leaf at $5.75.@6.25; good of. at $6.50@7.50; injectior leaf at $5.75.@6.25; good of. at $6.50@7.50; inseat $7.50@9; choice at $10@12; and rich heavy Kentucky at $7:@12.50. jan 24 QUEEN BESS," THE PET MOUSE.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL. For several years we had kept in a little tin cottage, an Italian white mouse, on which we had bestowed the title, "Queen Bess." She seemed to possess something more than instinct, and had been taught many things which made her very interesting, and the pet of the house. On Sunday morning we found her dead in her cottage home.

"Queen Bess" is dead, our darling mouse;
And vacant now the little house
In which she lived so long.
We mourn her loss, and must indite
A dirge-like strafu-oh! who will slight
For good "Queen Bess" a song; for good "Queen Bess" a song !
In robe of fur, as ermine white,
She moved, with fairy footsteps light,
In more than queenly grace.
Oh! such a mouse was never known—
Her brilliant eyes like rubles shone,
And lustrous made her face.

But she is dead, and, though a mouse, There is a sadness in our house— If not a grief profound— For little "Bess," of home a part, A corner held in ev'ry heart, Where love for hor was found. Where love for nor was round.

No more, from wool of lambkins white,
Will she step out by day or night
Her food and drink to seek.—
No more she'il turn her shell-like ear,
That she her whisper'd name may hear,
When we that name may speak. Wen we make may speak.

No more will "Bridget" have to please
The good "Queen Bess" with cake and cheese
And table dainties all:—

It made her happy this to do,
For well the mouse her kind friend knew,
And came at Bridget's call.

No more with pleasure will be seen. The cottage home, in which our queen A life of quiet lei!—
No more my wife, with (other cares,)
Will have to bring from "way up stairs,"
The wool to make its bed. Alas, no more!—My wife is near; I see within her eye a tear. Which must the lid run o'er:-Well may the tears her syclids wet;
For good "Queen Bess," our household pet,
Will be with us no more!

There is no other mouse like her!— Our loss is great; but why demur? The loss we're forced to bear; But, if for mice there be a heaven, TO little "Bessy" will be given A place the nicest there. A mouse is but a little thing, Yet we are moved of one to sing To you, our readers, all;—
If you for little things don't care,
Then seek the great—the bargains rare.

$10,429,72 Balance in the hands of the Treasurer, January 1st, 1860..... . 2,441.67 $12.871.39

The amount of loss to the Company since the 12th as sessment, (made Nov. 9th, 1858.) is $3.908.00. to wit: A partial loss to the stock of merchandise of Levi G. Kemper, $1,500.00; John Henthorn's barn and contents and hog pen, $2.275.00; (This loss, neither the insured nor any of bis family or neithbors were ablest form.) any of his immly or neighbors, were able to form an opinion as to the origin of the fire nor have the Committee of Investigation been able to arrive at any conclusion in regard to it—it yet remains a mystery) Martin Miller's spring house and contents, $123.00; and smaller losses to the amount of $10.50.

The present indebtedness of the Company is $4.405.00, to wit: For money borrowed from Thomas 8. Woods, note and interest, $1.830.00; also, from Margaret Ferree note and interest, $568.00; and for the following losses yet unpaid: to John Hentborn, $2.75.00; and to Martin Miller, $123.00. The last assessment of 2 per cent, on the amount of prenium notes, made November 8th, on the amount of prenium notes, made November 8th, note and interest, $668.00; and for the following losses yet unpaid: to John Hentborn, $2,275.00; and to Martin Miller, $123.00. The last assessment of 2 per cent, on the amount of premium notes, made November 8th, 1859, when collected, will be sufficient to meet the liabilities of the Company. When it's remembered that three-fourths of the estimated value of property insured, amounts to use'ly six million of dollars, the losses for the past year have been comparatively small. The increased amount of Insurance during the year is $114,088.20. The amount of premium notes above stated at $254,097.50. and the amount of insurance $5,977,905.22, is what appears to be in force at this time. There are always some policies retained in the hands of members which have become vold by sale, r-moval or otherwise, the amount of which is only ascertained when members are called upon by the collector. Many appear to be delinquents in consequence of neglecting to send their policies to the office to be canceled, which always reduces the apparent amount of insurance and premium notes. The reduction, however, is but small, as will be observed in the above statement. Members who hold such policies will confer a favor by sending them to the office for cancelation.

"The wide and still spreading popularity of "Home Thearnicals," or Private Histrimites, amongst the most fashionable and refined circles, together with the repeated calls for a form of Dramas or Plays, differing in their structure and effects from those of other works in circulation, have induced the Publisher to present this work, in which will be found, along with some original pieces, a large number of the plays, comedies and farces of the most popular Dramatists, from the days of Shakspeare to those of the present period; all or most of which are compressed into one act, and into parlor scenes, or such as can easily be arranged by the ordinary household resources.

It has been the particular study and aim of the compiler and publisher, to mit all sentences, words or allusions, such as could be in the remotest way objectionable to the most fastidious, and to retain the plot, the passion and the moral of each play, in such a condensed form as would render them an available, diverting and elevating vehicle moral of each play, in such a condensed form as would render them an available, diverting and elevating vehicle of amusement for the Parlor, the School-room, or the Ly-

Iramatic representations.

There are few writers in our country better calculated to write, complie, and adapt plays for Parlor Amusements, than Silas S. Steele. Author himself, of over eighty plays, were yone of which bears the impress of a master hand; and containing a moral, which few authors deem requisite for containing a moral, which lew attnots used requisites to a drama.

Perhaps a more perfect work of the kind is not to be found at the present time in the world, and it certainly reflects the highest credit on the author and publisher in the production of the one in question. The insiplic trash, and nonsensical charades, and drawing-room dramas, which we have seen and heard, must now yield to something more elegant, refined, interesting and amusing. Silas S. Steele's "Book of Plays for Home Amusement," will form a new rain this description of domestic dramatic literature, and create a taste to witness those productions from which he has culled out only a scene or two. The purpose of the work is to record the actions of some of the most celebrated of the many heroes and patriots who distinguished themselves by eminent services in the Revolutionary War, in the Southern States of the Union. Among these, General Marion, whose lite occupies a considerable portion of the volume, was one of the most remarkable characters who figured on the grand theatre of war in those times "that tried men's souls." Marion's achievements were of the most heroic and romantic character, and are always read with interest and admiration.

chievements were of the most heroic and romanue char-cter, and are always read with interest and admiration. General Moultrie, the illustrious desender os the fortress which bears his name, is not less interesting in his way. General Pickens, was the companion of Marion in some of his daring enterprises, and one of the most useful of all he general officers who assisted in recovering the Southern of his daring enterprises, and one of the most user to tan the general officers who assisted in recovering the Southern States from the enemy.
Governor Rutledge rendered services to the cause, of the most important nature, and displayed a character and ability equal to every emergency of those critical and perlious times.

Of several other Military Commanders and Statesmen, we have given but slight sketches, in consequence of the brief space to which we were limited.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases. wanted an enertive antidote for the diseases. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Schofula and Schofulous Complaints, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCRES, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AP-PECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the state of second listing these ends. But reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of or any thing else. Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests name from the load of oblody which rest upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intend-ed to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on
