THE LOST STEAMER HUNGARIAN--SUPPOSED LOSS OF ALL ON BOARD.

HALIFAX, Feb. 21 .- The following is the only news yet obtained from the scene of the

The large steamship ashore on the west side of Cape Sable, is the steamship Hungarian, which sailed from Queenstown, on the 9th inst., for Portland. She is a total wreck, and all her orew and passengers are supposed to be lost. A small portion of her hull is now visible at low water.

Nothing like the news despatched for the Associated Press can be found, but it is thought it may be in the mail, a small portion of which has been saved in a damaged state. One passenger ticket has been found, with the name of Ellen Sheehan upon it.

The following has been sent from Cape Sable to Messrs. Cunard & Co: "A steamer's lights were seen on Monday morning at three o'clock; at daybreak the spars and pipes were standing, and at 10 A. M. all had gone by the board. Then the ship settled fast. A heavy sea was running, breaking mast high over the ship. Communication with the ship was impossible. All on board must have been lost, unless the boats left the ship before daylight, which is not likely. At low water part of the ship is still visible."

This is all the news that can be obtained to night The Hungarian left Liverpool on Wednes day the 8th inst, under the command of Capt. Jones, and touched at Queenstown, Ireland, as customary with the vessels of the line, steaming away the next afternoon (Thursday, the 9th inst,) for Portland. The Hungarian was on this occasion on her third voyage from Liverpool to Portland, her preceding trips having been accomplished in good time and under very favorable circumstances. She was a screw propeller belonging to the Mon-treal Ocean Mail Steamship Company, who own seven vessels, running alternatively between Liverpool and Quebec, Portland of Montreal, in connection with the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada, just as suited the interests of trade and travel. UALIFAX, Feb. 25.—The Hungarian's clear-

Oats Rye Cloverseed ance has been found, from which it appears Whiskey, in hhds that she had 360 passengers, mainly, of course, in the steerage.

No names have, as yet, been received. [Note.-On the contrary, Mitchell's Steam Shipping Journal, of London, says the Hungarian, had only 70 passengers] The crew, &c., of the Hungarian are supposed to have numbered over one hundred f the reported number of passengers is correct, the total number of persons on board must have been nearly five hundred. It is not ascertained that any persons have been saved.

"-COMMON SENSE * DECISION .- Some trouble having recently occurred among the Abolitionists connected with the Fugitive Slave Aid Society, at Syracuse, N. Y., a suit was brought, in which the plaintiff was non suited, on the ground of being engaged in an illegal business, the judge stating in his decision that as the constitution requires the rendition of fugitive slaves, any society which proposes to aid fugitives in escaping, and thus violating the law, is an illegal association. to be carried to the Supreme The case is Court of New York.

DEAR JEFF.-I have just read in the Jeffer sonian. under the head of News Items, a paragraph headed, A Common Sense Decision. I thought I would just put you in possession of a few facts in relation to the matter. The Rev. Cyrus Prindle, the defendant, was once a minister of the M. E. Church. He became a rabid Abolitionist and left the church with Lucius R. Matlack and others, to form the church now known as the American Wesleyan Methodist, whose chief distinction is, that it admits no slaveholders to its pale. He is the editor of the organ of that denomination, a bitter anti fugitive slave law man, and also an under ground railroad man. The cause of the suit was his accusing the plaintiff of something sinister in the management of under ground railroad affairs. They are birds of a feather, except that they accuse each other of rascality. Is it not both instructive and entertaining that the defendant should non-Suit his opponent on the ground that he is engaged in an illegal business? — West Chester Jeffersonian. from the Fifth Story.—About a year since, in the United States Court at Cincinnati, a man entenced to tentiary for counterfeiting coin, and he had hardly commenced his prison labor before one of his former associates, a girl named Mary Fuller, also made her debut in the same institution. Her misfortune was, that she was sentenced for two years, while Cheeseman served out his time and was discharged on Saturday last. On Saturday night the girl made her escape from the fifth story of the prison, by passing out of her window and passing along the side of the building, upon a cornice or water table about eighteen inches broad. Passing along the front of the build-ing, at the immense height of fifty or sixty The leap was taken—proved a safe one—and the dauntless woman next fastened to hands, and swinging from the roof, passed down on the outside of the wall over windows where other convicts were sleeping and down to torra firma, where, at a distance of fortyt from the ground, with nothing to hold to,

By the time-ly expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is ob-structed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of hasting nearth. Sconer or later sometiming must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown. Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla,

During late years the public have been mis-

During late years the public have been mis-led by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsapa-rilla, but often no curative properties whatev-er. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for pelieving it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intend-ed to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on 43-Prepared Glue.--Little conveniences for general family uss, are often of more value than what are called "great inventions." There is no housekeeper that has not been often annoyed by squeaky, rickety chairs, sofas, tables, etc., which have become so by the joints where they are put together becoming strunken and loose, and so long as furniture is left in this condition, there is constant durage of a control superbury. And easin such and so long as furniture is left in this condition, there is constant danger of a general smash-up. And again, such accidents as breakage of furniture do occusionally occur "in the best regulated familles." To remedy the annoy-ance and perplexity occasioned by these troubles, we keep in the house a small quantity of Prepared Glue, which can be applied to the affected parts by any person of ordinary akill, with much less trouble than sending the article to a cabinet-maker, to say nothing of the saving of expense-"The kind we use is labelod "Spalding's Celebrated Prepar-ed Glue-useful in every family," and as we have found it a valuable addition to our cabinet of "hitle conveniences." ully concur in the sentiment of the label .- From the k Daily Tribune, July 22, 1859.

CALL ON AN ASTROLOGIST. BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

An astrologist—a "Madam" Who should look through prison bara— Had a call from one who wished her To consult for him the stars:

А

So the placet-reading "Madam," With a pencil in her hand, Figured out the hidden future, While a horoscope she scanned, Then her eyes, which beamed with wonder, From the mystic page she took, And she said: "I've read your fate, sir, To the Decorem book In the planetary book

And the star which ruled in heaven At the moment of your birth, Shows that you, by some misfortune, Will lose all you have on earth. It will come when least expected, And you sorely may lament, For. however much your riches, You'll be stripped of ev'ry cent.

That misfortune now is o'er you, lt may come at any hour; For the stars have so decreed it. And you cannot shun their power. Then she told of future blessings, Which would fill his purse with gold, And she asked for half a dollar, For the truths she'd read and told.

So the man into his pocket Put his hand, which out he drew, Saying, "Wise and wondrons 'Madam," What you've said, alas! is true:

A misfortune is upon me, And the one no doubt, you meant— As you said the stars foreboded, I am stripped of ev'ry cent.

But, upon my word of honor, For the truths you did unfold; When the time, of which you told me, Shall my peckets fill with gold, You shall have the half a dollar--This I swear by ruddy Mars! We are victims of misfortune, But 'tis owing to our stars."

With these words of consolation, From the house the speaker went-He was ont of "Madam's" graces, But not out a single cent:

And he said, while upward gazing, "Though the planets on me fall, I will go, a suit to purchase At the Mammoth Tower Hall!

May I ever buy my clothing At that best of all Bazzara; And may fortune telling "Madams" On policemen see the stars !"
