FOR GOVERNOR: HENRY D. FOSTER, of Westmoreland Election -- Tuesday, March 6th.

"ALDERMAN-SOUTH WEST WARD. JOHN A. SHEAFF.

The senior editor of the Intelligencer returns his sincere thanks for the handsome vote he received in the Convention. The six delegates from this county behaved nobly all through, and deserve the praise of their constituency, whilst the other gentlemen who stood by them will not soon be forgotten by the Democracy of old Lancaster.

GEN. HENRY D. FOSTER. The unanimous nomination of this distinguished gentleman for the office of Governor, by the Democratic State Convention, has already sent a thrill of joy throughout the length and breadth of the Commonwealth .party, and for the first time in the history of she is forced to it. the last two or three years are the Democracy united as one man, and prepared to do battle, shoulder to shoulder, against the common enemy of our faith.

The name of Gen. FOSTER is a tower of the State. The nominee is known by reputation to every man, woman and child throughout the broad limits of the old Keystone, and Democracy, but also the good and true merely to suggest that on this and many National, Union loving men who have hereto kindred points a very formidable tu quoque fore been acting outside of our organization. argument could easily be raised by any

We congratulate our Democratic friends party will resound over the entire Union, and brawling about the supposed shortcomings of Keystone State has spoken in a potential emanated from the City of Reading will responded to in every quarter of the Confed the weight of popular disapproval, that the hand of the political resurrectionist will never again be able to bring up their foul carcases and expose them to the light of day.

THE DEMOCRACY JUBILANT. We have been at many State Conventions and have witnessed more or less enthusiasm at them, but never anything to compare with what we saw and heard at the Reading Convention after the nomination of Gen. FOSTER was announced. It was a perfect avalanche of rejoicing. Shout after shout made the welkin ring. Joy beamed from every countenance in the Convention, in the hotels, and on the streets; and the scene at the ratification meeting in the evening, defies anything like a correct description. The same state of things existed, we learn, at Greensburg-the home of Gen. Foster-at Philadelphia, at Pittsburg, and everywhere else upon the reception of the intelligence. It was a glorious and auspicious opening of the campaign of 1860, and will carry us to certain triumph in October and November next.

UNION AND HARMONY.

The Democratic party of Pennsylvania is "itself again." After the loss of two consecutive elections, the delegates of the people who assembled at Reading, on Wednesday last, and the immense multitude of outsiders from every quarter of the Commonwealth, were determined that old sores and grievances should all be healed up, and that a third defeat, immediately following on the heels of the other two, should not be within the range of probabilities, if it could, by any means, be prevented. In this they happily succeeded. By gones are now by gones. The old watchfires of the party have been re-kindled by the happy action of the Convention. A spirit of conciliation and compromise was inculcated by everybody, and the result is a united, hopeful and jubilant party from one end of the Commonwealth to the other. This state of things will ensure the triumphant election of our excellent Gubernatorial candidate, Gen. HENRY D. FOSTER, to be followed with an equally brilliant result at the ensuing Presidential election.

The first of March, 1860, will long be remembered in the annals of Pennsylvania. as a day fraught with the happiest consequences not only to this State, but also to the peace, safety and perpetuity of the Union.

RATIFICATION MEETING AT READ-ING.

On Thursday evening an immense meeting of the Democracy of Old Berks was held in the Court House, at Reading, to ratify the nomination of Gen. HENRY D. FOSTER. It was presided over by that veteran and whole souled Democrat, Gen. George M. Kein, and among the Vice Presidents were Col. John RANKIN and WILLIAM T. McPHAIL, Esq., of this city. The Keystone Club of Philadelphia, with an excellent band of music, were present. The meeting was addressed by Hon. P. C. Shannon of Pittsburg, Mayor Sanderson of Lancaster, Hon. ISAAC HUGUS of Somerset, Maj. S. H. TATE of Bedford, Hon. RICHARD VAUX of Philadelphia, and ALEXANDER McKINNEY. Esq., of Greensburg. We never saw anything like the enthusiasm which prevailed. Old Berks will give at least 6,000 majority for our glorious standard bearer. We look to our friends Kessler and Getz to verify this pre-

DEATH OF WM. B. FOSTER, Jr. It is with deep regret we announce the death of WM. B. FOSTER, Esq., Vice President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, who expired on Sunday morning, at his residence in Philadelphia, after a short illness. Eminent as a Civil Engineer, he proved himself one of the ablest of our Canal Commissioners, and was universally respected for the probity of his public and private character. He has been connected in various important capacities with the Pennsylvania Railroad from the commencement of its construction to the pres-

In his demise the Pennsylvania Railroad Company loses a most efficient and zealous

LOOK AT HOME. Our superlatively pious and surpassingly philanthropic neighbors of the New England States, says the New York Daily News, are a puzzle, socially and politically. They are forever shricking at the institutions of the South-forever turning up the whites of the eyes at the social cruelty they imagine for negro servitude-forever flinging the odium theologium at the heads of sinners who think not as they do. But do they ever look at home? We know that England, in the depth of sanctimony, will send out an army and spend millions to compel Russia to allow certain Turks "full liberty of worship," while she gives no such full liberty to the Catholics in her own regions. She will fight for the religious rights of an Egyptian Pasha, but retain on her own law rolls the most odious religious proscription, such as forbidding the sovereign, or the Prime Minister, or the Lord Chancellor, or the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to be anything else than Protestant. The same England we know will send a fleet of war ships to insist upon "tenant right' for the Hungarian farmers, but turn a deaf ear to the appeals of the Irish for some sort of tenant right. She will contribute thousands of pounds to ameliorate the condition of the Poles or the Sandwich Islanders, but not a shilling's worth of duty for the wretched peasants of her Dorsetshires. She will preach all the year round about the crimes and No better man lives in the State, nor one impurities of some far off and objectionable more worthy in all respects to fill the chair land, but allow her own people to wallow in once occupied by a SNYDER and a SHUNK .- | miseries of vice such as ne other country has His nomination has acted like a charm upon | yet found the depths of. It is not her custom the jarring and discordant elements of the | to look at home until, by some "dire stress," So with the dominant propensity of New England. She wastes all her "best intentions" on what does not concern her. For the blacks of the South she sacrifices the energies which should be devoted to the whites strength, and has struck terror into the hearts of the North. For the blacks of the North. of the Republican party. The battle is half once they are freed from the care of the South, won already-the victory well nigh achieved. she has no more concern than for the poor The Opposition feel that they are doomed to whites whom she studiously neglects. It is an overwhelming defeat in October next. The not her fashion to look at home. Outside she at night, but, mistaking Hubley's for Zahm's, got into the united and harmonious action of the Reading takes all to be profanity; but at home she wrong place. He was convicted for this last of Convention has produced exultation in would find nearly all was irreverence and all the Democratic ranks, and dismay to the else was hypocrisy and pietism. We ask the cohorts of Republicanism in every county of people of Massachusetts, (as representing the "hub of New England,") whether the pauper whites of their State have any civil rights equal to the serving blacks of the South .he is known only to be beloved for his noble | They are in fact more completely slaves in and generous qualities of mind and of heart. every civil sense, and, as regards their very Around the standard of HENRY D. FOSTER children, than are the blacks. This we are will rally, not only a united and harmonious | not going to quarrel with. It is our purpose

Southern who pleased to trouble himself with everywhere at this auspicious opening of the | it. The filth and vice and wretchedness which great campaign of the present year. Past are said to belong to the poor houses of New dissensions were all buried at the Reading | England are enough to shame it into utter Convention, and the mighty voice of a united silence, if it had any sensitiveness, when carry with it joy and hope to the remotest other parts of the Union. The white servants limits of this widely extended Republic. The | (if such a term be allowed in fanatic New England) who minister to the wants of the voice, and the thunder tones which have people there are a thousand fold less happily situated than are the negroes of the South increase in volume and intensity, and be against whose servitude so much is ranted.-Would to Heaven that the puritist Tartruff eracy, until Black Republicanism and its who represent Black Republicanism in religio kindred isms shall be buried so deep under and politics here and elsewhere would only look at home. If they will but measur themselves and their doings by the wanwhich they apply to others, they must become somewhat conscious of pharisaisms of which they are so constantly guilty. "Look at home," is a sound and sensible maxim for all who are likely to be addicted to the holierthan-thou principle, be it evinced in politics or theology

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

Governor Morgan, the President of the Republican National(!) Committee, gives notice that the time for holding the National (!) Convention at Chicago has been changed, and that it will now be held in May, instead of June. The following is the eard of the Annual Control of the Convention at Chicago has been changed, and that it will now be held in May, instead of June. The following is the eard of the Convention of the Convention at Chicago has been changed, and that it will now be held in May, instead of June. The following is the eard of the Convention of

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE, ) ALBANY, Feb. 28, 1860. \The question of the propriety of changing the time of holding the Republican National Convention having been submitted to the members of the Republican National Committee, and their views having been communicated by letter, it is determined, in accordance with the wishes of a majority thereof, that the Convention be held on Wednesday, the 16th of May next. Edwin D. Morgan, Chairman. (Signed,)

Wм. M. Chase, Secretary. JOSEPH SMITH, JR .- Efforts to Place Him at the Head of Mormonism -A correspondent of the St Louis Republican, writing from Nauvoo, under date of the 15th ult., says:— Joseph Smith, Jr., son of the Prophet, is here as also the other members of the family. Joseph is understood among the Saints to be the successor of his father in his prophetic office. Be that as it may, it is true that he now entertaining a delegation from Salt Lake, who are using every persuasion in their power to convince the young prophet that he is called of God forthwith to assume the office and proceed to Salt Lake, and take the head of the Mormon Council. Joseph is a man of good strong sense, and should he undertake the station. I have no doubt would endeavor to make a reform among his people. He is decidedly against polygamy, in favor of obe-dience to law, and opposed, in any form, to milking the gentiles.

It is to be hoped that he will undertake the task, and succeed in making Salt Lake the home of upright, law abiding citizens, nstead of a den of thieves. Joseph, however is beset on the other side by an organization council at Amboy on the 6th of April next, to come their head and to call around him all the faithful. It is not known that he will isten to any of their proposals, but certain it is, if he refuses to exercise the power within nis control, he has a quality not given to common men, to resist when tempted with the certainty of power equal to that of any other living man, a power that needs not the armies of France and Russia to enforce it, but a power that is over the mind, and absolutely ontrols over half a million of souls, without force and without expense. A British officer writing from Teheran, Persia, to the "London Times," remarks;—

"A Cathartic Pill manufactured by an American Chemist' (Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Low-Complaint that threatened his life. This simple fact, as might be expected, renders the Americans immensely popular here, while we English are overlooked. Doubtless our own scholars made the discoveries which he employs, and thus it is in everything; we do the labor, then the mousing Americans put their mark on it and take the reward. Dr. Aver is idolized by the Court and its retainers here, which will doubtless be reflected to him on a gold snuff box, or diamond hilted sword. while not the name even of Davy, Christoson or Brodie—the great lights by which he shines is known."—New York Sunday Paper.

More cider is made in Connecticut than in any other State. The New Haven Journal says, in the town of Cheshire, within a few miles of that city, four establishments have made the present season, 1,500 to 2,000 barrels each, which is already disposed of, use. This, when clarified is as pure as wine. sold readily in New York to bottle, for $4 per barrel for the liquid, and when bottled is in great demand in the South, at $5 per dozen. The business is rapidly increas-

PRINTER TO CONGRESS. THOMAS H. FORD, of Ohio, formerly Lieutenant Governor of that State, and a Republican to boot, has been elected Printer to the U. S. House of Representatives.

ALDERNANIC ELECTION .- Democrats of th . W. Ward do not forget the election to-day for Alderman Let every one turn out, and "give a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether" for our excellent candidate JOHN A. SHEAFF. He is deserving of our united and er thusiastic support. The polls open at 8 o'clock, A. M. and close at 7 P. M. THE HOWARD EVENINGS .- The Court Room was filled to overflowing on Tuesday evening last, with as attentive, intelligent and select an audience as we have lecturer was Rev. J. ISODORE MOMBERT. Subject-"The Abuses of Speech," and it was our good fortune to b entertained most captivatingly and gloriously for three quarters of an hour. The slanderers, news-mongers, cave droppers, busy-bodies, and in fact all the pestiferous an odious characters of the community received such a scath ing as we never heard before, and yet overything said was ched in the choicest language. Mr. M. is an eloquent audience was that the lecture was so short. It was without doubt the best of the winter's course.

The discussion was participated in by Hon. Thomas E Burrowes, Maj. Ditmars, Judge Hayes, Mr. A. M. Frantz, Prof. Wise, Rev. Mr. Harbaugh, Prof. Porter, Rev. Mr. Krotel, President Gerhart and Judge Champneys. The next lecture of the course will be delivered this Tuesday) evening by Prof. THOMAS C. PORTER.

DESPERATE ATTACK .-- A convict in the Lan caster County Prison, named William Pennon, who was convicted at the November Sessions for burglary, in breaking nto Hubley's Grocery Store, on Thursday half-past 10 o'clock, made a daring attack upon Jay Cawell, Esq., Keeper of the Prison, with a knife, inflicting severe wound. Since his incarceration he has been en loved as a segar maker, and for the last week has prove exceedingly stubborn and troublesome. He was confine in his call, and deprived of food for several days past-Having several knives in his possession, and the keepe apprehending some difficulty with him went into the ce the purpose of obtaining them from the prisoner. Fennon became abusive, when the keeper threatened him with severer nunishment. At this threat he sprang at Mr. Cadhold of a stool with which he struck the prisoner over the a corner drew a knife—such as is used by segar makers the blade being three or four inches long and tapering to a sharp point—and struck the keeper in the left breast, over the heart. The knife penetrated to within Mr. Weigand, who heard the fracas, opportunely arrived at The wound, though a severe one, is thought not to be fatal. character. It will be recollected that he stole several gold rings from the Jewelry Store of G. M. Zahm & Co., some time last fall, and proposed to break in and rob the stor

THE LARGEST STEER IN THE WORLD .- The ammoth steer lately on exhibition at Funk's Merrimac lotel, North Prince street, and which was fed by Mr. John Sener, was lately slaughtered in Philadelphia, and weighed when closely dressed 2,453½ ibs. When in this city the steer weighed 3,445, and immediately before being killed

Suicipe.-On Tuesday last Deputy Coroner quest on the body of Andrew Miller, of Manor townshi which was found, about 3 o'clock, hanging from the limb of a tree in the woods of Benjamin Wertz, a short distance from Washington Borough. Deceased was a man about 50 vears of age, and leaves a family. Pecuniary troubles are Washington, about 12 o'clock, slightly intoxicated, an found hanging as above stated. He had climbed a chesnut ground, the rope used being scarcely more than a stout returned by the coroner's jury in accordance with these

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS, AND CLOSING OF THE MAILS AT THE CITY POST OFFICE.—The different Passenger Trains on the Pennsylvania and branch railroads leave thi city as follows:

th	LEAVE EASTWARD.
- 1	Fast Line	2.30 p	). m.
— i	Through Express	5.08 a	. m.
ffs	Lancaster Accommodation
43	Mail Train
n	Harrisburg Accommodation	4.12	. m.
	LEAVE WESTWARD,	_
ly	Through Express
re	Mail Train
16	Fast Line
nd	Harrisburg Accommodation
	Lancaster Accommodation
ne	Emigrant Train	2.20	a. m.
	CLOSING OF MAILS BY RAILROAD.
ch	Eastern Through Mail-For Philadelphia, New 1	York	and

t 8 a. m. Joy, Middletown, Harrisburg, Lewistown, Hun Tyrone, Altoona, Hollidaysburg (and Way Mail

l. m. r Lebanon, via: East Hempfield, Manheim, White Gak, Mount Hope and Cornwall, daily, at 2 p. m. r Millersville and Slackwater, daily, at 1 p. m.

and Farmersville, Tri-weekly, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 2 p. m. For Paradise, via: Greenland and Soudersburg, daily, at 2 p. m. or Litiz, via: Neffsville, daily, at 2 p. m.

). m. Lampeter, Tri-weekly, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 2 p. m. or New Holland, via: Binkley's Bridge, Leacock, Bareville Beartown, Bowmansville and Muddy Creek, daily, a Beartown, Bowmansvine and 12 m.
12 m.
12 m.
12 r. Phœnixville, via: New Holland, Blue Ball, Goodville, 14 m. Honeybrook, Chester Springs Churchtown, Morgantown, Honeybrook, Chester Springs, and Kimberton, Tri-weekly, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 12 m.
For Port Deposit, Md., via: Willow Street, Smithville, Buck, Chesnut Level, Green, Pleasant Grove, Rock Springs, Md.; and Rowlandsville, Md., Tri-weekly, Monday, Wednesday and Frilay at 6 a. m.

day and Friday, at 6 a. m.

For Colebrook, via: Swarr's Mill, Old Line, Sporting Hill and Mastersonville, Semi-weekly, Wednesday and Friday, at 6 a. m.
For Vogansville and Terre Hill, Tri-weekly, Monday, Thurs-

For Vogansville and Terre Hill, Ittl-weekly, monage, and Saturday, at 2 p. m.
For Liberty Square, via: Conestoga, Marticville, Colemaville, Mount Nobo, Betheeda and Rawlinsville, Senweekly, Wednesday and Saturday, at 1 p. m.
For New Danville, weekly, Wednesday, at 9 a. m.
Office hours, from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. On Sunday, from Postage to California, Oregon and Washington Territories, 10 cents.

Letters, alleged to be valuable, will be registered, and a receipt given therefor, on application and payment of the registration fee of five cents, in addition to the regular postage.
All letters are required to be pre-paid with stamps before the near he mailed.
H. B. SWARR, Postmaster.

For The Lancaster Intelligencer.

LETTER FROM WEST EARL--ABOLI-TIONISM.

MESSES. EDITORS: Young Blair's speech, delivered in the Cooper Institute, New York, on the evening of the 25th nit., requires a word or two. He denies that he is an Abolitionist, but let any candid man read his speech and then decide for himself. He has the impudence to take in vain lisquise.

He goes on to say that such a man as Jackson "would Ha goes on to say that such a man as Jackson "would negotiate for territory in the American tropics [negotiate for territory in the American tropics [negotiate for territory in the American tropics [negotiate for the African race of the freedmen of the African race of the Samble that the nearts of the Samble Party—Negroes in Congress; and then we would have just what would delight the hearts of the Sambe Party—Negroes in Congress? Shades of Washington! Jesferson! Jackson! Clay!

Aye—Clar. And if any National Union Democrat tells me lienty Clay mas a Whig, I auswer him, "Yes, sir; you are right, but read again his speeches and then say whether to all intents and purposes he was not a Democrat!" Were theny Clay now living he would be a National Democrat. In November next cast his vote for the Democratic nomines. True-hearted old line Whig in Lancaster county will in November next cast his vote for the Democratic nomines. True-hearted old line Whigs cannot and will not do otherwise. And what have we to do with slavery! The Southern people are able to take care of their own affairs. Let us mind our business, and "let the South atons." And when we find an individual assisting a slave to escape let us wind him. [The Legislature will pass a law this session making lynching unnecessary.]

I would also suggest that if the people of Lancaster gentlemen such as Hon. I. E. Hiester, Col. W. B. Fordney, or H. M. North. Esq., of Columbia, to repressent us in Congress. A. J. Neff, Esq., in the back ground—his star is rising. This may, perhaps, be thought to be taking Father lime by his only remaining lock at an uncalled-for hour, but it is never too early to suggest anything beneficial to an individual or a community.

ns keeps very docile this Winter. Well an incividual or a community.

"Daddy" Stevens keeps very docile this Winter. Well he knows that any approach to such ianguage as he disgraced Lancaster county and Congress with, at a former session, would be corrected with a "blue pill," about the size of a "buckshot." "Its actonishing what a perfect control that old man has over his tongue[]] But, perhaps, the "Congressional Reports" I read from day to day are not correct[]] Then let a nigger-worshipper send me a corrected copy.

Should any Republican [and I protest against the misnomer] chance to read this, I would respectfully request him to read Mr. O'Connor's argument in the Lemmon Slave Case, reported in the New York Herald of Thursday, January 26th. Every white man in Christendom should read it. Also, the speech of Senator Nicholson in the Senate, January 30th. 1869. And let Bepublicans [Abolitionists in disguise] remember that if ever they irritate the South to that degree that her people take up arms—let them remember that the South has many friends in Pennsylvania, and such friends as will do the "right thing." Pennsylvanians are remarkable for correct action.

For instance, the Pennsylvania delegation to the Charleston Convention will without doubt go for Vice President Treckinridge. But if there is any dissatisfaction with him hey will go for Stockton or Cobb, all good men, sound a corns. Should there happen to be much opposition to her is coming to his senses—in order to save nim from hanging! Konrs, truly, EBH BEN HASSAN, THE ARAB.

MONT GRIFFIN, Feb. 11th, 1860. [L*]

CITY AND COUNTY AFFAIRS. Democratic State Convention.

HENRY D. FOSTER, OF WESTMORELAND. NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR BY ACCLAMATION.

Selection of an Electoral Ticket and Delegates to Charleston.

HARMONIOUS AND ENTHUSIASTIC PROCEEDINGS READING, Feb. 29. State Convention assembled at 11 o'clock, A. M., in the Court House, which was filled to overflowing. Punctually at the hour named the assemblage was called to order by Robert Tyler, Esq., the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee.

Isaac Leech, Esq., of Philadelphia, nominated George N. Smith, of Cambria, as temporary Chairman. Simultaneously, Wm. V. McGrath nominated Wm. P. Schell, of Bed-

Much confusion and excitement was occa sioned by the movement.

The Chairman recognized Mr. Leech as having the floor, but Mr. McGrath still claimed John Cessna, of Bedford, however, obtained a hearing, and moved that the Chair appoint two tellers, who should call the roll and receive the votes of the delegates for Chairman.

Mr. Leech said if this were offered as an endment he was willing to accept it. Mr. Cessna moved that his proposition be considered as an amendment to the amend-This was carried by a large vote.

The Chair then appointed Messrs. Leech and Cessna as tellers. The list of delegates was then called. When the First Senatorial District was called, there being a contested seat, Mr. Leech said that he was authorized to withdraw the name of Gen. Wm. Reilly as a delegate, for the sake of peace and harmony.

At the conclusion of the vote the tellers reported to the Chairman, who announced that George N. Smith had received 68 votes and Wm. P. Schell 58 The announcement was received with ap

Mr. Smith was conducted to the chair, and made a brief address, returning thanks for the important political trust that had been confided to him, and invoked concord and harmony among the delegates. He hoped that the Convention would nominate a candidate for Governor that every Democrat in the State can vote for cordially. He referred to the disturbed state of the political elements, and urged the necessity for united action to accomplish for the National Democracy signal defeat of the sectional Black Republi-

Thomas B. Searight, William A. Galbraith, Nelson W. Riser and Dr. John K. Raub were appointed Secretaries. On motion of Mr. Cessna, the rules of the SUICIDE.—On Tuesday last Deputy Coroner House of Representatives were adopted for the Hollingsworth, of Columbia, was called upon to hold an the government of the Convention. On motion of Mr. Cessna, the roll of the delegates whose seats are not contested was called, and their credentials presented. The ontested seats to be settled afterwards.

The call of the roll being gone through with. Mr. Cessna moved that the consideration of the contested seats should be proceeded with in open Convention, and in the regular order of the districts. Mr. Leech moved to refer the contested seats to a committee of nine. Mr. Cessna objected, saying that he desired the appointment of no committee. The contests must come before the Convention at last, and the Convention could settle them at once in much less time, and with less trouble. Mr. Leech withdrew his amendment, and

Mr. Cessna's motion was agreed to. The contested seat in the Senatorial District composed of Erie and Crawford counties was the first in order. D. V. Derrickson, of Crawford, is the returned delegate, and the con-testant is Wilson Laird. The latter made a statement of the grounds on which he claime the seat.

Mr. Derrickson followed, controverting the claims of the contestant. Mr. Galbraith, Representative Delegate rom Erie county, made a statement of the facts of the case in favor of Mr. Derrickson On motion, the Convention declared Mr Derrickson entitled to the seat. In the case of the First Representative District, Philadelphia, the contestants, Messrs. Thomas Jones and Charles M. Leisenring, vere each allowed ten minutes The statements made were contradictory and gave rise to much excitement. The ten-minute rule was rescinded Mr. Leech moved that Mr. Leisenring admitted to a seat.

A motion to amend, by admitting Mr. Jones was lost, and Mr. Leisenring was declared entitled to the seat. Mr. McFillan withdrew from the contest in the Third Representative District, and Mr. McGrath was admitted. The Convention then adjourned till 3 o'clock. AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled at 3 o'clock, M., and was called to order by the Chair

The Chairman said that he had prepared and would announce to the Convention the committee on permanent officers. Fifty delegates jumped to their feet at this innouncement, protesting against any such ction, and declaring that no motion had been carried conferring on the Chairman any such ower or authority. A scene of onfusion prevailed. Some degree of order having been restored,

Mr. Vanzant moved that a committee of one from each Senatorial District be appointed to choose a committee on permanent officers.

The Chairman ruled this motion out of order, the first question being to hear and settle the remaining cases of contested seats.

The consideration of the contested seate was then resumed, and the contest in the Fifth Representative District, Philadelphia, came up.

Mr. Samuel J. Randall presented the certificate of his election, which was read.

Mr. James F. Johnston also presented certificate declaring him to be elected, which

Mr. Randall then advocated his right to the seat, stating his version of the facts in the

He made an able and effective speech Mr. Johnston, in turn, addressed the vention in behalf of his claims, stating the facts as he understood them. His speech was ble and elicited applause from his friends. A vote was finally taken to decide the question, which resulted in Mr. Randall being eclared entitled to the seat. The vote stoo

On motion, the remaining contested seats two in number, from the Seventh Represents tive District, and the Clearfield District, were submitted to a special committee of five. The Chair appointed Isaac Leech, John Jessna, J. K. Calhoun, Edward Campbell and

Mr. J. F. Means, of Bradford, moved tha committee, equal in number to the State Senators, he appointed by the Chair, to select the permanent officers of the Convention. Mr. Haldeman, of Dauphin, moved to amend so that the Convention should proceed vote viva voce for President. Mr. Cessna, of Bedford, moved to amend the amendment, by the committee being choses by the Representatives from the various Senatorial districts. Subsequently Mr. Cessn moved to lay the whole question on the table till all the contested seats were settled.

Mr. Montgomery, of Washington, addresse

the Convention, advocating the election of al

the officers in open Convention. Mr. Haldeman spoke in favor of his motion He referred to the feeling of disapprobation expressed on Mr. Johnston's ejection from Convention, saying that if he had known it would excite such feeling he would have This was received with loud applause and huzzas for Johnston. Mr. Cessna, in a warm and animated speech advocated his motion.

Mr. Plumer, of Venango, advocated the appointment of the committee by the Chair. Mr. Gibson, of Allegheny, moved a post-Mr. Schell, of Bedford, spoke vehemently Representative and Senatorial Delegates. Mr. Baer, of Somerset, made an animated Mr. E. Campbell, of Allegheny, wanted the contested seats settled, and then the vote for fficers could be taken viva voce.

against the appointment of the committee by the Chair, but in favor of the selection by the

Mr. Welsh, of York, favored a vote in open Mr. Means withdrew his motion, and all three propositions, offered as substitutes, fell. Mr. Cessna moved that a vote be taken viva voce for President, and the Chair appoint a ommittee of thirty-three members, to choose the other officers. Agreed to.

Mr. Cessna then nominated Thomas

Cunningham, of Beaver county, for President

Mr. Leech nominated Mr. Wm. H. Welsh, of York county.

The Convention then proceeded to a vote, and Mr. Welsh was elected on the first ballot. On motion, the Convention then took Chairman an opportunity to prepare the committee to select the other officers. On reassembling the Chair announced the committee on other officers as follows:

Committee on other omcers as 30010WB:

-Messrs. O. P. James, George Scholl, W. J. Baer, Z. K.
Heindel, J. H. Phillips, John Swan, Joeiah Cole, A. S.
Bare, W. T. McPhail, Phillip S. Gerhart, George Bowman, H. S. Mott, Vincent Phelpa, Richard Hutchins, Thomas J.
Roberts, Samuel J. Randall, Ed. McGovero, F. A. Chadwick, G. W. Kiscadden, Samuel Marshall, A. J. Deitrich
W. H. Gesmer, John F. Means, Patrick Kerr, Issac Meck
Robert Warden, J. F. Shatterly, J. M. Thompson, J. B.
Sansom, Hiram Kline, Samuel H. Shannon, N. A. Elliot and R. L. Johnston.

The Convention then adjourned till 8 o'clock The course in the evening.

EVENING SESSION.

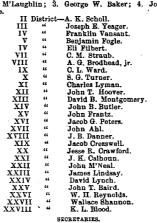

The Convention re-assembled at 8 o'clock his evening. Mr. George N. Smith, the temporary Chairman, vacated the Chair, and it was taken by Mr. Welsh, the permanent President.

Mr. Welsh addressed the Convention in a speech of some length. He thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him. and pledged himself to perform the duties o the office with fairness, strictness and impar tiality. He invoked concord, harmony and union in their deliberations, without which the proceedings would be marked with discord and disaster. The fate of the Democratic party is in the hands of the Convention, action depends the fate of the party for weal or for woe. Let all personal asperities be forgotten—all party differences banished. Let the dead bury the dead. Let all keep step to the music of the Union and the Constiution. If we fall, let us fall with the flag of our country around us, and our last expiring ry be for the Union and the Constitution. Mr. Welsh concluded his remarks amid deafening shouts of applause, which were long continued. The sketch very imperfectly onveys an idea of its beauty and effect. Mr Means from the Committee to appoint following list: I District—Phitadelphia.—1. William V. McGrath.; James M'Laughlin; 3. George W. Baker; 4. John I

additional permanent officers, reported the

T. B. Searight, Nelson Weiser, Wm. A. Galbraith, Dr. J. K. Raub, Edward Campbell, John Fullerton, S. M. Woodcock James Rex. The name of Dr. John K. RAUB is erroneously published as J. Rouch, in the newspapers generally. The Dr. was one of the active and efficient Secretaries of the Convention, and we are sorry to see any mistake The report of the committee was adopted. and the officers took their seats on the plat-

The committee on contested seats reported in favor of Robert J. Wallace, of Clearfield district, and Albert Lawrence, of the Seventh Representative district. Adopted. Mr. Vanzant moved that a committee of one rom each Congressional District be appointed o choose delegates to the Charleston Convention and Presidential Electors, from each of the said districts.

Mr. Cessna moved the postponement of the motion for the present, and supported his notion by a few remarks. Mr Arnold Plumer opposed the postpone ment and favored the appointment of delegates to the Charleston Convention and Electors by

Mr. Montgomery favored the appointment of delegates and electors by a committee of the delegates (one from each Congressional district) to this Convention, themselves directly. He regarded this as the most important question that could be presented, and should be settled first. If the candidate for Governor s selected first, the Convention may be protracted. There is a diversity of opinion on the merits of different candidates, and the contest may run into to morrow. Many of the delegates may be obliged to leave, and the most important business would then be left to a minority. He urged the immediate selection of the delegates to the National Convention. and electors by the several delegates from each Congressional district.

Mr. Cessna withdrew his motion to post-Mr. Schell, of the XIX Senatorial District. moved to amend the motion of Mr. Vanzant, that the Convention elect viva voce four Delagates to the Charleston Convention, and two Electors at large; and the delegates from each Congressional District select a delegate to the Charleston Convention, and one Elector for the said District. Mr. Searight, of Fayette, moved an amendment, that the Delegates and Electors be selected by a committee to be appointed by the Chair Mr. Schell opposed the motion warmly and earnestly.

Mr. Searight advocated his motion in an earnest speech.
Mr. Vaux, of Philadelphia, spoke at length and ably in favor of Mr. Schell's motion.

Mr. Plumer wished the delegates from each Congressional District to choose a committee consisting of one from each district, to report list of delegates to the National Convention and electors, the said list to be subject to the approval or rejection of the Convention. Mr. Haldeman favored the election of the National delegates and electors by the dele gates from each Congressional District.

Mr. Cummings, of Snyder, made an amus ing speech, convulsing the house with frequent bursts of laughter. It was not clearly understood which side he favored.

Mr. North, of Lancaster, discussed the question of the next Presidency, and expressed a preference for John C. Breckinridge. When the name of Breckinridge v tioned, it was received with thunders of

Mr. Lindsay deprecated the introduction of the Presidental question as being entirely out of place. The pending question had nothing to do with it. He was in favor of allowing the Delegates from each Congres sional District to select their own Delegate to the Charleston Convention and Presidential Electors, and opposed their appointment by The speech was followed by long and loud ries of "Question!"

cries of The President announced that the question was on the amendment of Mr. Searight, for the appointment, by the Chair, of a Committee of one from each Congressional district t elect delegates and electors. The question was then put, and the Presi lent announced that it was not agreed to.

yeas and nays, the President withdrew his lecision and ordered the veas and navs. The vote stood, yeas 40, nays 91, and the The announcement of this result elicited great applause. The question next pending was an amend-

Mr. Cummings and others demanding the ment by Mr. Schell, that the Convention elect four delegates to the Charleston Convention, and two Electors at large, and that the Delegates of each Congression select two Delegates and one Elector for Mr. Plumer moved to amend, by requiring the selections by the Delegates from the Congressional Districts, subject to the approval of the Convention. Not agreed to. Mr. Schell's amendment was then adopted and the resolution as amended agreed to, the result being received with tremendous cheering Mr Schell then moved that nominations h made for candidates for the Charleston Dele gation at large. This was agreed to, and the following named put in nomination:

John Bobbins,
Arnold Plumer, of Venango.
George W. Keim, of Berks.
H. B. Wright, of Luserns.
James Nill, of Franklin.

R. Brodhead, of Northampton

On motion, the Convention proceeded to candidates. On the first hallot 133 votes were east. Necessary to an election 67. Hon. William Bigler, Hon. John L. Dawson, Hon. William Montgon Hon. Joseph B. Baker, Hon. Joseph Randall,... Hon. Arnold Plumer, Hon. H. B. Wright, Hon. Richard Vaux, Hon. H. B. Wignin, Hon. Richard Yaux,

Hon. Richard Brodhead
Hon. John Robbins, jr.,
Hon. George M. Keim,
Hon. James Nill,
Hon. David R. Porter,

The Chair announced the following gentleen as constituting a Committee on Re tions, viz:

THURSDAY MORNING. The President called the Convention to order at 9 o'clock, and stated the first business in order to be the nomination of candidate for Electors at large. The following names were placed in nomi-

100:

Richard Vaux, Philadelphia.

H. B. Wright, Luzerne.
James F. Johnston, Philadelphia.
George M. Keim, Barks.
C. L. Ward, Bradford.
Edward Vard, Chester.
Jocob Dillinger, Lebigh.
James Campbell, Philadelphia.
Andrew Burke, Allegheny.
John Cessna, Bedford.
George W. Woodward, Luzerne.
Henry D. Foster, Westmoreland.
essrs. Ward, Campbell, Burke, Cee ell, Burke, Cessna. The vote for electors was then taken, each elegate voting for two. The result was as

On motion of Mr. Cessna, the Convention proceeded to nominate candidates for Gover

George Sanderson. John L. Dawson. Hon. Jacob Fry, jr. Fogel Gilfillan Jeremian Schindel.
Nimrod Strickland.
Col. Wm. Hopkins.
Hendrick B. Wright
A. S. Wilson.
John Cresswell.
Henry D. Foster.

Mr. Searight withdrew the name of Hon. John L. Dawson, first paying that gentleman a high compliment. The name of A. S. Wilson was also withdrawn; also, the name of Henry D. Foster.

FIRST BALLOT. Cresswell .

Foster ... 3

Messrs. Ahl, Alien, Apple, Applebaugh, George W. Baker-Barnes, Blair, Bratton, Cassin, Cossna, Chadwick, Daly-Derickson, Esser, Filbert, Fullerton, Gamble. Gerritson, Graham, Hagenman, James, Charles Johnson, Keller, Karskadden, Lawrence, Leech, Leisenring, Lynch, M'Govern, M'Laughlin, M'Neal, Magce, Marshall, Meck, Mott, Patton, Phelpe, Randall, Roberts, Sansom, Schall, Shannon, Sherman, Straub, Yaux, John Ward, Wetherill, William Wilson and Woodcock—49, voted for William H. Witte.

Messrs, Blood, Bowman, Bridgens, Cole, Danner, Dent, Feather, Frantz, Galbraith, Gerhard, Gloninger, Haldeman, Hendler, Hyde, Kerr, Kliine, Leidy, M'Grath, Mesns, Merck, Plumer, Rex, Reynolds, Rowe, Schell, Francis Smith, Vansant, Christopher L. Ward, Warden and Yeager—30, voted for Jacos Fax, Ja.

rick, Plumer, Rex, Reynolds, Rowe, Schell, Francis Smith, Vansant, Christopher L. Ward, Warden and Vasger—30, voted for Jacos Far, Jr. Messrs. Lafayette Baker, A. S. Bare, Hendel, M'Phall, North, Peters, John Raukin, Raub, Roush, Wallace and Welsh—II, voted for Grosec Sannesson.

Messrs. William J. Baer, Baird, Callaban, Campbell, Cunningham, Lindsay, David B. Montgomery, William Montgomery, Phillips, Purman. Searight, Shreiner and Shutterly—13, voted for WILLIAM HOFEINS.

Messrs. Brodhead, Dietrich, Elliott, Hamlin, Hutchins, Lyman, Osterhout, Patterson, Daviel Rankin, Swan, Turner and Woodward—I2, voted for HENDRICK B. WRIGHT.

Messrs. Evans, Gesner, Gibson, Gilfillan, Hoover, Maitland and Scholl—7, voted for Nimedo Strickland. Crawford, Cresswell, Robert L. Johnson and G.

Messrs. Schindel, Foster and Cresswell were vithdrawn.

Messrs, Ahi, Allen, Apple, Applebaugh, Geo. W. Baker, aird, Barnes, Blair, Bratton, Cassin, Cessna, Chadwick, resswell, Daly, Derickson, Elliott, Eszer, Filbert, Fogel, ullerton, Gamble, Gerritson, Graham, Hagenman, Hamlin, James, Charles Johnson, Keller, Karskadden, Lawrence, Leech, Leisenring, Lyman, Lynch, Mfovern, Milaughlin, M'Neal, Magee, Marshall, Meck, Mott, Patton, Phelps, Randall, Roberts, Sansom, Schall, Shannon, Sherman, Stein, Straub, Vaux, John Ward, Wetherill, Wiser and Woodcock—56, voted for William H. Wiffe.

Messrs. William J. Baer, Blood, Bowman, Bridgens, Brodhead, Cole, Danner, Dent, Dietrich, Feather, Frantz, Galbraith, Gerhard, Gloninger. Haldeman, Hendel, Hondler, Hyde, Kerr, Kline, Leidy, M'Grath. Means, Merrick, Plumer, Rex, Peprolds, Rowe, Schell, Francis Smith, Vansant, C. L. Ward, Warden, William Wilson and Yeager—35, voted for Jacob Fax, Ja.

Messrs. Lafayette Baker, A. S. Bare, Crawford, Hoover, McPhail, North, Peters, John Rankin, Raub, Roush and Welsh—11, voted for George Sanderson.

Messrs. Callaban, Campbell, Cunningham, Lindsay, David B. Montgomery, William Montgomery, Purman, Searight, Shreiner and Shutterly—10, voted for William Horkins.

HOPKINS.

MESSIR. Calhoun, Cummings, Gibson, Robert L. Johnson,
Patterson, Phillips, Swan, G. Nelson Smith, Thomson,
Wallace and Clark Wilson—11, voted for HERRY D. FOSTER.
Messrs. Hutchins, Osterhout, Daniel Rankin, Turner and

Mr. Johnston, of Cambria, advocated the claims of Henry D. Foster to a nomination, and suggested that his friends insist upon the use of his name, although he had decline

THIRD BALLOT.

Wright

Messrs Ahi, Allen, Apple, Applebaugh, Geo. W. Bakers Barnes, Blair, Bratton, Baird, Cassin, Cessna, Chadwick, Cresswell, Daly, Derickson, Dietrich, Kiliott, Fogel, Fullerton, Gamble, Graham, Hagenman, Hamlin, James, Charles Johnson, Keller, Karkekadden, Lawrence, Leech, Leisenring, Lyman, Lynch, M'Govern, M'Laugh in, M'Neal, Miggee, Marshall, Meck, David B. Montgomery, Mott, Phelps, Randali, Eoberts, Scholl, Shannon, Sherman, Stein, Straub, Vaux, John Ward, Wetherill, Wiser and Woodcock—54, voted for William H. Wirtz.
Messrs, Blood, Bowman, Bridgens, Brodhead, Cole, Danner, Dent, Feather, Frants, Galbraith, Gerhard, Gloninger, Haldeman, Hendel, Hendler, Hyde, Kerr, Kline, Leddy, M'Grath, Mesans, Morrick, Plomer, Rex, Rowe, Francis Smith, Vanssat, Ct. Lward, William Wilson and Yeager—30, voted for Jacob Fer, Ja.
Messrs, William J. Baer, Lafsyette Baker, Calhoun, Crawford, Cummings, Esser, Filbert, Gibson, Hoover, Robert L. Johnson, Patterson, Patton, Phillips, Reynolds, Roush, Sansom, Searight, Schall, G. Nelson Smith, Swan, Thomson, Wallace, Warden and Clark Wilson—24, voted for Henst D. Foster.

Messrs. A. S. Bare, M'Phall, North, Peters, John Rankin,

D. Foster.
Messrs. A. S. Bare, M'Phail, North, Peters, John Rankin, kaub and Welsh—7, voted for George Samderson.
Messrs. Callahan, Campbell, Cunningham, Lindsay, William Montgomery, Purman, Shreiner and Shutterly—1, voted for William Hopkins.
Messrs. Hutchins, Osterhout, Daniel Rankin, Schell, Uriner and Woodward—6, voted for Hendels R. Welder.
Messrs. Evans, Geener, Gilfüllan and Maitland—1, voted er Nimeob Srickkand.

Before the result of the 3d ballot was announced. Mr. Dietrich, of Lycoming, moved that Henry D Foster be declared nominated unanimously nominated, amid most deafening

Loud calls were made for Lewis C. Cassiday. of Philadelphia. His endorsement of the nomines was full and complete. Protection could alike unite on Mr. Foster. The speech of Mr. Cassiday was well received Hon. Daniel Dougherty, of Philadelphia, was called for, and responded, amid intense enthusiasm. His allusions were principally to the necessity and policy of subverting minor issues, and uniting every branch of the Democratic party in one common cause.

Hon. Wm. Montgomery was the next speaker. A more favorable nomination could not have been made, nor one better calculated to produce peace and success. Reviewing the different merits of those whose names had been offered as candidates, he boldly declared that there was not a desirable quality which they possessed that was not shared by Mr.

Foster, whose nomination would add ten thousand votes to the Democratic party.— Immense applause.]

At the conclusion of the speech of the Hon. gentleman it was moved and agreed to that when the Convention adjourned it do so to re-assemble at 3 o'clock, p. m.

Hon. Wm. Bigler, after returning thanks for the honor conferred upon him, by the appointment of representative to the Charleson Convention, expressed his intention of aiding and supporting the nominee by every means in his power. Foster, he would dare to assert, would receive the largest Democratic vote given for ten years. Mr. B. was loudly and frequently applauded during his speech.
Ex Mayor Vaux, of Philadelphia, was called for, and expressed his gratification that the doctrine of conciliation, which he had vesterday advocated, had been acted upon. Hon. Geo. Sanderson, of Lancaster, followed on behalf of Lancaster county. He promised a cordial support to the nominee of the party. His speech was well-timed and appropriate and excited great enthusiasm in the Convention.

Ex Senator Brodhead was called for by the President. The exertions of the future should atone for the defeats of the past, he stated, and as far as it was possible, his suppor should be given to the cause.

Hon. Jacob Fry was introduced by the Pres. dent, and was greeted with tumultuous applause. Having come unexpectedly among he delegates, he could only say that he was willing to go, heart and hand, for Mr. Foster -a man to whom he rendered the cordial endorsement of being honest, faithful and competent.

Calls were repeatedly made for Mr. Witte. but that gentleman was not present. Gen. Keim was called for, and responded on ehalf of Old Berks. Adjourned until 3 o'clock, p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The Convention re-assembled at 3 o'clock, m., and was called to order by the President; when the following delegates to Charles ton were reported by the several districts: DELEGATES. William M. Riley, L. C. Cassiday Josiah Randall, C. M'Kibban.

William M. Riley, L. C. Cassiday, Josiah Randall, C. M'Kibben. Hugh Clark, John Robbins, jr. Henry M. Phillips, N. B. Browne. O. Jones, John Roberts. E. C. Evans, George M'Henry. T. H. Wilson, F. Vansant. Hiester Clymer, F. Lauer. H. B. Swarr, H. M. North. C. D. Gloninger, R. J. Haldeman. C. H. Hottenstein, F. W. Hughes. H. B. Wright, H. J. Woodward, Richard Brodhead, Asa Packer. C. L. Ward, H. A. Guernsey. H. H. Dent, John Ross. A. J. Glossbernner, John Reifsnyder. John Cessns, James Nill. A. H. Coffroth, George N. Smith. H. W. Wier, Israel Painter. John J. Shutterly, James Lindsay. Frederick Server,
William C. Patterson,
Joseph Crockett, jr..
J. G. Brenner,
J. W. Jacoby,
Charles Kelly,
O. P. James,
David Scholl J. Reckhow

10. J. A. Au, 17. J. B. Danner. 18. J. R. Crawford, 19. H. N. Lee, 20. J. B. Howell, 21. N. P. Fetterman, 22. Samuol Marshall, 23. William Book, 24. B. D. Hamilia, 25. Gaylord Church. Joseph Laubach It was announced that a Democratic mass meeting would be held in the Court House after the adjournment of the Convention. Mr. North moved that the President of the Convention act as Chairman of the State Central Committee; which was agreed to; also, that the Chairman have power to appoint the other members of the last motion was modified by Mr. Cessna, so as to give the Chairman power to appoint two members of a State Central Committee from each Senatorial district, and as many addition-

Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Harrisburg, thus modified, the resolution was agreed to. The Committee on Resolutions withdrew for a few moments to prepare theer report. Mr. Schell moved that the delegate for each county in the State appoint a member to maintain a correspondence with the State Central Committee: which was agreed to. A committee of three was appointed to wait upon, and solicit the attendance of Mr. Witte.

al members as he may deem necessary for

Mr. Witte was then introduced, and greeted with cheers. He spoke of his entire acquiescense in the will of the majority, and conceded the policy of using every possible means to harmonize the various branches of the Demoeratic party.

The conservative doctrines and influences of Pehnsylvania were alluded to.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions

it had been agreed to by every member of the The report is as follows: Resolved. That as the representatives of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania in Convention assembled, we do hereby reiterate and re-aftirm our adherence to, and unshaken confidence io, the fundamental principles of the party, as proclaimed and declared by the Baltimore Democratic Convention of 1852, at Baltimore, and that of 1855, at Cincinnati.

Resolved. That we deprecate the continued agitation of the slavery question in Congress and among the people of was offered by Mr. Cessna, who stated that Resoved, that the question of the right of the citizens, to hold his slaves in the Territories of the United States is a judicial and not a legislative question, and its decision is committed exclusively to the courts.

Resolved, That whilst it belongs to Congress to legislate and to enact laws upon all such subjects as are placed within its jurisdiction by the Constitution, and to the President to execute all the laws and decrees of the different departments of government, it belongs to the judiciary to interpret all such laws, and to determine all controversies in law and equity arising under the Constitution and laws, and upon all such questions their decision must be final and conclusive. When once made, such decision should receive cheerful and hearty obedience from every citizen, without regard to his own individual views upon the subject. Any other course of action would lead to anarchy and confusion. The remedy for any error of the court, should such occur, is the peaceful one provided by the Constitution and laws, and not by an appeal to the "higher law" of individual opinions.

Resolved, That the doctrine of an "irrepressible conflict" between the North and South, as proclaimed by the champion of the Republican party, is franght with danger to the best interests and dearest rights of the people of this confederacy.

Resolved, That the union of these States is above and to the best interests and users and the confederacy.

Resolved, That the union of these states is above and beyond all price, and that it is the duty of every true patriot to "frown indignantly upon the first dawning of any attempt to alienate one portion of this Union from the rest." and for this reason we deprecate the attempt to form sectional parties, and will resist every effort of any such party to obtain the control of this Government, formed, as it was, for the common good of our whole unanimously nominated, amid most deafening cheers.

Mr. Ossana expressed his adherence to the choice of the Convention in a few pertinent remarks.

A committee was appointed to inform Hon.
Mr. Foster, of his nomination.

At the request of the delegates, the roll was called, and the vote was unanimous in favor of Mr. Foster, he having received 133 votes.

In the name of the united Democracy of Pennsylvania, Mr. Foster was hailed with three deafening cheers as the next Governor of Pennsylvania, Mr. Foster was hailed with three deafening cheers as the next Governor of Pennsylvania had been candidates to address the Convention.

Hon. John L. Dawson was introduced, and gave the nomination his hearty endorsement. It was giving but justice to the West. He alluded to the task devolving upon the Democratic party in the coming contest, of disabusing the public mind of the fanaticisms which had been inculcated by opposing parties, and drew a vivid picture of the dangerous tendencies of the dectrines of the Republicans. Amid the storm, the conservative citizens of Pennsylvania had stood firm and faithful to the Union.

During the progress of the speech of the gentleman, the Keystone Club marched into the Hall.

The Chairman announced the following committee to inform Mr. Foster of his nomination:—Messrs. Sansom, Leech, Dietrich, Calhoun and North.

Three cheers were given, on motion of Mr. Blood, for the Keystone Club marched into the Hall attended by music. The nomination of Mr. Foster were given, on motion of Mr. Blood, for the Keystone Club of Philadelphia.

The compliment was returned by Col. Byerly, who proposed nine obsers for the nominees for Governor; which were given accordingly.

Loud calls were made for Lewis C. Cassiday, of Philadelphia. His endorsement of the committee of the decarring of the view of President undication of the supplies of the State Septiation of the State Septiation of the Republicania of the State Septiation of the State Septiation of the State Septiation of the State Septiation of the State

Westmoreland, wholly unsought on his part, and in view of the many other auspicious and cheering circumstances under which it was made, as well as of his own unsullied ed, That the nomination of HENRY D. FOSTER, of