ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENCE. Democratic State Convention—Immense Delegate every County—Hotels Jammed at Jefferson City ati Platform—The Two Third Rule—A lissouri—Business of the ST. LOUIS, April 8, 1860. We write our letter one day in advance, as the Demo cratic State Convention meets at Jefferson City to morrow, and we leave on the train this morning. For the past the or four days our city has been almost overrun with dele gates and others en route for the Convention. Every boat and every train of cars that arrive have more or less Democracy on board, destined for Jefferson City. Disnatches from there vesterday apprise us that every hotel and boarding house is jammed as well as many of the private houses, and yet not one half of the delegates have rived. This will be, beyond doubt, the largest politica body ever assembled in this State. As far as we are able to learn, every county in the State will be fully represented.

There is no hall in Jefferson City capable of holding the lelegates, and in all probability the Convention will have be held out of doors. The delegates to Charleston, we think, will be uninstructed, but if instructed. Dickinson ridge; whilst Judge Douglas will have many friends in the we have conversed, they cordially accept John C. Breckinridge as their second choice, and indeed, many prefer him to all others yet named in connection with the Charleston

The eyes of the whole nation are now beginning to turn to Charleston. The Democracy which is to assemble there on the 23rd of the present month, hold in their hands the destiny of the great Democratic party of the country. It is important that they should act in union and harmony one wrong step may cause the defeat and overthrow of the party of the people—the only national and conservative party now in existence. To re-affirm the Baltimore and Cincinnati platform, without subtracting a single word, or adding one thereto, will ensure the triumph of the Dem cratic nominees in November next. We have fought under that banner in 1852 and 1856, and if we again unfurl it to the breeze a glorious victory will again crown the Democ racy. The two third rule has long been the usage of the Democratic party in the National Conventions, and has always worked admirably, and it would be suicidal to arrest. crat will ever insist upon abandoning the two third rule The friend of any man, now aspiring for the nomination that broaches such a proposition before the Charleston Convention, will so thoroughly kill his first choice, that no future Convention will ever breath life into him again. That this will be attempted is pretty certain, but rest assured, it will be the last political stroke of the delegate that proposes it.

There probably has been no man less spoken of for the Presidency, than John C. Breckinridge, yet he is to-day the strongest man before the country, and the proceedings of the Charleston Convention will attest that fact. Ask a friend of Judge Douglas, of Dickinson, Guthrie, Johnson, Slidell, Jeff. Davis, Hunter, Wise, Stephens, Cobb, or any other, and the answer is that John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, is his second choice; and with these facts before you, is it possible for any other man to be nominated. Let the Charleston Convention nominate John C. Breckinridge, and there will be no wounds to heal, no divisions, no boltever claimed to be a Democrat will refuse to support Mr gerated. be half fought by Breckinridge being the standard bearer. Own. The South, in many States, have not instructed their date gates, but nevertheless think she is entitled to the candidate this time, but do not wish to force Mr. Brackingidge therefore do not insist on the man, as some of the free and honestly nominated under the two-third rule. We are therefore glad to know that Pennsylvania will propose a southern man for the nomination, and Pennsylvania's man will find strong backing from a quarter that has been perfectly quiet-until the time to strike the blow. We presume there will be 200 or 300 of our citizens visit Charleston, whilst different parts of the State will turn out a goodly number. By a letter received from Mr. A. J. Hughes, formerly of IMPORTANT ARRESTS-BURGLARS IN LAUDE Officer Becker returned to our city last Thursday, from Philadelphia, having in custody three negroes named Tom Dorsey, Peter Smith and Henry Cornish, alleged to b implicated in the robbery of Dingelspiel's lothing store, Bellman's shoe store, and Wiler's dry good store, in our city, some few months ago. This important arrest was brought about through information furnished officer Becker by a negro named Tom Bennet, who revealed the fact that Dorsey was in possession of a lot of new wearing apparel. which could be secured by searching house. As Dorsey had long been under the ban of the police, the officer at once conclu ded that the aforesaid "wearing apparel could have been gathered together in no other way than by Dorsey's nocturnal operations at Dingelspiel's clothing store. Accordingly a warrant was secured, and the officer proceede to Dorsey's residence, where he was informed that that individual in company with others had left suddenly for Philadelphia, taking with them more than an ordinary share of baggage. Thir circumstance confirmed the officer's suspicions, and after having procured the necessary documents he proceed Quaker city last Sunday morning. Here he enlisted the services of the efficient detectives, and in a comparatively short space of time the fugitive Dorsey, with his "pals," Cornish and Smith, were arrested and safely lodged in durance. THE SLIP 'TWIXT THE CUP AND BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Jimmy Dash was a dandy, too lazy to work,
And he made up his mind he would wed
With a maiden of wealth, so that he, though a gull,
On the wings of her cagler could spread.
He soliloquised thus: "There is rich Nelly Jones,
Withere is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip,'
But I'll make the fair Nelly my wife."
She celled on her children self-and the lip,' So he called on her father, residing near by,
Whom he found o'er a bottle of wine,
And as Nelly was present, to Tommy he sald;
"Does your heart to my daughter incline?"
"Yes it does?" answered Tom, and to night I'll propose,
And our vows we will breathe ere we park: And cear Nett should make sure of my heart."

Then he turned to the maiden, and said, with a smile,
As he filled up a goblet with wine—

"I shall ever imbibe from the chalice of bliss,
For thy love, dearest Nell, makes thee mine,
I will taste of my wine, then I'il taste of your lips;"
But, alas, for his hopes! Nelly said:

"There is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip,'"
And she slipped from the room to her bed!

NOTE.-NOTE.—
"There is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip,"
Such a slip as may lead to a fall;
But there's never a rip 'twixt the head and the hip,
In the coats from the great Tower Hall.
There is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip,
When the slip, of the cup is the fruit;
But there's never a thread 'twixt the heels and the head,
That will start in a Tower Hall suit. Then, eschewing the cup, which may throw your heels up, With a slip 'twizt itself and your lips; if you buy garments all, at the great Tower Hall, You'll avoid both the slips and the rips.

AADDNING A WHILL OF Palls.

Scrofula, or King's Evil. is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, flith and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul cor-ruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to with-stand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which de-cimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

It is con where prevailing and fatal malady. It is con-bined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DIS-BASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIA-Indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITA-TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsapa-rilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contanuinated constitutions.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON. — Dear Sires.

Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation, — Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, — it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and hittle hopes of her recovery vere entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition, because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry oftent throughout the country.

37 Beware of vile and worthless counterficits! The only Genuine, Purc, and Medicinal Balsam has the name of "I. BUTTS" written with a pen, and the printed name of the proprietors, "S. W. FOWLE & Co.," on the outer wrapper.
